

The Funny Corner.

A clergyman who was in the habit of preaching in different parts of the country was not long since at an inn, where he observed a horse-jockey trying to take in a gentleman, by imposing upon him a broken winded horse for a sound one. The parson knew the bad character of the jockey, and taking the gentleman aside, told him to be cautious of the person he was dealing with. The gentleman finally declined to purchase, and the jockey quieted, observed:

"Parson, I had much rather hear you preach than to see you privately interfere in bargains between man and man in this way."

"Well," replied the parson, "if you were where you ought to have been last Sunday, you might have heard me preach."

"Where was that?" inquired the jockey.

"In the States Prison," retorted the clergyman.

"Old Father Grimes was a good old man." This song, which has now become classical, originated in the year 1814, and was sung for the first time by the Virginia troops when they returned from Belle plains, near Fredericksburg. It is a composition due to a minstrel who went along with the troops.

A collegian undertook to enlighten a substantial farmer on the subject of animalcules. To illustrate the student applied his microscope to the cheese which the man was eating. "There," said he, "don't you see those worms?" "Well," said the old gentleman, "I'm not a philosopher, but I can tell you, that those worms are as long as they are fat."

A shoemaker intending to be absent a few days, lamplighted a single with the following, without any date, and nailed it upon his shop door:

"Will be at home in ten days from the time you see this shingle."

"Tom, why did you not marry Miss G?"

"Oh! she had a sort of hesitancy in her speech, and so I left her."

"A hesitancy in her speech. I never heard of that before. Are you not mistaken?"

"No—not at all, for when I asked her if she would have me, she kinder hesitated to say yes, and she hesitated so that I cut out for another girl."

The Wheeling Times says: "The heavy rain of Thursday evening produced a rise of about two inches in the river. The rise in Wheeling creek was just sufficient to set adrift a flock of ducks which had been hard aground during the last three weeks."

"Boys," said a village pedagogue, "What is the meaning of all that noise in the school?" "It is Bill Sikens, sir, who is all the time initiating a locomotive." "Come up here, William; if you have turned into a locomotive, it is high time you were switched off!"

Muggins observed on the door of a house the name of two physicians, and remarked that it put him in mind of a double-barrelled gun, for, if one missed, the other was sure to kill.

It is common to speak of those whom a flirt has jilted, as her victims. This is a grave error. Her real victim is the man whom she accepts. This reminds us of a simile we saw somewhere. "A comatose is a rose from whom every lover plucks a leaf—the horn remains for her future husband."

One of the political divines at the Tabernacle in New York, on Saturday evening, alluding to Connecticut in highly complimentary terms, called her the "Milk-White State," and immediately added, "Where is the GREAT?"

A coxcomb, talking of the transmigration of souls, said: "In the time of Moses, I have no doubt I was the golden calf." "Very likely," replied a lady, "time has robbed you of nothing but the gilding."

A man in Michigan, not long since, committed suicide by drowning. As the body could not be found, the coroner held an inquest on his hat and jacket, and on the bank of the lake. Verdict—"Found empty."

Married, in Indiana, by the Rev. P. H. Brush, Mr. George Hair, to Miss Lucy Comb. It is presumed that Lucy will comb George's hair, but whether, with a three-legged stool, or otherwise, remains to be seen.

A man being commiserated with on account of his wife running away, said: "Don't pity me till she comes back again."

"Have you ever broken a horse?" inquired a horse jockey.

"No," said exactly, replied Simon; "but I've broken two or three wagons."

A ground jumping match is soon to take place on Boston Common, between a "coucse-jumper" and a "baby-jumper."

The young lady who was "buried in grief" is now alive and doing well. It was a case of premature interment.

A lady being asked the other day why she chose to live a single life, replied that she was not able to support a husband.

There is but one guide boat in the whole of Rhode Island, and that points the wrong way.

Some sort of charity will swallow the egg and give away the shell.

Men often think to hear what they were not ashamed to act.

