Street Commissioner Snyder is working a large force now, in the business of street cleaning. The muddy weather has made plenty of work for this department. A. M. Harvey is mentioned for the democratic nominee for the school board from the Third ward. He is also mentioned for governor. Honors never come singly. The contempt proceedings against M. M. Burris, of Miltonvale, will be heard before Judge Hook, of the federal court, next Monday. Burris went into bankruptcy, owing the Lee Mercantile Company, of Sedalia, and other firms a considerable sum of money. They claim that he failed to turn in $1,000 in money and property which he had as assets in his statement of his financial condition to the court. He refused to turn it in when the referee ordered him to do so, and is now to be tried for contempt. Governor Stanley met with a calamity while on the Katy from Fort Scott to Emporia the other day. He was with a crowd of politicians and newspaper men, and when the conductor came around the governor pulled out his deck of passes and began to hunt for his "Katy" pass. Being a Methodist, the governor is not very spry at shuffling cards and it was a laborious process with him. He went through the deck several times but without finding the desired pasteborder, and finally had to pay cash, to the satisfaction of the crowd. Lord Hops Falls. London, March 14.—The failure is announced of Lord Francis Hope. The petitioning creditor's claim was $4,000.

FINNEY NOT SCARED.

Thinks He Will Be Re-elected Railroad Commissioner.

It is expected that the executive council will take up the election of a railroad commissioner at its meeting next week. The short term of D. W. Finney expires in April, and the meeting of the council next week will be the last regular meeting before that time, and the election will regularly come up at that time.

Governor Finney does not expect any opposition to his re-election. There was talk some time ago that an attempt would be made to displace him, but this has been quelled and nothing more is heard of it.

The office of railroad commissioner is probably the best appointive place in the state government. There is not so much honor in it as there is in an elective state office, but it is better from a financial standpoint. In fact, there is only one place that really more desirable financially, and that is state printer. To be sure, the governor and members of the supreme court receive a salary larger by $500 than the railroad commissioner, but they have to work at their jobs all the time, and the expenses of the governor eat up his salary. The railroad commissioner receives a salary of $2,500 a year, the same as the state officers except governor and state superintendent. The former receives $3,000 a year, and the latter $2,000. Then the railroad commissioner has to put in only a small part of his time in his office, and the railroads are all compelled to furnish him passes without his asking for them; but the other state officers have never been known to have any trouble about passes. Taken altogether, the place of railroad commissioner is extremely desirable.

The work of the board since its establishment by the last legislature has been heavier than it probably will be in the future, because it has been "establishing precedents." That is, it has been laying down certain rules of action. Whenever a new kind of case comes up, it is necessary to lay down new rules. In the future when cases like these come up, the railroad companies will know exactly what the rulings of the board will be, and if they are in error they will not allow the cases to come before the board. The rulings, too, aid the board in a speedy adjudication of the cases that come before them.

Governor Finney will doubtless be re-elected next week for a term of three years. A year hence the term of J. N. Pike, the Democratic member of the board, will expire, and there will probably be a scramble for his place. A. D. Walker, the other Republican member, still has two years to serve.

STREET CAR FRANCHISE.

Birmingham Companies Unite to Build System. Birmingham, Ala., March 14.—Contracts merging the Steel Cities railway company and the Warrior River Power company into the Birmingham and Steel Cities Railway and Power company and providing for the financing of this organization have been signed. The company will build a street car system for which a franchise was recently granted. The company has a capital stock of $2,000,000.

RODENBERG RESIGNS.

A Vacancy Made on the Civil Service Commission.

Washington, March 14.—William A. Rodenberg of East St. Louis, Ill., today submitted to President Roosevelt his resignation as a member of the United States civil service commission to take effect April 1. Richard Dana of Boston has been mentioned as a probable successor, but President Roosevelt has not yet announced his intention. His relations with the president and the other members of the commission have been cordial and the latter today gave out a statement in which they announced there always had been harmony between the three commissioners and denying a report that a request for his resignation had ever been contemplated. Mr. Rodenberg called on the president several days ago and informed him of his intention to resign and to enter politics and the latter urged him to remain. Mr. Rodenberg formerly represented the Twenty-first Illinois district in congress.

WELLINGTON ON DECK.

Says He Isn't Out of Game by Any Means.

