

LOYALTY AND ITS WORK

Brave Kate Shelley—Conversation Club—Some Household Hints.

[Concluded by Kate B. Sherwood.]

In all communications intended for publication in this department, please forward them to THE NATIONAL TRIBUNE, WASHINGTON, D. C.

The Iowa Legislature have done well in honoring the girl heroine, Kate Shelley, of Boone, Iowa. She has just been presented with a gold medal of exquisite design and workmanship for her heroic conduct three years ago in saving an express train on the Chicago & Northwestern Railroad, filled with passengers, from an instant and terrible death.

We let Eugene J. Hall, of Chicago, tell the story in the graphic sketch and poem which follow.

Just before midnight, on the 6th of July, 1881, a storm of wind and rain of unusual severity descended upon the region around Boone, Iowa.

She hurried from the house into the storm, she gained the station and with a few moments more she was in the hands of the rushing train.

With a nature untroubled and unshaken by art, with a generous soul and a warm noble heart.

THE HOUSEHOLD. Corn Omelet—Boil and grate the corn from the cob season with salt, and season with butter.

ANDERSONVILLE ALBUM. A SEQUEL TO FRANK SMITH'S MEMORIAL DAY VIET.

In response to the announcement in THE TRIBUNE that Comrade Frank W. Smith would send the flag that was placed above some loved one at Andersonville, where the graves were desecrated on Memorial Day, if the friends desiring it would send some name of the regiment, the gentleman received hundreds of letters, which he has preserved in an album for convenient reference.

His father, Dr. M. C. Parker, and three sisters are living, and would be glad to get even a few blades of grass from his grave.

Mr. Geo. S. Couch, Lawrence, Mass., writes as follows: God bless you for such kindness. I had a brother who died in Andersonville Prison in 1864.

Mr. Terwilliger, Westville, Ind., wants the flag for the grave of his brother, Geo. Terwilliger, Co. H, 123d N. Y., and says: I have never heard from him since he got to Andersonville, and suppose he was buried there.

Comrade Robert K. Reid, Waterbury, Conn., writes for the flag from the grave of his son, Robert K. Reid, Co. A, 7th Conn. Comrade Reid says: He stood shoulder to shoulder with me in 16 engagements.

THE VETERANS AND THE CHILDREN—HOSPITAL. TO THE EDITOR: A party of us went to visit the Soldiers' Home, Dayton, Ohio, and many of the brave men there spoke of THE TRIBUNE, and particularly of the children's hospital.

Myriads of Cures. Achieved by AYER'S SARSAPARILLA, in the past forty years, are attested, and there is no blood disease, at all possible of cure, that will not yield to its use.

Trust Nothing Else. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA. Numerous crude mixtures are offered to the public as "blood purifiers," and claim to cure the patient with the pretense of many cheap doses, and with which it is folly to experiment while disease is still in the system.

FEARLESS. Omelet Cake—Three eggs, one teaspoonful of fine sugar, half teaspoonful of salt, one teaspoonful of butter.

of the Sweet Sixteen Circle I am hardly ready to leave the Convention Club. From all appearances it seems that there are more loyal girls than boys.

DEAR C. C. FRIENDS: I am beginning to think about the boys of the Sixteen Circle, that the girls are getting ahead of us; so I join, as one willing to do my share.

A BATTLE MOUNTAIN GIRL. DEAR C. C. FRIENDS: This is from the 15-year-old daughter of a soldier in the West.

OUR YOUNG RECRUITS. KINDLY GREETINGS FROM THE TRIBUNE'S BOYS AND GIRLS. But words are things, and a small drop of ink, falling, like dew, upon a thought, produces that which makes thousands, perhaps millions, think.

THE NATIONAL TRIBUNE sincerely thanks the hundreds of little friends who send kindly greetings from week to week.

SEND FOR CIRCULARS. BRASS BAND MUSIC. G. A. R. Flags and Handkerchiefs. Field of Handkerchiefs in Blue; Badge in Bronze and Red, White and Blue.