If folly were a pain there would be groaning in every house.

POETRY AS IS POETRY.

We know not when we have seen anything in the poetry way that comes home to our feelings quite like the following:

THE PRINTER'S LOVE.

We love to see the blooming rose,
In all its beauty dressed,
We love to hear our friends disclose
The emotions of the breast.

We love to see the ship arrive
We love to see our neighbors thrive,
And love to bless the poor.

We love to see domestic life,
With uninterposed joys,
We love to see a happy wife,
With lots of girls and boys.

We love all these—yet far above
All that we ever said,
We love what every printer loves,
To have subscriptions paid in advance.

Any delinquent subscriber who can resist an appeal like the above, surely must have the heart of a brick-bat and the soul of a grindstone. Let there be any such, however, totally indifferent to the printer's love, we add the following verses of consolation:

And may the wicked who refuse
To pay the printer's bill,
Be forced to travel without shoes,
Right up a dilly hill!

And never say they turn about,
Or sit down on a rail,
Until the money they shall out,
And send it on by mail, to the proprietors of the "Squatter Sovereign."

LITTLE TOMMY.

Does not this simple story remind the reader of some other little Tommy who has sanctified a trifle by the magic of his touch and left it to be cherished as a priceless thing? It is from the Charleston News.

While passing rapidly up King street, we saw a little boy sitting on a curb stone. He was apparently about 5 or 6 years old, and his well combed hair, down hands and bright, bright though well patched apron, and whole appearance indicated that he was the child of a loving, though indigent mother. As we looked at him closely, we were struck with the heart-broken expression of his countenance, and the mark of recent tears on his cheek.

So, yielding to an impulse which always leads us to sympathize with the joys or sorrows of the little ones, we stopped, and putting a hand upon his head, asked what was the matter? He replied by holding up his open hand, in which we beheld the fragments of a broken tin toy—a figure of a cow.

"Oh! that is all—well, never mind it—Step into the nearest toy shop and buy another"—and we dropped a fourpence into his hand—"that will buy one, will it not?"

"Oh, yes," replied he, bursting into a paroxysm of grief, "but this was little Tommy's and he's dead!"

We gave him the last piece of silver we possessed, but had it been gold, we doubt if he would have noticed it more than he did the silver. The wealth of the world could not have supplied the vacancy that breaking of that toy had left in his little unsophisticated heart.

The LONGEVITY OF SLAVES.—The compend of the census prepared by Mr. DeBow devotes a section to the relative mortality of the white and black races in the United States. In referring to this matter, the Charleston Medical Review remarks:

On an examination of this table, one fact stands prominently forth: it is that of the greater longevity, both general and extreme, of the black than the white in the Slaveholding States. This is a fact pregnant with significance, proving conclusively, as it does, the almost complete freedom from care, the lightness of his labor, and the physical comforts generally enjoyed by the slave, combine to increase the duration of his life, not only beyond that of the laboring white class, but even beyond the average of the white class of all conditions.

But the difference between the two races in point of longevity would be still greater in favor of the black than is presented by the table, if we deduct a certain proportion of early deaths from the latter, occurring among the mulattoes, who exist in large numbers in the cities of the Slave States.

AN AMUSING MISTAKE.

We have recently passed by another of the periods set by the Milesites for the end of the world. Just before the time, a woman in this neighborhood, who had made all the arrangements for her ascension, was making a series of farewell calls upon her neighbors. In one house there was an old lady who was too deaf to get the whole drift of the conversation, and did not understand exactly what journey her friend was about to take. So when the woman on leaving, gave the parting salutation, saying, "I am going up good-bye," the old lady said, "But will you not be down at Thanksgiving?"

A CAT STORY.

A neighbor of ours has a cat—that is called a tortois-shelled cat—that is, she wears about all the colors of the rainbow, a sign fatal to rats and mice in her domain. Like most other cats of her sex, she occasionally blesses her owner with a fine litter of progeny, and which she brings up with scrupulous care. When they get to a proper age she goes about town and provides for each one a good home, and one after another disappear, without the disagreeable duty of drowning. She visits them occasionally for a time, boxing their ears soundly if they attempt to follow her home, and finally abandons them to take care of themselves.—Nashua Telegraph.

