

THE CRESCENT'S DISPATCHES.

FROM WASHINGTON.

CLASSIFICATION OF CLERKS

Butler's Statement of His Arrest.

ST. MARIE OFF WITH HIS $10,000.

BUREAU HOWARD ON A BUREAU TOUR.

Col. Smallwood to Take Charge of the New Orleans Postoffice.

GENERAL ROUSSEAU.

Proposed Ad Interim Applicants.

INTERNAL REVENUE RECEIPTS.

ETC., ETC., ETC.

WASHINGTON, August 3.—Secretary McCulloch has issued orders to heads of departments to classify clerks according to capacity and attention to business, with a view of retaining the more skillful and faithful.

St. Marie has at last received his ten thousand dollars for betraying Burratt, and is off for Europe.

Howard, of the freedmen's bureau, started South this afternoon to visit all the principal bureau stations, and perfect arrangements for winding up the concern by January.

Gen. Rousseau is in town. He will leave in a few days for New Orleans.

It is rumored that an interim commissioner of internal revenue may be appointed at any moment to relieve Mr. Rollins, and that the subject of placing Gen. Banks in the Russian mission as an ad interim vice Casimir M. Clay, is seriously discussed at the State Department.

Col. W. M. Smallwood has been designated by the postmaster general to take charge of the postoffice at New Orleans.

Col. Mann, member of Congress from Louisiana, leaves here to-night on a short tour North prior to returning to New Orleans.

No appointments of gaugers and store-keepers under the new spirit and tobacco tax law have been made. About 120 commissions for the former have been made out at the internal revenue bureau, but not yet signed by the secretary of the treasury.

LATEST FROM EUROPE.

THE CABLE OF '66 CEASES TO WORK.

Dreadful Accident in Manchester, Eng.

23 Persons Killed and Many Injured.

New York, Aug. 3.—The following was received this afternoon by the New York and Newfoundland Telegraph Company:

London, Aug. 3.—Afternoon.—The cable of 1866 ceased to work at 12:35 this afternoon. Tests show that the fault is at the Newfoundland end. It has probably been damaged by an iceberg. (Signed) CYRUS W. FIELD.

Manchester, Eng., August 3.—A dreadful accident occurred here night before last. During the regular performance at Leroux's music hall, the gasolene fire was raised, and the entire audience immediately rushed for the doors, completely blocking up the passage-ways, and the wildest excitement prevailed. When order was at last restored by the repeated assurances of the manager, the gasolene fire was extinguished. It was found that no less than 20 persons, mainly women and children, had been crushed to death in the stampede. A large number had limbs broken, and were otherwise injured.

POLITICAL.

Democratic Meetings.

Bethlehem, Pa., Aug. 3.—A large Seymour and Blair meeting was held here on Saturday afternoon and evening. A very prominent speaker addressed the crowd. The assembly lasted from ten to eleven P. M.

Syracuse, N. Y., Aug. 3.—The Democracy of the city held, on Saturday evening, one of the most enthusiastic meetings ever held in this vicinity. The gathering was addressed by Hon. Sanford E. Church, Henry C. Murphy, A. J. Rogers and other distinguished men.

FROM ATLANTA.

Atlanta, August 3.—Last Friday an affair occurred between the whites and negroes at Goby school house, which resulted in the death of a young white boy, and the wounding of several negroes. The speaker at the school exhibition, which caused general indignation among the students, and led to a general riot, in which four negroes were seriously and one mortally wounded.

The Senate and House passed a joint resolution to elect state house officers on the 6th.

A motion in the House to reconsider the resolution to suspend levies and sales was lost by 59 to 63.

In the Senate, Bradley, a negro, introduced a resolution that the committee on the militia be instructed to bring in a bill to provide for organizing able-bodied loyal citizens to serve as militia, irrespective of race or color.

FROM MONTGOMERY.

The Alabama Legislature.—The Col on Worm Montgomery, Aug. 3.—In the Senate the only bill of importance discussed was the disability bill. No definite action was had.

In the House a large number of bills of local interest only were passed.

The common carrier bill created an animated discussion. It was reported that the original bill could not be properly put to the House, and that the clerk had no right to read from a printed copy—the original could not be found, having been lost.

Motions were made and appeals taken in rapid succession. In much disorder the House adjourned until 9 o'clock to-morrow. The bill is the pet scheme of the extreme men. Its passage is doubtful.

