

IT IS SHATTERED

German Offensive Against Warsaw Is Broken Up.

The Kaiser's Army Has Been Pushed Back 20 Miles.

ALONG A FRONT OF 60 MILES

The Russians Are Battering the Lines of Von Hindenberg.

Exhausted and Floundering in Unfamiliar Swamps.

Petrograd, March 2.—Along a 60-mile front, extending from the Vistula to the Przemysz, the Germans have been pushed back for an average distance of 20 miles. The enemy's retreat continues, according to dispatches from Warsaw today.

The new German line, reaching 55 miles from Lipno to a point near Mlawa, is being pressed back toward the Prussian cities of Soldau and Thorn.

The grand duke has discovered unexpected weakness in the German north of the Vistula, the general staff declared today. To start his offensive in the Mazurian lake region, Von Hindenberg drew heavily on General Franco's army around Mlawa and on the German forces moving toward Warsaw through Plock. These forces are now massed west of the Niemen, between Agostow and the fortress of Grodno.

Exhausted and floundering in unfamiliar swamps, the offensive has been shattered by the Russian artillery commanding the swamp causeways from Grodno. Meanwhile, a victorious Russian army, which recaptured Przemysz, operating as the right wing of the Russians north of Przemysz, is sweeping the Germans back in the region north of the Vistula.

Southeast of Stryz and around Roznaw, the Russian drive has developed rapidly. The Austrians are retiring in great disorder. The Austrian base at Krasno, southwest of Stanislaus, has been abandoned and there is evidence that the forces of the enemy that moved upon Stanislaus in their march upon Lemberg, are preparing to fall back upon Kolna.

General Ivanhoff has begun a new movement against Czernowitz, the Bukovina capital. The Russians have taken Sodoroga, four miles north of Stanislaus.

LEGION OF DEFENSE.

Organization of Patriots to Begin at Once in New York.

New York, March 2.—Headquarters of the American Legion will be opened in this city tomorrow and, according to a statement issued by organizers of the movement, the organization of members will be begun at once. Already 500 men have signified their intention to join the organization and within a year it is expected that there will be a legion of men wearing the red, white and blue button of the new national defense movement.

Further details of the plans of the American Legion were published today by Dr. J. E. Hausmann, its secretary. It is to be controlled by an executive committee of four men, two of whom probably will be ex-secretaries of the army and two ex-secretaries of the navy. This committee will be announced as soon as the fourth acceptance of the program. In co-operation with an advisory board of between 40 and 50 men chosen from all parts of the country, the selection will probably be made in the first instance by the executive committee, who also will have charge of assigning members to their various ranks.

"LIFE MEN" AS HOSTS

Topeka Underwriters Gave Excellent Banquet to Local Ministers.

A banquet was given Monday night in the Y. W. C. A. dining room by the Topeka Life Underwriters' association, to the ministers of the city.

The affair is the first of a series of "acceptance" dinners which the association intends to give to the various professional men of Topeka.

The banquets are given so the people of Topeka and especially the professional men may more thoroughly understand the object of life insurance.

Charles Moore, president of the association, presided at the banquet. After-dinner speeches were made by the following: L. L. Duncan, who spoke in regard to the duty of Christian people to prepare for the future; S. E. Cobb, of the Bank of Topeka, gave the bankers' view of life insurance; Henry H. Hall, speaker on "Educated Sentiment;" J. B. Larimer told of life insurance from the lawyers' standpoint; H. O. Garvey, former president of the association, gave the early history of life insurance; Rev. S. C. Cook, superintendent of the Methodist Old People's Home, furnished the comedy element of the evening when he related his first experience with life insurance; Rev. Father John Murphy talked in regard to the need of life insurance for the young married man; Rev. M. E. Church made a forceful talk on "Energy."

which could be applied to any line of business; Rev. Robert Gordon, of the First Baptist church, told several humorous stories about life insurance in Scotland.

The paper read by Charles Moore, entitled "The Man With a Vision," was good. A suggestion was made by Mr. Moore that at some future time the ministers of the city preach a sermon from the forty-first chapter of Genesis, which has an account of the first life insurance company.

