

Secretary Wilson, of the Department of Agriculture, believes deer can be raised, the same as beef cattle, and the Department's experts have set themselves to the task of popularizing deer raising on deer farming.

The idea is to have stockmen raise deer just the same as cattle, and the experts declare that they can be easily raised and require but little care, while their meat commands a high price.

In many States there is a law against killing deer, but it is thought that farmers attached to raise them these laws would be repealed.

The employees of the Post Office Department get 30 days' leave with pay and 30 days' sick leave with pay. Now it has been decided that all the horses employed in the work of the Department shall have 30 days' leave with rest and recuperation, with "rations."

Algeron Sartoris, grandson of Gen. Grant, has been appointed Secretary of the Legislative Council of Ohio. Sartoris was born in Washington, but never lived here long at a time.

It was some blow to his grandmother, Mrs. Julia Grant, when he resigned, for she wanted him to follow in the footsteps of his distinguished grandfather.

A catastrophe might have happened in Washington last Monday night. There were three alarms of fire, all in important shopping sections of the city, and all within an hour.

It is quite remarkable how conservative the city government has been in cutting out investigation and gray hair. Just now the Commissioners of the District of Columbia are gravely considering the question of a "no-leak" fourth.

Secretary Loeb proposes to go into business for himself after the fourth of next March—at least it is so announced.

Baroness Takahira, wife of the Japanese Ambassador, has reached Washington at last. Every day, attired in the very handsomest of Parisian costumes, and looking like a doll, she has been seen in the streets of Washington.

There is a public printing of the big Public Printer. Public Printer Lee has said to the men employed there that they shall take off their coats on these hot days.

It is expected that this will be a large and comprehensive biography, much of the material for it is said, Mr. Cleveland has himself put together.

Secretary Wilson, of the Department of Agriculture, left for his farm in Iowa last week. The Secretary has been at his desk almost daily for seven months, and says he will be glad to go on a rest.

Secretary Elihu Root has gone to Muldoon's again. Muldoon, you know, is the favorite resting place of statesmen now, who have money and time to go thru with the exactions of the great prize fighter's methods of "toning up."

Harry A. Garfield, son of the late James A. Garfield, and brother of James R. Garfield, Secretary of the Interior, received the degree of doctor of laws at the commencement exercises of Dartmouth College held June 24.

Secretary Taft has received the largest postal card ever handled in the United States, which was two feet long and two feet wide. It came from Baltimore, and the special delivery messenger who delivered it found it impossible to hold with both hands to go up to the State, War, and Navy building on foot.

Believing it only requires the application of scientific knowledge to produce the vast wealth that lies unclaimed in her wonderfully fertile soil, the Republic of Santo Domingo is developing its agricultural resources.

Secretary of Agriculture Wilson, who has tendered his resignation to the Governor as a candidate for reelection to Congress, Mr. Powers will complete his present term, which ends next April, but will not stand for reelection this fall because of ill health.

Col. William F. Tucker, son-in-law of Mrs. John A. Logan, was operated on the other day for obesity. He had about 80 pounds removed from the region of the abdomen, and was a serious case, but Col. Tucker came thru all right.

It is announced for sure that Representative Theodore Burton, of Ohio, has come out for the United States Senate to succeed Senator Joseph Benson Foraker.

Justice Brewer, of the United States Supreme Court, in his commencement day oration at Clark College, expressed the emphatic opinion that divorce proceedings should be kept out of our newspapers, and that public opinion is sometimes divided when an aggravated scandal is aired in the press, but evils of such publications, in justice to the parties, and for the sake of the public, let no man rich enough to buy a veil to cover the records of a court of justice.

John Kazubha, a Russian, knows his sorrow today that he cannot, with impunity, curse the Stars and Stripes. Kazubha attended the funeral of a young girl in Cleveland, which was a plenty of drink. He was the color-bearer of the Russian society to which the dead man belonged.

The War Department has been notified that Gov. Gard of New York, Governor of the Province of Llanos, P. I., is on his way home for treatment.

On Tuesday afternoon, July 7, the great battleship fleet started on its real tour around the world, from San Francisco harbor. There were 16 battleships in the line, led by Rear Admiral Sigsbee.

Perhaps the greatest of all the entertainments to be given the men of the fleet in any foreign port will be waiting their arrival at Sydney, Australia, where the warships will arrive on August 10.

Representative Richmond Pearson Hobson broke the rule of the White House, and now his name has gone into the United States Directory of the House of Representatives.

Representative Llewellyn Powers, of Maine, has tendered his resignation to the Governor as a candidate for reelection to Congress. Mr. Powers will complete his present term, which ends next April, but will not stand for reelection this fall because of ill health.

Secretary of the Interior Garfield is back on the island of Hawaii, speaking by book, he arrived in San Francisco last week from his trip to Hawaii. He is mightily pleased with his visit there.

From Indiana comes the word that the President is going to make some speeches in the campaign. Thatcher, of the Chicago Herald, is author of the statement. He says that President Roosevelt will be in Indiana for three days making speeches in the interest of Mr. Taft.