The rates are doing immense damage, and worms are appearing in all this section. It is estimated that the cotton crop is already cut short one-half.

FROM TALLAHASSEE.

The Florida Legislature.—Radical Legislation.—Democratic Ratification Meeting and Nomination for Congress.

Tallahassee, Fla., Aug. 3.—The legislature to-day passed a bill requiring all telegraph operators in the State to take the oath of secrecy, and making it fine and imprisonment for divulging any message.

They also passed a bill taking the election of delegates to the electoral college out of the hands of the people, and placing it in the hands of the legislature.

The bill giving negroes every privilege of whites on all railroads passed.

A similar bill relating to hotels was introduced, and will probably pass.

The large Democratic ratification meeting and nominating convention held here on the 1st inst. W. B. Barnes, of Jackson county, was nominated for Congress. At night there was a large torchlight procession and fireworks.

FROM CHARLESTON.

The Worm on the Sea Islands. CHARLESTON, Aug. 3.—Alarming reports of the reappearance of the cotton caterpillar are brought in from several of the Sea Islands.

FROM SAVANNAH.

Had Crop Prospects in Georgia and Florida. SAVANNAH, Aug. 3.—Reports from the crops of this section show that the continued rains are injuring crop prospects. Accounts from Florida report worms at work on most plantations.

FROM NEW YORK.

Death of General Halper.—Arrest of General Sheridan. NEW YORK, Aug. 3.—Olas. G. Halpin, otherwise known as Private Miles O'Reilly, editor of the Citizen, and late register of the city, died this morning of an overdose of chloroform, taken for neuralgia.

Gen. Sheridan was arrested at Leavenworth, Kansas, on Saturday last, on complaint of Mr. Dunn, for assault and battery. Dunn is postmaster at Leavenworth, but was ordered off the reservation a few days ago for alleged misdemeanor, and refusing to obey he was forcibly ejected, hence the action for assault.

FROM SOUTHWEST PASS.

SOUTHWEST PASS, Aug. 3.—11 A. M.—Barometer 29.55. Wind southwest and fresh. Arrived: Steamship Gen. Meade, Hampton, New York, to Woods, Low & Ludwigen, schooner Marion, Lipper, Liverpool, salt, to Greevy, Nickerson & Co. sailed, steamship Kensington, ship Ida Lely, barka Nellie May and John Geddes.

SOUTHWEST PASS, Aug. 3.—P. M.—Barometer 29.70. Wind southwest and light. Arrived: Steamship Cortes, Nelson, from New York, with merchandise and passengers, to A. Mouton. No departures.

RIVER NEWS.

Vicksburg, Aug. 3.—Passed down Continental at 5 P. M. Up. River level at noon, Gen. Qattman at 8 P. M. Legal 35 feet below high water mark, and falling slowly.

LOUISVILLE, August 3.—River rising, with four feet eight inches in the canal by the mark. Weather clear and pleasant.

St. Louis, Aug. 3.—River declining; 8 1/2 feet to Cairo.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Steamers Ashore on Cedar Island.—The D. A. insurance in St. Louis County, Mo.—Politics in Tennessee.—Maltese Temple.—Coastwise Commerce.—Railroad—Colfax—Lynchings of Posters.

FORTS MONROE, Aug. 3.—The schooner United Brothers and another, name unknown, are ashore on Cedar Island.

St. Louis, Aug. 3.—The recent disturbance in the country was greatly exaggerated. A drunken man disturbed the meeting. Only one man killed and three wounded.

Extensive preparations are being made for the grand encampment of Knights Templar, next month. Commanders will be present from all parts of the country.

One thousand men are at work on the Colorado Central Railway.

A dispatch from Colfax states that he will not accept his nomination on his trip to the Rocky Mountains.

Three gamblers were lynched at Sioux City last week for cheating.

NASHVILLE, Aug. 3.—Thirteen general officers of the army are in conversation to-day to consider ways and means of reconciling the political troubles in Tennessee.

MARKETS.

London, Aug. 3.—Noon.—Consols 94. American securities heavy and all declined. Bonds, 71 1/2.

FRANKFORT, Aug. 3.—Noon.—Cotton firm and unchanged. Sales 10,000 bales. Other markets unchanged.

London, Aug. 3.—Afternoon.—Bonds 71 1/2. Sugar firm, 25 3/4. Tobacco 44 1/2.

