JOLLIFICATION.

The Republican Meeting on Saturday Night. The Speeches of J. R. Farrell, Judge Haynes and Col. Zabriskie.

An Enthusiastic and Highly Enjoyable Occasion.

The grand Republican jollification meeting at Levin's Hall on Saturday evening last was the most enthusiastic affair that has taken place in Tucson since the present campaign opened. The hall was filled to its utmost capacity, and the telling points of the several speakers were received with the utmost favor.

Railroad Notes.

The Southern Pacific Railway is now open to business for a distance of 150 miles east of Tucson, or a point two miles from the thriving little New Mexican town of Shakespear. Here a station has been opened and named in compliment to Dr. C. H. Lord, one of Tucson's well-known and leading merchants.

A Cry of Despair.

Coached by William H. English, the National Democratic Committee, the silly arraignment of the Republicans of Indiana for having the audacity to carry that State.

Democratic Testimony for Bob Paul.

From all sides we hear nothing but good of our Republican candidate for Sheriff. We have before presented the testimony of people who knew Mr. Paul in former years, and they all unite in declaring him to be one of the best and bravest Sheriffs ever elected in California.

WEAVER does not now think that he will be the next President, but he anticipates that the Greenbackers will have thirty or forty members of Congress, and hold the balance of power between Republicans and Democrats.

LABOR amounts of material are being hauled on the ground for the new bank-house for the railroad boys.

Yes, the people are ready for change, and they will have it. The next Congress will be Republican.

Gory Played Out in Yavapai.

Special to the Citizen. Prescott, October 17.—Gory drove the last nail in his political coffin last night. He spoke here to about forty Democrats and one hundred Republicans, and his efforts were directed to abusing the Republicans.

The Phoenix Expositor is devoting its editorial space to the abuse of Stewart.

Sam. H. Wildly has withdrawn from the candidacy for District Attorney of Pima county. It was generally thought that Sam had a walk-over in the race, and he probably had, but by the bargain Globe made with the Florence end of the county, the latter was to have all of the county officers. So Sam loyally stepped down.

The Oration to Stewart at Prescott.

Special to the Citizen. Prescott, October 17.—The people from all the surrounding country assembled when it was known that at the ratification meeting in this town on Saturday evening Stewart was to be elected. At five o'clock Joseph Crane, with a fine team, met Mr. Stewart two miles from town and brought him in. When he reached a point one mile from Prescott he was met by several hundred people in carriages and on horseback, headed by the Twelfth Infantry band.

Republican Remon.

Special to the Citizen. BRENDA, October 18.—Gen. H. G. Benson, October Street, spoke to a large and very enthusiastic Republican meeting to-night at this place.

Come Now, Own Up.

The large class of our Democratic readers who affect to believe that the Associated Press is in the hands of the Republicans, and that the Republican telegrams relating to political matters are not worthy of credence ought to now own up that they are wrong. They could have no better evidence than the Associated Press, and the news as near as possible correct than the telegrams published in these columns concerning the late elections.

Insolent Bourgeois.

SAN FRANCISCO, October 20.—At the time the train with the Presidential party on board reached Modesto, California, the Democratic meeting was in progress about five hundred feet from the depot. One of the speakers expressed great indignation that the music of the band should be allowed to interrupt the meeting.

A Proposition That Talks.

NEW YORK, October 18.—John J. Davenport addressed John Kelly and the members of the committee on the organization of Tammany Hall a letter in reference to statements made by members of that committee that they possessed evidence of colonization of voters in the interests of the Republican party; he calls upon them to produce their evidence, and promises in every case where established to cause the arrest of offending persons, and to permit them to be brought before such United States Commissioner as Kelly or his counsel may designate.

They'd Better Head Him Off.