The following was picked up in the street a few days since, accompanying a little bunch of glossy brown hair, which looked as if it had been pulled out with a fine-tooth comb

Och, Biddy, me darlint,
Here's a lock of me hair,
An' if there's a snarl in it,
Ded a bit to me care.

Oh! how!

I'm goin' off, Biddy,
To work on the track;
You can take it and kape it,
Until I get back.

If ye like.

The Howard Association of New Orleans, at a meeting held on Monday 8th January, by resolution, appropriated $2,000 for the relief of the poor of New York.

PROSPECTUS

"SQUATTER SOVEREIGN."

THE political complexion of our paper will be Democratic, but as our name imports, will more especially be devoted to the advocacy of such measures, as will in our opinion conduce to the best interests of the "Squatter." Fully recognizing the truth of the great principle adopted in the Kansas-Nebraska Bill, popularly denominated "Squatter Sovereignty"—the right of the people to legislate for themselves, in all matters of a local character, in which their interests alone are involved, we shall repel all attempts on the part of others to interfere in the domestic affairs of our Territory—whether those attempts be made in Congress, or elsewhere.

On the great question to be decided on the formation of our State Constitution, we declare in advance, that we are in favor of the institution of negro slavery, and our effort will be to introduce its recognition in that instrument. We admit that good men may differ with us; hence in our discussion of this question, we shall not resort to invective or denunciation; but will present the question fully and fairly, relying on the good sense of the "Squatters" for a favorable conclusion.

We will endeavor to render our paper not only interesting to the politician, but to all seeking from all sources within our reach, matters of interest to the Merchant, the Farmer, the Mechanic. We will seek to promote morality and virtue, and for this purpose will ever reserve space for the home circle.

The situation of Atchison, being midway between the mouths of the Kansas and Nemaha, on the Missouri, and at a point so much further to the West, than any other on the River, places us in the very heart of the Territory North of the Kansas River, and makes ours the great starting point for the emigrant and others, to Utah, Oregon, California, and the Rocky Mountains, and the Forts Kearney, Laramie and Hall. While we will thus be able to give our readers the earliest intelligence from those distant points, we will also afford to the Merchant and Mechanic of St. Louis, St. Joseph, Weston, and other places on the Missouri, the most desirable medium for their advertisements.

The Squatter Sovereign will be published weekly, at two cents per annum, IN ADVANCE.

SERIES FOR 1855.

THE HOME JOURNAL.
MORRIS AND WELLS, EDITORS.

THE first number of the new series will be issued on the first of January. New subscribers can be supplied from that date; but immediate application will be necessary for such as desire to begin with the beginning. A notice is hereby complete, we think we can safely venture to say, without the Home Journal, which besides being a chronicle of the times, is a most complete and accurate repository of American news. Its editors (Geo. P. Morris and N. P. Willis) devote their entire time, skill and experience, to the task of giving the public the latest and most reliable news. They particularly keep an eye on all the whims and novelties of the day. The utmost pains are taken to present the facts and outlines of all news. In the literary department we aim at alacritous and readable criticism, and in our condensations of the productions of the vast newspaper world, we aim to be brief, and to the point, and to transfer to our columns the pick of English information and brilliancy, while we endeavor to select with a true sense of humor, and a genuine sense of humor. In addition to the above, we have made new arrangements for a feature that is always attractive in a family journal. From our editorial columns we will make up a list of the NEWS AND GOSSIP OF NEW-YORK CITY. In a metropolitan like ours, there are many interesting and amusing incidents which are not generally known, and which bring out much would else be dormant. Adroitly and society gossip is a small world, of which our editorial columns will make up a list of the NEWS AND GOSSIP OF NEW-YORK CITY.
