"ALEX" WON GAME

The Great Grover Held Braves to One Hit.

Pat Moran's Day Fittingly Celebrated in Boston.

Boston, Mass., Sept. 30.—Philadelphia won the National League championship for 1915 Wednesday, with Alexander pitching a one-hit game against the present title-holding Braves. The defeat of the Braves makes it possible for the league leaders to lose all their remaining games and still have a clear title to first place. Among the spectators at the game were some of the Boston American players, the probable competitors of Philadelphia in the world series, Manager Carrigan of the Red Sox, watched the play carefully.

It seems to be a well rounded combination, but I'm sure we can beat them," he remarked during the game. It was "Patsy Moran day" at Braves field and several thousand persons turned out, especially to honor the visiting manager. Most of them came from Fitchburg, Mass., his home town. Among them was David L. Walsh, governor of the state, who presented Moran with a floral horseshoe.

The new champions clinched their honors in the first inning. Bancroft's single to right and Rudolph's pass to Fiskert was followed by Cravath's home run, which brought the latter's home run record to twenty-three. A triple by Fiskert sent another home in the fourth and Cravath cracked a double to left and Luderus a single there for a fifth run in the seventh inning.

The score: R. H. E. Philadelphia 5 16 1 Boston 0 1 2 Batteries: Alexander and Burt;

PHILADELPHIANS REJOICE.

Wild Demonstrations Followed News of Winning of N. L. Pennant. Philadelphia, Pa., Sept. 30.—A wave of wild enthusiasm swept through the business section of this city Wednesday with the announcement, flashed on many score boards, that the "Phillies" had finally clinched a pennant and would be contenders for the world's baseball title.

Old and middle aged men who have been faithful rooters for the local club for thirty-two years, hugged each other and even total strangers on city hall plaza did so when the electric lights on the score board, which had told the story of the game to multitudes of spectators, flashed "Compton's final fruitless swing." Thousands of citizens crowded every available spot on the broad sidewalk around city hall to view the progress of the game. Cravath's home run clearing the bases caused a shout which brought the clerks and others in offices in the vicinity to the windows and apprised them intuitively that the National League pennant had been won for this city. Score boards in other sections of the city told the story to other thousands even before special editions of the afternoon papers had emblazoned the tidings on their front pages.

The news spread rapidly throughout the city and, although baseball followers had felt confident of victory ever since the Philadelphia team left on its last road trip, word that the game needed to clinch the pennant had been won was joyfully received. Workmen today began the construction of additional seats in Philadelphia baseball park. New seats extending from the players benches on each side of the field will be constructed increasing by about 750 the present box seating capacity additional bleacher seats which will accommodate about 1,000 erected. The additions will bring the total capacity of the park to about twenty thousand. Thousands of applications for tickets for the games have been received here at the offices of the Philadelphia club but no action will be taken on them until details of the series have been arranged by the National Commission.

ROYAL ROOTERS TO LIEF.

Boston's Enthusiasts Boast They Have Never Followed Losing Team. Boston, Mass., Sept. 30.—The Royal Rooters, a band of baseball enthusiasts who have followed the fortunes of every Boston team that has taken part in a world's series or important set of games in nearly a quarter of a century, today made final preparations to accompany the Red Sox to Philadelphia for the world series games to be played there next month. Having already arranged for reservations at Braves field for the local games, they called on Wm. F. Baker, president of the Philadelphia National club, who is here with his team, to obtain a block of seats in the Philadelphia field. A band will go with the "Rooters," whose boast is that they have yet to follow a losing team.

'BIG AUTO RACE SATURDAY.

Great Galaxy of Speed Kings Gather at New York Motorhome. New York, Sept. 30.—The greatest galaxy of speed kings ever gathered about one track will face the starter's gun here Saturday in the first 350-mile race for the Astor Cup on the new Sheepshead Bay course. About thirty cars are scheduled to make the start, but it is probable there will be some eleventh hour withdrawals.

Hopes of an American-made car carrying off the honors rested largely on the Stutz and Maxwell entries. There are four Stutz cars, two of them piloted by Earl Sooper and Gill Anderson, who finished first and second respectively in the recent Minneapolis race, and at Elgin they divided the two big road races between them. Eddie Rickenbacker in his Maxwell also is expected to make a bid for honors.

The Peugeot entries are considered the most dangerous—both the cars and their drivers. There are five of them, each with a driver of international fame—Dario Resta, Bob Burman, Howdy Wilcox, Johnny Aitken and Ralph Mulford.

Barny Oldfield and his well known cigar will be seen at the wheel of a Delage, and Ralph DePalma, who won the five hundred mile race at Indianapolis last May, will pilot a Mercedes.

Besides the custody of the Astor Cup, prizes aggregating $50,000 will go to the winners. The big oval has been pronounced by the drivers working in practice spins as almost perfect. The motorhome is constructed of wood, steel and concrete, and will accommodate nearly 200,000 persons. The course is two miles, with two straightways and two banks.

FEDERAL FINISH CLOSE.

St. Louis, Pittsburg and Chicago Fight for Outlaw Honors. Chicago, Ill., Sept. 30.—With the Federal league pennant race only four more days to run, the position of the three leaders is so close that Pittsburg had only five points advantage in the percentage column over St. Louis, which was crowded into third place by losing Kansas City Wednesday while Chicago defeated Pittsburg.

So close are the leaders that today's games might upset all three positions. If Pittsburg should lose and the other two teams win, Chicago would lead and St. Louis would resume second Tennis Stars at Kansas City.

Kansas City, Mo., Sept. 30.—In exhibition matches, William M. Johnston, national tennis champion, Maurice E. McLoughlin, runner up, and former title holder, and Clarence Griffin, with Johnstone, holder of the doubles championship, met players of the Kansas City Athletic club here Wednesday. Johnstone defeated Jack Cannon in a hard contested match, 7-5. McLoughlin defeated Clifford J. Lockhorn, 6-1. Playing with Lockhorn, McLoughlin defeated Johnstone and Griffin, 6-2, 6-8, 6-9.

Huggins Beat Simpson Team.

Simpson, Kan., Sept. 30.—A wobbly infield lost the game for Simpson with the major leaguers at Delphos by a score of 5 to 1. Huggins pitched for Delphos and Graber for Simpson. Umpire, Monroe. Huggins has won more games than the others and has fewer to play.

Braves Train at Miami, Fla.

Moston, Mass., Sept. 30.—The Boston Nationals will make Miami, Fla., their spring training headquarters for the next three years, President Gaffney has announced. (Additional Sport on Last Page.)
