Charged With Murdering Her Husband and Mother-in-Law.

Paris, Nov. 3.—Not since 1902, when Frederick and Therese Humbert were convicted of a $12,000,000 swindle, has a husband in order that she might marry Maurice Borden, a wealthy merchant who had become infatuated with her. The attractiveness of the woman combined with the mystery of her career and her connections with persons high in the public life of France have fed the popular imagination and led the public to believe that the most startling disclosures are imminent. Judge De Valles had received 2,000 applications for seats in the court room, but he arbitrarily refused all with the exception of those made for members of the press, the bar and others directly concerned with the trial. To these were added the first 100 persons who, standing in line this morning sought admission to the court room. The law provides for public admission to the trial of any case not heard in camera and the admission of the 100 mentioned met this requirement of the law today. In the hope of securing one of these coveted places many men and women stood before the court entrance throughout last night and places of vantage commanded as high as $200. In refusing the many applications for seats Judge De Valles declared that he did not propose to tolerate a repetition of previous scandals by turning the present proceedings into a music hall performance. Most of today's session was occupied with the selection of a jury and the reading of the indictment, the examination of the prisoner being late in the afternoon.

Madame Steinhel, on Trial Charged With Murdering Her Husband and Her Mother-in-Law.

trial in Paris excited the intense interest exhibited in the case of Mme. Adolphe Steinhel, which was opened before Judge De Valles in the Seine sittings court today. Mme. Steinhel is on trial for her life, charged with the murder of her husband and her mother-in-law, Mme. Jany. The alleged motive is found in the defendant's hatred for her mother-in-law and a desire to rid herself of the

Slow Digestion

A Frequent Form of Stomach Trouble Readily Cured by Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

This complaint constitutes one of the most common forms of dyspepsia. It is the bane of those who ignore natural laws, and forget that the healthy action of the stomach is dependent on the condition of both body and mind. Those whose pursuits oblige them to pass much of their time within doors; men of letters, and of business, whose minds are seldom perfectly relaxed; administrators, speculators, financiers, and the various professional men fall ready victims to it.

Slow digestion occurs in persons of all temperaments and habits, but oftenest in those of irritable, or nervous disposition, and anxious aspect of countenance, who are popularly characterized as "dyspeptic looking." Eating too rapidly is a common, exciting cause of the disorder, as is also imperfect mastication of food from loss of teeth. There is also a deficiency of the gastric juices, and an insufficiency of the motor and muscular, or churning movements of the stomach walls, and the food remains entirely too long in this organ, instead of being passed down into the small intestine at the proper time.

Even a dinner not exceeding the ordinary limits is followed at varying intervals, but usually within an hour, by a feeling of weight and oppression in the stomach. For several hours afterward the person experiences decided discomfort, and should even a light supper be taken, horrible night-mare and troubled dreams are certain to result.

It should be quite well, if it were not necessary to eat, is a common statement made by sufferers from this form of stomach complaint. Many of them actually dread the approach of meal time, knowing what disagreeable symptoms they are sure to experience after eating; and would doubtless discontinue the ingestion of food into their stomachs altogether if it were possible to live without eating. There is really no necessity whatever for depriving one's self of the pleasures of the table, or to starve the rest of the system because the stomach is derelict in its duty, and does not digest the food as quickly or as thoroughly as it should.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets compel the stomach to perform its functions properly and assist it very materially in the discharge of its duties, a single grain of the principal digestive ingredient of these tablets being sufficient to digest 4000 grains of food. They not only digest the food, however, but also tone up and strengthen the peptic glands, and the motor functions, so that the food will not remain in the stomach longer than necessary. Every case of slow digestion and all other forms of dyspepsia are readily curable by the use of these tablets, which make up the gastric deficiency, and supply the disordered stomach with exactly the same digestive juices that are found in a healthy, vigorous stomach. Purchase a package of these wonderful digestors from your druggist today for 50 cents and cure yourself of your dyspepsia. Send us your name and address, and we will forward you a sample package free. Address, P. A. Stuart Company, 150 Stuart Building, Marshall, Mich.

SELECTED FROM WEST.

Officers From Fort Riley to Compete With England's Finest.

