BEGIN ON SALTS AT FIRST SIGN OF KIDNEY PAIN

We eat too much meat, which clogs kidneys, then the back hurts.

Says glass of Salts flushes kidneys and cures bladder irritation.

Uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish, ache, and feel like lumps of lead. Urine becomes cloudy; the bladder is irritated, and you may be obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night. When the kidneys clog you must help them flush off the body's urinous waste or you'll be a real sick person shortly. At first you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, you suffer from backache, sick headache, dizziness, stomach gets sour, tongue coated and you feel rheumatic twinges when the weather is bad.

Eat less meat, drink lots of water; also get from any pharmacist four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Requests for Thanksgiving Dinners Come to State Journal.

Every One Will Be Cared For by Confidential Exchange.

From little tumbledown homes in the rear of houses that are little more pretentious and from the homes of widows upon whom has fallen the burden of rearing a family of children have come eager requests for one of those Thanksgiving dinner baskets that are going to make a whole lot of folks feel that this isn't such a bad old world after all. Through the mail and in person, the names and addresses of youngsters and their elders who have real "Turkey Day" appetites but not the means to satisfy them, have been coming in to the State Journal. And as fast as the Journal gets them they are relayed over to the offices of the Confidential Exchange, where they are recorded. Then when November 25 rolls around and hundreds of baskets are distributed, these folks, too, will be given their share of the viands without which there can be no Thanksgiving for them.

There is little likelihood that anyone will be overlooked by those who will distribute cheer in the form of Thanksgiving day dinners. But unless the folks who live in out-of-the-way places make their presence known either by leaving their names and addresses at the State Journal office or by phoning them to the Confidential Exchange—555—they may not be discovered when Thanksgiving day turns up.

Many of the names that have come to the State Journal are of persons who might never have been discovered by the Thanksgiving dinners. Most of them have never received assistance from any charitable organization and their presence would in all probability never have been suspected.

One widow has been supporting herself and two young children by taking in washings. Those two youngsters and their ma will get a layout of edibles that will leave no doubt as to the nature of the holiday. That is only one case from among hundreds.

From every organization that is cooperating through the Confidential Exchange—and every organization that is doing any charitable work is cooperating through the exchange—have come lists of persons who will need assistance in getting a real Thanksgiving dinner. These names will later be turned over to the societies or individuals who have baskets to send into the homes in which Old Man Gloom has hung his hat.

Events at State Prison Cause Senator Mahlin to Shudder. Senator I. M. Mahlin of Smith county, Republican, shudders to think of the things that would happen to Warden J. K. Coddling were he a Democrat or unfriendly to the Capper administration. Senator Mahlin helped to defend Warden J. D. Botkin when he was ousted from office. For that reason, he has kept more or less in touch with the affairs at the state prison.

Only the other day five convicts escaped from the prison by chopping holes in the prison roof—directly over the heads of the prison guards. Just a few weeks ago one convict killed another inside the prison walls. The Botkin appointees have walked the plank in groups. Now Senator Mahlin meditates when he thinks of the state administration's efficiency program and its operation.

LITTLE BUILDING ON

Contractors After Emporia Job Indicate Lack of Activity.

That there is little construction of large buildings under way in the middle west is indicated in the number of bids received for the erection of the Plumb Memorial building, the administration building of the Kansas State Normal school at Emporia, according to Leo Harrison, secretary of the state board of administration. The building is to be erected at a cost of $175,000 and, Mr. Harrison points out, a larger number of contractors have signified their intention of bidding at the letting to be held this month, than have ever manifested interest in contracts for a school building in Kansas.

Plans and specifications have been made for twenty contractors, located in almost every large city in this section and Charles Chandler, state architect, is working his office force overtime in an effort to supply the additional demand.

Noted Piano Teacher Dead.

Dresden, Nov. 17.—Theodore Leschetitzky, the famous teacher of the piano, is dead at the age of 85. He lived for many years at Vienna, but more recently at a villa near Dresden. He was the principal master of Paderewski. Leschetitzky made his debut in Vienna in 1845 and for several years taught piano at St. Petersburg conservatory.

OUR YOUNG WOMEN

are so often subject to headache—are languid, pale and nervous—because their blood is thin or insufficient. They are not really sick and hesitate to complain, but they lack that ambition and vivacity which is their birthright. They don't need drugs—but do need the tonic and nourishment in Scott's Emulsion that makes richer blood, fills hollow cheeks, suppresses nervousness and establishes strength. Nourishment alone makes blood and Scott's Emulsion is the essence of concentrated nourishment, free from wines, alcohols or opiates. If mother or daughter is frail, pale or nervous, give her Scott's for one month and see the betterment. It has a wholesome, "nutty" flavor. Avoid substitutes. At any drug store. NEW RULE FOR EXAMS

They Will Be Held at Various Points in the State.

Numbers of complaints have been received by the Kansas civil service board that, since the recent examination for positions at the state prison was held only in Topeka, several persons were barred from taking them because of the expense of a trip here, according to J. E. Cato, chairman. As a result, he said, an attempt will be made to hold future examinations simultaneously at a number of places throughout the state.

W. Y. Morgan, lieutenant governor, proposed a plan to the commission recently which Mr. Cato said the commission could attempt to adopt. Under this the commission will designate heads of state institutions, county superintendents of schools or other state officers as sub-examiners. Over these will be a head examiner, located at a central point. Should any of the sub-examiners be in doubt about any part of the examination he will be directed to confer with the head examiner by telephone. It is planned that in this way examinations may be held in a number of cities on the same day.

The first examination of this sort will be held for nurses in the state institutions, December 2, in Kansas City, Wichita and Topeka. Also, a board to hold examinations for positions under the direction of the state board of control at a date which has not yet been set, has been appointed.

Members of this board are W. Y. Morgan of Hutchinson, Dr. T. C. Biddle, superintendent of the Topeka state hospital, and Harry C. Bowman, a member of the state board of control.

P. W. Goebel of Kansas City, W. W. Bowman of Topeka and T. J. Sweeney of Lawrence, also have been appointed members of a committee to hold examinations to create an eligible list for the position of state bank examiner. No date has been set for this examination yet.

Some discussion has arisen as to whether a number of examinations may be held in several parts of the state at the same time under the state law, it being pointed out that there is no provision governing this point in the law, but on the other hand, it is said, there is no provision forbidding it and Mr. Cato announced that such examinations would be held.

HUGHES STANDS FIRM

Jurist to Demand His Name Be Wiped From Nebraska Slate.

Washington, Nov. 17.—H. L. Green, private secretary to Associate Justice Charles E. Hughes of the United States supreme court, has telegraphed to Secretary of State Pool of Nebraska, requesting a copy of the form of a formal petition filed with him by Nebraska Republicans, placing the name of Justice Hughes on the primary ballot as a candidate for the Republican nomination for the presidency. The next step, it was said, would be a formal demand by Justice Hughes that his name be removed from the ballots on the ground that it had been placed there without his knowledge or consent.
