

DENVER GREETED HUGHES TODAY, THREE DAY REST AT ESTES PARK MIGHTY WELCOME.

Manages to Steer Shy of State Factional Fights.

CALIF. BULL MOOSE PEEVED Had to Sidestep Temperance Ruction in Utah.

Many Speeches in Colorado Capital Throat Day.

Denver, Aug. 25.—With three speeches in Colorado today, Governor Hughes concluded the first lap of his campaign touring and was to leave tonight for a three day rest period at Estes Park. Up to today, the Republican candidate has campaigned thru thirteen states, being almost continuously in what has been declared by local leaders to be Republican states except possibly California and Illinois. He has made more than a hundred speeches and arrived at Denver today very tired physically altho well and exceedingly anxious for a complete rest in the seclusion of the mountains. But he was very sanguine of success when the ballots are cast by the people whom he has addressed.

"We have had a remarkable trip across the continent," was the way Hughes described his journey so far. "Everywhere there has been evidence of a very deep interest in the issue of the day. I do not attribute this to my personal relation to the campaign but to the deep interest that is taken by the American people in the great questions involved. As I go thru the country I am constantly impressed with the realization that we are in a period of development and for our permanent prosperity. Best of all is the fine manhood and womanhood that is utilizing the best of its resources and unswerving loyalty that characterizes the people thruout the length and breadth of the land. Every day on this trip is the best day of my life."

Greetings That Appeal to Heart. "I have been several times across the continent and I know something of the various conditions composing our country but to go thru in this rapid way, receiving generous welcomes, makes an appeal to the heart of a man. Throughout this trip to date, Hughes has steadfastly maintained his position of aloofness from state and national factional differences. It is known that in California and Utah, every effort was made to have him make some expression of his views on regularly acute one in those two commonwealths. In California the Republican candidate of the party but did his best to avert any favoritism of either the regulars or Progressives. Half of the course which a Progressive leader as Chester H. Rowell, created considerable dissatisfaction among Progressives since arrangements for Hughes' tour of the state was in the control of "regulars."

Despite his physical tiredness, Hughes is in splendid fighting form today. He has had big audiences everywhere and no matter how tired, he has been stimulated by these audiences into making "punchy" speeches all along the line even tho these speeches have been largely in the nature of a parade and big meeting in Denver. It is rather remarkable that a public speaker, who for six years has kept his voice bottled up, has managed to bring it back so that at not a single place which he has visited so far has the audience had any difficulty in understanding him.

Dr. Ditman, who has accompanied the governor on his trip and has done heroic work taking the business out of the nominee's voice and otherwise keeping him in fine physical fettle, announced today he would let the governor take care of himself from Kansas City on eastward, believing it not need any further throat spraying. Mrs. Hughes will then have full charge of the nominee.

Today Hughes was hustled to make a tariff speech at Greeley, en route from Cheyenne to Denver. He was due to arrive at Denver shortly before noon and to parade the streets to the hotel. He was scheduled for a brief talk at a luncheon of the Mile High club, a public reception at the Brown Palace hotel, and a night meeting and a "big" speech at the Auditorium.

At 11 o'clock he was due to leave for Estes park for his rest.

MORE SUNSHINE A NATION-WIDE MOVEMENT NOW

Pittsburg, Aug. 25.—A movement to conserve one hour of sunshine every day in the year for every man, woman and child in the United States was announced today by the executive committee of the Pittsburg chamber of commerce which will carry the matter to the United States chamber of commerce with the plea that it be submitted to a referendum of the 250,000 business men who compose that body.

The plan is to have clocks thruout the country advanced one hour. As all sections would be affected, the system, the chamber argues, would not interfere with time regulation as provided by the four zones of standard time.

POLITICS ASTIR

state committees will meet. In fact the meeting of the state committees is of more genuine concern to political leaders than the party councils. In the absence of a real issue in Kansas this year, the surrounding hotels and information booths will be opened at the same time in the leading hostilities for the guidance of the visiting veterans.

Headquarters of the many auxiliaries of the G. A. R. also have been opened in the surrounding hotels and by Monday morning the units of the blue clad army will have all been marshalled and ready at the command of the commander-in-chief, Elias R. Monfort.

Kansas City has responded to the honor bestowed by the veterans in the choice of the state campsite, city and the plans of the local committee have been accepted without change by Commander-in-Chief Monfort and his staff.

Both Cities Decked With Flags. Wednesday, the day of the encampment parade, has been declared a holiday in the Kansas City and Lawrence street building top. Incoming veterans today will be welcomed in wig-wagging and the firing of salutes. James W. Whitley, of St. Louis, chief signal officer of the commander-in-chief and commander of the survivors of the "ram fleet." Four white doves will be liberated at the same time bearing ribbons upon which will be printed a welcome and a wish for a speedy accomplishment of universal peace.

"Remember the Boys at the Front with an Extra Flag in Your G. A. R. Decorations," is the slogan adopted yesterday by the soldiers' committee for the league, a local auxiliary of Missouri National Guard companies.

Following the meeting of the party councils, the politicians will turn their interest to the visit of Governor Hughes. The coming of Hughes to Kansas is a matter of concern both to the Democrats and Progressives. The Democrats are hoping the president's nominee's reception will be formal and tinged with evidences of frost and cooler weather. The Republicans are planning for a record reception, the biggest political meeting in Kansas in the campaign.

Governor Hughes, accompanied by Mrs. Hughes and a number of personal representatives and newspaper men will come to Topeka Friday afternoon at 2:47 o'clock from Denver. He will spend the night here and his speech will be the principal feature of his Kansas invasion. Plans have been made for the meeting. There will be a crowd of 25,000 people who speak under the famous cottonwood tree on the state house grounds.

Following the Topeka meeting, Governor Hughes will make short talks at a number of Kansas towns. Arrangements have already been made for five and ten minute stops at Hays, Salina, Junction City and Manhattan. Towns of Ellsworth, Abilene and other points will be on the route. It is probable a glimpse of the Republican presidential nominee and hear briefly his indictment of President Wilson and his party.

Both political events will bring large crowds from out of town. The councils and committee meetings Tuesday will be of concern to political workers of both parties in all sections of Kansas, while the Hughes meeting is an event of national importance. It is probable that a number of special trains will be run over various roads to handle the crowd which desires to see the former United States supreme court justice.
