THURSDAY MORNING, JUNE 4, 1888.

A GENEROUS CONTRIBUTION.—It is a duty to the cause of charity to give honorable publicity to such acts as that mentioned in the following note, which has been placed at our disposal.

Enclose with pleasure two hundred dollars, ($200) a donation to the Fete Champetre from my valued friend and public benefactor, Paul Tugue, Esq., who, although absent, so kindly remembers the necessities of our charitable institutions.

The Shakespeare Club, whose dramatic performances did much to enliven the dullness of last summer, will give an entertainment at the Varieties, on Monday evening.

THE PHILOMENE SOCIETY OF GEORGETOWN COLLEGE.—We have received a pamphlet volume entitled the "Grand Annual Celebration of the Philomene Society of Georgetown, held July 26, 1867."

THIRD WARD DEMOCRATIC CLUB.—Our readers will find in another column, for the holding of an adjourned meeting of the above named club, this evening, at National Hall, Poydras street.

THE CROPS IN ARKANSAS.—We are permitted to make the following extract from a letter to a commercial house in this city:

We had a fine rain last night, which we regard as much better than any we have had since the war. Very few persons are coming to town, as but few have money to buy what they require; and those who have no money stay at home and get along very well.

SAILING OF THE JUNIATA.—The steamship Juniata, Capt. Hoxie, sailed last evening for Philadelphia, via Havana, with a full freight and the following named passengers:

For Philadelphia: Mrs. J. M. Walsh, G. A. Hamilton, Maj. Perry, W. M. D. Dixon, Mrs. E. A. York, Mrs. Converse and son, W. Crawford, G. A. Thompson, Jacob Laseh, Mr. Frost and wife.

"LOYALTY" OFFERED AT OFFICIAL FACES. Mr. Broadwell, of Pennsylvania, presented in the House on the 20th, a petition from citizens of Montgomery county, Pennsylvania, requesting that Salmon P. Chase, chief justice of the United States, and Wm. P. Fessenden, senator from Maine, on the trial of Mr. Johnson on articles of impeachment presented by the House of Representatives, did violence to the loyal sentiment of the nation, and gave aid and comfort to the spirit of the rebellion that attempted to destroy our government.

MR. AVEGNO'S PLAN. The Picyayne's great objection to Mr. Avegno's plan is that the holders of city notes will be benefited by it—according to that paper—to the extent of $3,000,000. This benefit, of course, will arise from the increased value of the city money, consequent on the adoption of the project, or, what is equivalent, its conversion into interest-bearing warrants to be redeemed during the next ten years.

Sen. F. Rice is one of the new United States senators from Arkansas. The Selma Times knows him and prints the following:

"Dear Sir—I received your letter inquiring if I was dead or run away. I am neither. I settled all your business in Tennessee and got the money, and intended to be at your court and pay it, but before the time a storm came on my way and I died of over $5000, and hence cannot send you the money at this time, but will make every effort to raise it as soon as possible. Yours, etc., Henry Hazard."

Extensive preparations are making by New York hotel proprietors and others for the accommodation of the great number of persons that will be attracted to the city by the National Democratic Convention. The Keystone Club, of Philadelphia, have secured Irving Hall as the headquarters of the Pennsylvania delegation, and the Young Men's Democratic Union Club, of New York city, just reorganized, have engaged the Circus building, opposite the Academy of Music, where they will receive and entertain many of the Southern delegations. The headquarters of the Western delegations has not yet been selected, but it is understood that an effort is to be made to secure the Academy of Music for the purpose.

The New Albany Commercial says it has the fact from a reliable source that the counties of North Carolina over four hundred families have joined the emigration society, with a view to removal from that State the present summer and settling in Indiana. These families represent a population of over two thousand souls, and Floyd, Harrison and Washington counties will get the most of them. They are reported to be of the better class of citizens.

The United States steamer Lackawanna, from the Sandwich Islands, has arrived at San Francisco. She is reported to have left Honolulu because of an information that the king regarded her presence as a threat to the Hawaiian monarchy.

The Tennessee Republicans have postponed the State convention to the 24 Wednesday in August.

SOUTHERN LANDS AND IMMIGRATION.

Nothing is destined to play a more effective part in solving political as well as material problems in the South than the element of immigration. Political history is founded in natural history, and all government and all law must ultimately rest upon indisputable social facts.

In this question of population, indeed, all her hopes pivot; about it all her fears revolve. The flagitious scheme of negro-radical supremacy, devised by partisan selfishness and malignity, cannot be fought successfully by political weapons alone. To live it down, is the only way to effect its utter defeat and permanent suppression.

