AT THE THEATERS.

The distinguished Russian actress, Madame Nazimova, has played many and varied roles since she learned the English language and became one of the foremost English speaking actresses. It is generally conceded, however, that, during that period, eight years, she has never played a part calling for greater artistry than the title role in her present play.

Mme. Nazimova.

"Bella Donna," an adaptation James Bernard Fagan has made from the popular novel of the same name by Robert Hichens. This role not only affords the actress tremendous latitude but in its delineation she plays upon every string in the entire gamut of the human passions. "Bella Donna" is one of the biggest successes the stage in this country has seen in a long time. Theatergoers are familiar with the story for the novel has been most widely read.

Eva Tanguay, the cyclonic comedienne, is coming to the Grand next Tuesday afternoon and evening. Miss Tanguay will present for the first time in this city her interpretation of "Salome," the story of the beautiful daughter of Herodias, who gained at her intriguing behest the head of John the Baptist, from the Roman satrap of Palestine. Miss Tanguay had to measure by comparison against Mary Garden, Ruth St. Denis, La Sylphie and a dozen other interpretations before metropolitan audiences. The circumstances that she was accorded all the honors gave people who had hitherto believed that Tanguay was only capable of tomboy interpretations of jolly songs, an opportunity for thought. In addition to her "Salome," Miss Tanguay promises Topeka theatergoers a vaudeville entertainment better than any ever offered in a New York theater.

The program at the Empress today consists of four reels of the best comedies that the market affords. The big two-reel Edison, "All for His Sake," is the feature. The program also includes the Biograph drama, "For Her Government," and the laughable Essanay comedy, "Gone to Three." An entirely new program to-morrow, including a real comedy, "Fatty on the Job," Vitagraph; Lubin drama, "In the Dredger's Claw," Biograph drama, "Her Old Teacher," and a special Edison industrial picture taken in Jamaica, in the West Indies.

AT THE MOVIES.

The Crystal. "Love's Victory," a two-reel special feature, will be shown at the Crystal Wednesday and Thursday. The "Big Four" comedians appear in "Scrapped by a Hen Coop," a comedy. The "Voice of Viola," a western drama, is also on the program. J. Warren Kerrigan appears Friday and Saturday in a full dress drama, "Inconceivable." "The Legend of the Phantom Tribe," a two-reel Bison offering, and two good comedies follow.

"Joseph in the Land of Egypt" will be shown at the Cozy theater for Wednesday and Thursday. Marguerite Snow, as Potiphar's wife, and James Cruze, as Joseph, will play the leads. This is said to be a strong Biograph picture, in five parts. It is presented by the Thanhouser company. The story of Joseph, as depicted by the Bible, is produced here and makes a powerful story. Starting out with Jacob, the patriarch, and his twelve sons, the picture goes through the life of the eleventh, Joseph. It tells of the selling of Joseph to the slave dealers, of the caravan taking him to Egypt, where he was sold as a slave to Potiphar, captain of Pharaoh's guard. The dreams of Joseph, his rise among the Egyptians, his wealth, rank and power, are shown. The management expects that this will be the strongest Bible picture ever presented at this theater.

Along with the Joseph picture will be the fifth of the series of the "Mutual Girl."

Tonight will be the last of the two-reel Keystone comedy, "Baffles, the Burglar."

The Aurora. J. C. Elliott has purchased the Aurora theater and assumes the management of it this week. Elliott has been in the picture show business in Topeka for years. He will continue with high class films from now on.

The Grand. Tonight will be the last opportunity to see the two-reel Victor comedy, "Votes for Men." Along with the comedy is Edwin August in a drama and Woman's Burden. William Shay and Leah appear in Gem Wednesday and Thursday in a three-reel picture, "Price of Sacrilege." "Devil Fox of the North," a two-reel Eclair, will be presented Friday and Saturday, followed by a comedy.

The Empress. "Fatty on the Job." This is the name of a picture to be presented at the Empress theater Wednesday and Thursday. By the name, the casual observer will tell that it is a comedy. A Lubin drama, "In the Dredger's Claw," and a Biograph drama, "Her Old Picture," are also on the bill. For Friday and Saturday, a special five-reel picture, "Through Fire to Fortune," will be shown. This is a powerful story and has attracted a great deal of attention.

The Best. A Thanhouser picture, "A Leak in the Foreign Office," a big two-reel production with Marguerite Snow and James Cruze in the lead, will be the feature. This is a strong government story. For Thursday and Friday, "The Raiders," a K-B picture in two parts, is shown. A Thanhouser comedy, "A Can of Baked Beans," is also on the program. For Saturday, "The Dream Child," an American picture in two parts, will be shown. "Love and Gasoline," a Keystone comedy, will conclude the program.

The Iris. A kinemacolor program of more than usual interest is being shown at the Iris. It includes pictures of the recent coronation of his majesty, King George of England. "Dogs of War" is another film which shows naval equipment of the various nations. The Iris picture, "A Narrow Escape," is a comedy depicting a bashful young man in company with a young lady whom he admires very much. This program was shown Monday and will be repeated today.