NEW YORK, October 18.—A Herald reporter of October 18 mentions a rumor that in view of the fact that Hanson's recent letter to Hanson, declining his views on the tariff not being sufficiently explicit and comprehensive, to make it as effective a campaign document as the exigencies of the case demand. He writes a supplemental letter on the subject, making his views so clear and broad that there can be no mistake in the matter.

Damaging Testimony.

DENVER, Col., October 18.—Advice from W. S. Peck, a Government scout, has given testimony which goes to prove that Berry, Meacham, Holmes and Cline intentionally gave up young Jackson to the Indians. He says that Col. Beaumont, who was commanding the cavalry, was a short distance from Cline's ranch, but Berry and the others ordered him to proceed to Garland. The scout says he examined the place where the Indians were supposed to have forcibly taken Jackson, but found no sign of a struggle.

Settled at Last.

CHICAGO, October 30.—The Atholston, Topeka and Santa Fe road has issued a circular to shippers of California freight, announcing that that road and the Southern Pacific will be connected about January 1, 1881, thus opening up a new through route between the East and San Francisco, Sacramento, San Jose, Los Angeles, Marysville and all other points in California and Arizona. It sets forth that the new line will offer unequalled facilities for doing business, such as will warrant shippers in laying out arrangements for the future until the new route is opened for business, of which time due notice will be given.

NEW YORK, October 18.—To-day's Sun has a remarkable editorial under the heading, "No Mincing Matters," whereof the following are extracts:

"The Democrats have sustained an unexpected and humiliating defeat in Indiana and Ohio. It is disastrous and may prove fatal. It is silly to make light of it and idle to try to whitewash away by cunning calculations and adroit lighting. The Democrats are beaten, badly, better. Whether beaten to death or not is the only question. It has seemed to us that the whole Democratic campaign was a series of blunders. The party had one opportunity to support their immense strength had been demonstrated in national fields—Samuel J. Tilden. It is the one great prominent name in the Democratic party. He was a former student of his own country. The Governor had proved that he was a statesman. As all his public papers—especially his letter declining to compete for the nomination—has endeavored to show, he was a man of high character and high ability. Washington he had only his country to love, and even the ties of kindred were ruthlessly severed by his stern and unrelenting hand if the faintest blush of improper preference rested upon them. So patriotic, so lofty, so convincing was his great letter to the convention which made the nomination that the most ardent and ablest of his enemies, after reading it, avowed themselves converts to his views. The illustrious Democratic party thought it could afford to disperse with him as a candidate. There is a word of one syllable with two o's in it which might not be inappreciably lengthened by the addition of the two o's. They nominated Gen. Hancock—a good man who weighs two hundred and fifty pounds—but Hancock is not Tilden. The crowning act of folly of the Democrats was to go into the State of Thomas A. Hendricks and take another man for Vice-President. Any name other than that of Hendricks would be folly enough; but to go one step further, they had to take a man with the most odious reputation as 'skin-dink' to overcome. There used to be a fellow who made an occupation of butting his head against a rough stone. New England wall for twenty-five cents. The Democratic party in making this nomination resembles him—only, if report be true, they did not get the twenty-five cents. Now we are for making the actual situation in the fact. While we do not do that without fear in defeat and disaster, as well as in victory, has no manhood in his make. We are beaten, we are overthrown; but we are not to be crushed. We are to be reborn. We are to be re-created. We are to be re-experienced may yet be retrieved."

Charged With Murder.

DENVER, October 19.—A telegram from Gov. Pitkin says that Indian Agent Berry, Hoyt, Cline and Meacham are all now in jail at Gunnison City, charged with the murder of Jackson, the freighter.

Wade Hampton Makes a Fool of Himself.

SAN FRANCISCO, October 19.—In a recent interview Secretary Sherman spoke of the Kuklux severely, and mentioned Wade Hampton's name in connection with them. To this Hampton took exception and gave an explanation. Sherman rather begged the question, whereupon Hampton wrote a caustic letter on Sherman, and yesterday sent him a challenge. Sherman refused the challenge and said he would shortly answer it.
