

KANSAS CLUB WOMEN.

brightest and most capable club women in town. Mrs. Watson has something of a boom for president, and would certainly have a large following for any office should she become a candidate.

Mrs. A. D. Gray, Mrs. J. B. Larimer and Mrs. H. W. Roby have all been mentioned for president of the federation. Mrs. Gray is a member of the Alta Vista and Conversation clubs, Mrs. Larimer of the Chaldean club and Mrs. Roby of the Ladies' Shakespeare, Western Sorosis and Caldorean clubs. The executive board would be greatly strengthened by the acquisition of any or all of these women and their clubs could not do better than to endorse them for an office.

The West Side Forestry club has endorsed Mrs. J. W. Going for president, but she has positively refused to become a candidate. The club also endorsed Mrs. L. D. Graham for secretary, but she pleaded a lack of time for the service in account of many other duties and would not accept a nomination. Mrs. Walter L. Bates was endorsed by the club for the office of treasurer.

Miss Emma Wallace's name has been mentioned in connection with a nomination for treasurer of the city federation. Miss Wallace was formerly deputy treasurer of Shawnee county. She is a good business woman and very capable in other directions and would add strength to the executive board.

A suggestion for the Topeka federation's philanthropic departments is found in the following from the New York Tribune: "The most successful cooking and dietetics is the latest attempt to solve the problem of the undernourished New York school child. About a month ago the department for improving the condition of the poor decided to place in the field such a teacher, whose business it would be to go to homes where the children were known to be underfed and teach the mothers how to do the best in feeding their families."

The Monday Tourist club met with Mrs. Geo. C. Beach with Mrs. Fred Everts assisting. For the past two months the club have been studying Germany and Monday was the greatest day programme. Mrs. Ralph McEntire gave a very delightful talk on German authors, devoting most of the time to Lessing and Schiller. Miss Fairfield read selections from each of these authors. Mrs. Chamberlain read from "Stoddard's Berlin" and Miss Anna Marie Nellis gave a very interesting talk on Germany and related many of her own experiences while in Berlin. She had with her a fine collection of pictures which were enjoyed by those present. Mrs. John Kleinmann sang and Miss Grace Wilcox played a piano solo. Liberty songs, the club flowers, were used in decorations. The guests of the afternoon were Miss Anna Marie Nellis, Miss Jeanette Griffin of Kansas City, Mrs. Francis L. Ely, Mrs. J. E. Thayer, Mrs. E. E. Priest of Garden City, Mrs. A. D. Gray, Mrs. Clyde M. Lawrence, Mrs. J. G. Freeman, Mrs. Walter L. Bates, Mrs. Geo. C. Beach, Mrs. Frank Klingensmith, Mrs. Geo. D. Wall, Mrs. E. G. Strider, Mrs. Walter Wellhouse, Mrs. Walker, Miss Grace Wilcox, Miss Ruth Walker, Miss Bell Everts.

The Chaitlo club met with Mrs. W. R. Frederick Thursday. Roll call was answered by quotations on childhood. Mrs. J. H. Lane, Mrs. Frank Klingensmith, Mrs. Geo. D. Wall, Mrs. E. G. Strider, Mrs. Walter Wellhouse, Mrs. Walker, Miss Grace Wilcox, Miss Ruth Walker, Miss Bell Everts.

The West Side Forestry club had its last meeting before the annual winter vacation Thursday afternoon with Mrs. J. H. Lane on Land street. Most of the other clubs take their vacations in the summertime, but as the Forestry club is an outdoor club and makes a specialty of nature and plant study, the summer is when it especially thrives and its monthly picnic meetings at the country homes of its members are among its most delightful and agreeable occasions. Therefore it has fixed its vacation period in the holidays.

The Current Literature club met Tuesday with Mrs. William Ebeling. Mrs. C. E. Walker gave a review of Poe's "Fall of the House of Usher," and Mrs. C. T. McEllan reviewed the Review of Reviews.

The Vignette club will meet Tuesday with Mrs. Elou S. Clark.

day season and the third week in November until the last week in January. His meetings are discontinued. The January meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. N. H. Loomis.

