Invitations are issued by Mr. and Mrs. John George Bauer for the marriage of their daughter, Ruth Elizabeth, to Dr. Clark William Zuk, on the evening of Wednesday, November 1, at 8:30 o'clock, at the Bauer home, 222 Topeka avenue.

At home after November 20 in Great Bend, Kan. Mrs. James Hurley, of Washington, D. C., is in Topeka to visit friends. She is the house guest of Mrs. Kollo J. Parker. Mrs. Hurley who formerly lived in Topeka, has been making her home in Washington the past few years.

A party of college people motored to Topeka from Manhattan Tuesday morning and returned in the late afternoon. Miss Sarella Herrick and five of her friends, made up the party, and they spent the day with her mother, Mrs. G. Herrick. The girls of the crowd were members of the Phi Phi sorority and the men were Sig Alphas.

Mrs. P. P. Womer and Dr. Edith Twiss, of Washburn college, have returned from Minneapolis, Minn., where they attended a celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of the founding of Carleton college. The school is an institution of about the size and character of Washburn. Mrs. Womer was invited to be a guest at the celebration, but was unable to attend on account of the campaign for the Washburn endorsement. Some of the most distinguished educators of America were on the program for speeches, including the president of Harvard and the president of the University of Minnesota.

Miss Ruth Bauer, whose marriage to Dr. Clark W. Zuk, of Great Bend, will take place November 1, will be the guest of honor at a party to be given Thursday afternoon by Mrs. David Newlander.

Miss Marguerite Parkinson has asked guests for a party tonight in Miss Bauer's honor.

The social department of the Woman's club is to have its first regular meeting Friday, October 20, at the home of the chairman, Mrs. George W. Parkhurst, 835 Tyler street. The club year book gives the date of the meeting as Thursday, October 19, but that is a mistake, and the meeting will be held Friday as previously announced.

Mrs. Parkhurst has as her vice-chairman, Mrs. W. A. Johnston, and Mrs. Arthur Capper has been named honorary chairman of that department.

At the meeting Friday some plans will be discussed for the work of the department thru the season. Also a musical program will be given beginning at about 4 o'clock after the business session finished. Those who will furnish the program are Mrs. Horace Whitehouse, Mrs. George H. Allen, Miss Helen Phipps and Miss Ethelyn Harrison.

Word has been received in Topeka of the marriage of Percy B. Shostack, formerly of Lawrence, Kan., to Minnie Ellsberg of New York City. Mr. Shostack formerly taught rhetoric in the Kansas State university, and he has written some plays that have attracted attention from many of the critics. Last year he wrote the lines for a pageant production, "The Stuff of Laughter" which was given at the University May fete. He was much interested in the organization of a drama league in Kansas. A number of Topeka women went to Lawrence to see the play at the fete, and some plans were discussed relative to the production of one of his plays in this city.

Mrs. E. E. Ames has issued invitations for a tea at which she will be hostess Friday afternoon, October 27, from 3 to 5 o'clock, at her home, 423 Woodlawn avenue.

After dinner the committee arranged the Bulletin which is to be used as a place card at the grade teachers' luncheon to be held during the state association meeting. About four hundred grade teachers will be guests at this luncheon.

The Topeka club is justly proud of the fact that this Bulletin will contain not only club and educational notes, but also the good words of the president of the school board, the superintendent of schools, Secretary Pinet and others.

The club will maintain a rest room at the auditorium as usual, and club headquarters, where light refreshments will be served at the academic high school. All of these arrangements are well in hand, in addition to the big patriotic drill to take place on the state house grounds.

show, and the principals and the teachers at the schools are asked to suggest line parties for the pupils and teachers.

The Orpheum theater has promised a gift of 25 per cent of the proceeds of their Saturday matinee for the benefit of the Public Health Nursing association.

Two of the society girls are bitterly at odds. It all started when Table criticized Doll on the score of her new dress and her coiffure right in front of three of her pet young men. They were sitting in front of a drug store when she happened to see the gilded youths who make the store their headquarters carried some sodas out to the girls. Said Table to Doll: "Your dressmaker is not doing so well as she usually does in fitting you, and your hair is rather unbecomingly dressed. I tell you that, dear, because I love you so much I cannot help but be looking in your rear." Then she annexed two of the young men—asked them to dinner and offered to send the machine for them, explaining sweetly that she was not asking Doll because she knew she was resting up and trying to get over her cold and cure up the fever blister that was bothering her so much. She hoped, too, that when Doll went to Kansas City next time she would resume that flirtation she had started the last time she was down there.

Table has given Doll a mission in life, and she is going to concentrate, and, said she, in telling about her purposes, "I should hate to be Table for the next few months, knowing how subtly unpleasant I know how to be when I like."

Mrs. William H. Metzendorf gave a dinner Monday night at her home, 1304 Harrison street. Her guests were Mr. and Mrs. Lauren E. Conger, Mr. and Mrs. James M. Littitt, Miss Helen J. Conger and Mr. Edwin H. Pierson.

The program for the Godowsky concert is as follows: 1. A Thirty-two variations in C Minor. 2. Fantasia in G major, by Schumann (in three movements). 3. Sonata Op. 25, in B flat minor—Chopin. 4. Marche Funebre. 5. Momento Capriccioso, Weber-Godowsky. 6. Etude, No. 2 (for left hand alone). 7. Chopin-Godowsky. 8. Etude, Op. 10, No. 8 (for left hand alone). 9. Chopin-Godowsky. 10. Symphonie Metamorphose of Johann Strauss Waltz, Wein. 11. Web and Godowsky. 12. Joux d'Eau. 13. Maurice Ravel. 14. La Soiree dans Grenade. 15. Debussy. 16. Poississon d'Or. 17. Claude Debussy. 18. Concerto in F major, Op. 111 (form 5 concertos). 19. Saint-Saens.

It is hard to compare programs given by different artists as they all have merits in their own way, usually reflecting the individuality and versatility of the presiding musician.

This program, however, is remarkable in that it extends from Weber to Saint Saens and several numbers have been rearranged by Godowsky.

It includes a Beethoven number, thirty-two variations on an original theme; a Fantasia by Schumann; Sonata op. 25 by Chopin; Momento Capriccioso, Weber-Godowsky; some Chopin-Godowsky Etudes; a Strauss-Godowsky number; Ravel, Debussy and Saint Saens.

Can you conceive of a task that requires more minute concentration than to personify a message which is the fruit of genius embodied by so many different composers, without a score to consult, all within a hundred and twenty minutes. The composers represented are widely different in temperament, school, and poetic depth.

Godowsky has to associate himself with each of these in spirit as their turns come and to vivify and make intelligible to his hearers, what he plays, by his own master mind.

From an artist's point of view the construction of this program is a piece of wonderful engineering. Examined by those who are familiar with the contents of the program, it states just this to play this program up to a Godowsky standard requires almost superhuman power.

Such men as Henry Morganthau, ex-consul in Turkey, are heading the movement to raise funds for stricken Armenia. They have investigated the stories brought to this country by fleeing Armenians and by returned missionaries. The verified facts they have put out in the form of a handbook, which deals with horrors no novelist would have sufficient imagination to put into print.

Plans are being made for special collections in all of Topeka's churches next Sunday for the aid of these people.
