

LAWYERS IN RALLY

Take No Chances on Supreme Court in Primary.

REMEMBER LAST DISASTER

Bar Hasn't Forgotten Defeat of Justices Smith and Benson.

Action Taken in Every Part of State This Week.

Kansas lawyers are taking no chances in the primaries this year. They recall the things that happened when Kansas operated in 1914 under the non-partisan judiciary act.

Two years ago Kansas toyed with a non-partisan judiciary act. The experiment resulted in the return of Justice Benson and Smith to organize life. Results of that primary and election gave the supreme court a mental shock that will not be forgotten in a score of years.

The state will elect two supreme court justices this year. Justices Bliss and Porter and Justice West are candidates for re-election.

Justice West will be re-elected without opposition in the Republican primaries.

Justice Bliss will be re-elected without opposition in the Democratic primaries.

Justice Porter will be re-elected without opposition in the Republican primaries.

Oiney, Ill., July 27.—Rumor had it today that Roy Hinterliter's defense held to the grand jury without bail for the alleged murder of Elizabeth Ratcliffe, today centered about a letter and another by a boy friend. State's Attorney Morris is making every effort to forestall such a move in the fear that a public hearing of the evidence would disclose many points which the state desires to keep under cover until the trial. The family has retained County Judge R. B. Witcher and many friends have come forward with offers to schedule the property to the sum of thousands of dollars to get Hinterliter released on bond.

Judge Miller will return here August 21 and at that time a determined effort will be made to have him hear the case. The state desires to keep the case under cover until the trial. CAMP IS BESIEGED IN SODA POP ORGY

Private Spreads Measles Through Oklahoma Regiment.

Had the "Walking" Kind; Entire Camp Is Quarantined.

BY WILLIAM G. SHEPHERD. San Benito, Tex., July 27.—Col. R. L. Bullard of the Twenty-sixth United States Infantry, grizzled and grim, sat with his feet on the sofa of his tent in the center of a fifty-mile square of territory which he commands, and while orderlies came and went he kept his eyes on the camp of the First Oklahoma National Guards across the road.

Colonel Bullard's tent hasn't always been so quiet. The trouble began when he had the "walking" kind. He had a little fever and when he took the typhoid fever serum he got some more, but he didn't complain.

In fact the whole trouble is that he didn't complain. As Lieut. E. Whiting, medical director of the regiment, told me, the trouble began when he had the "walking" kind. He had a little fever and when he took the typhoid fever serum he got some more, but he didn't complain.

LOOK FOR BIG TEGION SMASH NEAR POZIERES

Germany to Make Most Powerful Counter Attack.

Will Center All Forces on Positions Close to City.

SENDS TROOPS FROM VERDUN PIERCE HAND-TO-HAND FIGHTING ON SOMME LAST NIGHT.

British Now Only Six Miles From Bapaume.

London, July 27.—Within the next few days the British advanced lines must withstand Germany's most powerful counterattacks since the start of the allied offensive. The newly won positions out of Pozieres from which the Teutons were forced out will be the point of attack.

This was the opinion of military observers here today. They pointed out that the Germans have admitted that they have transferred their reserve forces to this salient from Verdun. Knowledge of that fact made the British success reported yesterday by General Haig all the more satisfactory but it likewise gave notice to military experts here that the Germans, feeling the menace in the British encircling movement from Pozieres westward and eastward from Hill 41, south of Thiepval, would attempt its checking with every resource of men and guns at their command.

Bapaume Is Key to Victory. In their positions at Pozieres, the British are only a trifle over six miles from Bapaume, the immediate objective of their drive. At one point, at least, they have penetrated the third line of the German front. If they can break through the line at Bapaume a German retreat along a front of fifteen or twenty miles is almost inevitable. From Pozieres on to Bapaume the country is fairly flat, with none of the ridges which dot the territory just south of Thiepval, except one known as Hill 106. None of the statements shed any light on whether this position is traversed by the two strong trenches which are reported having been stormed and captured.

