

OFF ON THIRD TRIP

Candidate Hughes Leaves on New Campaign Spin.

First Speech at Newark Assails Adamson Law.

DEMOCRATS WERE WARNED Had Month's Notice of Threatened Rail Strike.

Declares 8-Hour Act Was Peace Without Honor.

Newark, N. J., Oct. 9.—Candidate Hughes loosed his heaviest battery of assault on the Adamson eight-hour law here today in the speech inaugurating his third campaign trip.

Without using names, he ironically paraphrased "do not run away and leave a future day," in referring to what he said was the Democratic administration capitulation and "humiliating surrender to duress."

It was the Republican nominee's most fearful analysis of the Democratic settlement of the railroad strike which in previous speeches he has dubbed the "paramount" issue of the campaign.

He read letters dated as far back as July 28, 1916, to controvert the Democratic claim that the crisis in the railroad situation was a "sudden" one—the letters being from the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, urging an inquiry.

DIDN'T DISCUSS PEACE

Vin Bernstorff Assures U-Boat Pact.

Long Branch, N. J., Oct. 9.—Bernstorff assured President Wilson, Germany intends to live up to her submarine promises.

Bernstorff said the U-53 letter was important. He did not discuss peace at the Shadow Lawn interview with the president.

Count von Bernstorff following his talk with President Wilson declared that from information in his possession all the attacks on vessels off the American coast by a German submarine had been conducted in accordance with cruiser warfare.

Germany has promised to conduct her submarine warfare in accordance with the rules of cruiser warfare, the German ambassador said, and Germany always keeps her promises.

ORDER OUT FLOTILLA

United States "Mosquito Fleet" to Sea to Search for Kingdon Crew.

Newport, R. I., Oct. 9.—The entire torpedo flotilla was ordered to sea early this afternoon to search for the missing crew of the Kingdon, one of the submarine victims. According to latest reports the U-53 has completely disappeared.

MAIN WITNESS GONE

The State Asks for a Continuance in the Larimer Case.

The case of the state against Hugh Larimer, undersheriff, growing out of the shooting of James Baker in a raid in a summer, did not go to trial at 9 o'clock today as scheduled by the court, because of the absence of C. G. Gray, the state's chief witness, the state asked for a continuance. A motion to that effect was filed.

The defense asked for a brief continuance before arguing the motion filed by the state. Judge A. W. Dana set the hearing on the motion for a continuance for 1:30 o'clock this afternoon. The arguments are being conducted in chambers.

Gray, who is in the custody of the officers at the time of the shooting, is expected to testify that he saw the shot fired that killed Baker. The officers who were with him testified at the coroner's inquest that they could not see either Larimer or Baker when the shot was fired. Gray's disappearance was not discovered until John McLaughlin, attorney for the Bakers and the state, announced it today.

JACK A LUCKY GUY

Barry Has Horned In on Six World Series Splits.

Extra Pay Amounts to $24,000 in Eight Short Years.

BY FRANK G. MENKE. "Black Jack" Barry is "in" again. A big league regular for eight seasons, he has "horned" into six world series splits. It's a "lucky guy" record that probably won't be beaten for years and years.

Barry was corralled by Connie Mack in 1908 after he had performed brilliantly for the Holy Cross college team. The next season he became a regular, and the following one he contracted the world series habit. Only once since then has he been able to shake it off.

Barry was the Athletics' top pick in the world series of 1910, 1911, 1913 and 1914. When Connie Mack wrecked his great machine, "Black Jack" was sold to the Red Sox, and right away the Sox won two pennants—1915 and 1918.

Perhaps the luckiest part of this lucky guy's luck is that only once has he had to take the loser's end of the dough bag. That was in 1914, when the Braves steamrolled the Mackmen. On all other occasions he got the fattest portion of the bulge.

Barry has earned about $20,000 through post-season melon cuts so far. This year about $4,000 more will go to him; $24,000 extra "pays" in eight years. Not so bad, eh, Oscar?

Walsh Another "Lucky Guy." Jimmy Walsh is another fortunate specimen. He's had a rather checkered career; never has ranked as a star, but never much beyond the mediocre. Yet, Jeems has been pushed into three world series.

He was sold to the Athletics by Baltimore in 1913 and the deal was put through just in time to get him in on the divvy. In 1914 he was let out to the Yankees, but taken back by the Athletics in time to let him in on another share of the world series money.