The pictures pertaining to the coronation show the military parade, his majesty entering Westminster Abbey, where the ceremony was commonly returned after the coronation ceremonies, the vast throngs which witnessed the parade, the decorations along the line of march and the immense amphitheater which was arranged to accommodate the sightseers. Many pictures of the London streets also were shown.

One of the most attractive programs ever shown by the Iris will be Wednesday and the remainder of the week. This will be Cecilia Loftus in "A Lady of Quality" and is one of the famous player films which have become so popular at this movie house. This film is shown in five parts.

Indicative of the pretentious subjects selected for this program, the famous play and popular novel, "A Lady of Quality," by the noted authoress, Frances Hodgson Burnett, presenting for the first time in motion pictures the distinguished character actress, Cecilia Loftus.

A more suitable subject for Miss Loftus' mimic powers could hardly have been chosen. In the role of Clorinda, the head-strong, temperamental hoyden whose father's contentions for other sex extends even to herself, but who later wins his respect and grows up among his dissolute companions, learning to drink, smoke and swear as freely as any of them, till the derision of the man she loves at her masculine manners and dress prompts her to renounce them forever and become "A Lady of Quality." Miss Loftus has a capable part. One of the many strong climaxes of the story is introduced when Sir John Oxon, a dandy of London town, lays his boxer with his right hand, and she will win her heart, not as a hoyden, but as a woman. Upon his lips Clo bestows her first kiss, not without a price, for at that moment he steals one of her raven curls, the proof of his success. He hastens back to London to boast of his conquest while Clo waits in vain for his promised return, and then receives news that he is to wed a wealthy lady of title. This tragic episode changes all the rest of her life, which is traced through the film with an impressive charm and appeal.

AT THE ORPHEUM.

The bill at the Orpheum for the first three days of the week is a good one, without one single act that is not entertaining.

Frederick the Great, a magician.

Losing Your Hair?

Read What a Herpicide Enthusiast Says

You are becoming bald. The hair is getting thin on the top of your head, unless you take Herpicide, and you will, before long be as hairless as a croquet ball. Remember too that chronic baldness is incurable. It is all due to dandruff. I can tell because you always have dandruff flakes on your coat collar. Besides being an indication of impending baldness, it also suggests untidiness. Newbro's Herpicide causes dandruff to disappear and prevents the hair from falling out. It has a wonderfully beautifying effect upon the hair, producing changes which are sometimes beyond belief.

You are not taking any chances when you purchase Herpicide and you are tempting fate when you use anything else. Herpicide has thousands upon thousands of satisfied users who testify to its germ destroying and hair preserving qualities. Newbro's Herpicide in 50c and $1.00 sizes is sold by all dealers who guarantee it to do all that is claimed. If you are not satisfied your money will be refunded. The best barbers recommend and use it. Send 10c in postage to The Herpicide Co., Dept. R., Detroit, Mich., for sample and booklet. Geo. W. Stansfeld, 632 Kansas avenue, Special Agent. Ad.

La Verne Barber in "The Man Who Knew," a Tabloid Drama on the Orpheum's Bill

Lloyd Spencer has one of the most original acts ever presented at the theater. Spencer is a story teller and an entertainer. One of his feats is to tell a tale resembling a certain Topekan's Chinese dog story. He has a little song, with words written about Topeka by himself.

The three Kelsey sisters present a number that is excellent. One of the trio has a beautiful voice, reaching five notes above high C, whatever that is. Her two selections are good and her voice resembles a grand opera singer. The other two members are high class, in singing and dancing.

LaVerne Barber and his company have a one-act playlet, entitled "The Man Who Knew." This is really a quality act as Barber and the rest of the players are above the average. It really teaches a lesson, one that should keep several local youths from straying away into the dark temptations of the great cities, D-F-T.

The performance opens with a Keystone farce comedy, "The Thief Catcher." The Keystone farces are made to grant plenty of laughter to movie patrons and this one certainly receives its share. Following the picture, music is furnished by the Orpheum orchestra.

Wednesday will be tango night. Spectators will be given an opportunity to see the best tango dancers in the city perform.

Friday night will be the "Country Store." This is a novelty that has never before been shown in Topeka and one which promises to be interesting. S. J.

John McCormack a Great Tenor. "It was fitting that John McCormack should open his recital in San Francisco with Handel, for nature dedicated both to music," says Helen Bennett in "Town Talk." "Besides, while Handel expounded the universal idiom of music, McCormack is an exponent of the universal idiom of song. He sang Handel with exquisite feeling and with flawless art, and when he finished his first numbers from 'Jephtha' one had only to glance to right or left to see tears frankly flowing from eyes young and old. Another number in the same devotional spirit was the Alltisen setting of the twenty-seventh psalm. No sermon on 'strength from above' could be so eloquent as 'Town Talk.' "Besides, singing of the solemn words, "Mr. McCormack sings at the Grand in Topeka Thursday night, March 5.
