H. J. Hagny, editor of the Wichita Beacon, is numbered among the true sports by the Washburn girls. In their recent play, "The Land of Gridiron," Mr. Hagny was one of the chief villains and as soon as he was apprised of the fact he sent a beautiful bouquet carnations to Miss Leidy, the Healy who carried his part. Lieutenant Glasford won a home at Washburn in the same manner. However the response of the other villain is still awaited.

Paris, Jan. 30.—The French cabinet has hardly recovered from its surprise at the proposition which the bishops, with the approval of the pope, submitted to the government for a modus vivendi on the basis of a virtual lease of the churches in perpetuity to the parish priests by the mayors and apparently some confusion exists as to what course to adopt.

The moment for reflection has arrived. The Vatican offers a solution compatible with its dignity and duty. The indisposability of serious negotiations is demonstrated by the vain and empty promises which are jeopardizing the national unity.

The means for pacification are offered, but even if the rejected the government will inevitably be driven to persecution. The Episcopate says: "The world will interpret the bishops' proposition as a sincere desire for conciliation."

M. Jaures, the socialist leader, in his paper, Humanite, makes the following comment: "The skilful maneuver of the church, designed to furnish an excuse for suspending public worship upon the pretext that the necessary guarantees are refused."

The Radical expresses the hope that the Episcopate, composed of M. Bryand and M. Gaudin, will not be misled by the "trap and coil" of the prudent and liberal policy the Republican majority approves.

Chicago, Jan. 30.—A dispatch to the Tribune from New York says: "Edward Strauss, composer of the sensational musical setting of Oscar Wilde's drama 'Salome,' in an interview with the New York World correspondent in New York, expressed his opinion of the furor created by the production of the musical drama here in these words: 'Probably there are two classes of persons in New York, who discover that 'Salome' is immoral. The first are those whose lives, especially their secret lives, are not so good as they appear to be. The second are those who oppose art, and all dramatic treatment of a Biblical story or legend. This class is largely represented in England and the United States. To these people 'Saint-Saens' Samson and Delilah' is immoral, so are all my plays and passion plays."

TAXKANSAS PLUTOCRATS

This Is Provided for in Proposed Constitutional Amendment. By the dexterous insertion of a word or so in a concurrent resolution seeking to amend the constitution in regard to the methods of taxing corporations, which was introduced in the senate by F. Dumont Smith, Balle Waggener made it possible, when the resolution came up for final consideration yesterday afternoon, to let the people of the state vote on the proposition as to whether or not the income of the plutocrats of Kansas shall be taxed.

The original resolution as presented by Senator Smith provided for the amendment of the constitution, if the people approved, by saying that "Power is specifically given to tax corporations upon their gross receipts, and to assess and tax the franchisees of all public service corporations." When the resolution came up for final consideration yesterday afternoon Senator Waggener suggested that it be amended by inserting in the sentence quoted after the word "corporations" the words "and persons" and changing the word "receipts" to "income."

This resolution was adopted and the resolution as amended was passed by the requisite two-thirds vote although nine senators voted against it.

"SALOME" MUST GO ON

Conried Will Give the Opera in Some Other Theater.

New York, Jan. 30.—It is said on authority that even if the Strauss-Wilde opera, "Salome," is withdrawn from the Metropolitan opera house, which seems to be assured, owing to the attitude of the directors of the Metropolitan opera house and Real Estate, the other performances of the opera will be held at some other playhouse in this city. Although a joint meeting of the directors of the Metropolitan opera house and the directors of the Real Estate opera company is to be held tomorrow, ostensibly to adjust the trouble, both sides feel that it will be a perfunctory gathering. George G. Haven, president of the Real Estate opera house, have not changed their views toward "Salome" and the Conried company's directors have given up hope of winning them over. Director Conried does not intend to lose the costly setting and costumes in which he has invested and he will give the opera at the theater most available for such an elaborate work. This will probably be the New Amsterdam theater or the New York theater. The sale of tickets for "Salome" went on yesterday and the seats sold will be exchanged for seats in the theater to be selected.

BUILDING A NEW CITY.

Monthly Bulletin of Progress Issued at San Francisco.