The following guests attended the banquet: Rev. Edwin Locke, Rev. S. S. Martin, Rev. W. J. Cole, Rev. Robert Gordon, Rev. J. L. Handley, Rev. O. L. Cook, Rev. M. F. Troxell, Rev. A. S. Henderson, Rev. J. A. Renwick, Rev. C. A. Dodds, Rev. Father John Murphy, Rev. J. K. Hartman, Rev. H. J. Corwin, A. C. Slusser, H. E. Breazeale, G. W. Gillum, W. L. Coffey, W. A. Morris, C. H. FACTORY FOR CITY

Pierson Telegraph Transmitter Company Buys Jensen Plant.

Extensive Manufacture of Valuable Instrument in Topeka.

The former plant of the Jensen Manufacturing company has been sold by W. G. Dickie to the Pierson Telegraph Transmitter company, which is the present time located at 42 Jefferson street. The company will remodel the Jensen building and will adapt the plant to the needs of the firm in manufacturing a telegraph transmitter which has a keyboard similar to that of an ordinary typewriter.

It is claimed that a telegraph operator can save much time through the use of the machine, and that it is high tension at which it is necessary for the operator to work will be reduced to that of operating an ordinary typewriter.

It is believed from numerous tests made in service it will revolutionize telegraphy.

RECITAL

An audience that filled to overflowing the First Baptist church audience room last night for a recital given by Miss Ann Myers, pianist, and Miss Beulah Hall, violinist, assisted by Miss Ethel Watts, soprano. The program consisted of a variety of pieces which were all taken before 8 o'clock, and the gallery was packed within five minutes afterward. The vestibule was filled with people standing, a great many of whom were in the front rows. The two musicians, who were presented by Mr. Daniel Muller, piano teacher, and Mr. Carlton Wood, violin teacher.

An orchestra also assisted with the program. The recital opened with a number by the orchestra, conducted by Mr. Wood. They played "Overture to Tancredi," by Rossini. The selection was well received, and it revealed Mr. Wood in a new light as conductor. Miss Myers appeared on the program three times. She played a Handel Sonata in A, with piano accompaniment played by Mr. Elmer Olson. The selection was a fine one, and it was played with the simplicity and purity of tone that properly interprets the dignity of Handel's music. Her second appearance on the program was in a Concerto, by Mozart, with the orchestra, and she closed the program with an especially pleasing number, Hejre by Hubay, with the orchestra. Miss Hall is a high school student in her senior year. She has been studying for several years, and for the past months with Mr. Wood. She plays with ease and skill, and she has attained a creditable degree of virtuosity. Her selection was well received, and it revealed Mr. Wood in a new light as conductor.

Miss Myers appeared twice on the program, and it was a matter of regret to those who listened that she has not at least one more number. She gave two short numbers, a Chopin Valse and Grieg's "Butterfly" piece. The latter was a fine one, and it was played with the simplicity and purity of tone that properly interprets the dignity of Grieg's music. LAY THE BIG PLANS

Forty Sunday School Workers Arrange Topeka Event.

Mammoth Pageant Feature Is Agreed Upon Today.

BRING 10,000 TO THIS CITY

Largest Gathering of Its Kind in History of the State.

Jubilee Convention at Auditorium May 4, 5 and 6.

Preliminary plans were discussed today at a meeting of 40 prominent Sunday school superintendents and workers of Topeka and several other towns in connection with the mammoth pageant that will be a spectacular feature of the jubilee convention of the State Sunday School association in the Auditorium May 4, 5 and 6.

The music will be featured strongly. Aside from the pipe organ and piano there will be at least ten other instruments. Anywhere from a dozen to a score of Sunday schools will participate. There will be a large and well trained chorus. The ceremony will be wonderfully impressive, according to Prof. Smith, who had charge of similar undertakings in Chicago and elsewhere.

