SEVEN WERE MURDERED.

FATHER, MOTHER AND FIVE CHILDREN WERE KILLED.

A Gang of Italians in Wayne County, West Virginia, Commit a Horrible Crime—A Staggering Tale of Blood Told.

A Horrible Affair.

CATTESVILLE, W. Va., Aug. 4.—A man named Brumfield, his wife and five children were murdered in Wayne county last night by a party of Italian railroad laborers. A crowd of fifty of these men got drunk and going to the home of Brumfield, who was reported to have much money, they demanded admittance. With rails and clubs they began an attack. Brumfield and his two half-grown sons made a brave defense but seem to have had no arms.

Their assailants broke in the doors and windows and beat Brumfield and the boys to death with clubs. They then seized the wife and two young children and put them to death. After searching the place for valuables they burned the house to the ground. It is said that enemies of Brumfield incited the Italians to the murder.

A list of articles follows which will be admitted free after July 1st next year.

A WOODPECKER HUNG.

Legal Execution Following a Long Fight.

ROCKTON, TEX., Aug. 2.—William Caldwell colored, was executed yesterday at 11:30. He died without making a statement but expressed the belief that he was going to heaven. He walked upon the scaffold without assistance and in eight minutes Caldwell was the only person who met a judicial death on account of it. He killed Dr. J. M. Shambler on the night of July 31, 1888. This was the first murder committed by either side of the vendetta.

A TERRIBLE AFFRAY.

Two People Killed and One Seriously Stabbed in Colorado.

DUBUQUE, IOWA, Aug. 4.—A terrible tragedy occurred at a ball in the Blue mountain, Dubuque, Iowa, on the night of August 2. A young man named William McCord was going on a tough character by the name of Tom Roach insisted on dancing. He was drunk and armed with a knife and pistol. He was not allowed to dance and raised a row.

Frank H. Hyde tried to quell the disturbance and was stabbed by Roach in several places. A cowboy by the name of William McCord tried to pacify Roach. This seemed to enrage Roach more than ever, and drawing his gun, he killed McCord on the spot. A boy slipped away to a house near by, and securing a Winchester, returned to the ball room. He took aim and fired, but missed Roach and killed Mrs. Walton, an estimable lady living in the community. In the excitement Roach escaped and is still at large.

Fearful Loss of Life.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 1.—Advices by the steamer City of Pekin, which arrived here to-night, state the following telegram dated July 18, had been received at Yokohama: "July 12 at 3 a. m. the steamer Tames Maru, of Hakodate, while returning from Suto with 300 laborers on board, came into collision with the steamer Mighosi Maru off Suragami. The Tames Maru immediately sank with the loss of 290 persons drowned and missing. The captain and first officer and sixty laborers reached ashore."

Hillinois Bugs Catch It.

LAWRENCE, KAN., July 30.—Advices were received here to-day from Professor Forbes, state entomologist of Illinois, that the chinch bug contagion is spreading rapidly all over that state, and that so far it has been an unqualified success. The station here sent many packages of infected bugs to Illinois during the spring and early summer, and the chinch bug has been doing its fatal work and spreading from germs sent from the Kansas station.

Poisoned by Canned Salmon.

BOSTON, Aug. 4.—Joseph, Annie and Fred Willard, aged respectively 18, 18 and 11 years, living at No. 307 Federal street, were poisoned yesterday by eating canned salmon.

Noland Must Go.

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., July 30.—Judge Burgess has overruled the motion for a new trial made by the attorneys of ex-Treasurer Ed. Noland, and it now seems certain that the defaulting official will have to devote two years to the service of the state in the penitentiary.

Amputation for Chills.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 30.—Notwithstanding the fate of the officers of the Robert and Minnie and the great care exercised by the customs officers, it has been learned that large quantities of arms and ammunition have been shipped to the Chilian insurgents concealed in bales of hay.

MORTGAGED FARMS.

Interesting Statistics Compiled by the Census Bureau.

WASHINGTON, July 31.—The count of the farm and home transcripts made in accordance with the mortgage collection clause of the census act has been completed by the census office. The figures are subject to slight modifications. There were returned by the enumerators 2,491,930 farms and homes occupied by owners which are incumbered by mortgages. This number includes some farms and homes about which the enumerators made no report, and which belong partly to the class of hired and partly to the class of owned free.

