

Insurance. FIRE, MARINE AND RIVER. THE GREAT SOUTHERN AND WESTERN FIRE, MARINE AND ACCIDENT INSURANCE COMPANY.

NEW ORLEANS DAILY CRESCENT

VOLUME XVI. MONDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 22, 1866--TRIPLE SHEET. NUMBER 59.

New Orleans Daily Crescent. OFFICIAL JOURNAL OF THE STATE OF LOUISIANA.

MONDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 22, 1866. Local Intelligence.

It has come. For some weeks the people of New Orleans have been in the enjoyment of clear skies and a pleasant temperature.

The prayers for rain were numerous, and have been heard. Last evening there was a gentle drizzle, falling from a sky promising a more copious pluvial descent.

How suggestive are these weather wishes. While the whirlwind is being topped off its dusty flights, and thirsty cisterns are being filled in the city, and grateful acknowledgments are being offered to the Great Ruler for his blessings.

Napoleon, in his days of scepticism, said that all religions bore the impress of man's hand. If it could be supposed that the creation was a human scheme, he might, with equal reason, have said that the architect of this globe was one of Adam's kindred.

Why the providence of man, in which the world abounds? Why should he be tormented with tempests and reptiles, poisoned with vegetables and minerals, and irritated with flies and mosquitoes?

Why should he be tormented with tempests and reptiles, poisoned with vegetables and minerals, and irritated with flies and mosquitoes?

Why should he be tormented with tempests and reptiles, poisoned with vegetables and minerals, and irritated with flies and mosquitoes?

Why should he be tormented with tempests and reptiles, poisoned with vegetables and minerals, and irritated with flies and mosquitoes?

Why should he be tormented with tempests and reptiles, poisoned with vegetables and minerals, and irritated with flies and mosquitoes?

Why should he be tormented with tempests and reptiles, poisoned with vegetables and minerals, and irritated with flies and mosquitoes?

Why should he be tormented with tempests and reptiles, poisoned with vegetables and minerals, and irritated with flies and mosquitoes?

Why should he be tormented with tempests and reptiles, poisoned with vegetables and minerals, and irritated with flies and mosquitoes?

Why should he be tormented with tempests and reptiles, poisoned with vegetables and minerals, and irritated with flies and mosquitoes?

Why should he be tormented with tempests and reptiles, poisoned with vegetables and minerals, and irritated with flies and mosquitoes?

Why should he be tormented with tempests and reptiles, poisoned with vegetables and minerals, and irritated with flies and mosquitoes?

Why should he be tormented with tempests and reptiles, poisoned with vegetables and minerals, and irritated with flies and mosquitoes?

Why should he be tormented with tempests and reptiles, poisoned with vegetables and minerals, and irritated with flies and mosquitoes?

Why should he be tormented with tempests and reptiles, poisoned with vegetables and minerals, and irritated with flies and mosquitoes?

Why should he be tormented with tempests and reptiles, poisoned with vegetables and minerals, and irritated with flies and mosquitoes?

which the tenor predominated, which would have produced an effect before any auditorium. Meanwhile the Tummers were exhibiting that skillful training which made many of their feats appear as remarkable as those we witness upon the arena.

The president of the United Society, Mr. Charles Brock, was also one of the day, and in his remarks the speaker paid a well deserved tribute to the industry of the German population in this city.

Some two thousand visitors were assembled upon the grounds up to 5 o'clock in the afternoon, and every car which came from the city was continuing to bring dead loads of passengers.

The season in which they were gathered up to the ends of skirts, a fresh hold was taken upon partners' waists, and the waltzer was allowed to do its worst.

The season in which they were gathered up to the ends of skirts, a fresh hold was taken upon partners' waists, and the waltzer was allowed to do its worst.

The season in which they were gathered up to the ends of skirts, a fresh hold was taken upon partners' waists, and the waltzer was allowed to do its worst.

The season in which they were gathered up to the ends of skirts, a fresh hold was taken upon partners' waists, and the waltzer was allowed to do its worst.

