

Up to the Minute SPORTING NEWS From Everywhere.

DUCKS COP AGAIN

Burwell's Blowup Cost Savages Third Lincoln Game.

The second defeat of the Savages at the hands of the Lincoln Ducklings, by the score of 14 to 3, can, without trouble or stretch of the imagination be charged up to four men. Others contributed, but only four were responsible in a major way and therefore it is permissible to put all the blame in high power long range guns and shoot it at them.

There Was No One to Take Mound When He Fell Down.

For fear you will misunderstand, the names of the four will be mentioned. They are the pitchers who answer to the names of Hovik, Willis, Colomore and C. Young.

OUCH, AGAIN!

Probably ever receive. And the whole disaster was started because there was no pitcher to go in and check the attack. Burwell shot his wad in the first inning and in the second he was knicked for five safe hits that counted three runs. In the third he continued to serve them, in order to the Lincoln batters and after he had permitted a single, a sacrifice, a walk and a triple to count three more.

KAUFFMAN OUT EARLY.

Kauffman finished out the inning, but at the beginning of the third, he pulled up at the box crippled in the ribs and stated that he was unable to carry on the fight. Engle did not want to use up the only remaining pitcher he had, and tried an experiment by sending George Cochran to the box and shaking up his whole line.

CATLIN

ARROW COLLAR

THIN, LIGHT YET STARCHED AND SLIGHTLY 15c each 5 for 90c

CLERTY, FRASERY & CO., INC., MAKERS

HAS BIG CHANCE

Berth of a Hero Made to Order for Kelleher.

Seven Teams in the A. L. Now Above .500 Mark.

New York, Aug. 4.—With Pants Rowland's Chicago White Sox now in the lead, the American league standing today shows the unique situation of seven teams with averages of better than .500. By their thirteenth straight victory the St. Louis Browns climbed just above the fifty-fifty mark. Only Connie Mack's Athletics still a record of fifteen straight defeats to date are below the line.

SHOCKER RECALLED.

Urban Shocker, the sensational Toronto twirler, and Arago, of Richmond, have been ordered, despite protest by their international league owners, to report to Donovan before the end of the present series.

SPORT WHEEZES

BY CLUG

1-2-3-Out. He was up in a pinch, holding his nerves together, to put the game on ice; but just as he flinched, he missed a good one three.

PET STOCK MEN ELECT.

National Association Picks Colorado Springs Man for President.

Chicago, Ill., Aug. 4.—The National Pet Stock association of America, holding its annual convention here, announced the following election of officers today:

Lewis Griffin, Colorado Springs, Colo., president; Geo. Ecker, Chicago, first vice president; T. P. Keeney, Portland, Ore., second vice president; C. S. Gibson, Detroit, national secretary; W. E. Taylor, Golden, Colo., western secretary and Dr. M. Mathies, Chicago, treasurer.

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION.

Milwaukee 1 9 3 Kansas City 5 8 3 Batteries: Paeh, Slopek and Duhoe; Regan and Berry.

AMERICAN LEAGUE.

St. Paul 4 10 1 Minneapolis 3 4 1 Batteries: Ledfield and Mayer; Dumont and Owens.

Indianapolis 6 9 2 Columbus 6 9 2 Batteries: Rogge and Gossett; Curcis and Pratt.

St. Louis 2 12 0 Toledo 2 12 0 Batteries: Middleton and Killifer; Williams; Bedient, Bailey, Strand, Shaw and Wells.

At Denver—Score: R. H. E. Des Moines . . . 351 211 0—14 16 Dever . . . 000 000 0—0 5 2 Batteries: North and Kruger; Hovik and Beer.

At Wichita—Score: R. H. E. Sioux City . . . 011 042 0—9 11 0 Wichita . . . 004 000 0—4 4 2 Batteries: Grewer and Crosby; Bennett, Hwey and Gray.

Chaney Wins Easy Bout. New York, Aug. 4.—George Chaney, of Baltimore, who is to meet Johnny Kilbane for the featherweight championship on Labor day, outboxed Packy Homme, of this city, in a ten-round bout here.

JOE TINKER IN BAD WITH CHICAGO FANS

NO GOOD UMPIRES

Big League Indicator Men Getting Worse and Worse.

Menke Holds Johnson and Tener Responsible for It.

New York, Aug. 4.—Never before in the modern history of baseball has the umpiring been so universally awful as since the 1915 barrier was raised. It was bad in 1914, even more in 1915, but this season it is beyond the power of adequate description.

ARROGANT TO AN EXTREME.

