Politicians Already Guessing on Personnel of Cabinet.

Hoover and Root Are Mentioned Most Frequently.

WOOD FOR BAKER'S JOB?

Marion Headquarters Also Speaks of General Pershing.

Lowden or Upham Sure of Treasury Seat.

Marion, O., Nov. 3.—Special interest regarding the next cabinet started here today before telegraph instruments in the Harding headquarters had ceased clicking off election returns.

No one presumes at this stage to say who will be picked. The following list of names, however, has figured in talk around headquarters here since it became apparent Harding would be elected.

Secretary of State—Senator Henry Cabot Lodge, Herbert Hoover, Elihu Root.

Secretary of the Treasury—Governor Frank O. Lowden, Fred W. Upham, Illinois.

Secretary of War—Major Gen. Leonard Wood, John J. Pugh, Indiana; Attorney General—George W. Sutherland, Utah.

Postmaster General—Walter F. Brown, Ohio; Will H. Hays, Indiana; Harry M. Daugherty, Ohio.

Root's Chances Best.

Washington, Nov. 3.—Discussion of cabinet possibilities followed close today upon the election of Senator Harding.

Apparently well founded reports named Elihu Root as the likely secretary of state. It was intimated Root would be selected to guide the work of settling the treaty and League of Nations negotiations with foreign powers and that after this was accomplished, he would retire.

Gov. Frank O. Lowden of Illinois was mentioned as a possible secretary of commerce or head of the treasury department, with the former post most likely.

Herbert Hoover's name was heard persistently as the possible secretary of the interior and Henry Wallace of Iowa, publisher of a farm newspaper, as secretary of agriculture.

For secretary of war, it was learned that Lindley M. Garrison, who held the post at one time under President Wilson and who had a difference of opinion with him, would be considered.

Secretary of the Navy—John W. Weeks, Massachusetts.

Secretary of the Interior—Senator Fall, New Mexico.

Secretary of Agriculture—Henry Wallace, Iowa.

Secretary of Commerce—J. J. Egan, Wisconsin.

Secretary of Labor—Congressman John J. Nolan, Raymond Robins, Chicago.

IN MEMORIAM

In sad and loving memory of Mrs. L. E. Anderson, who departed one year ago, November 3, 1919.

Today recalls sad memories of the loved one gone to rest. And those who think of her today. Are those who loved her best. Signed—Husband, children, grandchildren and nephews.—Adv.

SOCIAL DUTIES OF EMBASSY TO FALL ON HER SHOULDERS

Diamond Evelyn Violet Hardinge.

The pretty daughter of Baron Hardinge, new British ambassador to France, is not yet twenty years of age, but because of the fact that her mother is dead the social obligations of the embassy will fall on her shoulders. Her mother and soldier-brother died within a few months of each other.

Missouri Flops to G. O. P. Ranks With Vengeance.

But Despite Big Republican Lead, Demos Sit Tight.

St. Louis, Nov. 3.—Missouri was carried by Wilson in 1916 and claimed by both major parties in pre-election forecasts this year, today continued to settle more safely in the Republican fold. Additional returns from all over the state serving to increase the Republican majorities on both state and national tickets a continuation of the ratio of returns already in from two-thirds of the state would give the Republican presidential, senatorial and gubernatorial nominees majorities of close to 100,000.

DECLARE COAL STRIKE OFF

British Labor Chiefs Disregard Vote Against Terms Accepted.

London, Nov. 3.—The executive officers of the miners' federation have decided to declare the coal strike ended and advise the men to resume work.

This action was resolved upon at a conference of the executives today, although the miners showed a majority of more than 8,000 against accepting the government's settlement proposal.

The total vote was 338,045 in favor of the settlement and 246,504 against.

CALL HIM "CAL"

New Vice President Is Home-Loving Man.

Was Born on Independence Day, 1872.

PRIZE WINNER IN SCHOOL

The Governor, Lives in "Two-Family" House.

Lawyer by Profession and Also Good Cook.

Boston, Nov. 3.—Calvin Coolidge, vice-president elect, former "law-and-order" governor of Massachusetts, is just what his name implies—a sturdy son of New England, unassuming almost laconic, endowed with a singleness of purpose and the same determination that gave his courage, John and Mary Coolidge, the desire to make themselves a home in the wilderness of forest that was Massachusetts in 1870.

