LADY'S BOOK.—Godey seems determined to keep up with, if not a little in advance of the progress of the times. His Lady's Book is always filled to overflowing with elegant literary matter, beautiful embellishments and splendidly illustrated fashion plates. The November number is rich in attractions.

PETERSON'S NATIONAL MAGAZINE.—This monthly for November is beautiful; the illustrations are very fine and the literary contents of the first order of merit. All our friends should subscribe for Peterson.

GRABER'S MAGAZINE for November is a magnificent number. The high reputation of this periodical has been fully sustained under the auspices of its present proprietors.

KNOW-NOTHING PROFESSIONS AND PRACTICE.—The Hampden (Mass.) Statesman's "Know-Nothing" column at Thorsdike:

"The President bought a Congregational Church at auction and sold it to the Catholics, making $400 by the operation. Another obtained the office of Deputy Sheriff, and one, the most fortunate of all, married a pretty Irish Catholic girl!"

"Young ladies who are accustomed to read newspapers are always observed to possess winning ways and most amiable dispositions—they invariably make good wives, and always select good husbands. A fact—especially where 'the printer' is a maxim steadily kept in view."

"Sally Mauder safe" said Mrs. Partington, as her eyes fell upon an advertisement. "Do tell me Isaac, who this Sally Mauder is, and what she's been doing that they have not had her safe." "I don't know what she's been doing," said Jerry, "but I guess she's sister to Jerry." "Jerry who, Isaac?" "Why Jerry Mauder."

"A female school teacher, in her advertisement stated that she was complete 'mistress of her own tongue.'" "If that's the case," said a caustic old bachelor, "she can't ask too much for her services."

"Avoid a man who is always using four-story high language. There's no more likelihood of his getting a sensible idea out of his head, than melting a piece of iron in a snow-bank."

"A serious question has arisen as to whether St. Paul advises the taking of a little wine for the stomach's sake or the stomach's ache!"

DIED
 In this city, of erysipelas, HENRY RIVINGTON, son of John R. and Elizabeth R. Strimfellow, for an illness of two weeks.

Atchison Prices Current.
 CAREFULLY ARRANGED AND REPORTED WEEKLY BY S. JOHNSON, Wholesale and Retail Merchant, and Dealer in every description of Country Produce, &c.

The trade of Atchison, is now drawn from so large an extent of country, in the interior, that it is a convenience to persons living at a distance from us, to know before they start for the river, what they can get, and at what prices. This fall our place is better stocked with provisions, groceries, boots, shoes, clothing, dry goods, mals, liquors &c., than any other Kansas river town. The prices are as low as at Weston or St. Joseph. Hides, tallow, beeswax, and every other produce sells readily. Socks and jeans are scarce, and our Missouri ladies will make by sending their barter of this kind to Atchison. The following are a list of prices: Sugar—10 to 12 1/2 for brown, 12 1/2 to 16c for white, 16 to 18c for yellow, 18 to 20c for extra white. Coffee—10 to 12c for Java, 12 to 14c for Rio, 14 to 16c for Mocha, 16 to 18c for Java, 18 to 20c for Rio, 20 to 22c for Mocha. Tea—10 to 12c for Java, 12 to 14c for Rio, 14 to 16c for Mocha.