The season in which they were gathered up to the ends of skirts, a fresh hold was taken upon partners' waists, and the waltzer was allowed to do its worst.

The season in which they were gathered up to the ends of skirts, a fresh hold was taken upon partners' waists, and the waltzer was allowed to do its worst.

The season in which they were gathered up to the ends of skirts, a fresh hold was taken upon partners' waists, and the waltzer was allowed to do its worst.

The season in which they were gathered up to the ends of skirts, a fresh hold was taken upon partners' waists, and the waltzer was allowed to do its worst.

The season in which they were gathered up to the ends of skirts, a fresh hold was taken upon partners' waists, and the waltzer was allowed to do its worst.

The season in which they were gathered up to the ends of skirts, a fresh hold was taken upon partners' waists, and the waltzer was allowed to do its worst.

The season in which they were gathered up to the ends of skirts, a fresh hold was taken upon partners' waists, and the waltzer was allowed to do its worst.

The season in which they were gathered up to the ends of skirts, a fresh hold was taken upon partners' waists, and the waltzer was allowed to do its worst.

The season in which they were gathered up to the ends of skirts, a fresh hold was taken upon partners' waists, and the waltzer was allowed to do its worst.

The season in which they were gathered up to the ends of skirts, a fresh hold was taken upon partners' waists, and the waltzer was allowed to do its worst.

The season in which they were gathered up to the ends of skirts, a fresh hold was taken upon partners' waists, and the waltzer was allowed to do its worst.

The season in which they were gathered up to the ends of skirts, a fresh hold was taken upon partners' waists, and the waltzer was allowed to do its worst.

haunted all his other bachelor weapons, the bar of a revolver at his midnight distasteful. Once there was a mass meeting of cats upon his roof, and though the night was made hideous with their caterwauling, his available missiles in the shape of oilcloths, shoes, blacking brushes and empty whiskey bottles had long since been exhausted.

A succession of waltzers came along, crying the morning papers in stentorian tones. Next came the milk carts, the drivers of which are notorious for the furious speed at which they travel. Each one, at every door at which he stops, takes up and rings an enormous handbell long enough and loudly enough to awaken every sleeper on the square.

Next came the milk carts, the drivers of which are notorious for the furious speed at which they travel. Each one, at every door at which he stops, takes up and rings an enormous handbell long enough and loudly enough to awaken every sleeper on the square.

Next came the milk carts, the drivers of which are notorious for the furious speed at which they travel. Each one, at every door at which he stops, takes up and rings an enormous handbell long enough and loudly enough to awaken every sleeper on the square.

Next came the milk carts, the drivers of which are notorious for the furious speed at which they travel. Each one, at every door at which he stops, takes up and rings an enormous handbell long enough and loudly enough to awaken every sleeper on the square.

Next came the milk carts, the drivers of which are notorious for the furious speed at which they travel. Each one, at every door at which he stops, takes up and rings an enormous handbell long enough and loudly enough to awaken every sleeper on the square.

Next came the milk carts, the drivers of which are notorious for the furious speed at which they travel. Each one, at every door at which he stops, takes up and rings an enormous handbell long enough and loudly enough to awaken every sleeper on the square.

Next came the milk carts, the drivers of which are notorious for the furious speed at which they travel. Each one, at every door at which he stops, takes up and rings an enormous handbell long enough and loudly enough to awaken every sleeper on the square.

Next came the milk carts, the drivers of which are notorious for the furious speed at which they travel. Each one, at every door at which he stops, takes up and rings an enormous handbell long enough and loudly enough to awaken every sleeper on the square.

Next came the milk carts, the drivers of which are notorious for the furious speed at which they travel. Each one, at every door at which he stops, takes up and rings an enormous handbell long enough and loudly enough to awaken every sleeper on the square.

Next came the milk carts, the drivers of which are notorious for the furious speed at which they travel. Each one, at every door at which he stops, takes up and rings an enormous handbell long enough and loudly enough to awaken every sleeper on the square.