The preliminary results indicate that the average debt for a farm in Iowa is $1,831; homes $719 average for farm and home, $1,140. If these averages hold good for the union the incumbrance on the farms and homes of the United States occupied by owners is about $2,555,000,000. The success of this investigation, Superintendent Porter says, has been far beyond the anticipations of the most experienced statisticians and the result will be of immense interest and value to the nation.

Quay and Dudley Resign.

WASHINGTON, July 31.—At the meeting of the National Republican executive committee Chairman M. S. Quay and Treasurer Dudley tendered their resignations which were accepted and referred to the full committee which will meet in November. Mr. Clarkson was elected chairman of the executive committee, and Mr. Hobart was elected vice chairman in the place of Mr. Clarkson, the chairman being authorized to select a treasurer to succeed Mr. Dudley. Strong resolutions of regret for the resignations were adopted.

Many active politicians in different parts of the country had suggestions made to make and conclusions to draw from the outcome of the last congressional election. Some pointed out the dangerousness of the Alliance movement in their states and submitted ingenious plans to meet inroads on Republican party strength and others referred to various grievances and causes of dissatisfaction among Republicans which might be overcome by proper treatment.

A Desperate Hazard Battle.

NEW YORK, July 30.—Doubt Boucon and Thomas Channal, negro farm hands, at Glenhead, L. I., fought a duel, with razors in their sleeping room in an old farm house about midnight last night. Channal was killed and Boucon was desperately wounded and was just alive when found this morning. The two men occupied rooms about eight feet square. Last night they went to bed at 11 o'clock, but just exactly what happened nobody knows.

Boucon's version of the affair is that they quarreled before going to bed. Subsequently he was awakened to find Channal sitting on him and though it was dark in the room, he could see that Channal was brandishing a razor. He grappled with Channal and the two fell on the floor, Boucon on top. Both men fought like demons, each receiving terrible wounds. Boucon remembers nothing after that, except that he regained his senses suddenly to crawl back into bed where he was found.

STOLE A FORTUNE.

A Good Young Man Gets Away With Fifty Thousand Dollars.

Twenty-four Hoarers in Line.

PARIS, July 31.—Immense crowds of people, estimated at 25,000, gathered for the funeral of the victims of the terrible railroad disaster of Sunday last. The crowds assembled were so great that it required the presence of the prefect of the department of the Seine and a strong detachment of troops to keep the route of the funeral procession clear. There were twenty-four hoarers in the black line which led from the town hall to the cemetery, and thousands of mourners followed the bodies to the grave.

Maryland Prohibitionists.

BALTIMORE, July 31.—Yesterday was a big day for the Prohibition party in Maryland, the occasion being the meeting of the state convention at Glenwood, where the following ticket was placed in nomination: For governor, Edwin Higgins; for comptroller, Joshua Levering; for attorney general, Hosea B. Moulton; for clerk of the court of appeals, Levin S. Metson. All the nominees are gentlemen of excellent character, but of course, none of them has the slightest expectation of being elected.

Three Negroes Lynched.

MOVING, Aug. 1.—The first lynching of the night, in Henry county, a short distance from Gordon, a mob took from the officers four negroes, two men and two women, who were charged with burning a dwelling house.

On the way to the river one of the men escaped, but was shot at. He rolled down the bank of the river, and feigning death escaped into Georgia. The others were placed on the bank of the stream and shot. The body of one of the women was recovered.

Kansas Wheat.

TOPEKA, Kas., Aug. 1.—There is much diversity of opinion as to the causes holding back the present wheat crop. Dr. McCallan, of the Advocate, declares that farmers will hold their grain for better prices, as instructed by the circular. It is a scheme for co-operation that will be successful. I have not heard from any of them yet; it is too early. But from what I can learn, the advice contained in the circulars will be very generally followed.

Returned Colonists.

DELPHOS, Kas., July 31.—Ezra Comfort and family arrived from Topolopoulo, having hurried home to escape the tropic fever. The 18-year-old son of Mr. Comfort was stricken before starting and died an hour after reaching here. Another son died at the colony. They went out in April and report much suffering among the colonists.

GRIM DEATH IN A DUEL.

THE HOUSE TOO SMALL FOR TWO FAMILIES.

The Private Secretary of Robert G. Ingersoll Fatally Wounded—An Impromptu Affair With a Terrible Ending.

