

POLICE NOTINGS

Two Boys Held Up Confectioner Last Night.

Robbery Netted During Youths Two Dollars.

Bert Campbell, owner of a small confectionery store at Seventeenth and College avenues, was held up by two boys at 9:30 o'clock last night.

He notified the police and Officer Richards went to look into the matter.

James "Babe" Smith, a colored musician, was arrested by D. D. Mote, city prosecutor, Wednesday afternoon and is charged with assault and battery.

Will Bartlett, who was a special officer for several months, has now opened up a private detective agency.

Al Taylor, arrested Wednesday afternoon by Officer Wonderly, and booked for investigation, was released by Chief Ross last night.

W. C. Ayers was arrested last night by Officer Sam Jones and is booked on the charge of larceny.

Carrie Sneed and Mame Porter were arrested last night by Sergeant Walker and Officer Cook and are booked on the police blotter for investigation.

Police Judge George A. Huron has written the following letter to a mother who asked him to release her son from jail:

"My husband tells me that you are distressed at the fact that your son is in jail; this is natural.

But there are conditions in which it is for the benefit of the party, that he should be conquered and made to work.

Police Judge George A. Huron has written the following letter to a mother who asked him to release her son from jail:

"My husband tells me that you are distressed at the fact that your son is in jail; this is natural.

But there are conditions in which it is for the benefit of the party, that he should be conquered and made to work.

Police Judge George A. Huron has written the following letter to a mother who asked him to release her son from jail:

"My husband tells me that you are distressed at the fact that your son is in jail; this is natural.

But there are conditions in which it is for the benefit of the party, that he should be conquered and made to work.

Police Judge George A. Huron has written the following letter to a mother who asked him to release her son from jail:

"My husband tells me that you are distressed at the fact that your son is in jail; this is natural.

But there are conditions in which it is for the benefit of the party, that he should be conquered and made to work.

Police Judge George A. Huron has written the following letter to a mother who asked him to release her son from jail:

"My husband tells me that you are distressed at the fact that your son is in jail; this is natural.

But there are conditions in which it is for the benefit of the party, that he should be conquered and made to work.

Police Judge George A. Huron has written the following letter to a mother who asked him to release her son from jail:

"My husband tells me that you are distressed at the fact that your son is in jail; this is natural.

But there are conditions in which it is for the benefit of the party, that he should be conquered and made to work.

Police Judge George A. Huron has written the following letter to a mother who asked him to release her son from jail:

"My husband tells me that you are distressed at the fact that your son is in jail; this is natural.

But there are conditions in which it is for the benefit of the party, that he should be conquered and made to work.

Police Judge George A. Huron has written the following letter to a mother who asked him to release her son from jail:

"My husband tells me that you are distressed at the fact that your son is in jail; this is natural.

But there are conditions in which it is for the benefit of the party, that he should be conquered and made to work.

CONCLUDE OF Y. M. C. A.

(Continued from Page One.)

Directors, business men, committee-men and employed officers for the consideration of problems of a more or less technical nature relative to the work among boys and men.

The meeting will close with a 4:30 o'clock banquet this evening at the Y. W. C. A. Friday an all day conference for employed officers will be held in the First Baptist church.

W. Y. Morgan, lieutenant governor, will be master of the banquet which will be attended by between 150 and 200 persons.

The meeting this morning opened with an informal song service at 9 o'clock. Devotional was under the leadership of David L. Rhodes, scholar.

Herbert B. London, son of the late General Booth, will speak before the employed officers in the First Baptist church Friday morning.

Augustus Nash of Cleveland will speak at 10:15 relative to what constitutes a really practical Religious Work Program for the Present Day Association.

Herbert B. London, son of the late General Booth, will speak before the employed officers in the First Baptist church Friday morning.

Augustus Nash of Cleveland will speak at 10:15 relative to what constitutes a really practical Religious Work Program for the Present Day Association.

Herbert B. London, son of the late General Booth, will speak before the employed officers in the First Baptist church Friday morning.

Augustus Nash of Cleveland will speak at 10:15 relative to what constitutes a really practical Religious Work Program for the Present Day Association.

Herbert B. London, son of the late General Booth, will speak before the employed officers in the First Baptist church Friday morning.

