

The New Orleans Crescent.

OFFICIAL JOURNAL OF THE CITY OF NEW ORLEANS.

G. O. NIXON, Editor and Proprietor.

OFFICE, No. 94 CAMP STREET.

Yearly Subscription, in advance, $10; half yearly, $5; quarterly, $3. Single copies, 10 cents.

TUESDAY MORNING, SEPTEMBER 29, 1868.

Democratic National Ticket.

FOR PRESIDENT: HORATIO SEYMOUR, OF NEW YORK.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT: FRANK P. BLAIR, OF MISSOURI.

Electors for the State at Large: RE GOVERNOR R. C. WICKLIFFE, of West Feliciana. ISAIAH GARRETT, of Ouachita.

District Electors: First Congressional District—M. B. BRADY. Second—A. S. HERRON. Third—A. DEBLANO. Fourth—N. D. COLEMAN. Fifth—A. L. BRIDGEMAN.

For the benefit of the readers of the CRESCENT we continue this morning the publication of the laws passed by the Legislature now in session on Dryades street.

From the Evening Times of yesterday we copy the following:

It would be well for the taxpayers of this city to remember that by some strange hocus pocus of parties they are saddled with the support of two official journals—the CRESCENT and the REPUBLICAN.

The Halles of the last sentence are our own. To whom does the Times refer? We ask the question and request an answer.

Full details of the debate in the House of Representatives yesterday on the governor's veto of the "Civil Equality Bill" will be found elsewhere; six colored members voted to sustain the veto, and three spoke in favor of it.

Voters who relieve themselves from disability by taking the reconstruction affidavit should remember that the supervisors have no power to question them further.

THE NEW POLICE BOARD.—We notice with pleasure the appointment and confirmation of Messrs. Burbank and McDuff upon the Board of Police Commissioners.

The teachers in the public schools will be paid, this day, in city money, at 39 Burgundy street, Mde. Desreux's old school house.

Democrat, register. That is your first duty. Lose no time. Register at once. Do not put it off. Delays are dangerous.

GOV. WARMOTH'S VETO.

When Gov. Warmoth's veto message was read in the House, it was received with loud expressions of dissent and disapprobation from some of the colored members.

With all sincerity we congratulate both sides and greet the happy consummation of this, the tardy point of the evening of the 26th September, by the Rev. A. Hayden, Dr. CHAS. E. KENNON to Miss SARAH, daughter of James Kent.

By the Rev. Father Gelson, on September 10, 1868, at the residence of Hon. B. S. Harrison, uncle of the bride, JOHN H. REES, Esq., to Miss MARY E., daughter of the late Judge J. J. Michel and Eunice S. Harrison, all of New Orleans.

A wedding is an every day affair, but such a union of hearts and hands as that here chronicled is an extraordinary one. It is our good fortune to know both bride and groom, and with that knowledge has come the confidence that these two well assorted, linked together by chains of pure love, deep by ties of mutual esteem, have formed such a union as most prove to them both for all time to come a source of joy deep at the depths of the human heart.

How the Radicals have been disappointed in the negro as a voting chattel, may be seen in Georgia, where the State is as good as a sealed certainty for Seymour and Blair; in Alabama, where the Radical Legislature dares not pass a registration law in time for the election.

Now, therefore, be it resolved, that the proclamation issued by Thomas Kennecff, the self-styled President of the Police Jury of Algiers, is null and void.

Resolved, that the representation in the Convention shall conform to the basis adopted for the Convention held in this city in March last, to-wit: One vote for each 200 votes, and one vote for each fraction over 100 of the aggregate vote cast in 1867 for Bell, Breckinridge and Douglas.

Resolved, that the Democratic State Central Committee be authorized to issue a circular to the several Ward Committees of the city and parish of Orleans, to the effect that they be elected delegates to the Convention.

THE BLACK ELEPHANT.

The political hopes of the New York Tribune and its store of editorial allegories and anecdotes are about equally low. In the latter respect it doesn't try any longer even to keep up appearances, but exposes its poverty with the pitiable recklessness which concludes the strenuous but vain efforts of decayed and penniless dandyism to simulate the aims of affluence and independence.

"Everybody has heard," says Mr. Greeley, "of the unfortunate adventurer who drew in a raffle an enormous elephant, with an appetite corresponding to its proportions." Of course, Mr. Greeley, we have all heard of the winner of the elephant prize, and because you are bankrupt in the way of illustrations and allusions is no reason why you should drag before us for about the millionth time this case of unlucky success in raffia-drawing.

The humor of the above comparison lies in the utter want of analogy between the two cases which are compared. The Democrats of the South never took a chance in the political chattering. Nor did the Democrats of the North enter into this gambling scheme. The Radicals started the game, and they staked the fortunes of their party upon the issue.

How the Radicals have been disappointed in the negro as a voting chattel, may be seen in Georgia, where the State is as good as a sealed certainty for Seymour and Blair; in Alabama, where the Radical Legislature dares not pass a registration law in time for the election.

Now, therefore, be it resolved, that the proclamation issued by Thomas Kennecff, the self-styled President of the Police Jury of Algiers, is null and void.