LIVERPOOL, Aug. 3.—Afternoon.—Cotton quiet. Lard quiet and steady. Bacon firm.

London, Aug. 3.—Evening.—Consols 94 1/2. Bonds unchanged.

FRANKFORT, Aug. 3.—Bonds firm at 7 1/2. Liverpool, Aug. 3.—Rentes 70 francs centime.

LIVERPOOL, Aug. 3.—Evening.—Cotton market easier but not quotably altered in prices. Turpentine 30s. 9d.

New York, Aug. 3.—Money dull and easier. Call loans 3 1/2. Prime paper 6 1/2. Gold 145 1/2. Exchange steady.—10. Southern bonds more active and firmer. Stocks weak and unsettled.

St. Louis, Aug. 3.—Wheat 52 1/2. Pork 25 1/2. Corn 30 1/2. Lard 46 1/2. Bacon 12 1/2. Sugar 23 1/2. Flour 13 1/2. Eggs 15 1/2.

LOUISVILLE, Aug. 3.—Wheat 52 1/2. Corn 30 1/2. Flour 13 1/2. Eggs 15 1/2.

St. Louis, Aug. 3.—Cotton market quiet. No sales. Middlings 30 1/2. Receipts 1 bales.

Military Order.

HEADQUARTERS, DEPARTMENT OF LOUISIANA, New Orleans, La., August 4, 1868.

General Orders No. 1.

I. In obedience to paragraph 3, of general orders No. 55, headquarters of the army, adjutant general's office, at Washington, July 25, 1868, the command of the fifth military district—consisting of the State of Texas—is transferred to Brevet Maj. Gen. J. J. Reynolds, commanding the district of Texas.

The records pertaining to the district of Texas will be transferred to the headquarters of the new fifth military district.

II. Pursuant to paragraph 4, of the above mentioned order, the States of Texas, Arkansas and Louisiana are organized into the department of Louisiana, headquarters at New Orleans.

The sub-district of Arkansas, until further orders, will be known as the district of Arkansas, and will be commanded by the senior officer serving therein, headquarters at Little Rock.

The commanding officer of the district of Arkansas, will immediately make the necessary returns of troops serving in his district, to these headquarters. The chiefs of the staff corps in the district will immediately report to the chiefs of staff of the department of Louisiana, the amount and condition of the supplies on hand.

All stated reports and returns of the districts of Louisiana and Arkansas, called for by the revised army regulations, will hereafter be made to headquarters, department of Louisiana.

By command of Brev. Maj. Gen. R. C. Buchanan: THOS. H. WELLS, Acting Adjutant General, U. S. Army.

OFFICIAL: NATHANIEL BURMAN, Second Lieut. and Adjutant General, U. S. Army. Acting Assistant Adjutant General.

Nevermore can the coarse gritty tooth powders and tooth-destroying chemical fluids find a place on the toilets of sensible people. The fragrant and preservative Soudon has superseded them all.

J. U. H.

ROLLINS.

RECORDER BECKER DISCHARGES HIM

HE IS FOLLOWED BY A MOB.

AN EXCITED MULTITUDE ON CANAL STREET.

GOVERNOR WARMOTH PACIFIES THE CROWD.

THE GOVERNOR'S SPEECH.

HE IS HEARTILY CHEERED.

ORDER IN WARSAW

The excitement caused by the attack upon Willis Rollins, the colored Democratic orator, on Saturday evening, and by his subsequent arrest and release upon parole, was followed very naturally by a widespread interest in the proceedings before the recorder yesterday morning.

At nine o'clock a crowd of negroes collected on Lafayette and St. Charles streets, lining the iron railing of the square and the wall of the City Hall, all watching for the arrival of Rollins. Inside the station building the halls and stairways were crowded with colored people, while in the court room a throng was within and without the bar.

Rollins entered the building and mounted the stairway, apparently indifferent to the scowling glances and threatening looks cast upon him as he passed. He was defended by Messrs. A. Sambola, Geo. H. Braughn and Walter H. Rogers.

The charge against him had dwindled down to that of carrying a concealed weapon, it being preferred by Corporal Sullivan, who was called to the stand, and testified that he knew of the matter, as did also of the fact that he had seen Rollins enter the building, and that he had seen him take the stairs.

