Capital Guards Meet First Time in 36 Years. They Will Attend Funeral of Comrade James Moore.

For the first time in thirty-six years, the old Capital Guards met this morning for roll call. Eleven members responded in person or by proxy. The guards will attend the funeral of James Moore, who died Saturday. Mr. Moore was a second lieutenant in the original organization and continued active in the company until his work with the Santa Fe railway kept him from turning out.

The guards will meet at 2:10 o'clock Tuesday afternoon at the high school building, Eighth and Harrison streets, and will march to Grace Cathedral, where the services will be held at 3:30 o'clock. The intent will take place in Topeka cemetery.

Several members of the Capital Guards from out of town are expected tomorrow. Del Valentine, now clerk of the Kansas supreme court, went to Kansas City today, and it is expected that he will bring C. F. Moore, first captain of the company, to Topeka to attend the funeral. Captain Moore is one of the best known members of the guard. He has been president of the Kansas City Stockyards company for many years. Other members from other towns who may attend are Frank Patrick and H. C. Flowers of Kansas City; Frank Mileham and Henry W. Sharp, both of Newton, Kan. The meeting this morning was held at the office of J. A. Troutman and the roll was called by Sergeant A. E. Jones. Those who responded are: A. E. Jones, J. A. Troutman, D. A. Valentine, Robert Pierce, Walter Bates, Geo. W. Veale, Peter Smith, D. D. Knox, J. M. Meade, W. H. Jenkins and C. A. Skinner.

The Capital Guards were organized in 1878 under the name "Morse Rifles," primarily to protect the property of the Santa Fe from damage by strikers. After the strike was over the company reverted to a standard military company. The last meeting roll call was in the month of September, 1880.

OPERATORS GET RAISE

Telegraphers for Western Union and on Pennsylvania Lines Notified.

Pittsburg, May 15.—It became known here today that all telegraph operators on the Pennsylvania lines east of Pittsburg had been notified of a wage increase. The advance, it was stated, was individual and made according to the merit of the men and their length of service.

Many of the 300 Western Union operators whose wages increased from 8 to 23 1/2 per cent were notified when they reported for work that the new rates were effective today. For others the increase was effective May 1.

NORTONI FOR SENATE

Progressive Leader Files Candidacy; Wayland for State Auditor.

Jefferson City, May 15.—Judge Albert D. Nortoni of St. Louis today filed his official declaration with the secretary of state as Progressive candidate for the United States senate.

John T. Wayland of Kansas City filed as Democratic candidate for state auditor.

PLOT, LIAISON, CONFSSIONAL, GOLD AND WRONGED GIRL FIGURE IN CHICAGO SUIT

Washington, May 15.—Word from the "grass roots" back in Kansas during the last week has astounded the delegation in congress from that state on the sentiment "back home" on the big issue of national preparedness.

With Kansas held up constantly by the "peace-at-any-price" propagandists as an example of a state stubbornly and solidly opposed to any form of defense legislation, and with its members of congress voting solidly for the small army plan of Chairman Hay, Representative Anthony of the First Kansas district recently sent five thousand letters through the state to ascertain just how the people felt on the pending legislation.

At least, Army of 175,000.

The replies from those five thousand letters are still coming in. But a tabulation of more than 3,500 replies already has set the Kansas delegation to thinking and wondering if they haven't sadly misjudged the true feeling and temper of the people of Kansas.

Briefly, what the 3,500 answers showed is this:

More than 85 per cent of the replies expressed a desire for an army of at least 175,000 men.

More than 85 per cent said they favored some form of universal training so that the young men between the ages of 18 and 21 would have at least six months' training with the colors. They are against straight-out compulsory service as existed in Germany, but in favor of a modified form of universal training.

Want Action on Mexico.

While no question was asked about the Mexican situation, and it was not alluded to, the impatience of the people of the middle west at the uncertain Mexican policy of the administration was shown by probably 20 per cent of those answering the letters, who wrote across them or added at the bottom:

"We think the United States ought to be doing something about Mexico."

Many were even more outspoken in their expression that the present policy wasn't getting babies—and that it was time the United States did something and exhibited more firmness.

About 10 per cent of the answers were against any preparedness program at all.

Anti-Preparedness Propaganda.

When congress met, as a result of an organized propaganda, the members from Kansas were deluged with letters opposing the preparedness program. Some of the members were nearly "scared out of their boots" at the thought of voting for even the moderate programs for the army and navy proposed.

That was several months ago. After seeing some of the hundreds of replies representative Anthony is replying to, he is realizing that the letters men they are from and how truly the letters are reflecting the real sentiment of Kansas. At least, he is hoping for the 175,000 men finally agreed upon in conference, he has been away ahead of some of the other members of the delegation and has been criticized for his course.

$20,000 FIRE AT LILLIS

Only Three Business Buildings Left in Little Kansas Town.

Lillis, Kan., May 15.—Fire which, early Sunday morning, swept through Commercial street practically wiped out the business district here. The building occupied by the John Murphy general merchandise and hardware store; the Brady building occupied by Fred Selmer's harness shop and the Snyder building occupied by the family of J. P. Redmond, cashier of the Lillis State bank, are practically a total loss. The three structures adjoined each other and were the largest in town. The damage is estimated at $20,000.