The pageant will be presented Monday evening, May 3, for the benefit of the people of Topeka. It will be presented again Wednesday night for the benefit of the delegates. The convention is expected to bring from 6,000 to 10,000 persons to Topeka.

The members of the committee on arrangements will meet Prof. Smith this evening at 7:15 o'clock before he leaves for Chicago.

MAY SHIFT SALARIES.

Census Will Be Watched Carefully by Shawnee Officials.

Whether or not the salaries of county officials which were sliced following the census taken in Shawnee county last year will be raised to their former amounts will be decided by the census now being taken.

REVISE BRIDGE LAWS.

Senate Passes Committee Bill as Submitted by Senator Klein.

The senate this morning passed the committee bill, revising the bridge laws of Kansas which was approved by the committee of the whole in practically the same form as submitted by Senator Klein, chairman of the committee which drafted it. The bill now goes to the house where an effort will be made to substitute it for a number of other pending road measures.

It finally passed in its present form the Klein bill will give Kansas a compact bridge law which keeps bridge matters in the hands of local authorities and subject only to general supervision by engineers in employ of the state. It carries amendments by Senator L. M. Hinds and J. W. Howe intended to prevent unfair pools by contractors.

CONTEST OVER WILL.

Robert W. Wells Against Browns in U. S. Supreme Court Today.

A contest of a will was filed today in the United States district court by Robert Wesley Wells against Madeleine Brown, Joseph Brown and their son, Robert Ryan Brown.

The petition of the plaintiff stated that the testator, Robert Ryan Brown, died in 1907, and that the will was executed on that date.

STRENGTH FOR WOMEN

The importance of reserve strength and pure blood at this period cannot be over-estimated and Nature's pure nourishment in Scott's Emulsion is the best. It strengthens the blood, invigorates the bones and invigorates the whole system. Physicians everywhere prescribe it. It is free from Alcohol or Opium.

that he had been brought up in Coffeyville at the home of his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Robert R. Wells. The witness had adopted a daughter, now Mrs. John Brown. On the death of Mrs. Wells, she left all of her property to her mother. The will was offered as exhibit.

The witness will be heard by the court in the afternoon. Mrs. Wells offered the suggestion that provision be made for the property to be divided equally between her adopted daughter and her nephew, the daughter to the plaintiff. But at the same time she is believed to have unconditionally turned over her property to her. When the mother, Mrs. Eliza J. Wann, died it was found that no will had been left and by law the property reverted to the daughter.

WANTS FEES BACK

Senator Davis Would Collect From Akers and Davis.

Resolution in Senate Asking Governor Capper to Act.

In a lengthy resolution setting forth the fact that State Treasurer Earl Akers and Auditor W. E. Davis are in financial straits, a resolution was introduced by Senator J. M. Davis this morning and he endeavored to put the senate on record as deprecating their action and urging the governor use moral suasion to induce the two officers mentioned to hand back to the state all such fees as they have collected and kept.

CHILD HYGIENE BILL.

Women's Pet Measure Before Senate on Special Order.

The child hygiene bill, the pet measure of the women of Kansas, was taken up for consideration on special order. The bill provides for the establishment of a board of child hygiene under the direction of the state board of health. Its purpose is the dissemination of instruction for the care of children, the prevention of diseases peculiar to childhood.

LOCAL MENTION.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Dreyer will entertain the members and friends of the Epworth League of the First German M. E. church this evening at their home on Kendall street.

Convex Glass, Coe's Shop, 828 K. A. Adv.

Mrs. Van DeMark Smith, president of the W. R. C. No. 94 entertained the sewing club at an all day meeting last Saturday at her home, 418 K. A. street. Twenty-five were present. A dinner was served which was not in line with present idea of the high cost of living. Some of the dishes were were heirlooms in Mrs. Smith's family and are more than one hundred years old. Those present: Mrs. Alta Garland, Mrs. John H. Hall, Mrs. Anna Funston, Mrs. Jennie Weber, Mrs. Mabelle Hartwell, Mrs. Kate Kline, Mrs. Barbara Jeffries, Mrs. Eleanor Forrester, Mrs. Emma Stone, Mrs. Belle Strawn, Mrs. Maggie Irwin, Mrs. LeVina Baker, Mrs. Mercy Warren, Mrs. Orinda Wolf, Mrs. Amelia Garland, Mrs. John H. Hall, Mrs. Alice Addis. Guests of the club were: Mr. Daniel Warren, Mr. Van DeMark Smith and Master Edwin Williams.

