

PROGRAM IS OUT

Laymen's Missionary Movement Convention Oct. 31.

List of Speakers and What They Will Talk About.

LUNCHEONS AT THE CHURCHES

Addresses by Several Noted Speakers From Abroad.

Every Leading Protestant Denomination Will Take Part.

The program for the Laymen's missionary movement to begin in Topeka next Sunday, October 31, was officially given out today.

A week from Sunday at 3:30 o'clock there will be a mass meeting for men, George H. Brewer, missionary from Mexico, will speak upon "The Gospel in Latin America," and C. H. Patton on "What I Saw and Felt in Africa."

Monday evening at 7:30 o'clock the evening will be spent in discussion of New World conditions and America's enlarged responsibility. B. M. Tipple will talk on "Europe's God," and W. Doughty, editorial secretary of the laymen's movement, on "The Challenge of the Present World Situation."

Tuesday morning at 9:30 o'clock will be addresses on the missionary progress in recent years. Archdeacon C. M. Sturges will speak upon "Progress in Cuba," Reuben L. Breed on "Outstanding Achievements of Home Missions," Bert Wilson will talk on "Progress in Arousing the Home Church," and F. A. Agar on "The Growing Response to the World Appeal."

Tuesday at 2 o'clock there will be a discussion on the spiritual power and efficiency of the local church. George F. Sutherland will speak on "Lay Up Treasures on Earth," W. B. Anderson, "The Most Powerful Method of Working," and F. A. Agar will talk on "The Sinews of War."

Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock, Bishop N. S. Thomas of Wyoming will give an address on "The Fullness of the Gentiles," and W. E. Geil, the traveler, will talk about "Pigmy Land."

Wednesday morning at 9:30 o'clock will be a discussion on the adequacy of the gospel to meet modern social conditions. W. B. Anderson will speak on "Social Needs in the Moslem World," W. T. Mitchell on "Social Needs in India," and Harry F. Ward on "The World Wide Social Need."

Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock the speakers will be upon "The Specific Task of Our Church." There will be conferences by communions at 12:30 o'clock. The Baptists will hear F. A. Agar at the First Baptist church, following a luncheon at the church. R. L. Breed will address the Congregationalists at the First Congregational church after a luncheon served there at 12:30. E. R. Eckel, Bishop N. S. Thomas and Archdeacon C. M. Sturges will speak to the Episcopalians after luncheon in Guild hall.

After luncheon at 12:30 o'clock, a conference of the First Methodist church and later hear talks by Clyde F. Armitage and George F. Sutherland. An address will be made at the First Presbyterian church by Harry F. Ward, followed by H. H. Showman, W. S. Marquis and W. T. Mitchell.

Luncheon will be served at 12:30 at the First United Presbyterian church, the congregations being afterwards addressed by E. W. Anderson. Bert Wilson will speak to the Disciples at the First Christian church. The United Brethren will take luncheon at the First church preceding an address by E. M. Pace. All other communions will meet at the English Lutheran church, Fifth and Harrison streets, where W. E. Doughty and Harry F. Ward will make speeches. Some of the topics to be discussed are: Outstanding present needs; How shall we enlist our men? Where is my church failing and why? What policy shall we adopt?

Wednesday evening will be a discussion on "What plans are adequate to the accomplishment of our whole missionary duty?" There will be short addresses by W. S. Marquis, George H. Brewer, E. H. Eckel, Clyde F. Armitage, R. L. Breed, W. B. Anderson, Bert Wilson and E. M. Pace. Harry F. Ward will make a speech on "The Missionary Appeal of the Local Community," and F. A. Agar will conclude the program with an address on "The Conclusion of the Whole Matter."

The speakers will come to Topeka directly from Chicago, where a movement was just concluded, 4,500 delegates being enrolled.

Meetings at Swedish Bethel Church. The Rev. E. Aug. Skogsbergh, the Swedish evangelist, will speak at the services in the Swedish Bethel church.

Sunday. He will speak at 11 o'clock in the morning, and in the afternoon at 3 Mr. Skogsbergh will address a "family mass meeting," as he calls it. Mr. Skogsbergh will speak to the parents and emphasize the importance of bringing up the child, and he will place before the boys and girls, in a heart to heart talk, their duty to their fathers and mothers. In the evening at 8 o'clock the evangelist will speak, and the evening will be good singing.