Apparently there was a lull in the infantry attacks along the British front today. Feverish activity in throwing up entrenchments and consolidating their gains will be necessary so that the German counterattacks and until this digging in is accomplished, it is not expected that there will be another forward drive.

Germans Hurl "Tear Shells." London, July 27.—Hand to hand encounters with the Germans and an active artillery pounding continuing throughout the night was reported by General Haig. He said the British were using quantities of tear shells. "No event of importance," was reported by the British commander in chief.

"Throughout the night," he said, "our artillery was actively engaged in trying to press the enemy in hand to hand encounters at various points. Elsewhere, the enemy was using gas and tear producing shells. There was no event of importance."

Petrograd, July 27.—Heavy rains are impeding the progress of the Russian drive into Northern Galicia. The Sty, Stochod and Lipa rivers are swollen over their banks and the stately marshes holding the Stochod in particular have been rendered even more impassable.

Russian forces are battling against the elements as well as against the Teutons, but notwithstanding are steadily forcing onward. Brody is being battered on two sides by a Russian hammering ram which is gradually crushing resistance of General Boehm-Ermolli's Austrians.

On the extreme north General Kurapatnik's forces are successfully repulsing furious assaults by General von Hindenburg, inflicting heavy losses in Teutonic columns.

Grand Duke Sweeps On. Petrograd is expecting further gains by the army of the Caucasus under the Grand Duke Nicholas. Rate of progress of this force against the Turks has been extremely rapid. On Monday the official reports placed the grand duke at a point fifteen miles distant from Erzingan. On Tuesday the war office announced capture of the town.

Since the town's capture deprives the Turks of a river nearer than Erzingan, living seven miles north of Sivas, 130 miles further west a rapid retirement nearly to this point may be expected.

Erzingan was the most important base and military position of the Turks in Asia Minor. It was the headquarters of the Tenth Turkish army corps and contained large barracks and military factories. Erzingan is situated at an altitude of 3,900 feet, near the western end of a rich well watered plain through which runs the western Euphrates river. It is eighty miles southwest of Erzurum, which position was captured by the troops of Grand Duke Nicholas last February. The population at the outbreak of the war numbered about 15,000, of whom about half were Armenians.

Get 6,378 Turk Prisoners. Petrograd, July 27.—Capture of a large quantity of war material by the line of duty" which must be proven if a former Turkish supply depot at Erzingan was announced today. The war office statement did not describe the booty but announced the Russian column was in pursuit of the retreating Turks. On other fronts the war office announced advances and repulses of attacks. At only one point was a Russian attack stopped and that was where a single company of Russian troops attacking the enemy south of the town of Voronezh encountered superior forces and was driven back.

In the district of Lobuzky the battle was confined to artillery engagements the statement asserted. A small enemy attack directed against Urochitch and Beresnowe was repulsed.

Island Exports for Six Months Break All Records.

TRADE WITH DANISH W. INDIES

Agriculture Chief Industry in Prospective New Possessions.

Washington, July 27.—Export trade of the Philippine Islands reached a new high mark during the first six months of the present year, said a report gotten out today by the insular bureau. The total was $36,966,626, or $6,500,000 more than for the same period last year. The total for six months exceeds the total for any twelve months prior to 1910.

About $200,000 worth of coal was sent to the United States last year from St. Croix, the principal agricultural island. The United States sends about $400,000 worth of coal to the islands annually. Manufactured articles and food-stuffs are purchased from American and European markets. In 1915, $37,000 was produced on St. Croix in 1914, but only a small part was exported to the United States. Horses, mules and cattle valued at more than $700,000 were raised on the island that year, but few were exported. A large amount of cotton also was shipped out, none to the United States incidentally. Products used by the United States were goat and sheep skins, straw, rubber, fur and rice.

Trade Has Fallen Off. The harbor of St. Thomas formerly was the trading center for most of the West Indian islands. The establishment of steamship lines and cable service enabled merchants to deal directly with manufacturers. The result was that the export trade was limited to needs of the adjacent islands.