Clashed with umpires authority, and backed to the limit in everything they do, no matter how awful it may be, the umpires have become arrogant to an extreme. They move worked along the theory that they are superior beings; that ball players are beneath their consideration and that of spectators are nothing but hoodlums.

SPORT WHEEZES

BY CLUG

1-2-3-Out. He was up in a pinch, holding his nerves together, to put the game on ice; but just as he flinched, he missed a good one three.

LOCKHORN IS PUT OUT

M. V. Not Title Holder Defeated in Missouri State Tourney.

Kansas City, Mo., Aug. 4.—Al Lindauer, of Chicago, uncorked the surprise in play on the Field club's courts here, when he eliminated Clifford Lockhorn, of Kansas City, Missouri Valley champion, in their fifth round match, 7-5, 6-1.

SCOREBOARD FLASHES

Denver did the same thing that our jaddies did. They let the ladies beat them on their own ground 14 to 0. 'Til West was the goat.

North, the St. Louis Omaha, come to life in the official score books and accounted for the drummers to four hits.

Thursday's big league hero—Fred Merkle. Merkle's home run in the eighth brought in the only run of the game.

Luders of the Phillies got a home run and two singles out of four times up.

Casey Stengel of Brooklyn also got a homer. The White Sox did not play, and as a consequence took the lead in the American league, the Browns defeat of the Red Sox doing the business.

It was the thirteenth straight win for the Browns and they are which is several place. Thirteen more and they'll have everything in the league behind 'em.

FOOD FOR FANS

(BY GEORGE L. PHAIR.) [Copyright.] Fly Away, Fly. (A few lines generated on our virtuous couch at 7 a. m.) O, please, little fly, will you beat it? And let me alone for a while? Let me slumber some more with a resounding snore And a happy and satisfied smile.

You have galloped around on my eyebrow, You have tangled around on my head, Twenty miles you have run since the rising of sun In a marathon race on my cheek.

You one-stopped about on my forehead And had a corner on my nose, I didn't much care if you fox-trotted there, But don't buzz around in my ear.

So desist, you impertinent insect And seek other grounds for your play. Oh, I fervently wish that I had the ambush To arise and to chase you away.

Ludwig, our pet fly, is better than an alarm clock. He awakens us at seven every morning. If we only knew the fly language we should inform the little pest that he is three hours ahead of time.

The house fly is called the musca domestica. The bar fly, we pronounced called the musca domestica, several of which are said by an eminent scientist to be hanging around in our midst.

Swimming. Swimming is an art which is easier to master than is the art of playing tennis. We learned to swim hard by the frog-grant pecking house. The rubber scooters were lashed to the dock and the no-piece bathing suit was the vogue.

It had been the custom of the younger set in our society to borrow wigs of pine from the lumber yard nearby and to paddle out into the river on the said slabs of lumber.

One eventful day—it was a warty day in July—while the scented breath of the slaughterhouse made glad our childhood nostrils, some guy (it may have been Andy Rolly, it may have been Dinky Burke and it may have been John James) set in our society to borrow wigs of pine from the lumber yard nearby and to paddle out into the river on the said slabs of lumber.

We swam. Therefore it never was necessary for us to take Martin Delaney's dry land swimming lessons.

Most of the time we went in which to learn to swim is to swim.

The human body is lighter than water. All that prevents the average human being from swimming is the preponderance of solid iron in the upper foot.

Additional Sport will be found on other pages

WHITE SOX LEAD NOW

Hose Warriors of Old Roman at Last Climb to Top.

Chicago, Ill., Aug. 4.—The White Sox were leading the American league race for the first time this season today. After months of struggling in which they climbed to second place only to be shoved back to the cellar, the Sox landed on top of the heap Thursday through a day of idleness and a defeat of the leading Boston Red Sox by the Browns.

BASEBALL TODAY.

Western League. Omaha at Topeka, clear, 3:15 p. m. Sioux City at Wichita, clear, 3:15 p. m. Lincoln at Topeka, clear, 3:30 p. m. Des Moines at Denver, clear, 3:15 p. m. National League. Chicago at New York, cloudy, 3:30 p. m. Pittsburgh at Brooklyn, cloudy, 3:30 p. m. St. Louis at Philadelphia, cloudy, 3:20 p. m. Cincinnati at Boston, cloudy, 3:15 p. m. American League. Washington at Chicago, clear, 2: first 1-30 p. m. Philadelphia at Cleveland, clear, 3:15 p. m. New York at Detroit, cloudy, 3:15 p. m. Boston at St. Louis, clear, 3:30 p. m. American Association. Louisville at Topeka, clear, 3 p. m. Indianapolis at Columbus, rain, 3 p. m. Milwaukee at Kansas City, clear, 2:15 p. m. Minneapolis at St. Paul, rain, 3 p. m.