INDUSTRIAL CRISIS

John D., Jr., Says Capital and Labor Must Agree.

Continued War, He Says, Means Death to Both.

New York, Oct. 23.—"I capital and labor do not get together in the right spirit, the future of America is doomed," declared John D. Rockefeller in an interview today.

"If they don't come to see that the interests of each are inseparably bound up with the interests of the other and that each must be mutually recognized and respected, then capital's resources are doomed, just as the workers' prospects are doomed."

"One cannot exist without the cooperation of the other. To drive this stupendous fact home each of these two forces and make each know that it is but the complementary force of the other and not an antagonistic force, is the most vital problem before the United States today."

"I am not so bold as to say that the 'Colorado plan' will be the means of bringing about this understanding completely, but I hope it may contribute toward that end."

Fresh from his trip to the Colorado mines, young Rockefeller discussed the industrial situation in the light of his investigations and experiences.

"The chief point which hostile critics of the Colorado plan make is that it is an attempt to supplant the labor union," he said. "There is no such purpose in mind; not in any sense whatever. I have found no labor organizer who makes a broader platform than the one upon which I stand—the one which I outlined to the industrial relations commission. Here is what I said then, and say now:

"I believe it just as proper and advantageous for labor to assist itself in the organized groups for the advancement of its legitimate interests as for capital to combine for the same object."

PAYING THE PRICE

The Salvation Army has been conducting a series of special meetings at their hall for some time. These sessions have been well received, according to Ensign W. G. Houser, who is in charge. A number of conversions have already been reported.

Rev. G. K. Hartman of Topeka, will preach tonight at the hall on the subject "Paying the Price."

The series will continue in the future as in the past. Topeka ministers fill the pulpit at the hall once a week with "straight to the shoulder" talks.

Silliman Consul General. El Paso, Texas, Oct. 23.—A report that John R. Silliman, special agent of the state department in Mexico, is to be American consul general at Mexico City, was received by the Mexican consul, Adreas Garcia, today, in a dispatch from Mexico City.

More Freight Handlers Out. Boston, Oct. 23.—Freight handlers of the New York, New Haven & Hartford and the Boston & Albany railroads joined the Boston & Maine employees in a strike here today for increase in wages and pay for holidays. Union leaders claimed that 3,000 men employed by the three roads were out.

NEW TURN TO HOLDEN CASE

Stockholder's Voice Is Heard in the Proceedings.

Owner of 850 Shares Asks for a Receiver.

HE SUES THE ADMINISTRATOR

The Company Itself and Its President.

The Property Has Been in Litigation for Many Years.

A brand new voice, that of the lowly stockholder, was heard this morning in the middle of litigation which surrounds the Holden Land and Investment Co., in Shawnee county district court, when suit was filed with Chas. Bowers, clerk of the district court, by John D. Paxton, owner of 850 shares in the company, against the Holden Land and Livestock Co., William D. McLeod, administrator of the estate of Howard M. Holden, and Hale Holden, now president of the land company.

Paxton, a Kansas City attorney, says his stock has a par value of $100 a share. He prays an accounting between the plaintiff and defendants in the affairs of the land company, and that the court appoint a receiver for the defendant's interest in the suit. He wants the affairs of the company finally wound up and asks for a decree fixing the amount due him on his shares from Hale Holden and McLeod. He also asks an injunction restraining the sale of property belonging to the company until after the sale of Holden's estate for application on a lien held against the company. Paxton alleges by the Kansas National Bank of Commerce. Paxton's suit is filed by Perry, Doran & Dean, local attorneys, and involves the famous Holden ranch which is located in Shawnee county near Kingville.

Paxton says he has held the shares, valued at $80,000, since July 1, 1911. Howard M. Holden, then well known in Topeka financial circles and president of the company, with offices at Kansas City, Paxton alleges, received all rentals of the land in Shawnee county and caused portions of the land to be sold, receiving the money himself.

