

THE GRAND ARMY
Death's Western Trip--Affairs at Headquarters--Department News.

Special Correspondence National Tribune.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 27.
Commander-in-Chief Booth returned on Thursday from a ten days' business trip westward, during which time he took the opportunity of calling at the Department Headquarters at Washington.

On Tuesday evening, November 13, he was the guest of McKey Post No. 3, Columbus, O., spending a most enjoyable visit, and on the following evening he attended a meeting of the Posts of Cincinnati, O., and Newport and Covington, Ky. Of this affair the Cincinnati Gleaner gives the following account: "A special meeting of the Grand Army of the Republic was held last evening at McLeod Hall, for the purpose of giving an official welcome to the recently elected Commander-in-Chief of the organization, B. H. Booth, of Philadelphia, and Secretary of the United Firemen's Insurance Company. The large assembly present fully tested the seating as well as the 'standing room' of the hall, and the exercises which were of course conducted in the presence of the members of the association, were received with that enthusiasm which is inseparable from a gathering of old soldiers. The following Posts were invited to attend: Delegations: Garfield Post, of Covington; Wm.
Nelson Post, of Newport; and the Cincinnati Post, as follows: George H. Thomas, Lytle, Commander Post; A. L. Ludlow, Nelson, Vice-Commander; August Willich, adj. Gen.; and Charles Moore, of Riverside.

Charles Miller, of Israel Ludlow Post, presided in a graceful manner, and much of the success of the evening was due to his ability and cordial appreciation of the occasion. The welcome address to the guest of the evening was made by Comrade H. P. Lloyd, Judge Advocate-General of the United States, who in his words and cordial manner gave a hearty reception to the Commander-in-Chief, which was warmly received by the assembled comrades. The speaker stated that the opinion prevailed among the members of the Grand Army that under the administration of the present Commander-in-Chief the Order would be increased in membership to 300,000.

Commander Booth being in a way a compliment to the organization in Kentucky, where the increase in interest and membership is exciting the notice of the whole country.
Ohio, however, now stands at the head of the list in membership, and it is worthy of the opinion that second to prevail in some quarters that the Grand Army would die out in a few years, the speaker asserted that it would stronger in 1887 than it is today. As the veterans passed on young men would take their places, and the generous principles would flourish. The speaker made a stirring appeal to the members present to preserve the Order from becoming a relic of the past, and to develop the political qualities of the day.
His benevolent and fraternal features were his strength, and when those failed his power was in his words, and he was able to give years from now the old soldier would not be in proportion to one in a thousand of the political power, and to make any assumption of political power would be suicidal. The speaker made a number of interesting incidents relative to the benevolent attributes of the Order, and closed by saying that they were bound by strong and enduring ties, such as few men of honor would know.

At the close of his address, Comrade Lloyd introduced the Adjutant-General of Ohio, David Lanning, who made a brief but pointed speech, which was warmly received by the many benevolent patriots it contained.

Short addresses were also made by Commander Asaworth, of Garfield Post; Commander Brown, of Commodore Post, and A. M.
Wagner, of the 13th Post, of Cincinnati. The subject in introductions and the more social features of the evening.

On Thursday, the 15th inst., an informal meeting was held in the dining room of the Ohio House, Indianapolis, which was attended by a large number of comrades, though previous notice of the event had necessarily been short.
From this point Comrade Booth went to Minneapolis, Minn., making a stop at the Hotel Department of Illinois. At Minneapolis an open meeting was held in the Post room, which was largely attended by comrades and their families. The meeting was held in the evening, and was the signal of a charter for a veteran's Relief Corps by the ladies present.
The visit of the Commander-in-Chief at Minneapolis at this time was mainly for the purpose of looking into the preliminary arrangements for the next National Encampment, for which the comrades of Minnesota intend to make the most elaborate arrangements. It was learned that the large hall now in process of construction, and which is to be one of the finest in the whole West, cannot be ready before July 1st next; it will, therefore, be necessary to arrange for a meeting in the month of June.
The whole matter will be carefully considered by a Department committee, to be appointed at the January Encampment, and the date will then be fixed and announced as early as practicable.
The visit of the Commander-in-Chief to Minneapolis will be his last visit to the State.
He will again visit Minnesota early in the spring and visit a number of Posts, which it was not possible to do on this hurried trip.
While on his return to the West, he was encamped at Milwaukee, and was treated to a carriage drive through the business and residence avenues of the Great City.

The good work of organizing new Posts in this Department goes steadily on, and the results already exceed the expectations as to what could be accomplished during the year.
Orders have been issued from Headquarters for the removal of Posts to be located in the following places: Westland, Colorado, and 401, at Terra, Iowa county.

The following Posts have been duly mustered since our last report and are now in good working order: Post No. 10, at New York; Post No.
