

THE NATIONAL TRIBUNE (ESTABLISHED 1877) PUBLISHED WEEKLY. One Dollar per Year, invariably in Advance.

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT.

MONEY sent us, otherwise than by registered letter, postal money order, or draft on New York, will be at the risk of the sender.

AGENTS.—We employ no agents. THE NATIONAL TRIBUNE has many volunteer correspondents, and they are generally honest and faithful; but persons who write their subscriptions to them must be their own judges of their responsibility.

ADDRESSES, ETC.—Addresses will be changed as often as desired, but each subscriber should in every case give the old as well as the new address.

THE NATIONAL TRIBUNE, Washington, D. C.

WASHINGTON, D. C., FEBRUARY 28, 1889.

BIG FAMILIES.

Who Has Filled His Quiver Full—est Since the War?

Children are a heritage of the Lord. An arrow is in the hand of a mighty man; so are the children of the youth.

HARRISON AND MORTON.

Fine Pictures of Them Given Away.

We have secured a choice lot of large-size, excellent lithograph portraits of President-elect Harrison and Vice-President-elect Morton.

FOR $3.00!

The National Tribune and Scribner's Magazine for One Year.

By an arrangement with the publishers of that splendid illustrated periodical—Scribner's Magazine, we are enabled to offer with THE NATIONAL TRIBUNE at a great reduction in price.

OUR NEW WATCH.

Attention is invited to the advertisement of our new premium watch in another column. This is a superior time-piece in every way to anything that has heretofore been offered as a premium by any paper.

ANOTHER REBEL YELL.

The Association of the Maryland Line is an organization of the residents of Maryland in 1861 who went South and served in the rebel army or navy.

The orator of the day was one Thomas L. Rosser, who made himself quite conspicuous in the Shenandoah Valley in 1861, until he unlookingly attracted the attention of another gentleman, named Phil Sheridan.

The oration was identical in swagger and braggadocio with that delivered by Gen. Bradley T. Johnson last year at Baltimore on Confederate Memorial Day.

Gen. Rosser began his speech as follows: The conflict between the States, styled in its inception the irrepressible, when it came was a struggle for the maintenance of the Union.

Gen. Rosser began his speech as follows: The conflict between the States, styled in its inception the irrepressible, when it came was a struggle for the maintenance of the Union.

Gen. Rosser began his speech as follows: The conflict between the States, styled in its inception the irrepressible, when it came was a struggle for the maintenance of the Union.

Gen. Rosser began his speech as follows: The conflict between the States, styled in its inception the irrepressible, when it came was a struggle for the maintenance of the Union.

Gen. Rosser began his speech as follows: The conflict between the States, styled in its inception the irrepressible, when it came was a struggle for the maintenance of the Union.

Gen. Rosser began his speech as follows: The conflict between the States, styled in its inception the irrepressible, when it came was a struggle for the maintenance of the Union.

Gen. Rosser began his speech as follows: The conflict between the States, styled in its inception the irrepressible, when it came was a struggle for the maintenance of the Union.

Gen. Rosser began his speech as follows: The conflict between the States, styled in its inception the irrepressible, when it came was a struggle for the maintenance of the Union.

Gen. Rosser began his speech as follows: The conflict between the States, styled in its inception the irrepressible, when it came was a struggle for the maintenance of the Union.

Gen. Rosser began his speech as follows: The conflict between the States, styled in its inception the irrepressible, when it came was a struggle for the maintenance of the Union.

Gen. Rosser began his speech as follows: The conflict between the States, styled in its inception the irrepressible, when it came was a struggle for the maintenance of the Union.

THE NATIONAL TRIBUNE.

After this redoubtable Rosser went on to describe the difference between the Southern gentleman and the Northern mudsill!

I propose to tell you how in the days of civil strife the Southern men whipped the Yankees.

The young man of the South was a good horseman—and fancy him now as he proudly rides by you on his way to join the cavalry!

Now that we have inspected the privates, let us turn our eyes to their gallant commanders as they stand at the head of their regiments.

That is, such unparaded riders and fighters as Custer, "Grimes" Davis, Duffie, Averell, the Farnsworths, Pleasanton, Buford, Kilpatrick, Merritt, Wilson, McKenzie, Gregg, Kautz and Sheridan are too dull for the brightness of the picture!