DR. HARDING'S IDEAS.

She Places Pointed Question Concerning School Books Before Capper.

To the Editor State Journal: The board of education is quoted as having unanimously adopted a resolution urging "the enactment of legislation more definitely specifying the books to be used in the public high schools and authorizing the purchase of such supplementary books as are needed in the elementary schools."

It is just another misstatement on their part in an effort to assist those interested in making the purchase of school books a burden to the people. I am opposed to the purchase of supplemental texts but on the ground that they are being used in violation of law, not simply because they are supplemental books. Only last fall a complaint was asked for against Mary Harrison because she compelled the pupils to purchase German texts in violation of law.

This was just before the election and Mr. Atchison pleaded with me not to insist on the issuance of the complaint, but I agreed that he would see that no other violation was permitted in the Topeka schools. Superintendent Wilson came to my office several times and begged me not to insist that Mr. Atchison was the warrant and admitted that she had violated the law and that he would see that the law was obeyed thereafter.

Mr. Ellsworth, secretary of the teachers' association, says that in almost every city the law is being violated in the use of illegal books. Only last month an investigation was made at Manhattan and it was found that the board of education there were using books in violation of law. The matter was brought to the attention of the attorney general's office and also to Governor Capper, who Governor Capper prosecute these violators of the law?

The resolution adopted by the board is not given, but it is a better financial statement than the one which is being made to make the appropriation than ever before. The schools have gone for four years without new buildings and have come to the point that the recommended appropriation made by the board and the senate is too low."

CHANEY WILL RUN

Well Known Topekan Out for Commissioner of Finance.

"I'm in Race Red Hot and Expect to Win," He Says.

John T. Chaney of the Chaney Investment company, 525 New England building, today announced himself a candidate for the office of commissioner of finance at the approaching city primaries.

"I am in the race red hot and expect to win," said Mr. Chaney. "I do not enter the race because I have been urged by my friends, but because John T. Chaney wants the job and believes he can perform the duties of the office as well as any of his opponents in the race. True, I have conferred with my friends, for one must depend upon the support of his friends, if he expects to be elected to office. I have not been hasty in entering the race, but only after careful deliberation have I made up my mind. I have had finance at Topeka many years. Twenty-five years of this time I have been engaged in a business which I believe has given me experience of special value in preparing me to fill the office of city commissioner of finance. My twenty-five years of business life have been in the handling of finances, bonds, mortgages and investments. For my platform I am in favor of rigid economy, but not at the expense of public efficiency."

Chaney is a well known Topekan and has been active in city and county politics, always, however, to advance the political interests of others. Never has he been a candidate for office nor asked a political favor for himself. The result is that he has a host of friends of the kind ready to go out and work in his behalf.

During the last primary and general election, Mr. Chaney was acting chairman of the Shawnee county Republican central committee, which rendered a proud account of itself in the handsome majorities for Capper and Curtis. He was state senator at one time.

PAY FOR EXTRA TIME.

Pierce Would Pay Legislators With Cattle Disease Money.

Representative Pierce of Wyandotte county would pay members of the legislature for their extra time in Topeka for the appropriation for the foot and mouth disease. A resolution was introduced in the house this afternoon in a spirit of levity was passed unanimously on an aye and nay vote.

Pierce resolution recites that the legislative members have been exposed to the mouth disease while in Topeka and asks that the two legislators which Pierce represents for a period of two weeks. For the extra time in the capital city, Pierce's resolution provides that they be paid $3 a day, or $60,000, for the extra time in Topeka for the campaign against the foot and mouth disease. Pierce's resolution was read and unanimously adopted.