A barber shop, a general store and the bank are the only business buildings remaining in the city. Three years ago, fire destroyed all the buildings on the south side of the street. They were not rebuilt.

TAFT IS A WITNESS

Called to Testify as to the Good Character of C. C. Glover.

Washington, May 15.—Former President Taft was first today on the witness stand in the trial of three officers of the Riggs National bank called as a character witness to testify in behalf of the bank's president, C. C. Glover, one of the indicted men.

The case of the prosecution has not been made but it agreed to a request by counsel for the defense to allow one witness to testify at this time.

HIS LOVE GREW GOLD

Nellie L. Hazler Asks for a Divorce From Her Husband.

Because he is alleged to have failed to show any real love and affection and on the contrary abused and threatened to strike her, Nellie L. Hazler brought suit for divorce in the district court today from Harry Blazier.

She states in her petition that they were married July 12, 1906, and live in Highland Park. She states that Blazier has failed and refused to show her any affection; that he abused her and threatened to strike her and on one occasion threatened to kill her; that he has left home on more than one occasion and remained away for several days without giving any good excuse.

Mrs. Blazier lists the property the couple own and asks for an equal division of all the real estate and all of the household goods and other personal property. She also asks for a restraining order that will keep Blazier away from her home and for an absolute divorce.

Shipping Suspended as 50 Mile Wind Piles Up Monster Waves.

Duluth, Minn., May 15.—Shipping was at a standstill from the American head of the lakes this morning, as a northeast storm with a 48 to 55 mile wind whipping Lake Superior into the roughest sea of the navigation season. The government piers excepting the light house were out of sight under waves. Incoming captains reported the storm as extending only 100 miles east of Duluth, but unusually heavy.

MUTUAL SUES CLUFF

In Endeavor to Prevent His Working for Another Laundry.

Lester Cluff quit work for the Mutual Laundry company and went to work for the College Hill laundry today. The Mutual has brought suit in the district court to prevent Cluff from working for the College Hill or any other laundry in Topeka for a period of one year. The plaintiff asks for a temporary injunction to operate until the case can come to trial on the request for a permanent injunction.

If the temporary order is granted Cluff will have a job at which he can not work. If the permanent injunction is granted he cannot work at the laundry business in Topeka for a year, unless he works for the Mutual, and the filing of the suit indicates that the terms between him and the Mutual are not such as to make that probable.

The suit is based upon an alleged contract entered into between Cluff and the Mutual. The contract provides that because of the stiff competition between laundries in Topeka the Mutual some time ago required all of its employees to sign agreements or contracts binding both the laundry and the employees.

A copy of the Cluff-Mutual contract is made part of the petition. It is set forth that for a period of one year Cluff is not to enter the employ of any other laundry in Topeka on to go into the laundry business for himself. He is not to do either of those things within a year after he leaves the employ of the Mutual.

But, says the petition, Cluff did leave his employ and did go to work for the College Hill laundry at once, "secretly" and "under the cover" of the old route. It states it would be useless to bring a civil suit for damages for the reason that he has no property in which to levy a judgment, and the only recourse the Mutual laundry has is through an injunction that will prevent Cluff from working for the competitor.

SUES A. O. U. W. LODGE

Widow Claims Insurance Should Be Paid Her, Not Sister.

The A. O. U. W. lodge is being sued for $2,000 by Mrs. Letitia Madsen in a case on trial today in the second division of the district court.

The deceased husband of Mrs. Madsen had an insurance policy in the lodge, which was the beneficiary. A short time before his death he transferred the policy to a sister. When he died the amount due was paid to the sister.

Mrs. Madsen is suing the order for the whole amount on the ground that her husband was insane at the time of the transfer and was not competent to make it.

NEW PLAN FOR FRISCO

Stockholders Will Try Hard at Reorganization.

Jefferson City, Mo., May 15.—The state public service commission was notified today that a new plan for reorganizing the St. Louis & San Francisco railway would be submitted to it for approval by the latter part of this month. The notification was served by Sam Lazarus of St. Louis, a large stockholder in the road. The commission gave him the tentative date of May 29, for the hearing. It is understood his plan will be one prepared by the stockholders, a proposal by the bondholders having recently been rejected by the commission.

New York, May 15.—In less than one month will come the cheers, the blare of bands, the tumult of shouting, the scheming of leaders heralding the opening of that quadrennial talk-fest—the national conventions.

The Republican and Progressive conclaves will come to order on Wednesday, June 7, in Chicago—the former at the Coliseum, the latter at the Auditorium. A week later will come the Democratic meet at St. Louis. In the Republican and Progressive camp no leader is making any thirty day predictions as to what may happen. The Progressives are practically a unit for Roosevelt but they are standing pat awaiting developments before making any admissions as to their return to the Republican fold. The Republicans are hopeful of "smoking out" Justice Hughes when the Oregon primaries of May 19 shall have established a line on his strength. His name will be before primary voters in that state because of a court ruling and despite the justice's own protest.
