

Midsummer Gossip of SOCIETY By DAISY NEIL Telephone 8 A. M. to Noon—3530 Other Hours—1160

A pretty home wedding, very effective in detail, was that of Miss Martha Idell Logan and Mr. Ray Deaver of Kansas City.

The marriage took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Morgan of Seabrook, at 4 o'clock this afternoon. The Reverend Robert D. Bussey of the Congregational church, read the ceremony. The bride was attended by her sister, Mrs. Gilbert Worley, as matron of honor, and Mr. Jack Castle, as Phi Delta Theta fraternity brother of the groom, from Lawrence, was groomsmen.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Miss Marian Bussey played Mendelssohn's wedding march as the party descended the stairs and marched into the living room, where the services were read under a tulle canopy. The bride wore a tulle and Japanese arbor of trailing vines among which were perched numerous butterflies. During the ceremony Mr. Paul sang "Oh Promise Me" and "The Song of the Hills," by Harry Jacobs Friend. After the ceremony Mrs. F. Thompson of Boston, Idaho, a sister of the bride, sang "I Love You Truly," by Bond.

The bride, who is charmingly petite, was gowned in white tulle with high waist line. The bodice was formed of folds of crushed tulle, being quite low in the front and train hung from the shoulders. Flaring tulle, with a trim, of tiny double ruffles. This tulle came out in points well over the hips on both sides. The dress was made with a short skirt. The bride carried a large bouquet of tulle roses and orange blossoms, tied with tulle.

Mrs. Worley, the matron of honor, wore white organdy made with a short very full skirt and trimmed with leaves and skirt. She carried a green Marie Antoinette basket filled with pink roses.

Thompson's gown was cream net embroidered in coral silk. After the ceremony a reception was held in the receiving line were: Mr. and Mrs. Deaver, Mr. and Mrs. Logan, Dr. and Mrs. H. J. Deaver of Fairview, the parents of the groom, Mrs. Worley and Mr. Castle.

The bride's mother wore a combination of white tulle and point d'espirt, over a tulle foundation. Mrs. Deaver, the groom's mother, was gowned in cream crepe de chine and baby Irish lace.

Assisting throughout the rooms were Mrs. F. Thompson and Mrs. A. F. Campbell, two sisters of the bride; Mrs. R. H. Pugh, Mrs. Adolbert Kirkpatrick and Miss Minnie Pugh, at the punch bowl were: Miss Vera Worley and Miss Ruth Bomgardner. In the dining room were Miss Lois White, Miss Helen Boyce, Bomgardner and Miss Jessie Bailey.

Mr. and Mrs. Deaver left this afternoon for their home in Kansas City. They will be at home to their friends

IN NORTH TOPEKA County Will Erect New Building at Peor Farm.

The county commissioners are making arrangements with the county engineer for plans of a new building on the poor farm, to replace the one recently destroyed. It is planned to make the new structure a two-story brick affair, of capacity equal to the old one. The old building was but one story high, covering considerable ground space. It is felt that a two-story structure with brick walls and fireproof roof would be more economical.

The commissioners do not care to invest money in an expensive affair, as it is thought that in a year or two the poor farm will be disposed of and property obtained with the proceeds for the accommodation of the institution. The fact is not a paying investment. Most of the persons there are practically helpless, and it is necessary for the help to do a great deal of the work. But if the city and county co-operate in the plan, the old people's home can be located in the city to much greater advantage.

Melan Bridge Crumbling. It has been suggested that the present is very good time to make needed repairs to the Melan bridge. Where the current strikes the two central piers the cement work has commenced to crumble, in spite of the obstructions placed to protect the structure.

Their Idea of a Joke. If one were to write an article on the wit and humor of North Topeka it would embody therein, as a prominent constituent, the methods whereby the youth of the town prevent newly married couples from attaining a blissful and contented life. A certain house on Jackson street, which was occupied by a young couple was recently decorated in their absence.

Closing Day for Playgrounds. Friday was the closing day for the city playgrounds and was fittingly celebrated at Garfield park. Several children attended, and were treated to a good time by the park management. Athletic contests and folk dances formed a part of the program. Every boy and girl was given a dozen red rides on the merry-go-round and the figure eight.

COOKERY IS BECOMING A NOBLE SCIENCE

How To Serve Watermelon. THE Chinese have taught us the most pleasant way of serving watermelon, and nowadays one seldom finds it served with the rind. The ripe red melon heart is cut in dainty shaped pieces and served with melon sorbet. Take off the skin of a ripe red melon and pound half of the fruit into smooth; then add to it two cups of water, one-half cup of sugar and the juice of two oranges and two lemons. Pass the puree through a hair sieve, add one glass of maraschino syrup, freeze it in the freezer to a semi-solid consistency, and serve with the remainder of the melon that has been cut in fancy shapes. Garnish the dish with mint leaves.