New York, Nov. 3.—The American officers who will compete at the Madison Square Garden horse show against the British entries in horseback riding, will all come from Fort Riley, Kan. Lieutenant Gordon Johnston of the Second cavalry, has arrived here with 14 horses. The British officers and their mounts arrived several days ago. Besides Lieutenant Johnston, the officers who will represent the United States are: First Lieutenant G. M. Lee, Seventh cavalry; First Lieutenant Eben Swift, Jr., Eleventh cavalry; First Lieutenant J. S. Martin, Fourteenth cavalry; and Second Lieutenant, J. C. Montgomery, Seventh cavalry.

FOR EVERY BED 450.

Tuberculosis Patients Largely in Excess of the Accommodations.

Colorado Springs, Colo., Nov. 3.—"There are 450 patients for every bed in the various tuberculosis sanitariums in the United States. Seventy per cent of the sufferers are properly cared for. Colorado has so far been one of the two or three states to take absolutely no steps to prevent the spread of consumption."

These statements were made by Dr. C. Walter Holden of Denver, president of the State Anti-Tuberculosis society, at the opening session of a week's campaign here. An educational exhibit is a feature of the campaign and it has been made compulsory for all the school children of the city to see it.

SMALL VOTE CAST.

But a Big Republican Majority in Rhode Island.

Providence, R. I., Nov. 3.—While the total vote in Rhode Island yesterday was smaller than usual, the plurality of 11,834 for Governor Pothier, Republican, was one of the largest in the state's history. The rest of the Republican state candidates had substantial pluralities.

The legislature on joint ballot remains unchanged. The three constitutional amendments, giving additional veto power to the governor, providing for the redistricting of the state, and making the lieutenant governor president of the senate were adopted.

JULIA GRANT COMING.

Will Visit After Holidays With Parents at Fort Sheridan.

New York, Nov. 3.—It is announced that the Princess Cantzane, formerly Julia Dent Grant, daughter of General Frederick D. Grant, will come to America soon after the holidays and visit her parents at Fort Sheridan, the military post at Chicago. The Duchess of Manchester is also coming to visit her father, Eugene Zimmerman, at Cincinnati, and if the plans of a number of other western girls who now wear titles mature, they will also come.

Our Annual Autumn Exhibition Of America's Greatest Piano Triumphs, occurs This Week At Guilds, Warerooms 722 Kans. Ave.

THIS Piano Festival—A State Wide Event—Happily Co-insides with "Teachers Week" in Topeka

We extend a special invitation to the teachers as well as the entire music loving public to visit our store, the recognized musical headquarters of the state. The world's best pianos are represented here. Pianos of dignified character—of superlative worth; pianos of proven and indorsed quality. We offer the new models of such instruments as Knabe, Story & Clark, Kranich & Bach, Brewster, Hardman Foster, at distinctly moderate prices. Our easy monthly payment and old instrument exchange system make it convenient and economical to make your piano purchase here, yet you do not obligate yourself one bit if you accept our invitation to attend our free demonstration. The exposition will continue throughout the week.

The World Famous Knabe

Celebrated and endorsed by the great master musicians. Rich sweet tone and superb action responds with gratifying quality the best that is in the artist. This piano is so thoroughly excellent that it is justly accredited as the world's greatest piano.

We carry the Knabe in a variety of styles—upright and horizontal grand as well as the rare Knabe period court styles in cases.

Price $500 to $1,800

Story & Clark, The Home Piano

Extremely high class, yet very moderately priced instrument. This piano occupies a corner in thousands of America's parlors. It holds a place in the hearts of all music and home lovers. The tone is sweet, rich, sparkling, soulful. The case is modeled and wrought on lines of beauty and elegance, embodying the skill and craft of years of piano building. The Story & Clark is pre-eminently a modest home piano.

Price $375 to $700

Artists' Delight, Kranich & Bach

An instrument fully capable of interpreting the whole of the most artistic nature. The tone is of wonderful sweetness and power. It will portray the soft caressing notes of Chopin or one of Bach's deathless symphonies with equal strength. This piano is considered as standard and its artistic shapes and finishing in new, semi-modern and English and French period styles, puts it distinctly in a front rank of piano arts and crafts.

Price $450 to $900

The Sweet Voiced Foster Piano

Tone and Action—The Foster is rich in rhythmic and melodic possibilities, and a versatility of tone that means much when rippling, murmuring, brook-like notes here, a flood of sweetness there, and a world of rhythm and resonance are needed to interpret every composition from Strauss's waltz music to Wagner's operas.