Probable New Men. A young catcher, whose name was not given out, is also among the new men who will probably report here for a try out, as is a promising young pitcher from Westmoreland, Kan.

The new catch was one of the best in his league last season, and the new pitcher is James H. Cobb, who made a record as a semi-professional player last year. Whether or not this year he will be a relative of the famous Ty Cobb is not known, but his record shows that he made an exceptional showing last year, pitching three hit games during the season, one of which was against the K. S. A. C. team.

ALUMNI ARE BUSY.

State School Graduates After Larger Educational Appropriations.

Present indications point to a right interesting war between the State School Alumni association and the state officials and members of the legislature who are attempting to slice the appropriations for state colleges. By means of circular letters the Alumni association is attempting to bring pressure to bear on the legislature for the appropriation of $961,350 for new buildings at state institutions. The board recommended by the board of administration.

On the other hand Governor Capper and Republican members of the house have declared the appropriation unnecessary.

Hugh Fisher, judge of the court of Topeka and secretary of the alumni publicity committee, when asked the status of the matter, said:

"The association feels that the judgment of the board is a little better than the long distance observation of the administration and Auditor Davis. As a result the schools are the root and the educational institutions of the state will stand still."

Kansas today is in a better financial shape to make the appropriation than ever before. The schools have gone for four years without new buildings and have come to the point that the recommended appropriation made by the board and the senate is too low."

Cat-Dog Relationship.

RAILROADS DID IT?

Senator Waggener Says Carriers Killed Tax Amendment.

Resolution Lost Again on Floor of Senate Today.

No taxation amendment to the constitution will be submitted to the people of Kansas at the next general election. The state officials killed the one sent over by the house of representatives without a dissenting vote when it came up for action in the committee. The bill was defeated by a majority of 9,000 in last year's general election.

Today the senate substituted the Kincaid resolution for that introduced by Senator Waggener when the latter came up for consideration as part of a special order of constitutional amendments this morning. The proposal is one endorsed by state and national tax officials, and is one looking to the classification of property for purposes of taxation. Under it the power of the legislature to grant exemptions has been abolished in Wisconsin, where it was introduced by Governor LaFollette.

It is claimed by its supporters to have worked out in that state. Senator Waggener today made the assertion that the railroads of Kansas had killed the proposition at the last election.

"A number of the senators on this floor know that it was railroad influence which defeated the tax amendment last year," said he. "A prominent Santa Fe official boasted that they had killed it at the polls by making the farmers of Kansas think it did work detrimentally to their interests. Personally, I don't care much about the matter but those are the facts. I believe such an amendment would materially remove tax burdens from the shoulders of the farming class here as it has done in Wisconsin."

A motion to report the amendment favorably got a few votes but failed to carry. A second motion to strike it from the calendar passed, with no senator voting for the resolution.

WHY A CHICKEN?

If You Would Know, Attend a Trial in District Court.

Why is a chicken? This is a question in addition to other problems of the chicken industry, including peculiar traits of chickens, their individuality, mode of living and intimate questions which no one respecting chickens would voluntarily allow to be discussed in public, threshed out by attorneys in the trial of the state against Arthur Lever, charged with stealing chickens from the second divisions of the district court. The complaining witnesses in the case are Mrs. George Pyle and Mrs. George Bigham, both of Garfield Place, North Topeka.

When cross-examined by attorneys a colored woman who was witness for the defense gave characterization to the effect that when a hen was set in the morning the eggs would hatch out roosters and if the same hen was set in the evening the eggs would produce hens.

Her testimony was not questioned by either Judge Garver or W. E. Atchison, attorneys for the state. The Lever trial will be held on the last two days' proceedings in the court. The case will probably go to the jury late this evening or tomorrow.

WARRANT FOR ARREST

W. H. Coffman Charged With Selling Low Grade of Milk.

A warrant was issued this afternoon from the county attorney's office for the arrest of W. H. Coffman, who lives on Route 1, charging with selling milk of deficient quality. There are three counts against him. Milk was tested by Dr. Leslie Rowles, the city milk inspector, and the state authorities.
