The marriage of Miss Florence Kimball, the daughter of Mr. G. F. Kimball, to Mr. W. T. Brown, took place Sunday morning at 10 o'clock at the G. F. Kimball home. The Episcopal marriage office was read by the Rev. Joseph Hicks of the Second Presbyterian church. Miss Kimball was given in marriage by her father. There were no attendants, and only members of the Kimball family were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Brown left Sunday for a two-weeks' trip to the mountains at Manitou, Colo. At home after November 1 at 211 West Gordon street. Mr. Brown is the assistant editor of the Topeka State Journal. He has been an efficient and valued member of the paper's staff for a good many years. Mrs. Brown is a member of the Journal force. She is a woman of fine intelligence, and she has many warm friends to be interested in the news of her marriage.

A dinner complimentary to Walter D. Hines of New York, chairman of the executive committee of the Santa Fe Railway system and general counsel, was given at the Topeka club Saturday evening. The others present were: Mr. F. H. Minto, chairman of the executive committee; Mr. J. C. Capper, Mr. J. E. Koonz, Mr. E. H. Crosby, Mr. C. W. Koons, Mr. Frank P. MacLennan, Judge W. R. Smith, Mr. D.