After a long account of the operations of the cavalry of the Army of Northern Virginia, in which every occurrence was deliberately falsified, Rosser wound up with:

This is all both. The rebel cavalry surrendered at Appomattox just as quietly as the infantry did.

But what makes it specially odious and alarming is that it is uttered as voicing the sentiment of a very large number of men who were but a little while ago in armed rebellion against the Government!

But what makes it specially odious and alarming is that it is uttered as voicing the sentiment of a very large number of men who were but a little while ago in armed rebellion against the Government!

But what makes it specially odious and alarming is that it is uttered as voicing the sentiment of a very large number of men who were but a little while ago in armed rebellion against the Government!

But what makes it specially odious and alarming is that it is uttered as voicing the sentiment of a very large number of men who were but a little while ago in armed rebellion against the Government!

But what makes it specially odious and alarming is that it is uttered as voicing the sentiment of a very large number of men who were but a little while ago in armed rebellion against the Government!

But what makes it specially odious and alarming is that it is uttered as voicing the sentiment of a very large number of men who were but a little while ago in armed rebellion against the Government!

But what makes it specially odious and alarming is that it is uttered as voicing the sentiment of a very large number of men who were but a little while ago in armed rebellion against the Government!

But what makes it specially odious and alarming is that it is uttered as voicing the sentiment of a very large number of men who were but a little while ago in armed rebellion against the Government!

But what makes it specially odious and alarming is that it is uttered as voicing the sentiment of a very large number of men who were but a little while ago in armed rebellion against the Government!

But what makes it specially odious and alarming is that it is uttered as voicing the sentiment of a very large number of men who were but a little while ago in armed rebellion against the Government!

But what makes it specially odious and alarming is that it is uttered as voicing the sentiment of a very large number of men who were but a little while ago in armed rebellion against the Government!

A CAMPAIGN FRAUD.

The whole clamor about "reduction of the burdens of taxation" was a cunningly-manufactured sham.

It was got up solely for campaign purposes. Cleveland wanted "an issue upon which to go before the country," and it was constructed for the purpose.

It was got up solely for campaign purposes. Cleveland wanted "an issue upon which to go before the country," and it was constructed for the purpose.

It was got up solely for campaign purposes. Cleveland wanted "an issue upon which to go before the country," and it was constructed for the purpose.

It was got up solely for campaign purposes. Cleveland wanted "an issue upon which to go before the country," and it was constructed for the purpose.

It was got up solely for campaign purposes. Cleveland wanted "an issue upon which to go before the country," and it was constructed for the purpose.

It was got up solely for campaign purposes. Cleveland wanted "an issue upon which to go before the country," and it was constructed for the purpose.

It was got up solely for campaign purposes. Cleveland wanted "an issue upon which to go before the country," and it was constructed for the purpose.

It was got up solely for campaign purposes. Cleveland wanted "an issue upon which to go before the country," and it was constructed for the purpose.

It was got up solely for campaign purposes. Cleveland wanted "an issue upon which to go before the country," and it was constructed for the purpose.

It was got up solely for campaign purposes. Cleveland wanted "an issue upon which to go before the country," and it was constructed for the purpose.

It was got up solely for campaign purposes. Cleveland wanted "an issue upon which to go before the country," and it was constructed for the purpose.

It was got up solely for campaign purposes. Cleveland wanted "an issue upon which to go before the country," and it was constructed for the purpose.

It was got up solely for campaign purposes. Cleveland wanted "an issue upon which to go before the country," and it was constructed for the purpose.

It was got up solely for campaign purposes. Cleveland wanted "an issue upon which to go before the country," and it was constructed for the purpose.

It was got up solely for campaign purposes. Cleveland wanted "an issue upon which to go before the country," and it was constructed for the purpose.

It was got up solely for campaign purposes. Cleveland wanted "an issue upon which to go before the country," and it was constructed for the purpose.

It was got up solely for campaign purposes. Cleveland wanted "an issue upon which to go before the country," and it was constructed for the purpose.

TRIBUNETS.

THE NATIONAL AUCTIONEER. Uncle Sam—Forty-two States; forty-two, forty-two, gentlemen.