E. W. Wellington, of Ellsworth, does not take much stock in the predictions of the politicians that he is out of the congressional race in the Sixth district. He still thinks he has a good chance of defeating Congressman Reed, and when the congressional convention meets at Norton on April 3. He thinks that he will get Lincoln and Osborne counties and that they will decide the contest in his favor. In discussing the situation last night Mr. Wellington said: "Notwithstanding the claims of Reed's friends, the fight is not over yet, by any means. Of the counties that have held their conventions, the delegations are all uncommitted. The deciding counties are Lincoln and Osborne and I have reason to believe that I will get their votes. Reed claims them, but the Reed men are claiming everything to the extent of bluff. "They even claim they will break into the counties along the Union Pacific. But with these solid, with Lincoln and Osborne for me, far from being nominated for the first ballot or by acclamation, they claim Reed is not yet nominated. In my judgment my chances for landing are as good as ever and the fight is still on."

SUIT IS SETTLED.

By Payment of a Large Amount of Cash. Birmingham, Ala., March 14.—C. E. Robinson, in agreement, received between $99 and $125,000 in cash in settlement of his suit against E. T. and G. H. Schuler, president and secretary respectively of the Alabama Steel and Wire company.

Under the terms of the settlement all of Mr. Robinson's holdings in the Alabama Steel and Wire company and the Joliet Wire company, which he had transferred to Messrs. E. T. and G. H. Schuler. Mr. Robinson owned four hundred shares of common stock and four hundred shares of preferred stock in the Alabama Steel and Wire company and several hundred shares of stock in the Joliet Wire company. All this becomes the property of the Schuler family, and they are to have possession of the plant of the Joliet Wire company, which will hereafter be run in connection with the Alabama Steel and Wire company.

NOTICES POSTED.

Mine Operators Announce That Wages Will Be Maintained. Philadelphia, March 14.—Notices have been posted at all the collieries of the Philadelphia and Reading Coal and Iron company in the Shamokin district and all the anthracite collieries in the Hazleton district announcing a continuation of last year's wage scale. The notices read as follows: "The rate of wages now in effect will be continued until April 3, 1902, and thereafter, subject to 60 days' notice. Local differences will as heretofore be adjusted with our employees at the respective collieries." The action of the companies and individual operators in posting the notices at this time is to anticipate the miners' convention, which will be held in Shamokin beginning Tuesday of next week.

DANIELS STILL IN JAIL.

Hearing is Continued Till Next Week and Bail Refused. The preliminary hearing of Roy Daniels, who is charged with the murder of Frank Devlin in Daniels' joint on East Fourth street March 6th, was set for 9 o'clock this morning, but was continued to the 18th at the request of the counsel for the state, Capt. McNary, who objected to a hearing without the testimony of Luke Heery, who was not able to appear.

Attorneys Hayden and Huggate for the defense suggested that the court repair to Heery's home and take his testimony there, and objected to a continuance unless the defendant was admitted to bail. The case was finally disposed of by a continuance to next Tuesday, as Heery's physician thought he would be able to appear by that time.

The defense made an argument for bond for the defendant which the court refused to consider, and Daniels was turned to jail.

MUST AID CHARITY.

Duties of Frisco Club Securing Big Prize Fight. San Francisco, March 14.—If any of the athletic clubs in this city secure the Jeffries-Frisco fight it will be required to contribute a substantial amount to some charitable institution or public improvement. The police commission and board of supervisors has reported a resolution to the effect that the permit for the month of May be given to the club that gives the most money to a public charity or to some public improvement in a sum not less than $500, to be paid before the permit is granted. Supervisor Curtis said the expenditure would draw at least $5,000 in receipts and it was but just that the club securing so valuable a privilege should contribute to the public good.

Five Story Building Burned.

Cleveland, O., March 14.—Fire early today practically destroyed the five-story brick building occupied by the Randall Mattress company. Loss $50,000. Philip Stoppel, foreman of the factory, jumped from a third floor window. He suffered a broken leg and was otherwise injured. Two firemen were overcome by smoke and were carried from the building. They will recover.

The Unity ladies will give a supper at their church Friday evening, from 6 to 8 o'clock. Every one invited to attend.

New York, March 14.—The seventh international cable match between America and Great Britain for the Newman trophy was begun today under the auspices of the Brooklyn Chess club and the British Chess club of London. The teams were matched as follows: Great Britain—America—Lawrence, Pillsbury, Mason, Pillsbury, Barry, Marshall, Alkin, Edgely, Mills, Hynes, Bellingham, Voight, Treachard, Belmont, Blake, Newmann, Mitchell, Hoell, Girdlestone, Helms.