Born on a farm, the son of a prosperous farmer near Plymouth, Vt., Calvin Coolidge spent his early youth much as any other farmer's son, in doing the chores about the farm. His ambitions, however, did not lead him to follow in the footsteps of his father, and the latter with the wisdom of one who understands, encouraged and assisted young Coolidge in his plans to enter college.

Born on July Fourth, Coolidge was born on Independence day, 1872, a coincidence which his admirers say gave him singleness of purpose and Yankee obstinacy characteristic of the man.

History and affairs of government were subjects of intense interest to Coolidge even when a boy. He specialized in these subjects at Amherst college, where he was an undergraduate of the city council and later was elected to the Massachusetts House of Representatives. He was mayor of Northampton in 1911, and later was elected to the state senate in 1919. He was re-elected in 1920.

His firm stand for law and order during the police strike in Boston brought Coolidge national attention, and was the most significant incident in his career and the first step toward the place of honor to which he has been elected.

Coolidge does not answer the description of the popular conception of a politician. He is reserved, even shy. He is not a good public speaker, his voice being colorless and seldom rises above a certain note. It is what Coolidge has to say and the very apparent air of personal conviction that holds his audiences and makes up for what he lacks in oratory. As a politician he showed none of the traditional traits—bluster and extravagant promises—nor did he indulge in bitter personalities. His criticism is calculated to be constructive rather than destructive and he propounds his ideas of government upon his principle that "there will come a time when what is put into it."

Away from the glare of public life, the vice president-elect lives the quiet life of the average American citizen. He is devoted to his home and family, and is the most important member in the councils of his two sons, John and Calvin, Jr., who call upon him for advice and bring into play their father's skill with tools in constructing boyish "contraptions" such as automobiles and kites.

Friends Call Him "Cal." As Coolidge is known to his close friends whether it be at his home at Northampton or "resting" at the old homestead near Plymouth, it is the type of home-loving man who tinkers about the house and who can plough a furrow straight and clean, milk a cow and toss hay with the best of them.

At his home in a two-family house, the other side of which is occupied by a professor, Calvin Coolidge frequently elected to wash dishes, dust the parlor and "tend" the furnace. He is also proud that he can cook "middling well."

It was while studying law in Northampton that Coolidge met his wife, then Miss Grace A. Goodhue of Burlington, Vermont. Miss Goodhue was teaching school in Northampton and lived directly across the street from the boarding house in which Coolidge maintained a small room filled with ponderous books of law and volumes of history. He was anything but a "ladie's man" and it was months after he first saw the girl that was to become his wife, that he was introduced to her. It was long months after the meeting that he finally gathered courage to "put the question." They were married in 1905.

Coolidge looks forward to taking his place as vice-president as an active worker in helping to carry out the policies of the new administration.

MacAndless Is Aspirant.

To all appearances Dave MacAndless, who for the last three years has been a wizard in amateur bally hoo circles, will be seen in the preliminaries of the national bally hoo tournament to be held in San Francisco in the Republican column by a plurality which may pass 100,000.

Working with H. H. Motter, state chairman, Mulvane organized the state for the campaign and was on the job every county. That the national committee was in direct touch with every precinct and every worker was shown by his almost uncanny forecast of last week when he predicted that the Republicans were in line to win all of the 105 counties. His guess seems true to the letter.

STOP ROTARRI! DRUGS! NOSTRILS AND HEAD

Some Gross Ailments in Nostrils, Head and Throat.

If your nostrils are clogged and your head is stuffed and you can't breathe freely because of a cold or catarrh, just get a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm at any drug store. Apply a little of this fragrant, antiseptic cream into your nostrils and let it penetrate through every air passage of your head, soothing and healing the inflamed, swollen mucous membrane and you get instant relief.

AM! how good it feels. Your nostrils are open, your head is clear, no more hawking, snuffling, blowing, no more headache, dizziness or struggling for breath. Ely's Cream Balm is just what sufferers from head colds and catarrh need. It's a delight.—Adv.

CLEANED 'EM UP

D. W. Mulvane Makes Success as Committeeman.

Under His Direction Republicans Are Victorious.

