GAMES AT OTTAWA

Basketball Classics, Scheduled Here This Week Transferred.
Washburn-Southwestern and Washburn-Ottawa basketball games, which were to be played here Thursday and Saturday nights, respectively, of this week have been moved to Ottawa. The Ichabods and Moundbuilders will transfer.

What to do for Indigestion

"Pape's Diaprepin" by neutralizing the acidity of the stomach, instantly relieves the food souring and fermentation which causes the misery-making gases, heartburn, flatulence, fullness or pain in stomach and intestines. A few tablets of "Pape's Diaprepin" bring relief almost as soon as they reach the stomach. They help regulate disordered stomachs so favorite foods can be eaten without distress. Costs so little at drug stores.—Adv.

st Thursday night on the neutral court and Washburn and Ottawa either Friday or Saturday night, according to an announcement by Coach Elmer Bearg. The contests were moved from Topeka because of the influenza ban here.

Both of these games have been looked forward to by conference followers, because of their bearing on the championship, as the three teams lead the league. Southwestern has a hard schedule this week, meeting five teams on successive nights, which will give Washburn an advantage. Monday night, the Moundbuilders beat Emporia Normal, but had a hard time doing it. The score was 44 to 32. Tuesday night, they nosed out Ottawans, 42 to 39. This makes Southwestern and Washburn now leading the league with 1,000 percentage. Baker is Southwestern's opponent tonight, and C. of E. will try to stop the Moundbuilders Friday.

Tomorrow night will be the first that Washburn and the southern school have met on the court since 1915. Coach Bearg said today he expected a good crowd of students to accompany the team to Ottawa. Student Enterprise tickets, he announced, would be recognized there. The Ichabods will play a return game with Ottawa, scheduled in that city February 17, on the Washburn court immediately after the flu ban is banished in Topeka. Coach Bearg is giving his men hard practice in spite of the fact that school is closed. The team realizes that they have a real job before them this week.

An Open Letter.

Mr. Mack Sennett, Hollywood, Cal.
Dear Mr. Sennett: Of course I hate to be cattil and make remarks about people and what they are doing, but we have a police chief here by the name of Hannan who is stealing your stuff. I don't like to see another man originate something and have another steal it from him. But you should have been here Tuesday when the board of health gave the theater a license to close and the theater men said they wouldn't, so the chief called on his trusty agent to keep the people who were not afraid of the flu from going into the theater. And I am here to tell you, you never saw a finer crowd of people in front of the theater and were running in and out of doors in the lobby and the theater. I got so mad because I knew you have been doing this with your force out there in Hollywood, but I am a doctor and I would attempt it right here in Topeka. One thing was so bad, and that was that, they did not start throwing pies. However, I think this would have happened in time, but they ran out of pies for the moment they were doing and had to quit. Or maybe it was because they didn't have enough money in the bank at the state bank to buy the pies.

And you should see our traffic cops. In a way they have it all over your force. And down our main street there is a picture, in the frame of a photograph, of a cop with his billie in one hand and a gun in the other, and my word what a fearless expression is on his face. Of course, as I said before, I hate to make about folks but I do think you should have this man Hannan stopped from using your ideas. Every idea they put in force here is a direct copy of things you have put into pictures with your famous Keystone cops. If you don't care whether Hannan uses them or not you might drop in town today and wash out these forces. I am sure you could get a lot of corking ideas for comedy pictures. And I guess that will be about all.

FIRST DEFEAT FOR OTTAWA U.

Southwestern Beats Conference Leader Winning by 43-39 Score.
Ottawa, Kan., Feb. 11.—Ottawa university met its first defeat of the season here Tuesday night. Southwestern taking its seventh straight victory by a 43 to 39 score. Ottawa has won five games and last night's defeat eliminates her from the championship contest, unless the two leaders, Southwestern and Washburn, each lose one game.

Ottawa was ahead at the end of the half, leading by a score of 14 to 10. Wynne, star center, suffered a sprained ankle in the early stages of the second, and Southwestern took out by a close score. The Purple for Southwestern, and LeGrande, for Ottawa, were the star point winners. LeGrande is a guard, but threw seven field goals.

FINAL SPURT WINS GAME.

Southwestern Basketeers Nose Out Normals by 44 to 32 Score.
Emporia, Kan., Feb. 11.—Southwestern had a narrow escape from defeat Tuesday night in a 44 to 32 basketball victory over the Kansas State Normal. The Teachers got an early lead, which they maintained until the last few minutes of play, when the Purple basketeers spurted and scored enough baskets to win. Neis was the Normal's star, while Captain Gardner played well for the Moundbuilders.

MAY FORM NEW BUSH LEAGUE.

North Kansas Towns to Meet Friday—Organizing Seven Team Circuit.
Concordia, Kan., Feb. 11.—At a meeting of baseball fans here next Friday, a northern Kansas baseball league may be formed. 25 YEARS AGO IN TOPEKA

From the columns of THE TOPEKA STATE JOURNAL
February 11, 1905.
A suit to determine who is owner of Burnett's Mountain estate, one near Washburn college, is being heard by Judge Johnson in circuit court.
When John B. Knox failed, a Methodist minister in Pittsburgh, Pa., named James E. Reed, had $50,000 worth of stock trust by Knox. He obtained a judgment for that amount.
The only property in sight was Burnett's Mountain, but before Reed could get hold of this it was snatched up under another judgment, held by H. I. Shaffer, who committed suicide two years ago at his home in Lincoln street.
The present suit is to reopen the case and set aside the sheriff's deed on the grounds that Reed's suit was commenced before that brought by Shaffer.
Miss Ona McFadden, who will leave for Chicago soon, is the guest of Mrs. J. B. Snow for a couple of weeks.
Miss Franc Littlefield entertained today at a picnic luncheon in honor of her former schoolmate, Miss Grace Morrill.