Note to the Bank. The plaintiff alleges that in 1901 Holden executed a note payable to the National Bank of Commerce of Kansas City for $80,000, which he alleges was secured by a note given Holden by the company for $82,000. Paxton alleges that Holden used the $10,000 of the money received for the note to pay off a lien on the property and devoted the remaining $70,000 to his own personal use. The petition also alleges that Holden had devoted other moneys to his own use and claims that Holden received not less than $150,000 for sale of lands, $100,000 of which was used, Paxton says, in payment of interest and principal to the Bank of Commerce. The plaintiff cites that a decree in Shawnee county court puts a balance of $85,000 due on the notes and has been cleared a lien on the property in Shawnee county and other property. Jackson county, Mo.

Hale Holden and McLeod, he says, have applied to the court for a decree to sell the lands with a view of applying the proceeds on the lien. Paxton claims that the lands are worth $25,000 or $30,000 in excess of the amount of the lien. Holden, before the court, never made any accounting to the company, Paxton alleges, and claims that Hale Holden, now president, has failed to do so.

Litigation over the Kingville ranch has been in Shawnee courts since 1901. The cases have been to the United States supreme court and back.

WEEK'S MARKETS

Demand for High Grade Railroad Stocks Light.

War Specialties Again Hog Attention of Speculators.

New York, Oct. 23.—War specialties and similar issues again claimed more than their share of speculative attention in this week's active market. These stocks made up a very large percentage of the active trading, together with United States Steel, which moved closer to its record price of 1909 in anticipation of a favorable quarterly statement to be issued next week.

Many new high prices were made, Bethlehem Steel leading the movement, with its sale at 500 per share. This represented a gain of 116 points from last week's final quotation. Some of the automobile stocks and other industrials whose by-products are being used for the manufacture of explosives made gains of twenty and forty points.

The strength of several of the independent steel shares revived rumors of a combination of those interests with the newly organized Midvale Steel company. Concerns mentioned in this connection included the Colorado Fuel and Iron and Great Northern Ore companies.

Railways were stronger as a whole, but demand for the high grade stocks was comparatively light. Rock Island was weak on publication of a statement purporting to show the road's enormous financial needs, but Missouri Pacific and Wabash issues were better on the improved status of those properties. Weakness of all forms of foreign exchange, with demand sterling down to .55, was the more inexplicable, in view of the recent receipt of another large amount of gold from England. Establishment of a credit for Italy, with negotiations to that end for French and Russian interests, failed to exert a stabilizing effect, in the international money markets.

TRY TO TALK TO TOKIO

Wireless Telephone Being Tuned Up for Message to Orient.

Washington, Oct. 23.—The powerful wireless station at Arlington, Va., is now being "tuned up" to talk with Tokio. It is the hope and expectation of the experts before long to girdle the globe with the wireless telephone. Radio experts are enthusiastic over the future following their successful transmission of the human voice from Washington to Paris and to Honolulu at the same time as was done in the experiments of this week.

ELECTRIC BANQUET

Probably the First Ever Given in the State of Kansas.

Kansas and Missouri Delegates Entertained by State Journal.

A complimentary dinner to electric representatives in Topeka this, Edison Week, was given at 6 o'clock last evening, by Frank P. MacLennan, in the Grey Room of the State Journal building. The dinner was cooked entirely on the State Journal's large electric range, the only one of the kind in Topeka.

The menu was: Grape Fruit, Fllet Bouillon, With Borsalme Sauce, Parisian Potatoes—Richelieu Peas, Lettuce and Tomato Salad, With French Dressing, Ice Cream and Cake, Coffee, Cigars.

Those present were: Mr. H. W. MacPurdy, president Kansas Gas and Electric Light and Street Railway association, Liberal, Kan.

Mr. E. A. Wright, secretary Kansas Gas and Electric Light and Street Railway association, Manhattan, Kan.

Mr. L. O. Ripley, vice president Kansas Gas and Electric company, Wichita, Kan.

Mr. C. L. Brown, president Riverside Light and Power company, Abilene, Kan.

Mr. B. F. Eyer, president Marshall County Power company, Manhattan, Kan.

Mr. A. L. Newman, manager Arkansas City Gas and Electric Light company, Arkansas City, Kan.

Mr. J. S. Trille, manager Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing company, St. Louis, Mo.

Mr. A. H. Purdy, general superintendent Topeka Edison company, Topeka, Kan.