Next came the milk carts, the drivers of which are notorious for the furious speed at which they travel. Each one, at every door at which he stops, takes up and rings an enormous handbell long enough and loudly enough to awaken every sleeper on the square.

Next came the milk carts, the drivers of which are notorious for the furious speed at which they travel. Each one, at every door at which he stops, takes up and rings an enormous handbell long enough and loudly enough to awaken every sleeper on the square.

Next came the milk carts, the drivers of which are notorious for the furious speed at which they travel. Each one, at every door at which he stops, takes up and rings an enormous handbell long enough and loudly enough to awaken every sleeper on the square.

Next came the milk carts, the drivers of which are notorious for the furious speed at which they travel. Each one, at every door at which he stops, takes up and rings an enormous handbell long enough and loudly enough to awaken every sleeper on the square.

Next came the milk carts, the drivers of which are notorious for the furious speed at which they travel. Each one, at every door at which he stops, takes up and rings an enormous handbell long enough and loudly enough to awaken every sleeper on the square.

Next came the milk carts, the drivers of which are notorious for the furious speed at which they travel. Each one, at every door at which he stops, takes up and rings an enormous handbell long enough and loudly enough to awaken every sleeper on the square.

Next came the milk carts, the drivers of which are notorious for the furious speed at which they travel. Each one, at every door at which he stops, takes up and rings an enormous handbell long enough and loudly enough to awaken every sleeper on the square.

Next came the milk carts, the drivers of which are notorious for the furious speed at which they travel. Each one, at every door at which he stops, takes up and rings an enormous handbell long enough and loudly enough to awaken every sleeper on the square.

Next came the milk carts, the drivers of which are notorious for the furious speed at which they travel. Each one, at every door at which he stops, takes up and rings an enormous handbell long enough and loudly enough to awaken every sleeper on the square.

TELEGRAPHIC DISPATCHES

SPECIAL TO THE N. O. CRESCENT

Presidential Visit to the Catholic Plenary Council.

THE PRESIDENT DECLINES TO CONCENTRATE TROOPS IN BALTIMORE.

Candidates for the Louisiana U. S. Marshalship.

INTERNAL REVENUE APPOINTMENTS.

INCREASE IN ASSESSORS AND WEIGHERS OF COTTON.

ADVANTAGES PROCURED IN THE MATTER OF BONDS.

Proposed Compromise on the Baltimore Police Commissioners Question.

The Commissioners Declare their Determination to Resist the Governor.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 21.—The President went to Baltimore to-day, in response to an invitation of Roman Catholic clergy. He witnessed the closing ceremonies of the Council in Cathedral, and reached Washington on his return again at seven o'clock in the evening.

Governor Swann failed yesterday to secure the President's consent to the concentration of troops in Baltimore.

Messrs. Smith and McKee are candidates for the marshalship in Louisiana, in case of Mr. Inghitt's removal. Several Southerners are also of the office, but the President is inclined to retain the present incumbent.

The late internal revenue appointments in Louisiana have been temporarily suspended until the President can be assured of the political status of the present officials.

The Southern delegations now in this city for the purpose of obtaining a modification of the existing cotton regulations, have succeeded in securing an increase of assessors and weighers. They have also obtained some advantages in the matter of bonds.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 21.—President Johnson visited this city to-day in acceptance of an invitation from the Young Catholic Friends' Society, to be present at the closing session of the plenary council. He was accompanied by Mrs. Patterson.

With regard to a compromise in the matter of Baltimore, it is understood that the President has declined to accept the proposition.

Several Southerners are also of the office, but the President is inclined to retain the present incumbent.

The late internal revenue appointments in Louisiana have been temporarily suspended until the President can be assured of the political status of the present officials.

The Southern delegations now in this city for the purpose of obtaining a modification of the existing cotton regulations, have succeeded in securing an increase of assessors and weighers.

They have also obtained some advantages in the matter of bonds.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 21.—President Johnson visited this city to-day in acceptance of an invitation from the Young Catholic Friends' Society, to be present at the closing session of the plenary council.

He was accompanied by Mrs. Patterson.