CIVIL SERVICE CANDIDATE.—No, you're mistaken. Old King Cole was no relation to the celebrated Englishman.

SINGULAR HOW warmly everybody is attached to cold cash.

HE who from the battle runs away May braver be another day.

FOR SALE.—Oak View, a fine country residence near Washington.

JUSTICE moves with leaden feet; She's blind as well as lame.

VERILY, of the making of books about Shakespeare there is no end.

MISS Gilchrist is sure that everybody up to this time have been entirely wrong in their reading of these.

WE always delight to see a much-abused individual triumph over his deriders.

CROWN PRINCE RUDOLPH, of Austria, had an allowance of $50,000 a year from the Imperial Treasury.

PRINCE RUPERT, the heir to the Bavarian throne, is insane.

IT is very cold up in the Pennsylvania mountains, but they have had on a real interesting story.

THE following additions to the Logan Monument Fund have been received since the last report:

Table listing names and amounts for the Logan Monument Fund, including J. L. Post, W. O. Tate, G. W. Palmer, etc.

THE election returns from Nevada would seem to indicate that the alarming depopulation of the State has nearly come to a standstill.

A careful revision of the election returns shows that in the entire country Harrison received 5,441,923 votes.

DAVID SUGG, P. M. David Sugg, when on route from Denver, Colo., to his home in Blue Springs, Minn., recently.

McANEY.—James McANEY, 28th Mass., died at Boston, Mass., recently, aged 62 years.

PERSONAL.

There has been a good deal of talk about Past Commander-in-Chief Kottwitz for Postmaster of Toledo, O., but he says he does not want the place.

SHORTLY after the present Administration came into power it removed Col. C. A. White from the postoffice at Greeley, Colo.

MR. FRANCES Sherman Moulton, sister to Gen. W. T. Sherman and Senator John Sherman, and widow of Col. Charles W. Moulton.

GEN. J. D. COX will deliver the oration at the unveiling of the Garfield monument at Cleveland, O., on the 21st inst.

HANNIBAL Hamlin said at a recent dinner that there is a tradition that the only Vice-President who was ever elected in harmony with his chief was Martin Van Buren.

ANOTHER cavalryman is represented in overcoat, leading his carbine, evidently with the intention of firing a second Confederate soldier, who is holding aloft his own colors.

ONE General, who is also on the Monument Committee, put it thus: They are perpetrating a good many more bad South in bronze, and I think we can better expend the money in representing on our monuments only those who upheld the Stars and Stripes in the dark days of our country.

Capt. Scofield's group of infantry, representing the "color-guard," and artillery, called "short range," modeled in plaster, and not long since exhibited in the window of the leading photographer in New York.

THE general design of the Cleveland structure is more elaborate, but somewhat after the style of that at Gettysburg—a central shaft rising from a broad base.

THE design of the monument and the groups is Capt. Levi T. Scofield, an architect by profession, who served on staff duty during the war, and who has erected some of the substantial buildings of Cleveland, who was Supervising Architect of the Government building recently remodelled and enlarged at Cleveland.

THE design of the monument and the groups is Capt. Levi T. Scofield, an architect by profession, who served on staff duty during the war, and who has erected some of the substantial buildings of Cleveland, who was Supervising Architect of the Government building recently remodelled and enlarged at Cleveland.

THE design of the monument and the groups is Capt. Levi T. Scofield, an architect by profession, who served on staff duty during the war, and who has erected some of the substantial buildings of Cleveland, who was Supervising Architect of the Government building recently remodelled and enlarged at Cleveland.

THE design of the monument and the groups is Capt. Levi T. Scofield, an architect by profession, who served on staff duty during the war, and who has erected some of the substantial buildings of Cleveland, who was Supervising Architect of the Government building recently remodelled and enlarged at Cleveland.

THE design of the monument and the groups is Capt. Levi T. Scofield, an architect by profession, who served on staff duty during the war, and who has erected some of the substantial buildings of Cleveland, who was Supervising Architect of the Government building recently remodelled and enlarged at Cleveland.

