GENERAL NOTES OF SOCIETY.

Personal Items of Interest About Topeka People and Visitors in Town.

Mrs. Nathan Price of Omaha is visiting her daughters, Mrs. T. G. Wear and Mrs. Paul Hudson and will remain till after the holidays. Mr. Pryor Markel of Omaha will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Wear, for the Imperial party Friday night. Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Harding will spend Christmas day in San Francisco, and will be in Topeka about January 8. Everybody will go to hear the Prentiss lecture Wednesday evening. Miss Susie Brodt is in the city this afternoon. Mrs. Arthur Lacey entertained a few friends to duplicate waist last evening. Miss Sallie Corning will arrive Thursday from Chicago to spend the holidays with her parents at Glenarie farm. Miss Myrtle Davis entertained a few friends Saturday evening. Miss Emma White, of Lawrence, will spend Christmas with Dr. and Mrs. Reed. A new dancing club in social circles, it is rumored by one of their number, has taken the rather suggestive name of "The Bunglers." Despite the name they are practicing assiduously every Friday night and learning all the new dances, in addition to enjoying a social time. The members are Mr. and Mrs. B. T. Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Will Morton, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Crosby, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Hudson, Mr. and Mrs. George Crane, Mr. and Mrs. George Eagle, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Hurd, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Atwood, Dr. and Mrs. C. R. Reed, Mrs. Clara Wiggin, Mr. McKibben and daughter, Miss Maud, and Mr. Ed Hurry. Mrs. W. McFerran will entertain friends tonight. Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Dolby, Miss Belle Rittinger and Miss Ethel Palmer made up a box party at the Grand last evening. Miss Willie Pennybaker is staying with her cousin, Mrs. Callie Hughes, for a few days. Miss Agnes Walaa is very ill at her home. Mrs. C. W. Snyder and Mrs. William Salomon of Horton, Kansas, who were the guests of Mrs. D. J. Mahoney, 209 Klein street, left for home Sunday. Mrs. Sharp of Horton, Kansas, has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Reed, at 1821 Kansas avenue. Mrs. J. K. Hudson's little book, "Two Little Maids and Their Friends," holds unusual interest for a number of Topeka people, bringing into the story as it does little Josephine and Eleanor Keizer, Mary and Dorothy Clead, Ethel Butterfield and Pauline Hudson. Apropos of the latter, the book has one mistake. Little Pauline Hudson's picture has Josephine's name under it. Mr. and Mrs. George I. Stevenson left yesterday for different points in Colorado for the benefit of Mrs. Stevenson's health. Miss Sallie Crosby will receive her friends at her studio the last three days of the week. Mr. S. R. Ritchie will arrive Sunday and visit Dr. and Mrs. C. B. Reed till after the holidays. Mr. Noble Prentiss of Kansas City will give his lecture on "Art for the Artless," for the benefit of the Ladies' Aid society, at the cathedral, in the church parlors, corner of Eighth and Polk, Wednesday, December 19, 1894. Doors open at 7:30. Lecture at 8. Admission 25 cents.

Dr. F. Hoyt Pletcher of Winfield, superintendent of the Winfield asylum for idiotic and imbecile youth is here to meet with the state board of charities. The advance sheets of Geo. W. Crane's legislative hand book contain the names and post office addresses of all the members of the state senate and new house of representatives. 100 styles of perfume atomizers at Swift & Holliday's. New designs, lower prices. Topeka Steam Laundry, 625 Jackson street.

SNAP SHOTS AT HOME NEWS.