IT'S A GOOD BET COBB WILL OUTHIT JACKSON

Although Joe Jackson has been somewhat ahead of Ty Cobb in the batting lists to date it appears that Ty will nose Joe out just as he has every other season. Joe is beginning to fall off a bit and Ty is coming along, which will probably enable him to do at least hit his Joe well behind him. It's a fairly safe bet that Cobb will beat out Jackson most every season.

SPORT WHEEZES

BY CLUG

1-2-3-Out. He was up in a pinch, holding his nerves together, to put the game on ice; but just as he flinched, he missed a good one three.

LOCKHORN IS PUT OUT

M. V. Not Title Holder Defeated in Missouri State Tourney.

Kansas City, Mo., Aug. 4.—Al Lindauer, of Chicago, uncorked the surprise in play on the Field club's courts here, when he eliminated Clifford Lockhorn, of Kansas City, Missouri Valley champion, in their fifth round match, 7-5, 6-1.

SCOREBOARD FLASHES

Denver did the same thing that our jaddies did. They let the ladies beat them on their own ground 14 to 0. 'Til West was the goat.

North, the St. Louis Omaha, come to life in the official score books and accounted for the drummers to four hits.

Thursday's big league hero—Fred Merkle. Merkle's home run in the eighth brought in the only run of the game.

Luders of the Phillies got a home run and two singles out of four times up.

Casey Stengel of Brooklyn also got a homer. The White Sox did not play, and as a consequence took the lead in the American league, the Browns defeat of the Red Sox doing the business.

It was the thirteenth straight win for the Browns and they are which is several place. Thirteen more and they'll have everything in the league behind 'em.

FOOD FOR FANS

(BY GEORGE L. PHAIR.) [Copyright.] Fly Away, Fly. (A few lines generated on our virtuous couch at 7 a. m.) O, please, little fly, will you beat it? And let me alone for a while? Let me slumber some more with a resounding snore And a happy and satisfied smile.

You have galloped around on my eyebrow, You have tangled around on my head, Twenty miles you have run since the rising of sun In a marathon race on my cheek.

You one-stopped about on my forehead And had a corner on my nose, I didn't much care if you fox-trotted there, But don't buzz around in my ear.

So desist, you impertinent insect And seek other grounds for your play. Oh, I fervently wish that I had the ambush To arise and to chase you away.

Ludwig, our pet fly, is better than an alarm clock. He awakens us at seven every morning. If we only knew the fly language we should inform the little pest that he is three hours ahead of time.

The house fly is called the musca domestica. The bar fly, we pronounced called the musca domestica, several of which are said by an eminent scientist to be hanging around in our midst.

Swimming. Swimming is an art which is easier to master than is the art of playing tennis. We learned to swim hard by the frog-grant pecking house. The rubber scooters were lashed to the dock and the no-piece bathing suit was the vogue.

It had been the custom of the younger set in our society to borrow wigs of pine from the lumber yard nearby and to paddle out into the river on the said slabs of lumber.

One eventful day—it was a warty day in July—while the scented breath of the slaughterhouse made glad our childhood nostrils, some guy (it may have been Andy Rolly, it may have been Dinky Burke and it may have been John James) set in our society to borrow wigs of pine from the lumber yard nearby and to paddle out into the river on the said slabs of lumber.

We swam. Therefore it never was necessary for us to take Martin Delaney's dry land swimming lessons.

Most of the time we went in which to learn to swim is to swim.

The human body is lighter than water. All that prevents the average human being from swimming is the preponderance of solid iron in the upper foot.

Additional Sport will be found on other pages

SPORT WHEEZES

BY CLUG

1-2-3-Out. He was up in a pinch, holding his nerves together, to put the game on ice; but just as he flinched, he missed a good one three.

LOCKHORN IS PUT OUT

M. V. Not Title Holder Defeated in Missouri State Tourney.

Kansas City, Mo., Aug. 4.—Al Lindauer, of Chicago, uncorked the surprise in play on the Field club's courts here, when he eliminated Clifford Lockhorn, of Kansas City, Missouri Valley champion, in their fifth round match, 7-5, 6-1.

SCOREBOARD FLASHES

Denver did the same thing that our jaddies did. They let the ladies beat them on their own ground 14 to 0. 'Til West was the goat.

