Fend Between County Clerk and Co. Attorney-Elect Gets Childish.

"False accuser and brute" are the words said to have been interchanged between County Attorney-Elect William E. Atchison and County Clerk Samuel G. Zimmerman last Saturday. The words followed immediately Atchison's name, according to those who saw the certificate. The certificate later was returned and the usual certificate of election, in proper form, was issued by County Clerk Samuel G. Zimmerman.

It is asserted that the first certificate was not signed and sealed by the county clerk, but those who know Zimmerman's handwriting insist that the interlined words were written by him, whether it was meant for an official certificate or not. The action was taken as an added affront by Atchison who, however, said nothing to the clerk, but Zimmerman flatly refuses to talk about the matter except to say that only one certificate was issued, and that the one Atchison has.

AT COMMERCIAL CLUB.

The Meeting at Noon Today Was a Good One.

Discussion which took place at the Commercial club at the noon today concerning civic improvement may result in the adoption of a comprehensive plan which will embody the erection of a union depot, the creation of a "civic center," and the embodying in the work of the city schools the study of the plans as worked out.

No definite action was taken, but arrangements will probably be made in the near future for an illustrated address before the entire membership of the Commercial club on "City Building" by a representative of the American Park Builders of Chicago.

Those present at the Commercial club included the president, E. J. Hodges, J. Will Kelley, secretary, and members of the park committee of the club under D. O. Cox.

President S. J. Hodgins spoke of a union depot as a "probability" in Topeka. Theodore J. Moore, of the American Park Builders association, Chicago, stated that it is usually the Commercial clubs of cities that start the agitation for such enterprises and the city governments that are instrumental in carrying them out.

A 10-cent box of Cascarets keeps your head clear, stomach sweet, liver and bowels regular and you feel cheerful and bulky for months. Don't forget the children—their little insides need a good, gentle, cleansing, too.

TWENTY-FIVE THOUSAND BARBAROUS AND FANATICAL FOLLOWERS OF THE PROPHET MARCH THROUGH ASIA MINOR TO JOIN THE TURKISH FORCES IN CONSTANTINOPLE

Kurd troops on way to Constantinople. Twenty-five thousand Kurds have marched through Asia Minor to join the Turkish forces and are now nearing Constantinople. Though they will be a valued addition to the Turks' shattered army, their presence in the Turkish capital, if they enter it, will add greatly to the peril of the Christian population, as the Kurds are the most barbarous as well as the most fanatical followers of the Prophet.

IN U. S. COURT.

Kaw Valley Drainage Case Set for November 25.

The district court of the United States opened in the federal building this morning five minutes after Judge J. C. Pollock's train pulled in. Harry Stone, McCabe Moore, Charles S. Bigns, John R. Harrison and Morton Albaugh were all present, and the court room was filled with lawyers, attorneys and jurors from all over the state. It was probably the Topeka term will be exceedingly busy, and will last at least a month. The Kaw Valley Drainage case and the suit against S. M. Pickens, of Thayer, are the most important mentions on the trial docket.

A motion was put on file to take deposition of the Wells Lonsberry case. "We can't get the witnesses here," said D. C. Tillotson, attorney for the train robbers. "It is physically and financially impossible."

The deposition was accordingly granted by the judge.

The case of the Kaw Valley drainage concern versus the Friar Packing company, a suit involving several hundred thousand dollars, has been definitely set for Monday, November 25, and will probably occupy the following four weeks.

The trial of S. M. Pickens is set for this afternoon. Pickens was one of the officers of the Thayer National bank, which failed about a year ago. He is charged with abstracting funds and making false entries of the company's books.

FATE OF AD CLUB.

It Will Be Decided at Meeting Tuesday Noon.

The fate of the Topeka Ad club will be decided by the members of a luncheon in the National hotel Tuesday. The organization has been a pronounced factor in building up the business interests of the city, but in the last year interest in the organization has been lacking.

The following notice of the meeting sent out by the president and secretary of the club was received by the members today:

"If the Topeka Ad club is to exist and be something more than a name, it will have to wake up. The present officers have done all they possibly can to keep the club going; its further existence will depend upon the members. Can Topeka afford to go on record in the United States as being too slow to maintain an Ad club? This will be decided definitely at our noon-day luncheon at the National hotel Tuesday, November 19. Sign return card at once and help boost. If you don't we will count you with the dead ones. It's up to you."

HEART AND HOME PROBLEMS

(By Mrs. Elizabeth Thompson.)

Dear Mrs. Thompson—(1) I am 25 years old and going with a girl 13. Is she too young for me? (2) How can I tell if she loves me? (3) What is good for sore eyes.—Ed.

(1) No. (2) Ask her. (3) See an oculist.

Dear Mrs. Thompson—I am a girl of 15, not very tall and wear my dress rather short. I am bow-legged. Can you give me a remedy?—Flora.

Only a surgeon can straighten bow-legs at your age.

Dear Mrs. Thompson—I have been going with a young man for a short time and he seemed to care for me quite a bit. One day I felt like having some fun, so wrote him, telling him I didn't want to go with him any more and he could get some other girl. I wanted to see what he would do. Haven't seen him since. I am sorry now I did it and want to make up with him, but don't want to apologize. What shall I do?—An Unhappy Girl.

Tell him the truth and apologize, of course. What did you expect, when you deliberately set out to hurt his feelings? Any self-respecting man would have taken you at your word.

