Midsummer Gossip of SOCIETY
By DAISY NEIL
Telephone 8 A. M. to Noon—3530 Other Hours—1160

A wedding which is of much importance to Topeka society is that of Miss Grace Gaines, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Gaines of 1524 Topeka avenue, and Dr. Karl Menninger, son of Dr. and Mrs. C. F. Menninger of 1251 Topeka avenue.

The marriage took place this afternoon at 4 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents. The Rev. John A. Fazel, who is filling Doctor Estey's pulpit at the First Presbyterian church, read the ring ceremony. Before the ceremony Mr. Howard Seale sang "Because," by D'Hardelet. Mrs. Ray Yarnell played "The Tannhauser March," by Wagner, as the couple, unattended, entered the living room, where the ceremony was performed in front of a large circular window. On either side of this window were large white standards, filled with pink and white asters and tied with pink satin ribbon and white tulle. Palms and ferns were banded behind and at the sides of these large vases. Little Harriet Kercher, a cousin of the bridegroom, was ring bearer.

The bride, who is one of the prettiest girls in Topeka, was charming in a gown of white tulle. It was made with a short full skirt with a pleating of tulle at the bottom. Over this were tubes of the satin finished with small satin roses which fell from the waist line to the hem of the skirt. There was a graceful hip flounce of tulle with a peaced edge. The bodice, made of the tulle, was cut low necked and short sleeved. Across the back from shoulder to shoulder was a wide frill of peaced tulle held in place with tiny satin roses, which did not stop at the edge of the frill but trailed down the front of the bodice almost to the waist line, around which was a full frill of tulle. The bride carried an old-fashioned round shower bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley.

After the wedding a reception was held in the receiving line with Doctor and Mrs. Menninger were Mr. and Mrs. Gaines and Dr. and Mrs. C. F. Menninger.

Assisting through the rooms were Mrs. W. R. Kercher, Mrs. J. S. Mabee, Mrs. J. F. Alford and Miss Annetta Nicol, and in the dining room were Miss Grace Dana, Miss Ella Waldron, Miss Corinne Ripley and Miss Elsie Jones.

The dining room decorations were pink roses and smilax. A large centerpiece of these roses and smilax was on the table and vases of them were distributed through the room. The other rooms were decorated in pink and white asters.

The bride's traveling suit was Havannah brown satin, trimmed in stitchings of knitting silk and acorn buttons in the same color. The coat had a fancy belt and the skirt was made with a yoke and had loose pleated panels on the sides. Her blouse was of yellow crepe de chine. She wore a becoming hat of brown velvet, with a puffed crown and a drooping brim. The only ornament was a lover's knot of yellow tulle. Her shoes were brown kid with ivory tops and she wore ivory gloves.

Doctor and Mrs. Menninger left this evening for Boston, where they will be at home to their friends.

Dr. and Mrs. F. E. Vest gave a family dinner party last evening at their home on Boswell in compliment to their daughter, Miss Margaret Vest, and Mr. William Vest of New York, whose wedding is an event of tomorrow evening. Covers were laid for Miss Vest, Mr. Lushy, and Mrs. Homer C. Barker of Lincoln, Neb. Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Wilson, Dr. and Mrs. W. E. Vest of Des Moines, Ia., Mrs. Wilbur A. Lusk of Hazel, Miss Lella Butts of Montezuma, Kan., Mr. Charles F. Collins of Boston, Mass., and Doctor and Mrs. Vest.

Miss Helen Rutledge will entertain tomorrow afternoon with an informal dinner party at her home on Topeka avenue, in compliment to Miss Hazel Work of Ellsworth, Kan., and Miss Helen Pendleton of Trinidad, Col., who are her house guests, and Miss Esther Daubenspeck, who has recently moved here from Denver, Col.

A man, who a few years ago took one of Topeka's prettiest society girls away as a bride, was seen this summer touring Colorado with an affinity, and, by the way, she is something new and original in affinites. She not only takes her children along, but also her mother to take care of them. The handsome man and the affinites were touring Colorado with the children and their grandmother holding down the back seat.

Mr. J. P. Davis and his daughter, Mrs. R. T. Herrick, and granddaughter, Miss Sarella Herrick, and Tom Frost, Jr. returned last night from Ludington, Mich., where they have spent the summer. Mrs. C. G. Colburn and Miss Genevieve Herrick, Mrs. Tom Frost and her daughter, Betty, stopped in Chicago for a visit before returning. Mrs. Frost and her daughter will meet Mr. and Mrs. John E. Frost and their daughter, Miss Grace Frost, in Chicago and return with them in their car. Mr. Tom Frost will leave tonight to join the motor party.

Anybody lost a parrot? People returning from work at about 8 o'clock Thursday evening were attracted, at the corner of Third street and Quinlan boulevard, by the shrieks and chatter of an excited parrot. First the sound seemed to come from afar, and then it would break out directly overhead—"mam-ma,"—hello. Police-sergeant-r-r-r-r-r! A crowd of small boys armed with air guns and stones came running up the street. "There he is now. You can get him from here," they would yell.