Mr. James S. Sherman is noted for her thirty years and for the excellence of her preserves and jellies. Her bread-making and her other domestic mysteries has obtained her method of mixing from the wife of the Vice Presidential candidate.

The Health Officer of Washington, Dr. William C. Woodward, after warning mothers how to care for and feed their children this hot weather, has taken up the matter of heating eating places for the adult population of the District. He is going to look after the restaurants and cafes, the boarding-house and pie-dinner kitchens.

John Kazubha, a Russian, knows his sorrow today that he cannot, with impunity, curse the Stars and Stripes. Kazubha attended the funeral of a young girl in Cleveland, which was a plenty of drink. He was the color-bearer of the Russian society to which the dead man belonged.

Another matter that the Inspector should have in hand is the dish rag, and the dish towels, the apron, the caps and other clothing worn by those who handle the uncooked viands, preparing them for meals. A man will need to wash his hands with soap and water before he touches anything on the food that is being prepared.

It has been adopted as authority by the UNITED STATES PENSION BUREAU, and there are 1,500 copies in use in that office. It gives the number killed and wounded in each engagement during the Spanish-American War, Philippine Insurrection, and the Disturbance in China.

The principal events of the Rebellion, Spanish-American War, Philippine Insurrection and the Disturbance in China are recorded chronologically as they occurred from day to day. This alone is worth the price of the book.

At best President Castro, of Venezuela, has been aroused to the point of retaliation against the United States. Diplomatic relations between the two countries have been broken off completely.

Senator Veloz-Gaitana, the Venezuelan Charge, has presented to Acting Secretary Bacon his letters of recall, and the diplomatic relations that have existed continuously for 50 years have given to the strain and broken. The Venezuelan Legation in Washington is closed.

Commander Peary, who has gone on a three years' quest of the North Pole, visited Oyster Bay before he started, and carried away with him the good wishes of the President and a telegram from Quentin in the shape of a four-leaf clover.

Representative Richmond Pearson Hobson broke the rule of the White House, and now his name has gone into the United States Directory of the House of Representatives.

Representative Llewellyn Powers, of Maine, has tendered his resignation to the Governor as a candidate for reelection to Congress. Mr. Powers will complete his present term, which ends next April, but will not stand for reelection this fall because of ill health.

Secretary of the Interior Garfield is back on the island of Hawaii, speaking by book, he arrived in San Francisco last week from his trip to Hawaii. He is mightily pleased with his visit there.

From Indiana comes the word that the President is going to make some speeches in the campaign. Thatcher, of the Chicago Herald, is author of the statement. He says that President Roosevelt will be in Indiana for three days making speeches in the interest of Mr. Taft.

Mr. James S. Sherman is noted for her thirty years and for the excellence of her preserves and jellies. Her bread-making and her other domestic mysteries has obtained her method of mixing from the wife of the Vice Presidential candidate.

The Health Officer of Washington, Dr. William C. Woodward, after warning mothers how to care for and feed their children this hot weather, has taken up the matter of heating eating places for the adult population of the District. He is going to look after the restaurants and cafes, the boarding-house and pie-dinner kitchens.

John Kazubha, a Russian, knows his sorrow today that he cannot, with impunity, curse the Stars and Stripes. Kazubha attended the funeral of a young girl in Cleveland, which was a plenty of drink. He was the color-bearer of the Russian society to which the dead man belonged.

Another matter that the Inspector should have in hand is the dish rag, and the dish towels, the apron, the caps and other clothing worn by those who handle the uncooked viands, preparing them for meals. A man will need to wash his hands with soap and water before he touches anything on the food that is being prepared.

It has been adopted as authority by the UNITED STATES PENSION BUREAU, and there are 1,500 copies in use in that office. It gives the number killed and wounded in each engagement during the Spanish-American War, Philippine Insurrection, and the Disturbance in China.

The principal events of the Rebellion, Spanish-American War, Philippine Insurrection and the Disturbance in China are recorded chronologically as they occurred from day to day. This alone is worth the price of the book.

"I MADE $12 PER DAY" advertisement for a kitchen set, including a list of agents.

"Remarkable Invention" advertisement for an instrument that improves and strengthens eyesight.

"Spectacles May Be Abandoned" advertisement for a small instrument that gets up and maintains normal circulation of the blood.

"THE ECONOMIC FUNCTIONS OF VICE" advertisement by John Melroy, describing a readable little volume.

"How to Get Old FREE" advertisement for Long Bridge Cane Co., including a list of agents.

"GINSENG" advertisement for a product that is good for the blood and the stomach.

"Asthma" advertisement for a cure that is guaranteed to be effective.

"New Pension and Bounty Laws" advertisement for a book that gives the number killed and wounded in each engagement.

"Alphabetical List of Battles" advertisement for a book that gives the number killed and wounded in each engagement during the Spanish-American War, Philippine Insurrection, and the Disturbance in China.