North, the St. Louis Omaha, come to life in the official score books and accounted for the drummers to four hits.

Thursday's big league hero—Fred Merkle. Merkle's home run in the eighth brought in the only run of the game.

Luders of the Phillies got a home run and two singles out of four times up.

Casey Stengel of Brooklyn also got a homer. The White Sox did not play, and as a consequence took the lead in the American league, the Browns defeat of the Red Sox doing the business.

It was the thirteenth straight win for the Browns and they are which is several place. Thirteen more and they'll have everything in the league behind 'em.

FOOD FOR FANS

(BY GEORGE L. PHAIR.) [Copyright.] Fly Away, Fly. (A few lines generated on our virtuous couch at 7 a. m.) O, please, little fly, will you beat it? And let me alone for a while? Let me slumber some more with a resounding snore And a happy and satisfied smile.

You have galloped around on my eyebrow, You have tangled around on my head, Twenty miles you have run since the rising of sun In a marathon race on my cheek.

You one-stopped about on my forehead And had a corner on my nose, I didn't much care if you fox-trotted there, But don't buzz around in my ear.

So desist, you impertinent insect And seek other grounds for your play. Oh, I fervently wish that I had the ambush To arise and to chase you away.

Ludwig, our pet fly, is better than an alarm clock. He awakens us at seven every morning. If we only knew the fly language we should inform the little pest that he is three hours ahead of time.

The house fly is called the musca domestica. The bar fly, we pronounced called the musca domestica, several of which are said by an eminent scientist to be hanging around in our midst.

Swimming. Swimming is an art which is easier to master than is the art of playing tennis. We learned to swim hard by the frog-grant pecking house. The rubber scooters were lashed to the dock and the no-piece bathing suit was the vogue.

It had been the custom of the younger set in our society to borrow wigs of pine from the lumber yard nearby and to paddle out into the river on the said slabs of lumber.

One eventful day—it was a warty day in July—while the scented breath of the slaughterhouse made glad our childhood nostrils, some guy (it may have been Andy Rolly, it may have been Dinky Burke and it may have been John James) set in our society to borrow wigs of pine from the lumber yard nearby and to paddle out into the river on the said slabs of lumber.

We swam. Therefore it never was necessary for us to take Martin Delaney's dry land swimming lessons.

Most of the time we went in which to learn to swim is to swim.

The human body is lighter than water. All that prevents the average human being from swimming is the preponderance of solid iron in the upper foot.

Additional Sport will be found on other pages

STANDING OF THE CLUBS.

Table with columns: Club, W., L., Pct. Western League. Omaha . . . 40 388 Lincoln . . . 40 490 Des Moines . . . 40 490 Sioux City . . . 40 490 Topeka . . . 40 490 Denver . . . 40 490 Wichita . . . 40 490 St. Joe . . . 40 490

Table with columns: Club, W., L., Pct. National League. Chicago . . . 41 491 Philadelphia . . . 41 491 Boston . . . 41 491 New York . . . 41 491 Cincinnati . . . 41 491 St. Louis . . . 41 491 Pittsburgh . . . 41 491 Cleveland . . . 41 491 Detroit . . . 41 491 Philadelphia . . . 41 491

Table with columns: Club, W., L., Pct. American League. Chicago . . . 41 491 Boston . . . 41 491 Philadelphia . . . 41 491 New York . . . 41 491 Cincinnati . . . 41 491 St. Louis . . . 41 491 Pittsburgh . . . 41 491 Cleveland . . . 41 491 Detroit . . . 41 491 Philadelphia . . . 41 491

Table with columns: Club, W., L., Pct. American Association. Chicago . . . 41 491 Boston . . . 41 491 Philadelphia . . . 41 491 New York . . . 41 491 Cincinnati . . . 41 491 St. Louis . . . 41 491 Pittsburgh . . . 41 491 Cleveland . . . 41 491 Detroit . . . 41 491 Philadelphia . . . 41 491

TRAVEL THE BRIGHT WAY

SHOE POLISHES

BLACK WHITE TAN

KEEP YOUR SHOES NEAT

THE F. P. DALLEY CO. LTD., BUFFALO, N. Y.

An Incomparable Value in Summer Suits

The best suits that good judgment can select and good money can buy. All Summer Suits, Palm Beach and Cool Cloth, made in regular, young men and Pinch Back models, and every garment tailored in the highest manner — formerly priced up to $12.50

Matchless Values in Shirts

Four exceptional Bargains are now offered for immediate sale. Each assortment contains all the newest designs and color effects, in beautiful stripes and checks. Sizes 14 to 17.