Augustus Nash of Cleveland will speak at 10:15 relative to what constitutes a really practical Religious Work Program for the Present Day Association.

Herbert B. London, son of the late General Booth, will speak before the employed officers in the First Baptist church Friday morning.

Augustus Nash of Cleveland will speak at 10:15 relative to what constitutes a really practical Religious Work Program for the Present Day Association.

Herbert B. London, son of the late General Booth, will speak before the employed officers in the First Baptist church Friday morning.

Augustus Nash of Cleveland will speak at 10:15 relative to what constitutes a really practical Religious Work Program for the Present Day Association.

Herbert B. London, son of the late General Booth, will speak before the employed officers in the First Baptist church Friday morning.

Augustus Nash of Cleveland will speak at 10:15 relative to what constitutes a really practical Religious Work Program for the Present Day Association.

Herbert B. London, son of the late General Booth, will speak before the employed officers in the First Baptist church Friday morning.

Augustus Nash of Cleveland will speak at 10:15 relative to what constitutes a really practical Religious Work Program for the Present Day Association.

Herbert B. London, son of the late General Booth, will speak before the employed officers in the First Baptist church Friday morning.

Augustus Nash of Cleveland will speak at 10:15 relative to what constitutes a really practical Religious Work Program for the Present Day Association.

Herbert B. London, son of the late General Booth, will speak before the employed officers in the First Baptist church Friday morning.

Augustus Nash of Cleveland will speak at 10:15 relative to what constitutes a really practical Religious Work Program for the Present Day Association.

Herbert B. London, son of the late General Booth, will speak before the employed officers in the First Baptist church Friday morning.

Augustus Nash of Cleveland will speak at 10:15 relative to what constitutes a really practical Religious Work Program for the Present Day Association.

Herbert B. London, son of the late General Booth, will speak before the employed officers in the First Baptist church Friday morning.

Augustus Nash of Cleveland will speak at 10:15 relative to what constitutes a really practical Religious Work Program for the Present Day Association.

Herbert B. London, son of the late General Booth, will speak before the employed officers in the First Baptist church Friday morning.

ALL STAY OVER.

(Continued from Page One.)

ment of the Trumble bill enabling cooperative associations to be organized; also the bill enabling farmers to organize co-operative banks.

The special committee of the senate appointed to investigate into the cause of the storm of protest in the form of a shower of telegrams against the bill introduced by Senator James A. Troutman.

The report contended that the part taken by Carey J. Wilson, superintendent of insurance, was wholly unwarranted and deserving of censure.

The report contended that the part taken by Carey J. Wilson, superintendent of insurance, was wholly unwarranted and deserving of censure.

The report contended that the part taken by Carey J. Wilson, superintendent of insurance, was wholly unwarranted and deserving of censure.

The report contended that the part taken by Carey J. Wilson, superintendent of insurance, was wholly unwarranted and deserving of censure.

The report contended that the part taken by Carey J. Wilson, superintendent of insurance, was wholly unwarranted and deserving of censure.

The report contended that the part taken by Carey J. Wilson, superintendent of insurance, was wholly unwarranted and deserving of censure.

The report contended that the part taken by Carey J. Wilson, superintendent of insurance, was wholly unwarranted and deserving of censure.

The report contended that the part taken by Carey J. Wilson, superintendent of insurance, was wholly unwarranted and deserving of censure.

The report contended that the part taken by Carey J. Wilson, superintendent of insurance, was wholly unwarranted and deserving of censure.

The report contended that the part taken by Carey J. Wilson, superintendent of insurance, was wholly unwarranted and deserving of censure.

The report contended that the part taken by Carey J. Wilson, superintendent of insurance, was wholly unwarranted and deserving of censure.

The report contended that the part taken by Carey J. Wilson, superintendent of insurance, was wholly unwarranted and deserving of censure.

The report contended that the part taken by Carey J. Wilson, superintendent of insurance, was wholly unwarranted and deserving of censure.

The report contended that the part taken by Carey J. Wilson, superintendent of insurance, was wholly unwarranted and deserving of censure.

The report contended that the part taken by Carey J. Wilson, superintendent of insurance, was wholly unwarranted and deserving of censure.

The report contended that the part taken by Carey J. Wilson, superintendent of insurance, was wholly unwarranted and deserving of censure.

