

NEW COUP IN EAST

London Observers Fear Brilliant German, Mackensen.

Silence of Teutonic Genius Gets on British Nerves.

NEW OFFENSIVE ON IN WEST

Kaiser's Attack on Souchez Indicates Reinforcements.

Russia, Fearing Rumania, Builds Trenches on Frontier.

London, July 13.—Contradictory reports regarding the extent of the Austro-Hungarian reverse at Krasnik, in southern Russian Poland, continue, some even claiming that the Austro-Hungarians are contemplating a general retreat, but the mystery of the situation is the persistent silence of Field Marshal Von Mackensen, who apparently is making no effort to resume the German advance on Warsaw.

But Does He Fear? Petrograd reasons this inaction of the Germans as being due to the fear of Field Marshal Von Mackensen that his left flank would be exposed while the Austrians were on the defensive, but some fear is expressed by London observers that the brilliant German military commander is planning an unexpected coup.

The German attack on Souchez, where the French advances had threatened the town of Lille, may indicate the arrival on the military front of the long expected Teutonic reinforcements, but evidence still is lacking of any concerted offensive on either side along the battle front in France and Belgium.

Germany and Austria-Hungary, according to dispatches to Balkan states, are using every diplomatic resource to induce Rumania to join military forces with the central powers, or at least to preserve an attitude of permanent friendly neutrality.

The County Matron Is Looking for Bessie McAdams.

Anybody able to do so can confer a favor upon Mrs. S. H. Abbott, county matron, by advising her of the whereabouts of Bessie McAdams who disappeared up a stairway on Kansas avenue just when the matron thought she had misjudged the girl's good intentions. Bessie's value, which she dropped when she made her dash for liberty, has also disappeared. Mrs. Abbott, whose experience in making arrests is limited, says she will make

STARVING MEXICANS FIGHT LIKE BEASTS FOR FREE CORN

Mexicans in line to receive free corn at distributing point in Tampico. The accompanying photograph recently received from Tampico by the American Red Cross shows the starving people of Mexico striving to reach the point where free corn is being distributed, and indicates the unhappy condition of the noncombatants in the revolution ridden republic to the south. These people have been facing starvation for months and now have reached the acute stage where only food supplies from the United States or some other outside agency can save them from death.

DR. FLINT THINKS THAW'S TRYING TO HYPNOTIZE HIM

New York, July 13.—Why he thought Thaw a paranoiac was outlined at considerable length by Dr. Flint, the state's alienist, in his cross-examination. Thaw's family history, his boyhood, his alleged illness, the will, the general appearance and belief that William T. Jerome and Dr. Flint were in a conspiracy to keep him in Mattewan, all were factors, the witness said, which influenced his opinion. While under cross-examination Dr. Flint suddenly asserted, "Thaw has stared at me for fifteen minutes, and I think he did it for the purpose of hypnotizing."

Justice Hendricks looked at the witness for a few moments and then asked if he really thought Thaw was trying to hypnotize him. "I certainly do," Dr. Flint replied emphatically.

Thaw leaned over and whispered to the newspaper man, disclaiming any intention of hypnotizing the witness.

Bessie McAdams is the girl who was released from jail a few weeks ago, after having been shot at there while under medical treatment by the county physician. She has had a job since her release and yesterday was paying. Bessie celebrated by hiring a jitney car by the hour and had a lovely time. Someone reported to Mrs. Abbott that her erstwhile ward was spending her substance in riotous living, having already resigned the job, and the matron went after her.

WILL SPEND $118,000

Water Commissioner Files Estimate for the Coming Year.

Frank M. Newland, city commissioner of water and lighting, is not to be outdone by the other commissioners in the matter of preparing a budget estimate of expenses for the water department for 1916. For the first time in the history of the water department an estimate will be made. While the other commissioners will ask the consent of their brother commissioners to have their estimates allowed, Newland will have to call on his own pocket for the money he proposes to spend will come from the receipts in his own department. It is not likely his budget will be "strimmed" by the other commissioners.

He filed his budget estimate today. The total sum of estimated expenses is $118,000. Of this $20,000 is set aside for construction of new mains and for the installation of fire prevention equipment at the pumping plant which will cost approximately $2,000. Interest on bonds calls for $7,500, but as many of these bonds are held by the water department, the department will merely pay to itself a considerable amount of the money going into the water department sinking fund.

The entire budget estimate is: Salaries $10,000; Wages $18,000; Supplies $2,000; Merchandise $5,000; Fuel $4,000; Interest on Bonds $7,500; Sinking Fund $2,400; Insurance $200; Miscellaneous expense $8,000; Miscellaneous repairs $4,500; Construction $20,000 $118,000

TOPEKA MEN WIN

Race With Lawrence Parties to Grab Ramsey Money.

Contestants Later Reach an Agreement Regarding Funds.

A race in which Stone & McDermott, representing John H. Peak and W. B. Stingley were on one side, and Sam Bishop, an attorney of Lawrence, representing Charles H. Tucker, cashier of the Watkins National bank, of Lawrence, was on the other side, was staged this morning. The race was to see which side would be first to get legal action on $5,100 in the form of a city voucher awaiting in the city hall to be claimed by J. R. Ramsey, contractor, who has disappeared.

Peak & Stingley won. While the Lawrence attorney and Tucker were traveling to Topeka with a power of attorney from Ramsey to Tucker in Tucker's possession, the local lawyers were busy securing a restraining order from Judge Dana of the Shawnee county district court to keep the city from turning the money over to Tucker. When Jay E. House, mayor, went to the city hall this morning, he found Deputy Sheriff Holman standing on the doorstep of the entrance with a copy of the court's order restraining the city officials from surrendering any money due Ramsey on his contracts with the city.

A few minutes later L. L. Klene, sheriff, appeared with a summons notifying the city officials that they had been made defendants in a suit instituted by Peak & Stingley in the district court. The city is only nominally a party to the suit. Ramsey is bonded to carry out his contract with the city and it makes no difference to the city whether Ramsey or his bondsmen do the work.

Agreement is Reached. The net result of the issuance of the restraining order is that no one can get the money now being held by the city, except by the mutual consent of the contending creditors of the departed contractor.

After the restraining order had been issued a "get together" meeting of all parties concerned was held, and as a result an agreement was reached whereby Tucker and Bishop will be permitted to take the money held by the city and turn it over to Peak & Stingley, the latter agreeing to carry out Ramsey's contract with the city.

Just what terms Tucker and Bishop exacted from Peak and Stingley were not made public, for although they themselves were prevented from getting the money on account of the restraining order, still no one could get the money except through Tucker for he is the only person authorized by Ramsey to take the money. As none of those present know Ramsey's present whereabouts and as the money is payable to Ramsey alone or his authorized attorney, business either had to be done through Tucker or not at all.

As to why Ramsey disappeared is a matter which is being investigated by Sheriff Johnson of Jackson county.

Factional Quarrel Ties Up Funds—No Pay-day for Employees.

Kansas City, Mo., July 13.—Mayor Henry Jost today notified Matt Flynn, city comptroller, not to honor any requisitions of departments of the city government unless the money has already been appropriated by the council and is in the city treasury. As a result there will be no pay-day of city employees on July 15 and unless the council appropriates the money every department of the city probably will be closed down within a few weeks.

The mayor's order followed a refusal of the council to pass the regular appropriation bills and grew out of a quarrel between the two factions of the local Democratic party, which controls the city government. Mayor Jost is head of one faction and that opposed to him controls the council. Few of the departments of the city—because of the nearness of the end of the fiscal year, have money enough to operate long.

This great picture will be shown at the Novelty theater Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday of next week.