Friends of D. W. Mulvane, Republican national committeeman, are perhaps the happiest people in Kansas today. Mulvane, who won his election in Chicago in June after the bitterest sort of a fight, has not only redeemed Kansas to the Republican party, but his direction of the national campaign in the state has seemingly cleaned up the entire Democratic organization.

Mulvane was in direct charge of the campaign for the national organization in this state. He was also one of the managers of the fight which put Missouri in the Republican column by a plurality which may pass 100,000.

Working with H. H. Motter, state chairman, Mulvane organized the state for the campaign and was on the job every county. That the national committee was in direct touch with every precinct and every worker was shown by his almost uncanny forecast of last week when he predicted that the Republicans were in line to win all of the 105 counties. WIN EVERY COUNTY loss by more than 20,000. However, the country vote, which is more disposed to regularity, apparently, is expected to save both candidates.

Amendments Carry. On the face of partial and widely scattered returns from many of the large towns and cities, the proposed constitutional amendments—farm tenancy, classification of property for taxation and the sale of intoxicating liquors and in regard to gambling.

On returns reported, the Republicans seem to have clinched 37 of the 40 senate jobs. R. H. (Dick) Howard of Arkansas City, Republican, seems to have been beaten in Cowley county. Carr W. Taylor of Hutchinson, Republican, has apparently beaten W. L. (Ironjaw) Brown of Kingman for the senate in the Reno-Fratt-Kingman district.

In the house the Republicans seem certain to hold 110 of the 125 seats. The party strength may be increased to 115 members in final returns.

Senator A. M. Keene, Republican, has been beaten in Bourbon county. Senator Keene voted against the industrial court law.

Charles H. Ridgway, Republican representative from Wyandotte, has been elected state senator from the Kansas City district. Doubt exists as to the Hegler-Nighswonger senatorial fight in Sedgwick county.

Scotch Districts Vote Dry. Glasgow, Nov. 3.—Thirty-six Scotch districts voted "dry" in yesterday's election, according to today's returns. Ten voted "wet."

HEAR OUSTER SUIT LATER

Decision in Coffeyville Mayor Case May Be Held Up.

Decision in the ouster suit in the supreme court brought by Attorney General R. J. Hopkins against Henry H. Deitcher, mayor of Coffeyville, may not be rendered before his term of office expires January 1. The hearing was set for today but both the state and defense said they were not prepared and asked for continuance until December 7, which was granted.

Ordinarily the supreme court does not hand down its decisions until Saturday of the first week in the month following hearing.

The ouster suit, charging official misconduct, was brought by the attorney general November 19, 1919. A few weeks ago the commissioner appointed to hear the testimony in his report to the court recommended that Deitcher be ousted from office because he "willfully and negligently failed to enforce the state laws and city ordinances in regard to the sale of intoxicating liquors and in regard to gambling."

LEAGUE WAS THE CAUSE. Senator Reed Explains Why Democrats Lost Out.

Kansas City, Nov. 3.—Support of the league of nations plan was the cause of the Democratic party's defeat, declared United States Senator James A. Reed, Democrat, and irreconcilable opponent of the league, here today.

"The American people refused to haul down the American flag," he continued. "It was the tragic mistake of supporting that issue that split the party and resulted in Republican victory."

DOCTORS USE CALOTABS FOR COLDS AND FLU

Influenza and Grippe, Like Ordinary Colds, Require Calotabs, the Purified and Refined Calomel Tablets That Are Nausealess, Safe and Sure.

Doctors are warning the public that simple colds and mild cases of influenza often lead to pneumonia and other serious complications. They say that every cold should receive immediate attention and that the first step in the treatment is to make sure that the liver is active. For this purpose Calotabs, the perfected, nausealess calomel tablets are the surest, best and most agreeable laxative.

One Calotab at bed time with a swallow of water—that's all, no salts, no nausea, and no upsetting of the digestion and appetite. Next morning your cold has vanished, your liver is active, your system is purified and refreshed and you are feeling fine with a hearty appetite for breakfast. Eat what you please—no danger.

For your protection, Calotabs are sold only in original sealed packages, price thirty-five cents. All druggists recommend and guarantee Calotabs and are authorized to refund the price if you are not delighted with them.—Adv.