And now it is the several engagements. The Christmas and its customs have departed. The city employees will be paid next Saturday. The First Christian church now has an orchestra of six pieces. The express companies will soon have their annual holiday blockades. You can see the sun rise if you get up at half past seven these mornings. Judge Foster will sit as United States circuit judge to finish up the equity cases. The work of re-flooring the Kansas avenue bridge is about one-half completed. Eugene Ware says he does not write poetry any more and that he has fully recovered. The average man wishes his December salary was about three times as large as it actually is. A series of revival services are to be held at Westminster Presbyterian church commencing January 6. "A Railroad Ticket" played at Lawrence last night at 25, 50 and 75 cents. That's all Lawrence can stand. This is the time of year that every young man with a small salary and lots of girl friends begins to tremble. A Topeka policeman is part owner in a mining claim in the territory which he expects will make him rich. There are now eighteen framed pictures belonging to the art school on the walls of the high school building. The representatives of the hardware trade in the merchants' carnival last night wore veritable suits of mail. Daniel McKernan of 729 Hancock street was killed in Missouri this week. The remains arrived in Topeka today. There was so much bad spelling on the theater programme last night that it might have been printed on a typewriter. There is one person on the police force whose job isn't in danger from the change in administration. It is Mrs. Thorpe. The grade of theater attractions Topeka is getting this winter is about what would be suitable for Arkansas City, Salina and places of that size. An onion in the hot air shaft made an unpleasant odor in the main assembly room of the high school yesterday. It was such an awful funny joke. Deannis Hope has written a letter to the JOURNAL, saying that he did not sign the hand-bill calling a "meeting of tax payers" at the court house last night. General Secretary Lerrigo of the Y. M. C. A., says if there is to be a barber shop attached to the association, he would like to know it. The barber shop will not be attached. What better Christmas present can you make to your family than a subscription to the STATE JOURNAL for one year? They'll get more pleasure out of that than any other thing. The railroads will make a rate of one fare for the round trip to Topeka from all Kansas points for the meeting of the Masonic grand lodge, which will be in session here February 18 to 21. The state board of charities is in session at the National today, and will be for several days, letting contracts for supplying the state institutions with provisions for the next six months. Topeka chapter of the Royal Arch Masons elected officers last night as follows: C. J. Webb, high priest; S. L. Seabrook, king; A. O. Wellman, scribe; T. P. Rodgers, treasurer, and Frank Drummond, secretary. The members of the Ministerial union want to know why Judge Haree hasn't sentenced Fred Heller, who was convicted of violating the prohibitory law several months ago. Heller's clerk has applied for a permit to sell liquor at the old place. Albini, the card shark who hounded Topeka Thanksgiving Day, was to have played a two weeks' engagement at Crawford's Deaver opera house, but Jim Moore, who managed Emily Higley here the first of the season and now has charge of the Denver house, was so disgusted

LOCAL MENTION.

The Epworth league of the Kansas Avenue M. E. church will hold their regular business meeting this evening, followed by a Bible study, lead by Mrs. Madison. Several Topeka suffragists are preparing to go to Atlanta, Ga., to attend the twenty-seventh annual Woman Suffrage convention, which will be in session from January 21 to February 5. The Y. M. C. A. will have a series of indoor athletic contests commencing tonight. The contestants are to be R. C. Osborn, Geo. Brandon, F. Clark, R. S. Montgomery, U. S. Dwelly, E. R. Marsh, G. P. Howard, Joe Reiser, A. E. Baughman, Fred Frost and F. A. Benson. George Weaver, the young colored man who had trouble about his registration before election, says he was held up by three white footpads last night in front of the livery stable on Tenth street between Topeka avenue and Tyler street. "I was scared most to death," he said, "but I would know them again. No, I didn't run, but I walked away right pert." The footpads made a water haul. He delivers "sermons" in Union Square Hall, New York. NEW YORK, Dec. 18.—George Francis Train has begun a series of sermons in Union Square hall. In the first one last night he said: "You'll notice that I call myself the Rev. George Francis Train. The reason I do it is because I am so d—d irreverent. But I don't mean to swear. I say 'damn' very often, but I don't mean to swear. When I was in the South Sea Islands I said 'damn' one day, and immediately a native went and brought me a banana. In the native language 'damn' means banana, so when I am talking to savages and say 'damn' I am not swearing. "My people," the citizen went on, "were good, old Methodists, and when I was a boy they did nothing, but talk hell and damnation to me. So I think that I am but showing what a good Methodist training I had when I use the words in every other sentence." A Kodak makes a good Christmas present. Swift & Holliday have them. Holiday Presents In great variety. Vases, Cups, Saucers, Fancy Plates, Carving Sets, Nut Crackers and Ficks, Chocolate Pots, etc. J. W. Farnsworth, 593 Kansas avenue. Lamps. Of every description and prices to suit. We sell the "B & H," the only double center draft burner made. Call and see our line. J. W. Farnsworth, 593 Kansas avenue. Yellow, Dried Up and Wrinkled. Is this the way your face looks? If so, try Beggs' Blood Purifier and Blood Maker. It not only purifies the blood, but renews it, and gives your face a bright youthful appearance. Sold and warranted by W. R. Kennedy. EEE calls up the Peerless. A thief who gave his name as Berry was caught in the act of purloining a pair of trousers from a north side clothing store yesterday afternoon and was taken to the station by Officer Owens. Lecture by Ethel Frances Baker on the "Passion Play," Ober-Ammergau, Knights of Pythias hall, Friday eve, December 21. Admission 10 cents. Everybody welcome. Ed. McClellan, colored, and his son Oran, who live north of town, were riding in a cart last night, when the horse became frightened at an electric car just north of the bridge, and started up the avenue at a terrific rate. The father jumped and received no injuries, but the boy stuck to the cart until it collided with one of the iron poles of the electric line, when he shot through the air about twenty feet, striking the pavement on his head. He was picked up unconscious and carried into a restaurant close at hand while Dr. Hibben was called to determine the extent of his injuries. The doctor soon restored him to consciousness, and thought there would no serious results from his fall.