With regard to a compromise in the matter of Baltimore, it is understood that the President has declined to accept the proposition.

Several Southerners are also of the office, but the President is inclined to retain the present incumbent.

The late internal revenue appointments in Louisiana have been temporarily suspended until the President can be assured of the political status of the present officials.

The Southern delegations now in this city for the purpose of obtaining a modification of the existing cotton regulations, have succeeded in securing an increase of assessors and weighers.

They have also obtained some advantages in the matter of bonds.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 21.—President Johnson visited this city to-day in acceptance of an invitation from the Young Catholic Friends' Society, to be present at the closing session of the plenary council.

He was accompanied by Mrs. Patterson.

With regard to a compromise in the matter of Baltimore, it is understood that the President has declined to accept the proposition.

Several Southerners are also of the office, but the President is inclined to retain the present incumbent.

The late internal revenue appointments in Louisiana have been temporarily suspended until the President can be assured of the political status of the present officials.

The Southern delegations now in this city for the purpose of obtaining a modification of the existing cotton regulations, have succeeded in securing an increase of assessors and weighers.

They have also obtained some advantages in the matter of bonds.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 21.—President Johnson visited this city to-day in acceptance of an invitation from the Young Catholic Friends' Society, to be present at the closing session of the plenary council.

He was accompanied by Mrs. Patterson.

With regard to a compromise in the matter of Baltimore, it is understood that the President has declined to accept the proposition.

Several Southerners are also of the office, but the President is inclined to retain the present incumbent.

The late internal revenue appointments in Louisiana have been temporarily suspended until the President can be assured of the political status of the present officials.

The Southern delegations now in this city for the purpose of obtaining a modification of the existing cotton regulations, have succeeded in securing an increase of assessors and weighers.

They have also obtained some advantages in the matter of bonds.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 21.—President Johnson visited this city to-day in acceptance of an invitation from the Young Catholic Friends' Society, to be present at the closing session of the plenary council.

He was accompanied by Mrs. Patterson.

TURKEY.—Apprehensions are entertained of a rising in Thessaly and Epirus.

HANOVER.—The patent annexing Hanover to Prussia was promulgated in Hanover on the 6th of October.

Adjustment of Military and Civil Difficulties in Georgia.

ARRANGEMENTS OF MORE FENIANS IN CANADA.

INTERESTING GENERAL INTELLIGENCE.

SHIPPING, RIVER NEWS, ETC.

AGUSTA, GA., Oct. 21.—At a preliminary examination before the judge of the county court, a freedman in Columbia county, was discharged, and one John Porcia was committed to await a trial upon the charge of murder at the next term of the Supreme Court.

The conflict in Perry county between the civil and military authorities is adjusted.

Gen. Tison has ordered the prisoners in Fort Perry, charged with offenses against freedom, to be delivered up to the civil courts, the people pledging themselves to protect the freedmen in their rights.

A notice from the executive department states that all bonds and coupons of Georgia now due, not issued in aid of the late war, can be funded in mortgage bonds of the State, bearing 7 per cent. interest from the 1st of July, 1866.

Coupons payable in New York or London can be funded in State bonds at the Bank of the Republic, New York.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 21.—The police commissioners have been in consultation with their counsel and prominent citizens. It is understood that the commissioners will not appear in person before the governor to-morrow but will, through their counsel, file a response denying the power of the governor to try the charges but at the same time declaring their readiness to meet the accusations before any court of competent jurisdiction.

The commissioners have not yet determined their proposition looking to any compromise, but declared their determination to resist any encroachment upon their functions.

The President after attending the cathedral service, dined at the Entaw House with Mayor Wallace, who accompanied him to this city, returned to Washington at four o'clock.

New York, Oct. 21.—The steamer Ocean Queen was on her way to-day, and will leave for New York from Aspinwall on the 1st instant, has arrived.

TAMPA, Oct. 20.—Several more Florida prisoners were assigned to-day, one of whom had been sentenced to a term of imprisonment for the purpose of obtaining a modification of the existing cotton regulations, have succeeded in securing an increase of assessors and weighers.