THE design of the monument and the groups is Capt. Levi T. Scofield, an architect by profession, who served on staff duty during the war, and who has erected some of the substantial buildings of Cleveland, who was Supervising Architect of the Government building recently remodelled and enlarged at Cleveland.

THE design of the monument and the groups is Capt. Levi T. Scofield, an architect by profession, who served on staff duty during the war, and who has erected some of the substantial buildings of Cleveland, who was Supervising Architect of the Government building recently remodelled and enlarged at Cleveland.

THE design of the monument and the groups is Capt. Levi T. Scofield, an architect by profession, who served on staff duty during the war, and who has erected some of the substantial buildings of Cleveland, who was Supervising Architect of the Government building recently remodelled and enlarged at Cleveland.

THE design of the monument and the groups is Capt. Levi T. Scofield, an architect by profession, who served on staff duty during the war, and who has erected some of the substantial buildings of Cleveland, who was Supervising Architect of the Government building recently remodelled and enlarged at Cleveland.

RECENT LITERATURE.

CONKLIN'S HANDY MANUAL OF USEFUL INFORMATION AND ATLAS OF THE WORLD. Published by Laird & Lee, Lakeside, Ill.

THE edition of 1889 is a marvel of completeness. It contains within its 440 pages a mass of useful information on thousands of different topics.

THE STORY OF LOUISIANA. By Manning Thompson. Published by D. Lothrop Co. Price $1.00.

MR. Thompson is recognized as one of America's foremost prose poets; his pen is especially gifted in the domain of description, and he has entered upon the telling of Louisiana's story with an interest here and there.

FAVORITE AUTHORS FOR LITTLE FOLK. Prepared by Mrs. Frances Moulton. Published by the Interstate Publishing Co., Boston and Chicago. Price 35 cents.

THIS book contains short sketches of a number of our literary masters and women, and with them are extracts from their writings.

ACROSS LOTS. By Horace Lunt. Published by D. Lothrop Co., Boston. Price $1.25.

A most delightful book is "Across Lots," full of the spirit of the "Across Lots," full of the spirit of the "Across Lots," full of the spirit of the "Across Lots."

THE UNPOPULAR PUBLIC. By "Littler." Published by Rand, McNally & Co., Chicago. Price 25 cents.

THIS is a new story by the author of "For Her Daily Bread," and is of unusual interest.

THE design of the monument and the groups is Capt. Levi T. Scofield, an architect by profession, who served on staff duty during the war, and who has erected some of the substantial buildings of Cleveland, who was Supervising Architect of the Government building recently remodelled and enlarged at Cleveland.

THE design of the monument and the groups is Capt. Levi T. Scofield, an architect by profession, who served on staff duty during the war, and who has erected some of the substantial buildings of Cleveland, who was Supervising Architect of the Government building recently remodelled and enlarged at Cleveland.

THE design of the monument and the groups is Capt. Levi T. Scofield, an architect by profession, who served on staff duty during the war, and who has erected some of the substantial buildings of Cleveland, who was Supervising Architect of the Government building recently remodelled and enlarged at Cleveland.

THE design of the monument and the groups is Capt. Levi T. Scofield, an architect by profession, who served on staff duty during the war, and who has erected some of the substantial buildings of Cleveland, who was Supervising Architect of the Government building recently remodelled and enlarged at Cleveland.

THE design of the monument and the groups is Capt. Levi T. Scofield, an architect by profession, who served on staff duty during the war, and who has erected some of the substantial buildings of Cleveland, who was Supervising Architect of the Government building recently remodelled and enlarged at Cleveland.

THE design of the monument and the groups is Capt. Levi T. Scofield, an architect by profession, who served on staff duty during the war, and who has erected some of the substantial buildings of Cleveland, who was Supervising Architect of the Government building recently remodelled and enlarged at Cleveland.

THE design of the monument and the groups is Capt. Levi T. Scofield, an architect by profession, who served on staff duty during the war, and who has erected some of the substantial buildings of Cleveland, who was Supervising Architect of the Government building recently remodelled and enlarged at Cleveland.

THE design of the monument and the groups is Capt. Levi T. Scofield, an architect by profession, who served on staff duty during the war, and who has erected some of the substantial buildings of Cleveland, who was Supervising Architect of the Government building recently remodelled and enlarged at Cleveland.