

Deaf People Now Hear Whispers

Listening Machines Invented by a Kentuckian.

Invisible, When Worn, but Act Like Eye-Glasses.

Ever see a pair of Listening Machines? They make the deaf hear distinctly. They are an aid in the ears you can't tell they are wearing them.

Wilson's Ear Drums make all the sound strike hard on the center of the human ear drum, instead of scattering it weakly over the entire surface.

ABRAHAM LINCOLN.

(Continued from page one.) The Liberator, with a motto, "No Union with Slaveholders." Some copies of this paper having gotten into South Carolina, a Judge wrote to Harrison Gray Otis, Mayor of Boston, asking that he suppress the paper.

The Murder of Lovejoy. A more pretentious paper, by Elijah P. Lovejoy, a Presbyterian clergyman, was started in St. Louis as a religious organ, called the St. Louis Observer.

WILLIAM LLOYD GARRISON.

and new material a mob attacked his office on the evening of Nov. 6, 1837, destroyed the office and killed Mr. Lovejoy.

PROVE WHAT SWAMP-ROOT WILL DO FOR YOU.

You naturally feel secure when you know that the medicine you are about to take is absolutely pure and contains no harmful or habit producing drugs.

Swamp-Root is scientifically compounded from vegetable herbs. It is not a stimulant and is taken in teaspoonful doses.

Send to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample bottle, free by mail—it will convince anyone.

Three years after this protest Lincoln went, on the invitation of his friend Speed, to visit the latter's old home at Louisville.

Lincoln's Protest. The vote for these indicated that even the representatives from northern Illinois were not free from the violence of the fanatics.

affairs, although it is not expected to go very deeply into the matter at present, because of the limited time at its disposal.

The President has already summoned his commission, and its members are to try to outline new administrative plans.

Mr. Newberry's friends have been making a long pull and a strong pull to have him retained in the Cabinet for the new Administration.

It is current gossip in Washington that the President selected to go to the Isthmus with Mr. Taft engineers who would strongly advise the construction of a lock canal.

for a man who has been accustomed to having his own way for over seven years.

The President's enemies and those who do not approve of his Administration have been filling the public eye ever since last November with predictions that Mr. Taft would be more conservative than his predecessor.

The President believes in Mr. Taft, as he always has, and, leaving Washington, will wish him well. But after all is said, he is not so enthusiastic now about the work of his successor in office as he was three months ago.

IRRIGATION IN THE ARID WEST

Map showing approximately the arid, semi-arid and humid regions of the United States. The heaviest rainfall, according to the records of the Weather Service, is in the States of the South Atlantic Coast and along the North Pacific Coast.

What the United States Government is Doing to Reclaim the Dry Regions—Location and Description of Great Government Irrigation Projects by States and Territories—How to Obtain Land and Water Rights Under the Reclamation Laws.

Irrigation is the use of water artificially applied to the soil, instead of having it fall onto the land from the clouds. The common idea is that irrigation is of importance only in arid regions, and that it is possible only through expensive and skillfully constructed works.

The book will be sent postpaid to any address for 25 cents in stamps or P. O. order, by addressing THE NATIONAL TRIBUNE, WASHINGTON, D. C.