They have also obtained some advantages in the matter of bonds.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 21.—President Johnson visited this city to-day in acceptance of an invitation from the Young Catholic Friends' Society, to be present at the closing session of the plenary council.

He was accompanied by Mrs. Patterson.

With regard to a compromise in the matter of Baltimore, it is understood that the President has declined to accept the proposition.

Several Southerners are also of the office, but the President is inclined to retain the present incumbent.

The late internal revenue appointments in Louisiana have been temporarily suspended until the President can be assured of the political status of the present officials.

The Southern delegations now in this city for the purpose of obtaining a modification of the existing cotton regulations, have succeeded in securing an increase of assessors and weighers.

They have also obtained some advantages in the matter of bonds.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 21.—President Johnson visited this city to-day in acceptance of an invitation from the Young Catholic Friends' Society, to be present at the closing session of the plenary council.

He was accompanied by Mrs. Patterson.

With regard to a compromise in the matter of Baltimore, it is understood that the President has declined to accept the proposition.

Several Southerners are also of the office, but the President is inclined to retain the present incumbent.

The late internal revenue appointments in Louisiana have been temporarily suspended until the President can be assured of the political status of the present officials.

The Southern delegations now in this city for the purpose of obtaining a modification of the existing cotton regulations, have succeeded in securing an increase of assessors and weighers.

They have also obtained some advantages in the matter of bonds.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 21.—President Johnson visited this city to-day in acceptance of an invitation from the Young Catholic Friends' Society, to be present at the closing session of the plenary council.

He was accompanied by Mrs. Patterson.

With regard to a compromise in the matter of Baltimore, it is understood that the President has declined to accept the proposition.

Several Southerners are also of the office, but the President is inclined to retain the present incumbent.

The late internal revenue appointments in Louisiana have been temporarily suspended until the President can be assured of the political status of the present officials.

The Southern delegations now in this city for the purpose of obtaining a modification of the existing cotton regulations, have succeeded in securing an increase of assessors and weighers.

They have also obtained some advantages in the matter of bonds.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 21.—President Johnson visited this city to-day in acceptance of an invitation from the Young Catholic Friends' Society, to be present at the closing session of the plenary council.

He was accompanied by Mrs. Patterson.

With regard to a compromise in the matter of Baltimore, it is understood that the President has declined to accept the proposition.

Several Southerners are also of the office, but the President is inclined to retain the present incumbent.

The late internal revenue appointments in Louisiana have been temporarily suspended until the President can be assured of the political status of the present officials.

The Southern delegations now in this city for the purpose of obtaining a modification of the existing cotton regulations, have succeeded in securing an increase of assessors and weighers.

This was done by order of Major General Thomas. This is the last court of yesterday's session in the trial of officers and others, connected with the volunteer service, has been held. The adjutant general of the court repair home and repair to the secretary of war, for master out service.

Judge J. A. Coville, Samuel J. Toms, formerly captain of an Illinois regiment, was a lieutenant in the 17th U. S. Infantry, reported to Gen. Thomas as "a Boy in Blue" and a member of the 1st Cavalry, and passed resolutions to stand by the Police Commission, and offered their services to aid the commissioners should they need assistance. It is not known what response the commissioners will make to the summons of the governor.

Queen, Oct. 20.—The continued fine weather is a great blessing to the agriculturists of this city. Owing to the fine weather, it is understood that the citizens are arranging to form a militia for the protection of the governor.

New York, Oct. 20.—The Herald's Ottawa special agent, who is reported in the Herald, and the confederation and financial committee of the cabinet, are expected to visit Kingston, Jamaica, in the course of their tour.

sayas commission has arrived to try the case of the soldiers for shooting negroes without trial. Donations to the fund for the relief of the Government continued. Trade was much depressed.

Last dispatches received at the telegraph office for want of proper address: Geo. Rodrigue, Lorenzo Fletcher, care S. Wall, H. P. Brewster.

The following article from the Louisville Journal, is evidently from the pen of Mr. Fremont himself—a man whose "loyalty" in the Northern sense of the term, is unquestionable.