Mr. T. C. Patten, assistant general manager Illinois Traction System, Topeka, Kan.

Mr. Frank P. MacLennan, publisher Topeka State Journal.

Mr. C. A. Leland, superintendent Atchison Railway Light and Power company, Atchison, Kan.

Mr. T. C. Patten, manager Kansas Gas and Electric company, Pittsburg, Kan.

Mr. Otto Theis, president Dodge City Electric Light company, Dodge City, Kan.

Mr. L. K. Green, president Concordia Electric Light company, Concordia, Kan.

Mr. L. H. Chapman, commissioner Water and Electric Light, Kansas City, Kan.

Short talks were made by Mr. Ripley, Mr. Eyer, Mr. Trille, Mr. MacPurdy, Mr. Patten and Mr. MacLennan.

Several of the big electrical men present said that it was the first time they ever sat down to a banquet cooked entirely by electricity.

A truly remarkable incident happened just as the diners were taking their places at the table. Mr. Newman, of Arkansas City, in looking for his name card, found that it was on the opposite side of the table from where he was standing. In going around the end to the other side, he happened to touch a curtain shade which was drawn to the bottom of a wide window at the south end of the room. The curtain suddenly flew upward with a click to the top of the window, attracting the attention of all who, through the window, saw the man "Edison" in large electric letters. This was purely a coincidence as the word "Edison" was the central part of the electric sign reading "Topeka Edison Company" placed on the wall opposite the State Journal building, across the court between the two buildings.

Lienhardt, the chef, and his assistant, Eugene Gaillard, of the New Cremerie, prepared the dinner, which was all arranged during the afternoon of the evening on which it was served.

Half Million to College. Wilmington, Del., Oct. 23.—Announcement was made today of a gift of a half million dollars to Delaware college by an interested citizen, whose identity the college trustees are not permitted to disclose.

To Cancel Peltzer Policy. Kansas City, Mo., Oct. 23.—On the ground that illegal means were used in securing the Prudential Life Insurance company today began suit to cancel the $75,000 policy held by Herman J. Peltzer, brother of Theodore C. Peltzer, who is alleged to have committed suicide by jumping from a window of an office building here. The Prudential claims that a suicide pact existed between Herman and his brother.

PURDY IS ELECTED

Chosen President of Kansas Public Service Association.

Several New Members Initiated Into Sons of Jove.

A. H. Purdy of Topeka was elected president of the Kansas Public Service association this morning at the final meeting of the eighteenth annual convention. The new association takes the place of the Kansas Gas, Water, Electric Light and Street Railway association. The other officers elected today were:

W. R. Waggoner, Salina, vice president. L. G. La Fite, Eureka, vice president. W. J. Welfelt, Winfield, vice president.

E. A. Wright, Manhattan, secretary. J. D. Nicholson, Newton, treasurer. The members of the executive committee are: A. M. Patten, Topeka; L. O. Ripley, Wichita; C. L. Brown, Abilene; L. K. Green, Concordia, and M. T. Flynn, Kansas City, Kan.

Before the election of officers the following papers were read: "City Pumping," by M. Dunsworth, manager of the Emporia Railway and Light company; "Steam Boiler Inspection," by J. P. Morrison, chief inspector of the Hartford Steam Boiler Inspection and Insurance company; and "The Panama Canal," by A. N. Richardson, general superintendent of the Kansas City Electric Light company.

The meeting place for the 1916 convention was not determined this morning. Topeka and Salina put in bids for the convention and the committee of time and place suggested that the conventions be held every year in Topeka but this plan did not meet with the approval of all the delegates.

At the "rejuvenation" of the Sons of Jove held Friday night the following members were initiated: C. V. Fletcher, Grenola, Kan.; C. C. McKrohan,

"77" HUMPHREYS' SEVENTY-SEVEN FOR GRIP, INFLUENZA, COLDS

CHIN IN.—To keep the chin in, means keep it well drawn back. That causes what physical culturists call "a lifted chest." This insures deep and full breathing and hence perfect circulation. Try keeping your chin in and see how your chest will stand out, and improve your bearing.

To get the best results, take "Seventy-seven" at the first feeling of a Cold—

If you wait till you begin to cough and sneeze, it may take longer.