A Thrilling Duel.

CROTON LANDING, N. Y., Aug. 4.—One of the most thrilling tragedies that has occurred in Westchester county took place to-day and will result in the death of Newton Baker, private secretary of Col. Robert G. Ingersoll, who was fatally shot four times by Orville M. Anderson, late agent of the Louisville Gas Company. Anderson and his family reside in the Moody household, and he sub-let part of the house to Baker and his wife. The two families have never agreed, and neighborhood quarrels were frequent between the women of the house, which, some time ago, became known as the Moody household. Baker took up the quarrel, and often had heated disputes over the matter.

Baker and Anderson were walking toward home to adjust their difficulties. Mrs. Baker came to meet her husband and told him that Anderson had insulted her. Both men drew their revolvers and Mrs. Baker sprang between and threw her arms about her husband's neck and tried to shield him from Anderson's bullets. Mrs. Baker, becoming exhausted, swooned away. Anderson quickly stepped back a couple of paces, and aiming his revolver fired at Baker. His aim was true, for as Baker was about to raise his arm to shoot, Anderson fired, the ball striking Baker's right arm and breaking it. Baker's weapon fell from his hand and Anderson then fired three shots in quick succession, the second shot striking Baker in the forehead and making a glancing wound, while the third bullet entered his left side just below the heart and the fourth bullet pierced the mortally wounded and begged Anderson not to shoot again.

When Anderson saw his victim on the ground, he placed his revolver back in his pocket and walked home, leaving Baker and his half crazed wife on the roadside.

An Ohio Wreck.

BELLAIRE, O., Aug. 2.—Another horror has been added to the late list of railroad accidents in Ohio. A passenger train on the Bellaire, Zanesville & Cincinnati narrow gauge railroad was wrecked, two cars being overturned and dragged some distance by the engine. There were seventy persons on the train and the two cars that turned over into the ditch were crowded with young people from this section.

Assistance was soon at hand from other passengers and trainmen and when all were safely taken away, the two cars found that fourteen people had been injured, four of them seriously and one fatally.

The train was running at the least calculation at the rate of thirty-five miles an hour, and as it reached the curve, the cars were thrown to away violently and rebounding the cries from passengers, a rush was made for the doors. Many of the frightened passengers had reached the platform when the cars jumped the rails, and when they turned over in another direction, the train was placed in the ditch in an indiscriminate mass of men, women and children, the latter shrieking fearfully as they went down.

The increase in total population was 24.50 per cent.

The N. Y. Collector Resigns.

NEW YORK, July 31.—The president has accepted the resignation of Joel H. Erhardt, as collector of the port of New York, and has designated J. Sioat, of Elmira, N. Y., as his successor. Collector Erhardt, on being questioned as to the cause of his resignation, said: "I resigned because the collector has been reduced a position where he is no longer an independent officer with authority to commensurate with his responsibility. The recent policy of the treasury department has been to control the details of the customs administration at the port of New York from Washington at the dictation of a private individual having no official responsibility. The collector is practically deprived of power and control while he is left subject to all responsibility. The office is no longer independent and I am, therefore, we have separated."

A Great Race.

NEW YORK, Aug. 4.—The much talked of and long delayed match race between Mr. Pulsifer's swayback horse, Tenny, and Mr. F. W. Dwyer's Longstreet, was run at Morris Park yesterday and resulted in an easy victory for Longstreet by eight lengths. Fifty 25,000 people were present, many of whom had journeyed from all parts of the union to see it run and satisfy themselves as to the superior animal of the two. While, as a race, it was hardly the contest many had hoped to see, nevertheless it was a good contest and proved conclusively that the great swayback is no match for the Dwyer candidate. In fact, this opinion is shared by Mr. Pulsifer himself, who when seen after the race gave it as his opinion. In the betting Tenny opened at 9 to 10, while Longstreet could be backed at even money.

A Sombabulst Killed.

COFFEYVILLE, Kas., Aug. 2.—Frank L. Pratt, station agent at a small station thirty-five miles south of here on the Missouri Pacific railway, was struck by a freight train while asleep on the platform yesterday morning. He was knocked from the platform, his left leg was horribly crushed, his left arm was cut off near the elbow and his right foot badly crushed. He was taken to Claremore, where his injured members were dressed and all care possible given, his death ending his suffering at 2 o'clock to-day.