Rollins entered the building and mounted the stairway, apparently indifferent to the scowling glances and threatening looks cast upon him as he passed. He was defended by Messrs. A. Sambola, Geo. H. Braughn and Walter H. Rogers.

The charge against him had dwindled down to that of carrying a concealed weapon, it being preferred by Corporal Sullivan, who was called to the stand, and testified that he knew of the matter, as did also of the fact that he had seen Rollins enter the building, and that he had seen him take the stairs.

Rollins entered the building and mounted the stairway, apparently indifferent to the scowling glances and threatening looks cast upon him as he passed. He was defended by Messrs. A. Sambola, Geo. H. Braughn and Walter H. Rogers.

The charge against him had dwindled down to that of carrying a concealed weapon, it being preferred by Corporal Sullivan, who was called to the stand, and testified that he knew of the matter, as did also of the fact that he had seen Rollins enter the building, and that he had seen him take the stairs.

Rollins entered the building and mounted the stairway, apparently indifferent to the scowling glances and threatening looks cast upon him as he passed. He was defended by Messrs. A. Sambola, Geo. H. Braughn and Walter H. Rogers.

The charge against him had dwindled down to that of carrying a concealed weapon, it being preferred by Corporal Sullivan, who was called to the stand, and testified that he knew of the matter, as did also of the fact that he had seen Rollins enter the building, and that he had seen him take the stairs.

Rollins entered the building and mounted the stairway, apparently indifferent to the scowling glances and threatening looks cast upon him as he passed. He was defended by Messrs. A. Sambola, Geo. H. Braughn and Walter H. Rogers.

The charge against him had dwindled down to that of carrying a concealed weapon, it being preferred by Corporal Sullivan, who was called to the stand, and testified that he knew of the matter, as did also of the fact that he had seen Rollins enter the building, and that he had seen him take the stairs.

Rollins entered the building and mounted the stairway, apparently indifferent to the scowling glances and threatening looks cast upon him as he passed. He was defended by Messrs. A. Sambola, Geo. H. Braughn and Walter H. Rogers.

The charge against him had dwindled down to that of carrying a concealed weapon, it being preferred by Corporal Sullivan, who was called to the stand, and testified that he knew of the matter, as did also of the fact that he had seen Rollins enter the building, and that he had seen him take the stairs.

Rollins entered the building and mounted the stairway, apparently indifferent to the scowling glances and threatening looks cast upon him as he passed. He was defended by Messrs. A. Sambola, Geo. H. Braughn and Walter H. Rogers.

The charge against him had dwindled down to that of carrying a concealed weapon, it being preferred by Corporal Sullivan, who was called to the stand, and testified that he knew of the matter, as did also of the fact that he had seen Rollins enter the building, and that he had seen him take the stairs.

Rollins entered the building and mounted the stairway, apparently indifferent to the scowling glances and threatening looks cast upon him as he passed. He was defended by Messrs. A. Sambola, Geo. H. Braughn and Walter H. Rogers.

The charge against him had dwindled down to that of carrying a concealed weapon, it being preferred by Corporal Sullivan, who was called to the stand, and testified that he knew of the matter, as did also of the fact that he had seen Rollins enter the building, and that he had seen him take the stairs.

Rollins entered the building and mounted the stairway, apparently indifferent to the scowling glances and threatening looks cast upon him as he passed. He was defended by Messrs. A. Sambola, Geo. H. Braughn and Walter H. Rogers.

The charge against him had dwindled down to that of carrying a concealed weapon, it being preferred by Corporal Sullivan, who was called to the stand, and testified that he knew of the matter, as did also of the fact that he had seen Rollins enter the building, and that he had seen him take the stairs.

Rollins entered the building and mounted the stairway, apparently indifferent to the scowling glances and threatening looks cast upon him as he passed. He was defended by Messrs. A. Sambola, Geo. H. Braughn and Walter H. Rogers.

The charge against him had dwindled down to that of carrying a concealed weapon, it being preferred by Corporal Sullivan, who was called to the stand, and testified that he knew of the matter, as did also of the fact that he had seen Rollins enter the building, and that he had seen him take the stairs.

Rollins entered the building and mounted the stairway, apparently indifferent to the scowling glances and threatening looks cast upon him as he passed. He was defended by Messrs. A. Sambola, Geo. H. Braughn and Walter H. Rogers.

