

NERVOUS AND DEBILITATED
Sufferings Have Been Protracted

HIDDEN CAUSES,
Whose Cases Require Prompt Treatment

RENDER EXISTENCE DESIRABLE.

If you are suffering or have suffered from febrile discharges, what effect does it produce upon your general health? Do you feel weak, debilitated, easily tired? Does a little extra exertion produce palpitation of the heart? Does your liver, or urinary organs, or your kidneys, frequently get out of order? Is your urine sometimes thick, milky, or sticky, or is itropy on settling? Or does a thick scum rise to the top? Or is a sediment at the bottom after it has stood awhile? Do you have spells of short breathing or dyspnoea? Are your bowels constipated? Do you have spells of fainting or rashes of blood to the head? Is your memory impaired? Do your mind constantly dwell upon this subject? Do you feel dull, listless, mooping, tired of company, or life? Do you wish to be left alone, to get away from everybody? Do you wish little things make you start or jump? Is your sleep broken or restless? Is the lustre of your eye as brilliant? The bloom on your cheek as bright? Do you enjoy yourself in society as well? Do you pursue your business with the same energy? Do you feel as much confidence in yourself? Are your spirits dull and flagging, given to fits of melancholy? If so, do not try to live your liver or dyspepsia. Have your restless nights? Your back weak, your knees weak, and have you but little appetite, and you attribute this to dyspepsia or liver complaint?

Now, reader, SELF-ABUSE, VENEREAL DISEASES, badly cured, and sexual excesses, are all capable of producing a weakness of the generative organs. The organs of generation, when in perfect health, make the man. Did you ever think that those bald, defenceless, persevering, successful business men are always those whose generative organs are in perfect health? You never hear such men complain of being melancholy, of nervousness, of palpitation of the heart. They are never afraid they cannot succeed in business; they don't become sad and discouraged; they are always polite and pleasant in the company of ladies, and look you and them right in the face—some of your downcast looks or any other messiness about them. I do not mean those who keep the organs inflamed by running to excess. These will not only ruin their constitutions, but also those they do business with or for.

How many men from badly-cured diseases, from the effects of self-abuse and excesses, have brought about that state of weakness in those organs which has reduced the general system so much as to induce almost every other disease—dyspepsia, neuralgia, spinal affections, scurvy and almost every other form of disease which humanity is heir to, and the real cause of the trouble scarcely ever suspected, and have died for all but the right one.

Diseases of these organs require the use of a Diuretic.

THE CRESCENT'S DISPATCHES.

FROM WASHINGTON.
The Senate Military Committee Disapprove Sherman's Brevet Nomination—The Arkansas Constitution—Guthrie's Successor—Proceedings of Congress—Chicago Meeting—The Admission of Members to Congress—The Division of Texas—The Alabama Admission Bill to be Opposed by Republican Members Receipts.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 18.—The Senate military committee passed a resolution respectfully returning Sherman's brevet nomination with disapproval of the proposed grade.

Arkansas will vote five days upon the adoption of the new Constitution, commencing March 15th.

The Kentucky legislature will elect Guthrie's successor to-day. Dr. N. Green, prominent in congressional matters, is among the favored candidates.

It is understood that up to a late hour last night the president had received no communication from Gen. Sherman, regarding his nomination as brevet general or assignment to the command of the Department of the Atlantic.

House.—Butler introduced a bill relative to national banks. Referred to the committee on banking and currency. It provides, among other things, that every stockholder may vote according to the number of shares he holds, in the following proportions: For one share, one vote; for every additional share, one vote more; but no stockholder shall have more than twenty votes. Absent stockholders may vote by proxy, but no salary officer of the bank shall vote as proxy. No officer shall, as proxy, cast more than ten votes, and no person, as proxy, shall cast more than fifty votes.

A bill appropriating $50,000, to be expended by the secretary of state, to relieve and bring home expatriated citizens, abroad who have been arrested and subsequently released, passed by 114 to 29.

The president was called on for a report relative to the ship canal around the Ohio falls at Louisville.

A bill was introduced, increasing revolutionary and war of 1812 pensions. It appropriates $2,000,000. Washburne, of Illinois, opposed the bill, contending that $172,000,000 would be expended under its operation. Bill passed.

House then went into committee of the whole on appropriations.

Adjourned.

A joint resolution was introduced to print a medical and surgical history of the rebellion.

The House resolution reducing the expenses of the war department passed.

A bill for the gradual reduction of the army and the abolition of useless grades therein passed.

Senator Thomas's case was resumed and discussion of the general reduction of the army and the abolition of useless grades therein passed.

Full cabinet meeting to-day except Stanton.

The Senate finance committee reported adversely on the House bill regulating deposits of public money.

The reconstruction committee have agreed to report a resolution allowing Butler, of Tennessee, to take his seat without taking the iron-clad oath. Brooks moved to extend the same privilege to Stevens and other members, which was rejected, only Brooks and Beck voted affirmatively.

The bill removing political disabilities will not be reported immediately. Stevens favored further investigation.

Stevens authorized to report his bill dividing Texas into four or more States.

The consideration of Bingham's election resolution offered yesterday was postponed.

Talks of a conference with the committee will oppose Sherman's bill admitting Alabama.

Local Intelligence.

REPORTS FROM THE DISTRICTS.—The disorderly conduct of about street corners in the evening's merits severe reprobation. Last night a good sized stone, thrown by one of a gang of boys, at another, struck a passing car at the corner of Apollo street, and seriously injuring one or more of the passengers.