At the meeting last Thursday two guests, Mrs. W. D. Aldrich of Parsons, and Mrs. J. W. Going of the In Tempora and Ladies' Music clubs, were on the programme. Mrs. Atkinson gave an address on "Civic Improvement," and Mrs. Going gave a travel talk illustrated by photographs and prints on her visit to Palestine. Luncheon was served by the hostesses and among the guests were Mrs. M. A. Low, Mrs. Fred K. Brown, Mrs. H. W. Roby and Mrs. J. D. Corbett. A "hall" was taken for the officers of the city federation. Mrs. Going received the most votes for president, Mrs. Walter L. Bates for treasurer, and Mrs. J. D. Graham for secretary. Neither Mrs. Going nor Mrs. Graham would consent, however, to a nomination, insisting that they could not serve under any conditions.

The Shakespeare evening enjoyed by the Vignette club at the home of Miss Gussie Fuller Wednesday was one of the most delightful of the many original and successful entertainments which the members of this club and their husbands and friends have enjoyed. The feature of the evening was the impersonation of Shakespearean characters with scenes or selections from Shakespeare's plays. Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Garvey gave the wedding scene from the "Taming of the Shrew"; Judge Arthur J. McCabe recited the "Apostrophe to a Skull" from Hamlet; Mrs. Charles Spencer impersonated the sleeping beauty scene from Macbeth, and Mr. Speed Hughes recited from the Tempest. All these were in costume and with the proper accessories. Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges. Nearly everybody knows that charcoal is the safest and most efficient diaphoretic and purifier in nature, but few realize its value when taken into the human system for the same cleansing purpose. Charcoal is a remedy that the more you take of it the better; it is not a drug at all, but simply absorbs the gases and impurities always present in the stomach and intestines and carries them out of the system. Charcoal sweetens the breath after eating onions and other odorous vegetables. Charcoal effectually clears and improves the complexion, it whitens the teeth and further acts as a natural and eminently safe cathartic. It absorbs the injurious gases which collect in the stomach and bowels; it disinfects the mouth and throat from the poison of catarrh. All druggists sell charcoal in one form or another, but probably the best is Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges; they are composed of the finest powdered willow charcoal and other harmless antiseptics in tablet form or rather in the form of large, pleasant tasting lozenges, the charcoal being mixed with honey. The daily use of these lozenges will soon tell in a much improved condition of the general health, better complexion, sweeter breath, and purer blood, and the beauty of it is, that no possible harm can result from their continued use, but, on the contrary, great benefit. A Buffalo physician, in speaking of the benefits of charcoal, says: "I advise Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges to all patients suffering from gas in stomach and bowels, and to clear the complexion and purify the breath, mouth and throat. I also believe the liver is greatly benefited by the daily use of them; they cost but twenty-five cents a box at drug stores, and although in some sense a patent preparation, yet I believe I get more and better charcoal in Stuart's Charcoal Lozenges than in any of the ordinary charcoal tablets." Cures Drunkards

Mary's Miracle. The day of working miracles, I'm sure is far from past, And now to show you what I mean, I'll tell you that happened right to me. For I was part of it, you see. You know the life I used to lead—O God, a living death! A drunkard of the hopeless kind—For scarce a sober breath I ever drew, and hope and pride Were lost to me and nearly all beside.

One friend alone was left—my wife, God bless her, and she saved me from a drunkard's grave, And whiskey's wicked power, Just how she saved me from that fate—This is the way she told it me.

When hope was almost dead within, Her faithful, constant breast, She read of Dr. Haines' Cure, Then without stay or rest, She sent for one Trial Sample free, And gave it (unknown to me) I drank of it at every meal—'Tis in my blood, While Mary watched me anxiously, But never a word she said; Until one day I stopped to think, That I had lost my love for drink!

When, quite unconscious I was cured, My Mary told me all; It seemed the very act of God, And henceforth I was free. I call it this, because my wife And Haines' Cure had saved my life. And now my little story's done, My every word is true, And when you've read it did for me, The same 'twill do for you, And wives and mothers one and all, Take heart of Mary's miracle. Save those near and dear to you from a life of degradation, poverty and disgrace. You can do it by cutting out this coupon.

Free treatment coupon. Fill in your name and address on blank lines below. Then cut out this coupon and mail it to Dr. J. W. Haines, 259 Glenn Bldg., Cincinnati, Ohio. You will receive in return enough of the remedy to prove to you that it will cure drunkenness in any form. You give nothing for this food. The drunkard will stop drinking without knowing why. You will also receive a complete cure, quick and sure for nervous complaints, general debility, female weaknesses, impoverished blood and malaria. Guaranteed by Arnold Drug Co. drug store. Price 60c.