San Francisco, Jan. 30.—In its monthly bulletin of progress, issued today, the California Promotion committee says: "There is continued shortage of labor in many lines all over the state, this being especially noticeable in ordinary laborers in the lumber industry, and in female help as operatives in mills and factories, telephone operators and domestics are in enormous demand. Office men, clerks and bookkeepers are called for in all parts of the state. Conditions in San Francisco so far as building operations and commerce are concerned are eminently satisfactory. More than $39,000,000 expenditures are called for in the 7-14 building permits which have been issued since the fire. It is estimated by architects and contractors that fully $100,000,000 will be expended in buildings during the coming year. One hundred and fifty buildings between five and 22 stories in height are now in course of erection or have been chartered and since the fire and the total number of permanent buildings that have been erected or are in course of erection is more than 7,000."

SOME PEOPLE KNOW MANY DEAD DUCKS.

Thousands of the Birds Are in a Dying Condition. Salt Lake City, Jan. 30.—The duck hunting grounds of Northern Utah, including those of the famous Bear River duck club are strewn with dead birds. In addition to the thousands of dead ducks, thousands more are fluttering about the ground as if paralyzed and are in a dying condition. Many of the birds are advanced by duck hunters but none is accepted without reserve. Some of the bodies have been given to the state chemist for analysis. The dead birds are frequently fat and show no signs of starvation or freezing.

WANT THE MILITARY ROAD.

Jefferson County Farmers Hold a Meeting at Valley Falls. Valley Falls, Kan., Jan. 30.—A big meeting of farmers and business men was held here yesterday to inaugurate a movement to secure the proposed military road from Ft. Leavenworth to Ft. Riley. The farmers are very much interested and nearly 200 came in to the meeting. It is hoped that Senator Curtis will be able to secure appropriation for this purpose, and the people of this section are anxious that the road should pass through this territory. Two routes are contemplated. One route is directly west from Leavenworth by way of Easton, Winchester, Valley Falls, Hoyt, St. Marys, Wamego and Manhattan. This is the route which the people of this section are favoring. It would leave out Topeka, the town of

Young and Old

'Tis truly pitiful, to think of the terrible suffering that girls and women of all ages endure, because they have contracted some disease peculiar to their sex. Female diseases do more than any others in breaking down natural strength, and in filling our homes with miserable suffering mothers and wretched weakly children. Every girl and woman who is subject to such sickness should take to strengthen, relieve or cure. Read this letter from Mrs. Maggie Stout, of Gabbatha, Tenn. "I suffered for a year, so bad I could not walk but a short distance. I took one bottle of Cardui and now I feel like a new woman and can do my house work." And Haskel Womack, the druggist in that town, writes in confirmation: "I sold Mrs. Stout the Cardui myself, and it has greatly relieved her." Cardui is a safe, pleasant, non-intoxicating, strengthening tonic, for girls or women. Try it.

The Deposited Dr. Crapsy Dips Into Prophecy in a Lecture.

Rochester, Jan. 30.—The Rev. Dr. A. S. Crapsy, recently deposed from the Episcopal ministry for heresy, lectured last night at the Lyceum theater on "The Great Reconstruction." In the opening paragraph was a reference to the fate of prophets, which fate Dr. Crapsy himself has met. He said: "The necessity of declaring the downfall of time-honored systems is always the hard mission of those who are gifted with the most terrible of all gifts—prophetic sight."

MUCH GRAFT FOUND.

Scandalous Conditions Exist in Some Government Departments.

Chicago, Jan. 30.—A dispatch to the Tribune from Washington says: "Scandalous conditions have been found in various government departments as a result of the investigations being made by the house committee on appropriations. The committee has discovered that in one branch of the public service contracts have been let at exorbitant prices for material intended for an employe who was a member of the board which made the award. In another department contracts have been awarded for material to the manufacturer of which one of the officers was engaged. In still another, inventions which were developed by employes during their government service have been used by the government at a high cost. If the members of the house are successful in the campaign they have begun thousands of dollars will be saved the government annually and there will be a more efficient and right of an employe to control exclusively an invention he has developed and perfected in the course of his official duty."

HEIR TO $100,000.