The report contended that the part taken by Carey J. Wilson, superintendent of insurance, was wholly unwarranted and deserving of censure.

The report contended that the part taken by Carey J. Wilson, superintendent of insurance, was wholly unwarranted and deserving of censure.

The report contended that the part taken by Carey J. Wilson, superintendent of insurance, was wholly unwarranted and deserving of censure.

The report contended that the part taken by Carey J. Wilson, superintendent of insurance, was wholly unwarranted and deserving of censure.

The report contended that the part taken by Carey J. Wilson, superintendent of insurance, was wholly unwarranted and deserving of censure.

The report contended that the part taken by Carey J. Wilson, superintendent of insurance, was wholly unwarranted and deserving of censure.

The report contended that the part taken by Carey J. Wilson, superintendent of insurance, was wholly unwarranted and deserving of censure.

The report contended that the part taken by Carey J. Wilson, superintendent of insurance, was wholly unwarranted and deserving of censure.

The report contended that the part taken by Carey J. Wilson, superintendent of insurance, was wholly unwarranted and deserving of censure.

The report contended that the part taken by Carey J. Wilson, superintendent of insurance, was wholly unwarranted and deserving of censure.

The report contended that the part taken by Carey J. Wilson, superintendent of insurance, was wholly unwarranted and deserving of censure.

HITS THEM HARD

Senate Lobby Probe Hits Mutual Companies.

Report Late Today Censures State Superintendent.

The special committee of the senate appointed to investigate into the cause of the storm of protest in the form of a shower of telegrams against the bill introduced by Senator James A. Troutman.

The report contended that the part taken by Carey J. Wilson, superintendent of insurance, was wholly unwarranted and deserving of censure.

The report contended that the part taken by Carey J. Wilson, superintendent of insurance, was wholly unwarranted and deserving of censure.

The report contended that the part taken by Carey J. Wilson, superintendent of insurance, was wholly unwarranted and deserving of censure.

The report contended that the part taken by Carey J. Wilson, superintendent of insurance, was wholly unwarranted and deserving of censure.

The report contended that the part taken by Carey J. Wilson, superintendent of insurance, was wholly unwarranted and deserving of censure.

The report contended that the part taken by Carey J. Wilson, superintendent of insurance, was wholly unwarranted and deserving of censure.

The report contended that the part taken by Carey J. Wilson, superintendent of insurance, was wholly unwarranted and deserving of censure.

The report contended that the part taken by Carey J. Wilson, superintendent of insurance, was wholly unwarranted and deserving of censure.

The report contended that the part taken by Carey J. Wilson, superintendent of insurance, was wholly unwarranted and deserving of censure.

The report contended that the part taken by Carey J. Wilson, superintendent of insurance, was wholly unwarranted and deserving of censure.

The report contended that the part taken by Carey J. Wilson, superintendent of insurance, was wholly unwarranted and deserving of censure.

The report contended that the part taken by Carey J. Wilson, superintendent of insurance, was wholly unwarranted and deserving of censure.

The report contended that the part taken by Carey J. Wilson, superintendent of insurance, was wholly unwarranted and deserving of censure.

The report contended that the part taken by Carey J. Wilson, superintendent of insurance, was wholly unwarranted and deserving of censure.

LOCAL MENTION.

The case of the state against Myrtle Rife, charged with receiving stolen goods from Mary Garrett, was today continued in the court of Topeka on motion of the county attorney.

Five divorce cases will be heard by Judge Dana in the first division of the Shawnee county district court tomorrow. The cases: Thomas S. Wolf against Ella Wolf; Alice Swats against Peter Swats; Mary Parkhurst against V. R. Parkhurst; Helen Calkins against Andrew Calkins; Lizzie Taylor against Joe Taylor.

Four-act play, "Home Ties," given by Young People's Society at English Lutheran church, Fifth and Harrison, Thursday, Feb. 4, 8 p. m. Admission 15 cents. Adv.

The regular February meeting of the board of directors of the Topeka Commercial club was held at noon today. The business transacted was mainly of a routine nature.

A. L. Brooks, O. F. Whitney and E. F. Reinisch were speakers this afternoon at a meeting of the Shawnee Horticultural society. Superintendent Reinisch's subject was "Some European Trees for Ornamental and Shelter Plantings."