Dear Mrs. Thompson—My hair is covered with little white eggs. Please advise me.—M.

Mix equal parts kerosene and olive oil. Rub well into scalp at night and cover the head with tightly rapped piece of muslin. Next morning wash the head with soap, hot water and vinegar. Then use a fine-toothed comb dipped in vinegar to comb out nits. Repeat two or three nights. See that all your brushes, combs, hairpins, rats, etc., are free from vermin. Also look over any chairs with headrests, that you may be using, and be sure that your bed linen is also free of them.

Dear Mrs. Thompson—(1) How should I use sulphur and molasses? (2) My cheeks have sunken in. What can I do for them? (3) Is there anything better than cocoa butter to develop the bust?—An Orphan.

(1) A teaspoonful of sulphur to two teaspoonfuls of molasses is the dose each day for three days, stop three days, then resume, and so on. It is supposed to clear complexion, but one must be careful not to catch cold or get the feet wet. (2) Massage your cheeks with a good skin food and eat a lot of nourishing food. Eat five meals a day if you want to. (3) Cocoa butter will do no good. Tone up your whole system, breath deep, and do some scrubbing and sweeping if you want a good bust.

Dear Mrs. Thompson—I have a wife and two children, and am in love with my stenographer. I find that I love her more each day. Shall I leave this place with my family or get a divorce and marry the young lady?—Miserable.

My advice is: Be a man! You voluntarily married your wife and brought two helpless little children into the world. You undertook

SHOOT INTO TOWN.

Armed Men Also Attack a Train Carrying Stock Brokers.

Charleston, W. Va., Nov. 18.—Armed men fired into the town of Standard, on Paint creek, this afternoon and while the shooting continued for some time, no one is known to have been wounded.

Later a train loaded with stock brokers was fired on and a squad of militiamen on board repelled. Twenty-five arrests were made today in the martial law district. Among the prisoners are three women.

IT'S A CRUEL WORLD.

G. Saurez Arrests His Wife—Police Let Her Go and Lock Him Up.

Gabriel Saurez, a Mexican, attempted to pose as a peace officer Saturday night by arresting his wife, but failed. He took his wife to the police station, where he accused her of practically everything in the category of crime, with a request that she be locked behind prison bars, but he is the one who was compelled to languish in the city prison.

Saurez and his wife had a fight, but failed to observe the Marquis Queensbury rules in every particular. He accused her of infidelity with cruelty and practically everything that is unlawful or in violation of marriage vows. She resented such accusations, and this caused him to attack her physically. He didn't have much success in this line, and their trip to the police station resulted.

The result was a surprise to Mr. Saurez, and he was locked up on the charge of disturbing the peace. He continues to languish in the city jail, and is due to appear in police court this afternoon to answer to the charge.

Elmer Tutt, a negro, is in the class with Saurez. He was arrested on East Euclid avenue Saturday on the charge of beating his wife. Tutt and his wife just can't get along in peace and harmony, and it is he who is usually the aggressor. He will appear in court this afternoon to answer to the charge.

Tim Murphy, not the stage comedian, but a real villain, stole a watch out of a barber shop on East Fourth street, Saturday, which belonged to a railroad man. The men in the barber shop were aware of the presence of Murphy and suspected him as soon as the watch was discovered. The watch was recovered, and Mr. Murphy is being held in the city jail to await the issuance of a state warrant on the charge of robbery.

F. A. Doane was found in possession of two cases of beer and a case of opiate bottles at 834 North Kansas avenue, Saturday afternoon, and was arrested on the charge of maintaining a liquor nuisance. This is the first time that this man has been arrested by the police station, and is being held as evidence.

Arthur Baker, a brother of James Baker, was arrested by Officer Jake Maze, Saturday, for interfering with an officer. James Baker has evaded the police for more than two weeks. He is wanted on a warrant for crap shooting. Officer Maze went to arrest him Saturday, and Arthur "tipped" off the affair and James escaped.

AT THE GRAND.

The character drawing and the dialogue of "The Fortune Hunter" which will be the next attraction at the Grand on Wednesday night, is far and away above any comedy written in many years. There is scarcely a speech that does not give a laugh, and there is wit as well as humor in the lines.

As a writer of songs and musical shows, there are few better known and more popular young men in the city than Joseph E. Howard, who will appear here on Thursday in "The Goddess of Liberty," at the Grand.

No less successful as a comedian and singer than a composer is Mr. Howard—he is a born entertainer.

Mr. Howard is almost as well known as a musical comedy star as he is known as a successful composer of popular songs. His song successes are numbered not by the dozen, but by the hundred. He sings his own songs as no one else can. Lovers of lulling songs who are still occasionally humming and playing the catchy music of "The Time, the Place and the Girl," "Honey-moon Trail" and "The Girl Question" will know just what to expect from Mr. Howard.

A thrilling hydroplane race with an 800 horsepower motor boat at Monte Carlo; the whaling industry "Gus Charlie, the bees"; a ferocious attack on a horse by an enraged lion during which the equine is saved only by the dead sure aim of a hunter at the crucial moment when the lion is making a terrific leap at his intended victim, and the burial of the Maine are only a few of the many other big features included in the program of Lyman H. Howe at the Grand on Friday and Saturday, with a matinee on Saturday.