The charge against him had dwindled down to that of carrying a concealed weapon, it being preferred by Corporal Sullivan, who was called to the stand, and testified that he knew of the matter, as did also of the fact that he had seen Rollins enter the building, and that he had seen him take the stairs.

Rollins entered the building and mounted the stairway, apparently indifferent to the scowling glances and threatening looks cast upon him as he passed. He was defended by Messrs. A. Sambola, Geo. H. Braughn and Walter H. Rogers.

The charge against him had dwindled down to that of carrying a concealed weapon, it being preferred by Corporal Sullivan, who was called to the stand, and testified that he knew of the matter, as did also of the fact that he had seen Rollins enter the building, and that he had seen him take the stairs.

Rollins entered the building and mounted the stairway, apparently indifferent to the scowling glances and threatening looks cast upon him as he passed. He was defended by Messrs. A. Sambola, Geo. H. Braughn and Walter H. Rogers.

The charge against him had dwindled down to that of carrying a concealed weapon, it being preferred by Corporal Sullivan, who was called to the stand, and testified that he knew of the matter, as did also of the fact that he had seen Rollins enter the building, and that he had seen him take the stairs.

Rollins entered the building and mounted the stairway, apparently indifferent to the scowling glances and threatening looks cast upon him as he passed. He was defended by Messrs. A. Sambola, Geo. H. Braughn and Walter H. Rogers.

The charge against him had dwindled down to that of carrying a concealed weapon, it being preferred by Corporal Sullivan, who was called to the stand, and testified that he knew of the matter, as did also of the fact that he had seen Rollins enter the building, and that he had seen him take the stairs.

Rollins entered the building and mounted the stairway, apparently indifferent to the scowling glances and threatening looks cast upon him as he passed. He was defended by Messrs. A. Sambola, Geo. H. Braughn and Walter H. Rogers.

STATE LEGISLATURE.

THIRTY-FIRST DAY.

Senate.

The Senate met at noon. Lieut. Gov. Dain presiding. Twenty-one members present.

Prayer by the Rev. Father Jeremiah Moynihan. On motion of Mr. Bay, the reading of the minutes was dispensed with, after a correction by Mr. Bacon.

REPORTS OF STANDING COMMITTEES. Mr. Ray, from the Judiciary committee, reported progress.

Other committees reported progress. Mr. Copland, from the committee on commerce, etc., reported favorably on a bill relative to masters and wardens of the port.

Mr. Lynch, from the committee on finance, reported favorably on a bill relative to the corporation of the Louisiana State Bank, and moved a suspension of the rules for a first reading.

Mr. Jewell and Bacon objected. The rules were not suspended.

Mr. Whitney asked that a memorial from citizens of Texas parish, relative to the levees, be read.

On motion, the memorial was referred to the committee on public lands and levees. Adopted. Message from the governor.

It does not concern the Senate. By Mr. Campbell.—"WHEREAS, It is reported in the Courier du Teche that Judge Gates, late judge of the Third Judicial District, has refused to vacate his office to his successor, alleging as the reason for such refusal that the reconstruction acts are unconstitutional and void; that he will not recognize any officials elected by negro votes; therefore, he is hereby requested to investigate the truth of this statement, and report the facts to the Senate."

In connection with the above resolution Mr. Campbell had read the following from the Courier du Teche according to Judge Gates opened court last Monday, the 20th of July, the regular day appointed by law for the holding of court in this parish. Judge Gates is one of those who are to the degrading race of negroes, white negroes and negroes. He is the regularly appointed judge of the Third Judicial District under the white Constitution of the State.

He does not recognize the reconstruction acts to be unconstitutional, revolutionary and void. Under the Constitution of the United States negroes cannot be elected to the judgeship of this district, it is not entitled to take his seat as such, having been elected by none but negro votes.

Judge Gates has regularly intimated the grand jury, and charged them as to their duties under the law. It was his duty to do so until a legal successor had been appointed or elected and qualified according to the laws of this parish.

Mr. Campbell.—"I introduced that resolution, sir, in order that the Senate may be informed, as to the practical effect of the laws of this State, as that of judge in any portion of this State, who is guilty of revolution, sedition and treason in this manner, may be dealt with speedily and severely according to the laws of this State."

Mr. Lynch.—"I introduced that resolution, sir, in order that the Senate may be informed, as to the practical effect of the laws of this State, as that of judge in any portion of this State, who is guilty of revolution, sedition and treason in this manner, may be dealt with speedily and severely according to the laws of this State."