Pianocraft—Highest reputation for invention, construction and dependability.

Style—Dignified, elegant lines and artistic details, in semi-modern and period styles.

Price $325 to $450

Beautiful Toned Hardman Piano

Tone and action—of crisp, brilliant tone and action, and, while suited to most compositions, is also full of the lively, joyous qualities for lighter compositions and dance music. In addition to its lighter, silvery notes, its low tones and minors are rich and full. A piano of remarkable tonal value for one so moderate in cost.

Pianocraft—Skilled workmanship, serviceable construction and fine finish.

Style—Chiefly modern or semi-modern models and enrichment.

Price $425 to $850

THE AUTOPIANO

Without a doubt the world's best player piano. The perforated music-roll of the Autopiano and its mechanism, equal the efficiency of flexible, facile fingers—OF MORE THAN A DOZEN HANDS.

The "Tempo" and other devices of the Autopiano give these fingers THE RHYTHM AND TECHNIQUE OF A VIRTUOSO. Combined with the tone of the Autopiano, these features add infinite expression and make it an instrument of universal speech—an instrument reverberating with thousands of inner meanings and emotions—from the sweet tones of the harp, TO TONES THAT ARE TITANIC.

The Autopiano can render a Rhapsody, Sonata, Song, Dance—or the compositions of the high priests of the Pianoforte.

Price $550 to $850

GIRLS OF WEST, SUPERIOR

Vitality of Easterners Sapped, Declares Trade Union President.

New York, Nov. 3.—Mrs. Raymond Robins, president of the Women's National Trades Union league, with headquarters in Chicago, who has been here in connection with the reception of Mrs. Pankhurst, the English suffragette, declared that western factory girls are physically superior to those of the east.

"My investigations since coming here show that all the western girls are much stronger than those employed in New York factories," said Mrs. Robins. "The Chicago girls have worse working conditions, but this is the first generation to be exploited and they are still vigorous."

"The women in New York have suffered trade exploitation for too many generations, and their vitality has been sapped. I don't think the western girls will come to that. There is more good native American blood out there and they are fighting for their own protection. Although this is only the first generation of girls at factory work, they are far better organized than the girls here and the further west you go, the better is the organization."

TO BUILD OVER HERE.

Many European Manufacturers to Come Across Owing to Tariff.

Washington, Nov. 3.—Indications point to a heavy influx of foreign manufacturers to the United States and the establishment here of factories for the production of many articles now produced abroad and marketed in this country. According to Deputy Consul General Hanauer at Frankfurt, a number of manufacturers already have taken steps for the opening of factories in the United States, and he reports that the fear prevails in France, Germany and Switzerland that skilled workmen will be drawn to America and the silk business of Europe practically be ended, so far as the United States market is concerned.

Already, he says, a great silk dyeing firm of Lyons has taken steps to acquire a large factory at Paterson, N. J., the cost of the venture running into the millions. Several other silk concerns likewise are reported to have opened negotiations for the establishment of factories here, confined to the silk industry, however, for Mr. Hanauer reports that a world renowned lead pencil factory in Nuremberg likewise has determined on erecting a factory that will supply the demands of the United States. The new tariff law is declared to have made such action necessary if the German concern hoped to continue to control this trade.

LOST HIS VANDYKE.

Although Japanese Editor Asked to Be Shaved "Conservatively."

Washington, Nov. 3.—Lack of complete mastery of the English language was responsible for the loss of a carefully cultivated beard that graced the chin of S. Zumoto, editor of the Japan Times of Tokio, and a member of the commercial commission now touring the country. Mr. Zumoto visited the barber shop in the hotel here in which he is a guest.

"I would like to be shaved," he said in halting English. "Not altogether, but conservatively." He expressed his Vandyke lovingly as he spoke. The barber, a taciturn workman, said nothing, but tucked the towels and aprons and other articles of his trade in and around the Japanese editor's neck. Then he began to shave the Americans in the shop were startled when they suddenly listened to a fluent flow of what probably was strong language in Japanese. The barber had encroached on the Japanese imperial, with the result that half of it fell beneath his keen blade before the customer could protest. It was necessary then to cut it all off.

Members of the Japanese party enjoyed the situation. Mr. Zumoto declined to see it in a humorous light.