THE IMPROVEMENT IN YELLOW COVER. The Petersens, of Philadelphia, have hurried out, with admirable enterprise, a cheap edition, in yellow paper cover, of "The Great Impachment and Trial of Andrew Johnson, President of the United States, Illustrated with portraits of the principal personages."

It is time that all of us, in the cities and in the rural districts, whether devoted to commerce or to agriculture, to professional avocations or to mechanical arts, should recognize in the most practical manner the indispensability of this policy to the salvation of the South.

OF the various immigrant projects which have been agitated none strikes us as possessing more simplicity and feasibility than that represented by Col. Lee Crandall, of this city. His plan contemplates the sale of Southern lands, now idle, divided into suitable tracts, to immigrants who will engage personally in their cultivation.

THE CROPS IN ARKANSAS.—We are permitted to make the following extract from a letter to a commercial house in this city: We had a fine rain last night, which we regard as much better than any we have had since the war.

EDITORIAL PARAGRAPHS, ETC.

Bothers has been playing in "Othello," at London. The Brownsville Ranchero is to be transferred to Galveston, Texas. The Schutzenfest at Vienna is expected to make away with 150,000 bottles of wine.

Major Plimley, of Galveston, has been building cars for surf-bathing. About $600 was realized at the Metairie Course yesterday for the relief of the family of Lieut. Braine.

It is stated that Mrs. Gaines has recently received quite a number of anonymous letters of a threatening character. Miss Adelaide Phillips will sail for Europe, June 15, with her sister, who goes abroad to complete her medical education.

AMUSEMENTS.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC.—This evening, in addition to the tenets of the "Ku-Klux-Klan," as expressed by Mr. Durivage, the Academy's patrons were entertained by a burlesque of the great European Circus, said to be the latest importation, and by a new ballet, "The Parisian Carnival," in which the "Can-Can" will be introduced and performed by a full ballet corps.

STARRY MATRONS No. 2.—This evening at Lyceum Hall, will be sung by the pupils of Mr. G. Carlo, assisted by many amateurs, the "Stabat Mater No. 2," composed by that gentleman, and said to be a musical production of no ordinary merit.

PARLORE ITALIAN OPERA.—Miss Isabel McCulloch, who has achieved an enviable reputation in New York and other large cities, as a contralto, is to perform the role of Norina, in Donizetti's comic opera "Don Pasquale," at the Varieties Theater, to-morrow night.

HEBREW'S OF ST. LOUIS.—The Hebrews of St. Louis are making arrangements for a grand mass meeting, to take place some evening this week, for the purpose of taking united action against the nomination of Gen. Grant. There are about 2200 Jewish voters in St. Louis.

THE ITALIAN GARRINO says that Napoleon has spies at Washington, as well as in two other American cities and the European capitals, in the person of "Indies" of the demi-monde, whose fashionable and wicked establishments are maintained out of the emperor's private purse.

SKETCHES have hitherto objected to the credibility of the Scriptural account of the adventures of Jonah with the whale, on the ground that the throat of the mammal was only a few inches wide, and therefore too narrow to admit of the passage of a man's body.

A FRENCH paper publishes what it styles a "warning to free-thinkers." It is a story about an atheist farmer, who perpetrated a sacrilegious hoax upon a priest, sending him to administer the sacrament to a dying member of his family, and on his arrival leading him to a moribund pig in the farmer's stable.

APROPOS of the new custom of carrying a satchel slung over the shoulder, the New York Commercial Advertiser says that the first man to adopt the custom of carrying a satchel thus is reported to have been an eminent editor, sedate as to garb, and meagre in mien.

A YOUNG Parisian blood, who had lost his money through accommodating friends rather than by extravagance in vice, met a lady at a recent masked ball who took considerable interest in him, and over the supper table, proposed that he should marry her daughter and recuperate his fortunes with her really generous dot.

WHAT girls want—and I don't care if the speech shocked every mother in Christendom—what they seek to make them rosy, and good humored, and quick witted, is, romping. It is to be wished that in the country-house parties, now growing common after the English fashion, where a set of guests are invited to spend weeks together in the summer, all sorts of merry out door games, and so on, would be introduced.

A CORRESPONDENT of the Charleston Courier tells an anecdote of Chief Justice Chase for the purpose of proving that he is more human than politicians generally. When he was a private tutor in the family of Attorney General Wirt, admitted to society on sufferance, and shunned by ambitious mammas, a kind lady took him under her wing, made much of him and helped him to a good social position.