Man Recently Lynched Had Fortune Coming to Him.

Chicago, Jan. 30.—A dispatch to the Tribune from Des Moines, Iowa, says: "It was learned yesterday that James Cullen was lynched by a mob at Charles City, was a brother of Cullen, formerly a banker at Warren, Ill. R. C. Cullen's will, which leaves the estate of $100,000 to the man who was lynched, has just been filed. James Cullen lived in Warren, Ill., and was forced to leave town for reasons of a violent temper. He had a daughter, later he settled in Charles City, Ia., where he was lynched by a mob some weeks ago after murdering his wife and stepson and attempting to commit suicide."

INJURED BY A COW.

Animal With a Young Calf Nearly Kills a Farmer.

Miltonville, Kan., Jan. 30.—Frank Koster was very badly hurt here. He and his son were loading hay on a wagon when a cow, which had a young calf, attacked him, knocking him down and trampling him fearfully. There were several deep gashes made on his face and head and he was injured internally. Had it not been for the fight made by the animal, the injury might have been fatal. Mr. Koster, getting her by the nose and using a pitchfork liberally he succeeded finally in driving her off.

Free Seeds Sustained.

Washington, Jan. 30.—The house committee of the whole voted to continue the free distribution of seeds along old lines and not according to the methods recommended by the agricultural committee in the appropriation bill. The amendment appropriating $238,000 for the free distribution of ordinary seeds was adopted as has been the practice for a number of years.

LUCIOUS APPLE BUTTER

Yes, we all remember the days of thick slick slices of bread, butter and the generous covering of "Mother's Apple Butter." It was like a feast made on his face and head and he was injured internally. Had it not been for the fight made by the animal, the injury might have been fatal. Mr. Koster, getting her by the nose and using a pitchfork liberally he succeeded finally in driving her off.

SAFETY APPLIANCES.

First Annual Exposition Is Being Held in New York.

New York, Jan. 30.—The first annual exposition of safety devices held under the auspices of the American Institute of Social Service opened yesterday at the American Museum of Natural History. The exposition was largely attended yesterday. Every sort of device that will tend to lessen the number of accidents and death is on exhibition from the portable fire escape and oil lamps that can be tipped over when lighter without exploding to gas jets that shut automatically when the gas is blown out. Window guards that will enable one to clean the windows of skyscrapers without danger of falling off, elevator locks that work in such a fashion that the gates on each floor have to be locked or else the car can not proceed, automatic couplers and safety scaffolding are among the exhibits. Again, there are devices for the prevention of short circuiting, safety theater doors that can be used in case of fire, safety brakes for street cars, tackle to prevent the fouling of life boats during the process of lowering and permitting the tackle to unhook automatically when the boats touch the water. Safety fenders for trolley cars, automatic engine stops for big machinery and some 500 other devices are also to be seen.

Catarrh of the Stomach

A Pleasant, Simple, But Safe and Effective Cure for It.

COSTS NOTHING TO TRY. Catarrh of the stomach has long been considered the next thing to incurable. The usual symptoms are a full or bloating sensation after meals, accompanied sometimes with sour or watery risings, a formation of gases, causing pressure on the heart and lungs and difficult breathing, headaches, sickle appetite, nervousness and a general played out, languid feeling. There is often a foul taste in the mouth, coated tongue, and in the interior of the stomach could be seen it would show a slimy, inflamed condition.

The cure for this common and obstinate trouble is found in a treatment which causes the food to be readily, thoroughly digested before it has time to ferment and irritate the delicate mucous surfaces of the stomach. To secure a prompt and healthy digestion is the one necessary thing to do and when normal digestion is secured the catarrhal condition will have disappeared.

According to Dr. Harlanston, the safest and best treatment is to use after each meal a tablet, composed of Diastase, Aseptic Pepsin, a little Nux. Golden Seal and fruit acids. These tablets can now be found at all drug stores under the name of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets and not being a patent medicine can be used with perfect safety and confidence. It attacks the appetite and thorough digestion. To follow their regular use after meals. Mr. R. S. Workman, Chicago, Ill., writes: "I cannot find appropriate words to express my good feelings. Having found flesh, appetite and sound rest from their use.