Men's $1.50 Shirts . . . $1.15 Men's $3.00 and $2.50 Shirts . . . $2.35 Men's $2.00 Shirts . . . $1.45 Men's $5.00 Silk Shirts . . . $3.65

Sizes 34 to 50 $2.00 Knee Length Union Suits . . . $1.45 $1.50 Knee Length Union Suits . . . $1.15

OXFORDS

NONE BETTER WORN OR MADE THAN OUR MAKES. B. R. B. OXFORDS—You will like, even if you paid the regular price; $4.50 and $5.00 price tans and blacks, calf or kid leathers, all styles—Saturday. $4

STETSON Oxford, as always the best, once tried always worn. Tan and Black leathers, English and semi-English models; none made to sell for less than $6, then up—Saturday. $5

CORNDODGERS INCLUDED IN THIS SALE.

Straw Hats One Half Price

Panamas and Bangkoks 1/3 off

CLOTHING COMPANY 710 KAS. AVE.

LOCKHORN IS PUT OUT

M. V. Not Title Holder Defeated in Missouri State Tourney.

Kansas City, Mo., Aug. 4.—Al Lindauer, of Chicago, uncorked the surprise in play on the Field club's courts here, when he eliminated Clifford Lockhorn, of Kansas City, Missouri Valley champion, in their fifth round match, 7-5, 6-1.

SCOREBOARD FLASHES

Denver did the same thing that our jaddies did. They let the ladies beat them on their own ground 14 to 0. 'Til West was the goat.

North, the St. Louis Omaha, come to life in the official score books and accounted for the drummers to four hits.

Thursday's big league hero—Fred Merkle. Merkle's home run in the eighth brought in the only run of the game.

Luders of the Phillies got a home run and two singles out of four times up.

Casey Stengel of Brooklyn also got a homer. The White Sox did not play, and as a consequence took the lead in the American league, the Browns defeat of the Red Sox doing the business.

It was the thirteenth straight win for the Browns and they are which is several place. Thirteen more and they'll have everything in the league behind 'em.

FOOD FOR FANS

(BY GEORGE L. PHAIR.) [Copyright.] Fly Away, Fly. (A few lines generated on our virtuous couch at 7 a. m.) O, please, little fly, will you beat it? And let me alone for a while? Let me slumber some more with a resounding snore And a happy and satisfied smile.

You have galloped around on my eyebrow, You have tangled around on my head, Twenty miles you have run since the rising of sun In a marathon race on my cheek.

You one-stopped about on my forehead And had a corner on my nose, I didn't much care if you fox-trotted there, But don't buzz around in my ear.

So desist, you impertinent insect And seek other grounds for your play. Oh, I fervently wish that I had the ambush To arise and to chase you away.

Ludwig, our pet fly, is better than an alarm clock. He awakens us at seven every morning. If we only knew the fly language we should inform the little pest that he is three hours ahead of time.

The house fly is called the musca domestica. The bar fly, we pronounced called the musca domestica, several of which are said by an eminent scientist to be hanging around in our midst.

Swimming. Swimming is an art which is easier to master than is the art of playing tennis. We learned to swim hard by the frog-grant pecking house. The rubber scooters were lashed to the dock and the no-piece bathing suit was the vogue.

It had been the custom of the younger set in our society to borrow wigs of pine from the lumber yard nearby and to paddle out into the river on the said slabs of lumber.

One eventful day—it was a warty day in July—while the scented breath of the slaughterhouse made glad our childhood nostrils, some guy (it may have been Andy Rolly, it may have been Dinky Burke and it may have been John James) set in our society to borrow wigs of pine from the lumber yard nearby and to paddle out into the river on the said slabs of lumber.

We swam. Therefore it never was necessary for us to take Martin Delaney's dry land swimming lessons.

Most of the time we went in which to learn to swim is to swim.

The human body is lighter than water. All that prevents the average human being from swimming is the preponderance of solid iron in the upper foot.

Additional Sport will be found on other pages

TOPEKA, WED. AUGUST 9

BARNUM AND BAILEY

GREATEST SHOW ON EARTH AND THE GORGEOUS ORIENTAL PAGEANT OF PERSIA OR THE PAGEANTS OF THE THOUSAND AND ONE NIGHTS

14.00 PERSONS 4.80 AREMIC STARS 50 CLOWNS

89 R.R. CARS 108 CAGE 200 NOVELTIES EVER SEEN 41 ELEPHANT

Tickets on Sale Show Day at Rowley Drug Store, 600 Kansas Ave.