SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT. MONEY sent us, otherwise than by registered letter, postal money order, or draft on New York, will be at the risk of the sender.

THE NATIONAL TRIBUNE. WASHINGTON, D. C. SEPTEMBER 1, 1892. FARMERS, ATTENTION! A SPLENDID PAPER VERY CHEAP.

The American Farmer from now until End of 1892 for 25 Cents. The American Farmer is the oldest agricultural paper in America, having been published in Baltimore since 1819.

The American Farmer is thoroughly non-partisan in politics, but is a strong advocate of protection upon every farm product which comes into injurious competition with those of foreign countries.

Address all communications to THE AMERICAN FARMER, 1729 NEW YORK AVENUE, WASHINGTON, D. C. Sample copies free. Send for one.

THE earnings of the railroads show a notable increase over even the high earnings of last year.

SIXTY tin works are now closed in Wales, and thousands of tin-workers are preparing to remove to America to find work in the tineries in this country.

THE Iron Hall has gone down, and left many victims to sorrow after their hard-earned savings. The lesson of this is that there should be rigid laws governing those who assume to care for other people's savings.

LOYAL WOMEN AT THE NATIONAL ENCAMPMENT. In nothing connected with the National Encampment has the Citizens' Executive Committee of Washington provided better than for the entertainment of the W.R.C. and the Ladies of the G.A.R.

THE OLD GENERALS. The various corps are making every effort to have their old Generals present with them at their coming Reunions during the National Encampment.

THE DEDICATION CEREMONIES. On Monday, Sept. 19, the ground formerly known as the White Lot, in Washington, will be solemnly dedicated as the last great meeting place of the ex-soldiers and sailors of the war of the rebellion.

THE ADMINISTRATION IN THE CORPS. The present Administration will be well represented in the great Corps Reunions.

THE TRAGEDY OF THE REBEL ARMY. Durham, N. C., will be remembered as the place where the rebel army, which Sherman had followed for 1,000 miles, finally wearied of the game and passed in its checks.

SIGNING AND VETOING. Editor NATIONAL TRIBUNE: Will you please state that the columns of your paper which contain the letters of the most prominent men and women of the nation have been signed by me.

THE PERSONNEL OF THE DELEGATION FROM NEW YORK CITY to the next Congress will not be materially changed, says a contemporary. Certainly not. Other sections may be convulsed with questions as to free silver, tariff, temperance, civil service reform, the color line, and political wrecks like their shores.
