

HOCH MEN WIN. They Furnished a Genuine Surprise in Reno. Carried the County at the Saturday Primary. NOW HAS 38 DELEGATES Governor Bailey Has an Equal Number. Curtis Forces Carry Primaries in Brown.

Table with 2 columns: Name and Delegates. Includes Doniphan, Jackson, Nemaha, Reno, Johnson, Jefferson, and Totals.

The anti-Bailey movement won in Reno and Johnson counties Saturday, and in Jefferson, where no special fight was made for Bailey, but which was conceded to Curtis and therefore to Hoch. Curtis also carried Brown county with 14 votes.

Johnson and Jefferson counties were conceded to Hoch, although a fight was made in Johnson county. In Reno county the result was not a surprise to either side, although Chairman Stubbs said the anti-Bailey people were not banking on it.

Although Reno is the home of some of the recognized leaders of the Bailey and Long factions, there has generally been a fight in that county. When Troutman ran against Morrill in 1896 he carried Reno county. The friends of Governor Bailey have realized for ten days that they would have a hard fight in Reno and they not counted on carrying the county as a surprise.

The outcome in Reno county was close. Mr. Hoch will have 108 delegates in a county which has a population of 10,000. Governor Bailey will have eighty votes in the convention, regardless of how many delegates he carries.

The fight has been a hard one from the outset. Long before Hoch was in the race the work of organization was begun. Carr W. Taylor, ex-county attorney by grace of the machine, and deputy to the present county attorney, became an opponent of the machine in the contest last spring over the congressional nomination, opposing W. W. Forsha, the Reno Democrat.

The result of Saturday's primaries in Brown county was a surprise to the friends of Judge W. L. Stuart. They expected to have a good majority in the county convention against Curtis, but the Curtis forces carried the primaries and Curtis will therefore have Brown county's 14 votes in the congressional convention.

Stuart carried the city of Horton, one ward in Hawatha, and North Padonia, but Curtis carried two Hiawatha wards and most of the county.

The result of the congressional fight now hinges on Atchison county. If Mr. Curtis carries four of the counties which he has lost, he will have enough votes to secure a nomination.

While the Iowa delegation long held out for Senator Dooliver for vice president in the preliminary days and hours of the Philadelphia convention, and while Iowa was down for Dooliver, there was an undertone against him.

The two have long been friends, and began the fight long before that ended in the nomination of Mr. Roosevelt for vice president.

Lafayette Young is editor of the Des Moines Capital, an evening paper, and is also the principal talk at the annual banquet at the Agate club in Chicago a few weeks ago.

Mr. Young is in great demand as a speaker and the Kansas Day club is certain to have him as its guest.

Now with reference to the "and cot" business, I think you should bear in mind that I was not the chief clerk of the house, and only did as commanded by the chief clerk.

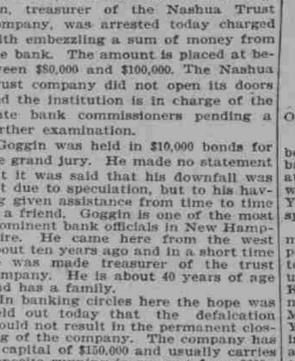

Now in conclusion allow me to say that I am in favor of attending the republican party in Kansas is badly in need of a good dose of "purification."

There was no way to prevent illegal voting as the organization in this ward was in possession of the Curtis-Walker name. This ward there were 182 known Republican voters who had residence there and 214 votes were cast.

At Mayetta, which was carried by the Curtis-Walker faction, there were 74 more votes cast than was ever before cast for the Republican ticket.