A paragraph which appeared in this column yesterday, in relation to the views of the keeper of the workhouse on the question of employing the inmates of that institution as laborers, publicly on the streets, was inserted without being submitted to the supervision, delegated by the chief of police, to the keeper of the workhouse, in this department, of his paper, and is disapproved.

From among the collections taken up for the relief of the needy, throughout the State, at Trinity church, Sunday evening, there was taken out a gold ring, bearing a lady's name, and a diamond bracelet. That might be emblematic of a blessed eternity.

The members of Christ Church Benevolent Association, who have placed a statue of Bishop Wilmer, in behalf of the suffering and needy. The private markets recently so numerously opened throughout the city, will not be kept open from the appeal made to Gen. Hancock for their discontinuance.

The grand German opera troupe will leave to-day for Mobile. If, after their engagement in February has been completed, they should be able to return hither, another season, a liberal patronage would await them.

The second annual ball of the Dry Goods and General Mercantile Association takes place to-night, at the National Theater, and promises to equal, if not to eclipse any social entertainment of the kind given this season. All the preliminaries have been arranged with scrupulous attention, and guests may consider their enjoyment of the occasion a moral certainty.

The temperature, yesterday, as shown by the thermometer at C. Duhamel's, corner Bienville and Chartres streets, was as follows: At 5 A. M., 45; at 12 M., 50; at 3 P. M., 65; at 6 P. M., 64.

Creole fire company No. 9 gives a grand firemen's ball on the 4th of March, at the New Orleans Hall, corner of Elysian Fields and Tremont streets. "The Green" could not have selected a better opportunity.

Lying so far progressed that the trees in Lafayette Square are budding, and the green sprouts are sprouting in patches everywhere in the city.

A grand sacred oratorio will take place at Christ Church on Monday next. Mrs. Annie McLean, Messrs. Meloy, Wheeler and other members have volunteered their services for the occasion. The oratorio is given for the benefit of the Mount Olivet Church of Algiers.

The $500,000 large city notes will be burned to-day at the city works. If the finance committee of the council can accomplish the task of counting the bills during the day.

The employes of the surveyor's and street commissioner's department will probably be paid this week, for the payment of the past month's wages.

The alarm of fire on Monday night was given by some maliciously disposed individual, who, if caught, should be meted with the full penalty of the law.

A decanter, two wine glasses, children's slippers, and other articles, stolen from the residence of Mr. Ben. Toledo, No. 117 Gallienne street, a few days ago, have been found by officer McCarty, of the 1st district police.

The sergeant-at-arms of the City Council excepted, there was not a single person of African race or descent, present at the meeting of the assembly, held last evening.

Mr. Stephen D. Moore is no longer the assistant secretary of the Board of Assistant Aldermen. We hope that the new appointee, Mr. Jos. S. Moore, son of Assistant Alderman J. H. Moore, will prove more efficient as secretary.

THE CONVENTION.—It is becoming a question of serious importance whether the reconstruction convention, which has been in session for sixty-seven days, at Mechanics' Institute, ever means to complete its labors and adjourn. It did seem that his way the convention, but the adjournment has been postponed for thirty days. It would only be an event too monstrous for contemplation. Yet here we are now toward the close of the session (the convention closed Nov. 21st) and there are no better prospects of adjournment than there was a month since.

The situation is this. A week or ten days since the articles of constitution, one by one adopted, were considered and rejected, and a committee was appointed to style, for grammatical revision and numerical arrangement. Yesterday, Mr. Wickliffe, the chairman of this committee, submitted a report, accompanied by printed copies of a document headed "Constitution." It was offered for adoption as a whole. In the report, which was a lengthy one, numerous alterations, amendments, and additional articles were proposed for the most important departments of the constitution. Some of these articles had been actually introduced—one of them, for instance, excluding for ever from office any one who has fought or abetted in a duel, or sent or accepted a challenge.

As soon as this report was read, five members of the committee, to the surprise of every one, sent in a written protest stating that the report submitted by Mr. Wickliffe, had not been read, and had not been seen by them until placed in print upon their desks that morning. After much discussion the report was recommitted. It is very probable that the report will be again opened for discussion, and the sessions thus be protracted indefinitely.

THE FINCH HABEAS CORPUS CASE.—Judge Emerson, of the Third District Court, has given his judgment in this case. Wm. E. Finch, the relator, was arrested on a charge of embezzling letters from the mails, in his charge, while he was route agent for the postal department of the Opelousas and Great Western Railroad, and United States Commissioner Urban committed him to the Parish Prison. A writ of habeas corpus was taken out, and the relator, on the ground that he was a Federal agent, and that such lands as he had been committed by a Federal tribunal, to that extent he is a Federal officer.

IMPORTANT DECISION.—The discovery of petroleum in the Western part of the State, shortly after the close of the war, gave to lands in that section, previously thought little of, a value that rendered the possession of them very desirable. It was found that such lands as belonged to the State at the time the ordinance of secession was passed, although the greater part of them were entered during the war—were not, in the hands of the State, but were the property of such second entry came before the Fourth District Court, and Judge Theard yesterday rendered his judgment, which, as the question involved is very important, is given in full below:

Auguste Bohm, et al.—vs.—At this a controversy with respect to certain lands, situated in the parish of Calcasieu, of this State, adjacent to the oil springs of that region, supposed to be of great prospective value for the production of petroleum, which has recently become an article of considerable commercial importance.