Mrs. P. A. Widener will entertain the W. R. C. sewing society at a small meeting Friday at her home, 3023 Buchanan street.

There will be an informal dance and card party at the Elks club Friday night. The dance will be for the members of the club and their wives.

F. A. Koester, D. D. E. 811 Kansas ave. Special attention given to pyorrhea and oral prophylaxis. Adv.

Major A. M. Harvey has received word of the death of Frank Loveland, clerk of the circuit court of appeals of the Sixth circuit in Cincinnati.

The West Side W. C. T. U. will hold a regular meeting with Mrs. Alice Wright at her home, 309 The Drive, Friday afternoon at 2:30.

The sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be observed at the Pentecostal Church of the Nazarene, 1110 Buchanan street, at 11 o'clock this morning.

Miss Marguerite Rust, 535 Tyler street, who has been in the city for some time, is offered during the midwinter by the E. B. Howard company. An electric lamp was given by the company.

If you are troubled with a leaky roof, that needs repairing and painting, I can have this work done to your own satisfaction. John L. White. Phone 1477 Black. Adv.

The present members of the city library board were reappointed by Mayor R. L. Coffran and confirmed by the city commission today. They are Harold Chase, A. K. Wilson and Scott Hopkins.

Topeka's civil service board which put itself out of commission by reason of all its members becoming candidates at the last election, was rehabilitated by Mayor Coffran and the city commission today.

Henderson Martin vice governor of the Philippines, will deliver an address on "Masonry in the Philippines," Friday night at a meeting of Orient lodge No. 51, A. F. and A. M. in Masonic temple.

A claim for damages against the city of Topeka was filed with the city commission today by attorney G. H. Ganton, who claims that on December 30, 1914, he slipped on an icy walk on Quincy street between Fourth and Fifth streets, fracturing his wrist. He seeks payment in the sum of $1,000.

Warren McCosby Co. THE STORE OF DEFENDABLE MERCHANDISE. Many New Lines of Spring Wash Goods Are Here. Main Floor—North Side. Hundreds of bolts of new spring wash goods with their bright colors and variegated styles have given the departments in this part of the store the effect of a huge flower garden in full bloom.

Best Quality Percales. Here are percales that we recommend. All styles, fine cloth 36 inches wide in light, medium and dark shades with handsome designs and colors that are fast. Goods that will prove very satisfactory in the laundry.

New Egyptian Tissues and Woven Flaxons. These two fabrics will prove to be immensely popular this year. Charming color combinations prevail, although there is a liberal sprinkling of the more staple effects in new designs.

ASK THREE DIVORCES. Petitions to Break Up Three Families Filed in Court. Petition for divorce has been filed in the Shawnee county district court by Minnie Kroft against Chas. O. Kroft.

FRENCH FIGHTERS CARRY SKIS FOR USE IN VOGES SNOWS. Alpine chamois of the French army are seen here marching in one of the passes of the Vosges. These hardy mountaineers are equipped with skis, which they use to great advantage when the weather conditions demand it.

INSPECTION HAS PAID. Miles Mulroy, Hotel Inspector, Makes Annual Report. That the state hotel inspection department in the first eighteen months of its operation has been practically self supporting while pioneering the field opened by the law passed in 1913, is indicated in the report just made by Miles Mulroy, state inspector, to Governor Arthur Capper.

PLACE BAN ON SNUFF. Bill in House to Prohibit Its Sale—County Unit Measure by Martin. Single unit plan of county government without amending the state constitution, is proposed in a bill introduced in the house by Frank L. Martin of Reno county.

CUT TO THREE MEN. Senator Troutman Introduces Economy City Commission Bill. Senator James Troutman believes he can reform the commission government of cities of the first class by cutting down the membership of that body from five to three and directing the abolition of about a dozen of the high salaried jobs which now go with the various departments of city government.

WHOOPIING COUGH. Vapo-Resolene. A simple, safe and effective treatment for whooping cough. Vapo-Resolene stops the spasmodic cough, soothes the inflamed throat, relieves the chest, and breaks up the mucus. It is a sure cure for whooping cough, and is safe for all ages.

TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY. DEATHS AND FUNERALS. THE WEATHER RECORD. Following are observations of the United States weather bureau for the twenty-four hours ending at 7 o'clock this morning: