

FINDS THE GERM.

Dread-Infantile Paralysis May Now Be Conquered. Dr. Crumline Gets Letter From an Eastern Board.

TELLS ALL ABOUT IT. Unusual Condition in Blood of Patients.

How the Search by Medical Men Brought Results.

Dr. S. J. Crumline, secretary of the Kansas board of health, has received a letter from Dr. Samuel G. Dixon, secretary of the Pennsylvania board of health, saying that Dr. Dixon believes he has found the germ that causes infantile paralysis.

Dr. Dixon's letter says: "In examining the blood from acute cases of poliomyelitis in the human beings and also in monkeys in which the disease was produced experimentally a granular body, differing in morphologic characteristics from any heretofore described which may or may not be further investigation, prove to be the etiological factor in the causation of the disease."

Dr. Dixon's letter says: "In examining the blood from acute cases of poliomyelitis in the human beings and also in monkeys in which the disease was produced experimentally a granular body, differing in morphologic characteristics from any heretofore described which may or may not be further investigation, prove to be the etiological factor in the causation of the disease."

The bloods examined were from ten different cases of acute poliomyelitis in children and were taken during the epidemic of last summer and autumn, and from thirteen cases of the disease during the acute stage, which had been produced experimentally in as many monkeys.

"Blood smears from three normal human beings were carefully examined and although the search for these organisms was diligently made, none were found. Smears were made from the bloods of fifteen normal monkeys with negative results. After inoculation with the virus these same monkeys give positive results. The blood of other normal monkeys gave negative results."

"Blood smears were stained with iodine and sulphuric acid in order to test the organisms for cellulose, but no blue stained organisms were seen. Smears from the cords and brains of paralyzed monkeys, and from one human case were examined, but none of the new organisms were found. Filtered virus stained with carbol-thionin and by Gram's method showed none of these organisms."

"Defibrinated blood, three weeks to two months old from two paralyzed monkeys showed the forms in increased numbers. Cultures made from the blood of a paralyzed monkey, in blood bouillon, plain bouillon, serum bouillon cultures three weeks old and in the condensation of serum bouillon, all cultures on Dorsett's egg medium under dark field illumination.

"Success in isolating the organisms has not attended our efforts as yet. "SAMUEL G. DIXON, M. D. "HERBERT FOX, M. D. "JAMES B. RUCKER, M. D."

BIG CONTRACT AWARDED

Leeper & Smith Will Erect the Memorial Building.

The contract for the construction of the Memorial hall to house the Kansas G. A. R. headquarters, the historical society, the Geographical collection and the academy of science was let by the building commission late yesterday afternoon.

The building is to be of brick, stone and granite. The construction features granite foundation walls and marble exterior. It will cost, without any finishing or furnishing inside, a total of $285,000. The basement is already completed, costing some $35,000, and a quarter of a million dollars additional is to be spent on the superstructure.

TO GET OUT OF DEBT.

Dr. Pearson Will Distribute $300,000 April 14.

Chicago, March 31.—Dr. D. K. Pearson, of Hinsdale, Ill., will celebrate his 91st birthday April 14 by the distribution of $300,000 to schools and religious organizations. This will make his total distributions of recent years nearly $2,000,000, most of which has been given to small colleges.

The gifts are termed by Dr. Pearson as "debts" and in most cases are fulfillments of his pledges to different bodies. Certain sums which he should have collected other stipulated amounts.

The money to be given April 14 will be distributed as follows: American Board of Foreign Missions, $100,000. Berea college, Kentucky, $100,000. Doane college, Nebraska, $25,000. Northland college, Wisconsin, $10,000. Eight high schools, $10,000. McKendree college, Illinois, $10,000. Other smaller gifts making a total of $200,000.

"I shall celebrate my birthday by getting out of debt," Dr. Pearson said. "A year ago I gave notice that I would be getting old by this time and that a young man of my age had no business being in debt. I shall lie down on April 14 out of debt for the first time in many years. I have had these outstanding pledges for many years, and have worked them off as one after another of the institutions met their obligations."

While most of Dr. Pearson's gifts have been to the smaller colleges, the different institutions here have received more than $1,000,000 from the Hinsdale philanthropist. The Young Men's Christian association here has been one of the beneficiaries. Among the chief beneficiaries of Dr. Pearson among the smaller schools has been the Berea college of Kentucky, which has received more than $400,000. In reviewing his gifts today he said the one from which he had derived the most pleasure was the gift of $50,000 for a water-works system for Berea.

The philanthropist was one of the early settlers in Chicago. The greater share of his wealth was derived from the increased value of extended real estate holdings in this city. Twenty-five years ago he retired from business and most of his gifts have been from money derived by the sale of valuable pieces of real estate.

HE'S A REBEL NOW

Lieutenant Burbank Is Fighting in Mexico. Marriage to Filipino Caused Dismissal From Army.

WAS SENT TO PRISON. This Was for Embezzling Funds of Company.

Comes From a Long Line of Fighters.

Fort Leavenworth, Kan., March 31.—The report has reached Fort Leavenworth that Sidney S. Burbank, formerly a lieutenant in the Sixth infantry, is in Mexico fighting as an officer in the army of the insurgents.

Burbank comes of a family highly honored since the days of the first army of the United States. His grandfather was an officer in the Revolutionary war; his grandfather was a brigadier general and his father a captain. All died holding commissions in the regular army and leaving behind them proud names. The young heir to this heritage of honor enlisted in the Nineteenth infantry at Fort Wayne, Mich., September 6, 1891, and served as private, corporal and sergeant to November 16, 1899, when he was commissioned for gallant service in the Spanish-American war.

After the war Burbank served with his regiment, now the Sixth infantry, through a trying campaign in the Philippines, returning to Fort Leavenworth in July, 1902, young, handsome, a veteran of two wars. A year of social pleasures followed. Burbank became engaged to a young woman of a family as distinguished as his own. But dismissed from the service and disgrace followed the announcement of his engagement. Before congratulations for his betrothal had ceased to come a Filipino woman started Fort Leavenworth with a cable that she already was Burbank's wife. Furthermore, she said Burbank was the father of her young son, Burbank denied it all. But the Filipino woman forwarded documents to Washington to prove her marriage. Then Burbank filed suit to annul a marriage which he alleged did not exist. The only suit approaching this was filed in the old ecclesiastical court in England four centuries ago, when the bishops had charge of all the matrimonial and divorce matters.

Burbank won the suit, in spite of her husband's attempts to blacken her character by calling private soldiers to the witness stand to testify against her. His marriage was annulled, however, with the provision that he never could marry again. Soon after this case was settled another, equally serious, faced Lieutenant Burbank. He was accused of embezzling $485 of his company's funds, found guilty by a court martial and sentenced to dismissal and fifteen months' imprisonment. President Roosevelt had approved the sentence April 11, 1905, he began his sentence in the federal penitentiary in Leavenworth.

February 12, 1907, he was released. The army officer in charge did not tell him goodbye—he was prohibited from speaking to him except in the line of duty.

For months Burbank wandered about the country—always avoiding army posts and army people. Newspaper dispatches told of his arrival in Indianapolis, where an uncle, W. J. Halliday, of Musser Brothers, New York, and from the William H. Miller Furniture company of Detroit. Burbank won the suit, in spite of her husband's attempts to blacken her character by calling private soldiers to the witness stand to testify against her. His marriage was annulled, however, with the provision that he never could marry again. Soon after this case was settled another, equally serious, faced Lieutenant Burbank. He was accused of embezzling $485 of his company's funds, found guilty by a court martial and sentenced to dismissal and fifteen months' imprisonment. President Roosevelt had approved the sentence April 11, 1905, he began his sentence in the federal penitentiary in Leavenworth.

MAINE FALLS INTO LINE.

Legislature Adopts the Federal Income Tax Amendment.

Augusta, Me., March 31.—Following a conference between Governor Plaisted and the Democratic leaders of the house and senate, the legislature voted to ratify the proposed amendment to the federal constitution providing for an income tax. This action squarely reversed that taken by the senate and house previously, in voting against the federal tax and adopting a state income tax measure.

During a recess Governor Plaisted called in the Democratic leaders and reminded them of their platform pledges, with the result that the amendment was reconsidered and ratified. A state income tax measure previously passed was then killed. Later the house concurred in the senate's action.

TWO NEW RECORDS.

Bob Burman Drives an Auto 20 Miles in First Time.

Jacksonville, Fla., March 31.—Two new world's records were made at the Atlantic mobile beach automobile race meeting yesterday afternoon. Driving his Buick "Bug," in the 20-mile free for all, Bob Burman drove the 20 miles in 13 minutes, 11.92 seconds, or at the rate of 91.06 miles per hour. The previous record for more than 10 miles was made by Lancia in a Fiat at Daytona, which he covered 15 miles at the rate of 89 miles an hour on a straightaway. Burman's course included two turns, which lowered his average greatly. Howard Wilcox sent the big blue National stock car across the mile distance in 12 minutes, 11.92 seconds.

ACCIDENTALLY SHOTS HERSELF

Sixteen-Year-Old Girl of Cottonwood Falls Was Hunting Rabbits.

Cottonwood Falls, Kan., March 31.—Nette, the 16-year-old daughter of Mr. Nettie, the 16-year-old daughter of Mr. Nettie, received a bad flesh wound in one arm from a gunshot while hunting rabbits on her father's farm. The girl, who is familiar with firearms and is an expert shot, saw a rabbit hopping about by a corral fence near the house. Taking her 22-caliber rifle, she went out hoping to get a shot. Her bullet, however, struck her in the right arm, and she was accidentally discharged and the bullet passed through her arm. Binding up the wound as best she could, Miss Nettie returned to the house where she bore the pain as bravely as any man might while waiting for a doctor to come from Elmdale and dress the wound.

GETS A BAK SET

Wheat Starts Downward on Bearish News From Russia. Corn Opens Higher But Soon Joins the Decline.

PROVISIONS FIRM UP In Demand of Higher Prices for Hogs.

Cattle Are Quoted Strong to 10 Cents Up.

Chicago, March 31.—WHEAT—Bearish news today from Russia and India gave the wheat market here a fresh boost. India offers were said to be free and crop prospects there highly favorable. Figures from Russia indicated large increases. Fearful moisture in the Dakotas and elsewhere northwest and warmer weather southwest added to the sentiment in favor of lower prices. The opening was 1/2c to 3/4c down. May started at 86 1/2c to 86 3/4c and later fell to 86 1/4c.

Signs of large receipts led to increased depression; the close was steady at 47 1/2c for May, a net loss of 1/4c. OATS—Oats followed wheat. This was light. May started unchanged to 1/2c lower at 30 1/2c and receded to 29 1/2c. PROVISIONS—Higher prices for hogs made receipts firm. Initially, corn was 1/2c to 5c off with May options at 115 1/2c for pork; $4.25 for lard and $7.75 for tallow.
