NORTH SIDE NEWS.

Chautauqua Visitors Will See Much Improvement.

Houses Vacant Last Season Filled This Year.

THROUGH CIVIC CLUB.

Spirit of a Better First Ward Has Been Encouraged.

Other Items of Interest on the North Side.

Visitors to the chautauqua this season, who were also here last year, will doubtless be surprised at the remarkable improvement which has been made on the North side within the past few months. This change for the better includes the painting and repairing of houses which has been carried on to a noticeable degree in the First ward. Houses which were vacant at this time last year are now occupied. Lots which were neglected looking and filled with weeds, are now kept neat if not made into garden patches. Along Kansas avenue nearly all of the business houses have been freshly painted and new signs and awnings replace the old worn out ones. On the residence streets brick sidewalks are laid where last summer were only paths in the dust and dirt. This work has been largely fostered by the Civic club which was organized last February and has been active in the agitation of civic pride. The majority of the members have taken the lead in the improvement of their homes and lawns. It seems that their neighbors have followed the example to a large extent. Although the club has been temporarily disorganized for the hot weather, when it meets again next September, it is hoped that the good work will be continued.

Community Comment.

A MATTER OF RECORD. The city editor of the "Rome Record," the great rival of the "Rome Rumbler," had a hunch that there would be something doing in the Roman senate. So he summoned, Samus Scribus, his star reporter, who had accompanied Caesar in Gaul, and spoke unto him: "Do thou stick close to the emperor today. Mehercule, thou must get a scoop on the 'Rumbler.' So whatever the great man says, do thou telephone to me immediately. Remember, that this is the Ides of March, thou recallest that story about the sooth sayer prediction? Hustle thyself to the senate."

NO MARRIAGE BELLS FOR THEM.

Youthful Elopers From Belleville Arrested in Topeka.

A marriage that was planned to take place at Lawrence was broken up rudely by Deputy Sheriff Otto Anderson when he met the train that pulled in on the Rock Island at 6:30 o'clock Sunday morning and removed George Castle and Cella Beecher of Belleville. The youth was 21 years of age but the prospective bride, although appearing older, could claim but 14 years. The opposition of her parents was the reason of the interference of the local authorities who had received a telegram from Sheriff A. E. Walker of Republic county. Sheriff Walker arrived last night and started home again with the mournful lovers. There would not, he thought, be any prosecution of the young man but the parents of the girl wanted her at home very anxiously. "I'll get her yet," declared the boy as he climbed aboard the train for home. And the girl looked as though she were very agreeable to the idea.

WAGE INCREASE SEEN.

Commissioner Ryan Voted for Demands of Telegraphers.

Railroad Commissioner Frank J. Ryan, one of the committee named to arbitrate the Missouri Pacific telegraphers' wage difficulties, today issued a statement in which he said that he felt confident the demands of the operators would be allowed. The decision of the committee and the final award, which will be made in about ten days, will affect about 5,000 telegraphers in Kansas and about 45,000 in the country.

Mr. Ryan's statement follows: "After the telegraphers finished their testimony tending to show that on account of the high cost of living and the further fact that, according to their contention, they were the poorest paid branch of the transportation department and other kindred excuses, the railroad consumed the balance of the time, amounting to about six days, in offering testimony tending to show that the operators not only had a better chance for advancement into other branches of the service than is accorded other employees, but also that an increase ought not be granted at this time because the changes in the rules, which went into effect June 1 last, which, while resulting in improving the working conditions and the hours of service, would entail a yearly expense of about $40,000 and, hence, that was enough."

"After all the testimony was introduced the board, which consists of Judge William L. Chambers of Washington, chairman, who was selected by the interstate commerce commission; A. W. Sullivan, general manager of the Missouri Pacific who represented the road, and myself who represented the employees, met in executive session and voted on the proposition. I voted for a flat 10 per cent increase in the wages. Mr. Sullivan voted that the increase be not granted, and as the chairman could not get either Mr. Sullivan, nor myself, to agree to any sort of a compromise, the matter was taken under advisement by the chairman, who will get up the award, within the next ten days, and send copies to Mr. Sullivan and myself, to sign if the decision meets with our approval.

INDIAN HAD MONEY.

Mitchel Fewams, an Indian, paid the city of Topeka $30 over Sunday in fines for drunkenness. And this is how it happened: Mitchel came in town Friday and filled up. He was arrested on Saturday morning drew a $10 assessment, being liberated upon its payment. By night he was again very drunk and had to be locked up. The police held him over Sunday at the police station and he appeared again before Judge S. S. Urmy this morning. The judge looked grieved. "You ought to be fined $25," declared the judge by way of preliminary.

Fewams was troubled. He leaned forward toward the bench and anxiously said: "I haven't got that much, judge. If you'll make it $20 I think maybe I could pay it."

This was more than the judge had expected, but he rallied promptly and replied: "All right. Your fine is $20."

And Fewams paid it.

Work has been started on the new Chesney park bandstand, at last. Sunday was one of the most uncomfortable days of the year. The heat was unusually oppressive. Rapid progress is being made in the construction work on the Jordan building at Fourth street and Kansas avenue.

The Santa Fe general office team defeated the Oakland Blues Sunday, 3 to 1. Elliot struck out 12 men and allowed only two hits. The battery for the Santa Fe team was Elliot and Herling; for the Blues, Nagle and Young.

Walter Bates and family, who planned a trip to Chicago via the Ohio

Mississippi rivers and the drainage canal have been detained in Cincinnati by the failure to secure a proper engine for the boat he has built. A 30-horsepower motor is used.

The ordinance prohibiting the use of explosives on July 4 was discussed this morning by the city commissioners. It was the opinion of one or two members of the commission that the document as it stands is too radical. Adoption of the ordinance was postponed one week.

Drinks Acid After Planning Visit. Hutchinson, Kan., July 18.—Mrs. Mary E. Shields, 35 years old, a housekeeper at a rooming house, told her friends that she was going to visit her parents in Newton. She went, but not as planned. She committed suicide and her body was taken to Newton, carrying out that part of the plan. She drank carbolic acid and died before a physician could be called.
