NATION-WIDE JUBILEE

Cards are out announcing the nation-wide members' jubilee of the Young Women's Christian association celebrating the fiftieth anniversary of the founding. The month of February is the festive month and a calendar of events has been issued giving the dates. The events of Feb. 1, membership rally and banquet; Feb. 6, vesper service, "Our Heritage"; Feb. 7, social occasion for the pioneers of Topeka; Feb. 12, joint meeting of Topeka Y. W. C. A. and the Melan go through with their plans for February, however. At the Presbyterian church an oyster supper will be given. The wait for the down of the year.

AT THE THEATERS

At Grand Saturday. The much talked of presentation in play form of Harold Bell Wright's famous novel, "The Winning of Barbara Worth," will be the attraction at the Grand New Year's. No theatrical offering of the current season has aroused more interest or caused more pleasurable anticipation than has this play of virile life and action in the great plains and deserts of the southwest. The production will be up to the standard and the large company is said to be of unusual excellence.

Norman Hackett. Mr. Norman Hackett, who is most favorably known as a star of great brilliancy, heads the western company of "Klondike" in the production of the Grand on next Monday night, January 3.

Uncle Tom's Cabin. At the Grand Tuesday matinee and night is William H. Kibbler's production of "Uncle Tom's Cabin." William H. Kibbler, performing thirty important characters and in four acts and twenty-eight scenes.

Henpecked Henry. No lover of fun, song and pretty girls need miss the big musical comedy "Henpecked Henry" at the Grand Wednesday matinee and night, January 5.

"Twin Beds." "Twin Beds," the laugh festival by Salsburg Field and Margaret Mayo to which New York paid the tribute of fifty-two weeks of popularity on Broadway, is being presented by the company to capture the honor of the longest run of the worst year in the history of the theater, will be presented by that prize performing troupe, sponsors for "Within the Law," "Under Cover," "Under Fire," "Rolling Stones," "The Show Shop" and "The Lie," at the Grand Thursday night, January 6, with an admirable cast of farceurs.

At the Hipp. Last night the Hipp was well crowded by theatergoers who had their first glimpse of "The Lure" which the Oliver Players presented for the first time. The production is a most sensational while slave play that has never been presented here. There will be a polly-dance matinee tomorrow afternoon at 2:45 p. m. and a matinee Monday night. "The Lure" will be presented.

At the Iris. Farnum in "A Soldier's Oath," the first production of the Iris today and tomorrow. The thrilling drama of the screen is splendidly presented by a most carefully selected group of players.

At Aurora Tonight. The public waiting with keen ant-... for the latest release of the... Life Photo Film Corporation, "A Mod-... ern Madalen," adapted from... stage play of the same name, written... of C. Haddon Chambers, the English... Van Buren street.

Mrs. Willets is carrying his left... as a result of a fall... evening. He dislocated his... Mike of the Aaron Sheetz gro-... will go to Bonner Springs... Saturday where he will spend... with his parents.

A. Baird of Elmont, J. F. Fleed-... of Silcox Lake, H. L. Thomp-... Elmont, Earl and George Wren-... Elmont and L. M. Kirkwood of... are in North Topeka Friday... business.

Burroughs of Grantville was... Topeka Thursday afternoon... than forty rabbits were brought... last night by William H... Bunting on the William... place, north of Elmont.

OAKLAND NOTES

Mrs. Amelia A. Marvin died last night at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Eva Knight, in Kellam avenue. Mrs. Marvin, who was 74 years of age, had been suffering several weeks with pneumonia.