Sure enough, there was Pol perched on the very topmost branch of a graceful cypress, looking for all the world like the final ornament on a Christmas tree, yelling defiance at its tormentors with all the power of its rusty lungs. The boys, with the bullets whished, and the bird, evidently believing in "safety first," immediately sought refuge in prolonged flight. And when he was seen, it was whizzing over the roofs of Kenwood with the speed and strength of a towl of the Amazon forests.

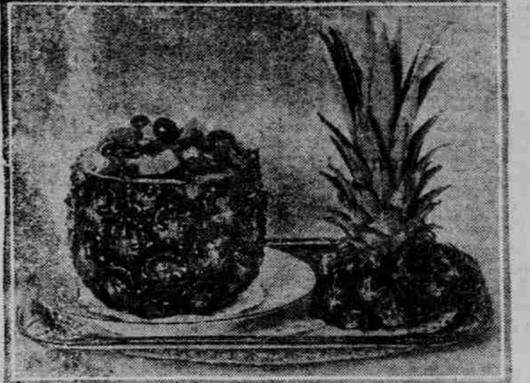

"Why did you want to shoot the parrot?" the boys were asked.

"Oh, we didn't want to kill him, we only want to see him in his wing so that he can't fly," they replied.

Mrs. Fulton Gibbs of the W. W. Mills camp, who has just returned from New York City, says that the styles are becoming pretty well settled now in spite of the garment makers' strike, unless it is in the tailored suits. It is considered a pretty good thing to have the styles in suit coats unsettled a bit as every woman should not try to wear the same length coat anyway. The coats range all the way from thirty-four inches to three-quarters length.

Mrs. Gibbs says that the combination of colors is more beautiful than ever this year. Some of the popular

TODAY'S DAINTEST DISH
"COOKERY IS BECOME A NOBLE SCIENCE"

Iced Fruit Salad
By CONSTANCE CLARKE.

THIS makes a very attractive dish for the table, as well as a delicious salad. All kinds of canned fruits may be used. For this season of the year, strawberries, cherries, pears and pineapples are used.

Take a ripe pineapple, cut off the top and scoop out the centre. Put the shell on ice to chill. Peel and cut two pears (canned) and the pineapple in small pieces; stalk and stone one-half cup of ripe cherries and hull one cup of strawberries. Put the fruit in a bowl with one-half cup of sugar and the juice of one lemon. Let it stand in the refrigerator for an hour. Put one cup of sugar and one-half cup of water in a stewpan; when it has boiled add one-half envelope of prepared gelatin, cool and pour over the fruits and place in the refrigerator until thoroughly chilled. Fill up the pineapple shell with the fruit mixture and serve on a fancy lace dish paper.

To-morrow—Raspberry Delight.

new shades are gold, amethyst, rubbers-gray, egg-patina, purple, orchid, balsam green and burgundy. Among the best of the gowns and suits are colours and poliet twill, while the separate coats made of bolivia are exquisite. They look rich and heavy but are delightfully light in weight, a combination which makes an ideal coat. Satin is the most popular material for gowns.

The waist is long, normal or below the waist line and the lines incline to be straight and long almost in a few parts, which are hooped.

Fur is used on almost everything, the flat furs, such as mole and Hudson seal, being the proper thing.

Dr. and Mrs. Scott Olinger and daughters, Barbara and Babita, and son, Dwight, visited Doctor Olinger's mother, Mrs. C. Olinger, and his sisters, Mrs. Frank Bassett and Miss Ella Olinger, of Potwin, Pa., this week. Doctor Olinger is dean of the Bible school for the Presbyterian church in Lawrence, Kan., and Mrs. Olinger were on their way home to Lawrence from Moran Park, Col., where they were the guests of Mrs. Frank Strong of Kansas university. Dean Higgins of the law school of the university, and Mr. and Mrs. William Allen White and their family, of Emporia, Doctor and Mrs. Olinger and their family returned today to their home.

One evening not long ago, about 9 o'clock, as we were riding on a popular drive not far from town, I saw a large car stopped by the country roadside. This reminded me of the story of the car which had been under the clothes line on Monday morning and went down the street with a piece of the family wash hanging on the back. This large handkerchief hanging on its back. Yes, it did hang right over the first three figures of the number.

HARRIS-GOAR OPEN
New Store at 102 and 104 East Sixth Street Ready for Business Today.

The new Harris-Goar Jewelry company store at 102-4 East Sixth street will be formally opened for business tomorrow morning with a greatly increased stock of jewelry, men's and women's apparel, hats and shoes.

Twice the former space has been added to the store, taking in two numbers instead of one. A new plate glass front has been put in, new jewelry and clothing cases have been added and the interior of the store remodeled and refurnished throughout, making the new store one of the most convenient and up to date business houses in Topeka.

Edward Marling, manager of the Topeka store, has supervised the remodeling and has devoted much time to the selection of new fall stock.

All the contracts for work on the building were let to Topeka concerns. German railroads employ 2,800 women.