Mr. Campbell.—"I introduced that resolution, sir, in order that the Senate may be informed, as to the practical effect of the laws of this State, as that of judge in any portion of this State, who is guilty of revolution, sedition and treason in this manner, may be dealt with speedily and severely according to the laws of this State."

Mr. Lynch.—"I introduced that resolution, sir, in order that the Senate may be informed, as to the practical effect of the laws of this State, as that of judge in any portion of this State, who is guilty of revolution, sedition and treason in this manner, may be dealt with speedily and severely according to the laws of this State."

Mr. Campbell.—"I introduced that resolution, sir, in order that the Senate may be informed, as to the practical effect of the laws of this State, as that of judge in any portion of this State, who is guilty of revolution, sedition and treason in this manner, may be dealt with speedily and severely according to the laws of this State."

Mr. Lynch.—"I introduced that resolution, sir, in order that the Senate may be informed, as to the practical effect of the laws of this State, as that of judge in any portion of this State, who is guilty of revolution, sedition and treason in this manner, may be dealt with speedily and severely according to the laws of this State."

Mr. Campbell.—"I introduced that resolution, sir, in order that the Senate may be informed, as to the practical effect of the laws of this State, as that of judge in any portion of this State, who is guilty of revolution, sedition and treason in this manner, may be dealt with speedily and severely according to the laws of this State."

Mr. Lynch.—"I introduced that resolution, sir, in order that the Senate may be informed, as to the practical effect of the laws of this State, as that of judge in any portion of this State, who is guilty of revolution, sedition and treason in this manner, may be dealt with speedily and severely according to the laws of this State."

Mr. Campbell.—"I introduced that resolution, sir, in order that the Senate may be informed, as to the practical effect of the laws of this State, as that of judge in any portion of this State, who is guilty of revolution, sedition and treason in this manner, may be dealt with speedily and severely according to the laws of this State."

Mr. Lynch.—"I introduced that resolution, sir, in order that the Senate may be informed, as to the practical effect of the laws of this State, as that of judge in any portion of this State, who is guilty of revolution, sedition and treason in this manner, may be dealt with speedily and severely according to the laws of this State."

Mr. Campbell.—"I introduced that resolution, sir, in order that the Senate may be informed, as to the practical effect of the laws of this State, as that of judge in any portion of this State, who is guilty of revolution, sedition and treason in this manner, may be dealt with speedily and severely according to the laws of this State."

Mr. Lynch.—"I introduced that resolution, sir, in order that the Senate may be informed, as to the practical effect of the laws of this State, as that of judge in any portion of this State, who is guilty of revolution, sedition and treason in this manner, may be dealt with speedily and severely according to the laws of this State."

Mr. Campbell.—"I introduced that resolution, sir, in order that the Senate may be informed, as to the practical effect of the laws of this State, as that of judge in any portion of this State, who is guilty of revolution, sedition and treason in this manner, may be dealt with speedily and severely according to the laws of this State."

Mr. Lynch.—"I introduced that resolution, sir, in order that the Senate may be informed, as to the practical effect of the laws of this State, as that of judge in any portion of this State, who is guilty of revolution, sedition and treason in this manner, may be dealt with speedily and severely according to the laws of this State."

Mr. Campbell.—"I introduced that resolution, sir, in order that the Senate may be informed, as to the practical effect of the laws of this State, as that of judge in any portion of this State, who is guilty of revolution, sedition and treason in this manner, may be dealt with speedily and severely according to the laws of this State."

Mr. Lynch.—"I introduced that resolution, sir, in order that the Senate may be informed, as to the practical effect of the laws of this State, as that of judge in any portion of this State, who is guilty of revolution, sedition and treason in this manner, may be dealt with speedily and severely according to the laws of this State."

Mr. Campbell.—"I introduced that resolution, sir, in order that the Senate may be informed, as to the practical effect of the laws of this State, as that of judge in any portion of this State, who is guilty of revolution, sedition and treason in this manner, may be dealt with speedily and severely according to the laws of this State."

Mr. Lynch.—"I introduced that resolution, sir, in order that the Senate may be informed, as to the practical effect of the laws of this State, as that of judge in any portion of this State, who is guilty of revolution, sedition and treason in this manner, may be