

The National Tribune

A Monthly Journal devoted to the interests of the Soldiers and Sailors of the late war, and all Pensioners of the United States.

Published by The
NATIONAL TRIBUNE COMPANY.

Vol. II, No. 11.

WASHINGTON, D. C., NOVEMBER, 1879.

TERMS, FIFTY CENTS PER YEAR.
Specimen Copies sent Free on Request.

Entered according to Act of Congress, in the year of our Lord, 1878, in the Office of the Librarian of Congress, at Washington, D. C.

EQUESTRIAN STATUE OF MAJOR-GENERAL GEORGE H. THOMAS.

Ever desirous to please our soldier friends and to increase the popularity of our paper, we here present an engraving of the magnificent bronze statue just erected by the Army of the Cumberland, in memory of its beloved and eminent commander, General George H. Thomas. We have received this through the kindness of Messrs. Harper Bros., of New York. The statue was unveiled on the 19th of this month, in the presence of a vast concourse of people. It stands at the intersection of Vermont and Massachusetts avenues and Fourteenth street, in the northwest part of the city, upon