The Topeka city officials who have worked night and day trying to collect the just claim from the state are a good deal discouraged today. They legally called for $65,000 and the city got only $3,000. It is apparent from their remarks that Topeka is in need of a representative in the senate.

The gymnasium in the manual training school," said Superintendent L. D. Whittemore, "was planned in order to demonstrate the value of physical work in the schools. It has been used only by the girls. Although it is a little late, most people are planting their sweet peas. The wet weather of the last week or ten days delayed the planting. To plant sweet peas dig a trench about 18 inches deep, sprinkle a thin layer of sand over the bottom, then a very thin layer of rich dirt. Plant the seeds in this and put about an inch of rich soil over them. When they sprout also sprinkle soil in another inch. Keep this up until the trench is nearly filled. Of course there are other schemes.

W. J. Rickenbacher, secretary of the Kansas association of real estate agents, believes that although the legislature killed the immigration bill, there is still a chance that the bureau of immigration will be maintained by the state association. "If each of the members would contribute, say, $25 a year towards an advertising fund," said he, "it would mean a great deal to the state and to the reality men who were on the proposition. Every agent who would contribute would have access to a list of those who are contemplating moving to Kansas, and in this way many sales could be made."

DRUMMER EVANGELIST HERE.

"Billy" Williams Will Speak at Novety Sunday.

A large number of traveling men who are spending the week-end in Topeka are expected to be present at the Novety theater tomorrow afternoon to hear "Billy" Williams, the drummer evangelist of San Jose, Cal., who will speak on "The Last Trump of the Tiger." The rather sensational hand bills which have been placed in the windows in the business district of the city will also probably have the tendency to draw the men.

"Billy" Williams, the Drummer Evangelist, Who Will Speak at the Novety Sunday.

C. D. Lusby, president of the state Gideon organization, will preside over the meeting and the singing will be a feature of the gathering. Roy B. Guild of New York, national secretary of the Men and Religion movement, will explain the purposes of the new organization, which includes the Sunday schools, Brotherhoods and Young Men's Christian associations.

Kenosha, Wis., March 11.—William P. Robinson, assistant cashier of the First National bank, died at his home in this city this morning as a result of shock brought by explosion of the powder plant at Pleasant Prairie on Thursday night. Mr. Robinson had been ill but was convalescent when the shock came.

State Senator Isaac T. Bishop telegraphed from Madison that he had a bill ready for introduction in the senate on Monday which would eliminate powder mills from thickly settled portions of Wisconsin and especially from Kenosha county.

CHECKER PLAYERS ARE BUSY.

Alfred Jordan, Champion of World, Meets Match in A. J. Messersmith.

A quarter of a hundred checker enthusiasts of Topeka and outlying towns are gathered this afternoon in Gemmill hall of the Y. M. C. A. engaged in playing—all at the same time—with Alfred Jordan, the champion checker player of England. With an intermission for supper the games will continue in progress until a late hour tonight.

Last night the city champion in checkers, A. J. Messersmith, played two games with Mr. Jordan, and both games resulted in draws. Dr. W. W. Bates played one game which also resulted in a draw. These are the only players in Kansas who have not been defeated by Jordan, and places them among the strongest players of this country.

Last night Jordan played fifteen boards of checkers and three of chess simultaneously. John Frost won a game of checkers, but no one had a chance in checkers. Of a total of 45 games of checkers Jordan won 39. The other six were draws.

Buck, superintendent of motive power of the Santa Fe and H. W. Jacobs, assistant superintendent of motive power of the Santa Fe, have resigned.

Vice President Storey denied also the rumor that the Santa Fe was discouraged with the bonus system in use at this time. "But when asked if the story published by the State Journal several weeks ago to the effect that J. W. Kendrick had resigned as vice president, Mr. Storey shrugged his shoulders and said: "You hear lots of things about the railroads that are not true." Mr. Storey refused also to give out a statement on the dissatisfaction of the employees with the superheater and new fire box.

"If the man who stole the forty shoes from his window Thursday night will bring me back twenty of them, so as to mate with the ones I have, I will give him twenty to mate with the other twenty."

The thief stole forty shoes, none of them mates.

BETROTHED WHEN HOUR OLD.

Mothers Will Try to Bring About Marriage of Their Children.

New York, March 11.—In a ward at the Jewish Maternity hospital, No. 270 East Broadway, Rachel, the daughter of Mrs. Farina Marcus, and Leonard, the son of Mrs. Mammie Barnett, both children less than an hour old, were betrothed in the presence of the staff surgeons and nurses.

The two women had been close friends from childhood, and when they were married promised to try to bring about the marriage of their children.

When the little boy and girl were both born within a few minutes of each other, and the mothers occupied adjacent cots in the hospital, it seemed as though nature had conspired for the fulfillment of their wish. The fathers of the children were present, and expressed themselves as highly pleased.
