When the board met Mr. Brooker's attorney...

Offensive. I suffered for a long time with a bad case of Catarrh, and took a great deal of medicine without any benefit...

I had a continual headache, my cheeks had grown purple, my nose was always stopped up, my breath had a sickening and disgusting odor...

I commenced to use it, and after taking several bottles I was cured and after never since had the slightest symptom of the disease.

Wheeling, W. Va., May 29, 1903. I had Nasal Catarrh for years for which I used S. S. with very gratifying results.

I tried local applications for some time, and getting no permanent relief I came to the conclusion that the seat of the trouble was in the blood.

Knowing S. S. to be a good blood medicine I began its use, and after using it for some little while it did away entirely with the offensive mucus in the nostrils...

It is a heavy internal revenue tax, and that it can be used generally for fuel purposes and that its manufacture will benefit the great industry...

To Prevent the Grip. Laxative Bromo Quinine, the world wide cold and grip remedy...

Rival Ball Men Are Friendly in All of the Leagues.

Schedules Show Good Effects of Closer Relations.

WORKING IN HARMONY.

Comiskey Was the One Man Who Left Disgusted.

Never Saw Such Side Stepping as Hart Is Doing.

New York, Feb. 20.—The meeting of the baseball forces in New York last week resulted in closer relations between the major leagues...

The schedules given out were by long odds the best ever drafted since the advent of the American League. The general mixing up of the delegates around the hotel corridors was a conspicuous feature...

The minors were ably represented and made a fine impression, and, though palled to land what they had been given the way for better conditions in the future.

The Southern League asked to be raised to the highest class of the minors, and President Johnson made one of the conditions of any concessions to the minors, "I believe," said Johnson, "that the Southern is fully as strong as any minor league."