And this season Jeems bops up in a Red Sox uniform and as a participant in the distribution of the mameaux.

Other Lucky Stiffs. World seriesing won't be a new experience for at least three of the Dodgers, Marquard, Merkle and Meyers, from the trio upon whom more "soft" money is to be showered again. The three were supposed to have out-lived most of their usefulness when John McGraw let them go to the Dodgers, yet they are not too feeble to collect $3,000 or $4,000 in extra money this year.

Each of the three has figured in three world series already. This 1916 affair makes their fourth. As members of the 1911, 1912 and 1913 Giants they each drew down a total of about $11,000 to assist in soothing and sustaining them in their old age.

"Rube" and the Indian catcher were somewhat peeved when John "shooed" them off to Brooklyn—but they are peevish no more. They are "in" on a world series split. John and his "useful" players are not.

CHICAGO MAN STILL HAS FAITH IN WIFE SHOT IN MAN'S APARTMENTS IN PHILADELPHIA HOTEL BY JEALOUS WOMAN

Mrs. Harry Belzer (left) and Mrs. Joseph Le Duc.

"I don't know why my wife was in a Philadelphia hotel with J. C. Graver, but I believe she was either lured there or she was drugged," said Joseph Le Duc, wealthy Chicago merchant, after his wife had been shot in Graver's apartments by Mrs. Harry Belzer of Brooklyn. Mrs. Le Duc will live, but the jealous woman who committed the crime succeeded in killing both Graver and herself. Mr. Le Duc was shown the hotel register with "Mr. J. C. Graver and wife, New York," inscribed. "I won't believe it," he said passionately. "These things mean only that innocence has been seduced and a man I considered a friend sought to wring me terribly."

FULFILL PLEDGES

President Wilson Issues Statement on U-Boats.

Discusses Situation With German Ambassador.

Long Branch, Oct. 9.—"The German government will be held to complete fulfillment of its promises to the government of the United States," President Wilson said today in a statement to the American people upon the German submarine attacks off New England.

The statement follows: "The government will, of course, first inform itself as to all the facts that there may be no mistake or doubt so far as they are concerned, and the country may rest assured that the German government will be held to the complete fulfillment of its promises to the government of the United States.

"I have no right to question their willingness to fulfill them. (Signed) 'WOODROW WILSON.' When he saw Ambassador Bernstorff, President Wilson planned to take up in full the latest developments in the submarine issue between the two governments.

In official circles, the situation was regarded as fraught with ominous possibilities, but pending definite word from Bernstorff and from official government reports, no conclusions were ventured by officials here.

Ambassador Bernstorff saw the president about 1 o'clock, arriving here earlier than was expected. He succeeded in avoiding the newspaper men.

State Dept. Approves U-Boat Conduct. Washington, Oct. 9.—State department officials have come to the conclusion that so far none of Germany's promises to the United States and none of the rules of international law have been broken in the submarine raid off the New England coast. No official announcement of this view was made, but it is known to have been reached after a review of such reports as are available.

NOW IS TIME TO MAKE PEACE IS FOREIGN BELIEF

Peace Proposals to America May Come From Gerard.

Most Important Conferences Passed by Censor.

ANOTHER YEAR OF SLAUGHTER

Winter Campaign Has Been Prepared by Armies.

Only Armistice or Peace Will Avoid Great Suffering.

(The following dispatch was received by the United Press today in response to a request on paper that Germany has decided to ask for peace. It is believed to be of tremendous significance in view of the fact that it was passed by the German censor.)

BY CARL W. ACKERMAN.

Cologne.—It is not impossible that Ambassador Gerard in conveying peace proposals to America, before departing from Berlin he had most important conferences with Chancellor von Bethmann-Hollweg, Foreign Secretary von Jagow, Doctor Solff, secretary for the colonies, and several leading members of the reichstag.

It is believed here that now is the time for Washington to make peace. Only Washington can do this because it possesses such great influence with London and Paris.

Now is the psychological moment for if peace is not made now the war must last another year as the winter campaign is now prepared.

An armistice is not mentioned but it is believed that President Wilson can appeal to the powers and ask them to send special representatives to Washington to negotiate peace.

In the meantime the war can go on and these negotiations may form the basis of a durable peace.