In the course of an interview which we had with Jeff. Davis in January, 1865, the subject of the terms of peace was discussed. Mr. Davis asked us what was the chief objection to the recognition of the Southern independence. We answered that the North perfectly well, as we have no objection to the recognition of the Southern independence, and we have no objection to the recognition of the Southern independence, and we have no objection to the recognition of the Southern independence.

Gen. Tison has ordered the prisoners in Fort Perry, charged with offenses against freedom, to be delivered up to the civil courts, the people pledging themselves to protect the freedmen in their rights.

A notice from the executive department states that all bonds and coupons of Georgia now due, not issued in aid of the late war, can be funded in mortgage bonds of the State, bearing 7 per cent. interest from the 1st of July, 1866.

Coupons payable in New York or London can be funded in State bonds at the Bank of the Republic, New York.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 21.—The police commissioners have been in consultation with their counsel and prominent citizens. It is understood that the commissioners will not appear in person before the governor to-morrow but will, through their counsel, file a response denying the power of the governor to try the charges but at the same time declaring their readiness to meet the accusations before any court of competent jurisdiction.

The commissioners have not yet determined their proposition looking to any compromise, but declared their determination to resist any encroachment upon their functions.

The President after attending the cathedral service, dined at the Entaw House with Mayor Wallace, who accompanied him to this city, returned to Washington at four o'clock.

New York, Oct. 21.—The steamer Ocean Queen was on her way to-day, and will leave for New York from Aspinwall on the 1st instant, has arrived.

TAMPA, Oct. 20.—Several more Florida prisoners were assigned to-day, one of whom had been sentenced to a term of imprisonment for the purpose of obtaining a modification of the existing cotton regulations, have succeeded in securing an increase of assessors and weighers.

They have also obtained some advantages in the matter of bonds.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 21.—President Johnson visited this city to-day in acceptance of an invitation from the Young Catholic Friends' Society, to be present at the closing session of the plenary council.

He was accompanied by Mrs. Patterson.

With regard to a compromise in the matter of Baltimore, it is understood that the President has declined to accept the proposition.

Several Southerners are also of the office, but the President is inclined to retain the present incumbent.

The late internal revenue appointments in Louisiana have been temporarily suspended until the President can be assured of the political status of the present officials.

The Southern delegations now in this city for the purpose of obtaining a modification of the existing cotton regulations, have succeeded in securing an increase of assessors and weighers.

They have also obtained some advantages in the matter of bonds.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 21.—President Johnson visited this city to-day in acceptance of an invitation from the Young Catholic Friends' Society, to be present at the closing session of the plenary council.

He was accompanied by Mrs. Patterson.

With regard to a compromise in the matter of Baltimore, it is understood that the President has declined to accept the proposition.

Several Southerners are also of the office, but the President is inclined to retain the present incumbent.

The late internal revenue appointments in Louisiana have been temporarily suspended until the President can be assured of the political status of the present officials.

The Southern delegations now in this city for the purpose of obtaining a modification of the existing cotton regulations, have succeeded in securing an increase of assessors and weighers.

They have also obtained some advantages in the matter of bonds.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 21.—President Johnson visited this city to-day in acceptance of an invitation from the Young Catholic Friends' Society, to be present at the closing session of the plenary council.

He was accompanied by Mrs. Patterson.

With regard to a compromise in the matter of Baltimore, it is understood that the President has declined to accept the proposition.

Several Southerners are also of the office, but the President is inclined to retain the present incumbent.

The late internal revenue appointments in Louisiana have been temporarily suspended until the President can be assured of the political status of the present officials.

The Southern delegations now in this city for the purpose of obtaining a modification of the existing cotton regulations, have succeeded in securing an increase of assessors and weighers.

They have also obtained some advantages in the matter of bonds.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 21.—President Johnson visited this city to-day in acceptance of an invitation from the Young Catholic Friends' Society, to be present at the closing session of the plenary council.

He was accompanied by Mrs. Patterson.