Some of the plutocrats who ride in an automobile last night to the Country Club last night had the machine refused to go—something wrong with the brakes, and they turned around and went home rather than walk up the hill.

Mrs. S. M. Crow is entertaining this afternoon a few guests in honor of Mrs. Ray Bener of Borlissville, I. T. and Mrs. Clay Grant of Texas at her home, 215 West Seventh.

The girls who are away at the summer resorts aren't having any better time dancing about with decrepit fellows and high heels than the girls who are staying at home entertaining a surplus of from three to five men a night. Every girl who is left in town has at least two escorts for every party. The girls who have been wall flowers all winter are surrounded by a perfect mob of men at the dances. They don't care if the other girls never come back.

Miss Mary Walker gave an informal party this morning for Mrs. Charles S. Stewart of Elmwood, Ill., who is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John E. Grimes.

Mrs. Frank E. Grimes gave a family luncheon today for Mrs. Martha Curtis Hougham of Dayton, Ohio, Miss Martha Kemp of Columbus, Ohio, Miss Hespera Hougham, Mrs. Harry O. Garvey, Mrs. Charles F. Spencer and Miss Annabelle Garvey.

The following girls composed a picnic at Vinewood this afternoon: Miss Helen Plass, Miss Dorothy Hearburn, Miss Bernice Van Lier, Miss Gladys Bennett, Miss Gladys Neal, Miss Neale Barhaugh, Miss Grace Anderson, Miss Helen Adams, Miss Bertha Smiley and Miss Marian Kenney. Miss Helen Hearburn, Mrs. A. H. Harkins chaperoned the party.

The marriage of Miss Nellie Amelia Garlinghouse, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lucien B. Garlinghouse, and Mr. Edward Sheffield Cowdrick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene W. Cowdrick, at 1222 Garfield avenue, will take place at half after 8 o'clock tonight at the home of the bride's parents, 132 Western avenue. The Rev. H. E. Warren will officiate at the Walnut Grove M. E. church, which will perform the ceremony and only the members of the two families will attend the wedding at 1222 Western street. Mr. Cowdrick, who is a Topeka newspaper man, is a graduate of the University of Kansas, where he was elected to the honorary fraternity, Phi Beta Kappa in his senior year. Miss Garlinghouse was formerly a student at Washburn and Baker universities.

Mrs. A. B. Quinton will be the hostess of the Monday whist club next week.
