TODAY'S DAINIEST DISH

"COOKERY IS BECOME A NOBLE SCIENCE"

Cambridge Ice

By CONSTANCE CLARKE.

CAMBRIDGE ICE is an unusually attractive dessert. Take three cups of custard, as below, and when it is cool pour it into the freezer and freeze it to the consistency of a thick batter; add to it two cups of stiffly whipped cream, one cup of finely cut dried cherries, and one ounce of blanched and very finely shredded pistachio nuts; refreeze and put it into any fancy ice-mould, and let it remain for about four and a half hours. Then turn out the ice in the usual way and serve it for dinner dessert.

Union Pacific Making Improvements at the Junction. Price of Chickens Drops 6 Cents on Local Market.

A construction outfit arrived on the Union Pacific today to begin the work of installing new telegraph wiring at the Junction. The company plans to follow this work with the construction of a new crossing at the intersection of the two companies' tracks. Material has been collected and work is expected to begin in the course of a week. The work on the jetties, which is being carried on between here and Grantville will hardly be completed before winter. About 100 men are employed in the building of the jetties which consist of piling driven into the sand, forming a framework which is filled with crushed stone.

The Union Pacific reports that heavy wheat shipments are beginning to arrive, fifteen cars a day being the present rate. Trees Need Trimming. Several years ago the North Topeka City club set out a large number of elm trees along Kansas avenue between Gordon street and Garfield park. Now the trees have grown to a large size and have done remarkably well. But they are badly in need of trimming. The branches in some cases hang so low as to sweep the tops of passing automobiles and wagons, and are an annoyance to pedestrians.

Notes and Personal. Produce men announce that the price of chickens has dropped six cents a pound this week. The farmers it is said have been holding the supply, but the sudden dumping of the season's crop upon the market has forced the price down. From Grantville, Kiro and Rossville some reports of farmers who say that their corn is doing well. D. C. Taylor of Grantville has 10 acres of fine grain which the dry weather has not affected.

The finest bit of tattooing seen in Topeka for a long time appears on the arm of a downtown waitress. Whenever an Atchison paper chronicles a crime in Topeka this city is always spoken of as "good old Topeka." Several Topeka tennis players are contemplating entering the Missouri Valley tournament to be held at Kansas City next week. The Provident association met expenses of $400 in the month of July and came this month with a cash balance of $100.

One woman in Topeka not only makes the variety of fruit construction on which the work was done. S. D. Flora, local weather observer, left today on an inspection trip through the Kaw valley. He will visit fifteen weather stations on his trip and will positively not return until he has found out what is the matter with the Kaw valley. He will also try to secure a little better quality of climate for Topeka for the remainder of the season.

Postoffice employees now on the border will cease drawing pay from the federal department if the substitutes are working for them but when they return they will get their old jobs back. This order from the postoffice department affects Max J. C. Springfield, Lieut. James F. Goin, C. O. Ball and H. G. Morris, all now on the Mexican border. August Albin, a native, has three pairs of ladies' new shoes he would like to have some store identify. He believes they are stolen property. He found them in Mexican residence at 292 Hancock street and learned that a Mexican had already sold six pairs like them. They are white top, high shoes and the Mexican who had been selling them. Out on the west side a certain neighborhood is aroused over the actions of a couple of friends in a bungalow who are said to be entertaining lavishly and indiscriminately. The large quantities of "munitions" and the frequent visits of "men about town" is a disturbing factor to the residents who fear for the reputation of their exclusive neighborhood.

The letter says in part: "Most of the Topeka high school boys have gained some sort of recognition already. Four of them, Hugh MacLean, Frank Bell, Ed. Kennedy and Clarence Baker have been made corporals and Anderson has been made a sergeant. McArthur, Canady, George Baker and Frank Perry, are known as good soldiers. "We are getting along nicely now. All the officers have their own houses and the battery has mounted drill every day. My greatest pleasure is to ride out over Texas on horseback in the evening. Always there is a breeze and Texas sunsets and moonlight are glorious."

WHO KILLED JOE'S BABY?

We Don't Know But a New Movie May Be Able to Tell You. "Who Killed Joe's Baby" one of the first published of Dr. Sheldon's books is to be dramatized for the movies by George B. Harrison, a former Topekan and will be one of the first releases of the Padgett Film company of Kansas City. "Who Killed Joe's Baby" is a tragedy pointing a strong temperance lesson. It is one of the most popular, also one of the earliest of Dr. Sheldon's books. At the city library the book has been so much read that all the copies are worn out.

The film will probably be shown in Topeka in the next two weeks. Because of its strong temperance appeal, the picture may later be sold to some national temperance organization. The Padgett Film Company is a Kansas City concern. Claude Spaulding, a former Topekan, is secretary of the company and the Kansas City millionaire, R. A. Long, is understood to be heavily interested in the enterprise. George Harrison, a son of former Mayor Harrison of Topeka and a brother of Miss Mary Harrison, a teacher in the high school, is the scenario writer of the new company.

MOVIE PARADE FEATURE. Film Manufacturers Will Have Floats For Topeka Convention. A movie parade will be another feature of the state convention of moving picture men in Topeka, August 21, 22 and 24.
