 The Flagstaff and Milton ball clubs will cross bats at the new grounds, in the Powell tract, south of town, tomorrow. Game will be called at 2 o'clock. Those who attend these games will be pleased to learn that the boys are having a grand stand erected for the convenience of their guests.
 Mrs. Cintha A. Pitts and three sons, Arthur, Addison and Leroy, left on Tuesday's train for Auburn, Cal., where they will make their future home. Mrs. Pitts resided among our people for over a year, and during that short period made friends of all with whom she came in contact. The Sun regrets the loss of this worthy lady from our midst, and hopes that she may find pleasant surroundings in her new home.

J. D. Elmore, of Williams, was in town Tuesday.
 One dozen best cabinets $1 at car today and tomorrow.
 The talk of the town—the way the Bostonians are doing them up.

 Our enterprising contemporary, the Flagstaff Democrat, has entered upon its fourth year of usefulness in the field of journalism. We congratulate Brothers Jones upon the success they have made in the past, and wish them an increased continuance of the same.
 For RENT.—In Kingman, Ariz., one of the fine large fireproof stores directly opposite the depot, in the Luthy block. Best location in Kingman for a restaurant or any other kind of business. Apply to H. H. Watkins Kingman.
 The Mutual Life Insurance Co. of New York is offering an exceptionally liberal policy adapted to poor and rich. This company is represented by J. H. Hoskins, Jr., and is deserving of local patronage. It is the largest company in the world.
 The Department of Agriculture offers to make free publication of 500,000 copies of an official bulletin setting forth the topography and advantages of Coconino county, and ask information as to the best means of obtaining statistics. This is a matter that our Board of Trade should take in hand at once, and see that all desired information is promptly furnished. Coconino county is as yet comparatively unknown to the outside world, and here is offered a grand opportunity to properly advertise our county and its resources. We would suggest that the Board hold a meeting as soon as convenient to look into this matter.

It's all over town in red, 1 dozen $1 at car today and tomorrow.

 A number of new faces of type have been added to our job department this week, these additions having been made to meet the demands for neat and artistic printing, in which this office takes second place to none in the territory.
 The firm of Dagg Brothers was dissolved in August, 1890. I retained my French merino sheep interests, and am running a free lance, and have a few hundred French rams of all ages for sale, and solicit the patronage of all wool growers. J. F. DAGGS, Flagstaff, Ariz.
 M. G. Gillispie, who has been introducing a patent sheep-shearing contrivance among our wool men, left for New York Saturday. Mr. Gillispie secured quite a number of orders for the machine in this section, and will return next spring.
 One of the busiest places in town at present is Osborn's photograph gallery. By doing good work at reasonable prices Mr. Osborn is building up a profitable trade. He invites all who desire photographs to call at the gallery and see samples of his work.
 Last Tuesday Sheriff Francis arrested Louis Bishop, the big "coon" who has of late made himself such a nuisance in Flagstaff, and gave him until 10 o'clock that evening to vacate the town. The last seen of the festive Louis he was on a blind baggage headed west.
 The contracts for building bridges, grading streets, etc., have been let by the Townsite Committee. Frank Foster was awarded the contract for grading Railroad avenue and building bridges on the same street for $600, and for building bridges on Aspen and Birch streets for $158 and $116 respectively.
 One of the secrets of financial ease is in keeping our money at home. We should remember that every dollar kept in Flagstaff increases our local circulation and commercial activity. If we have idle money we should deposit it in our home bank, which employs its funds to foster and promote our local interests. In this way every man's money is a factor in the general ease, and is safe and available.
 By the new survey of the line between Yavapai and Maricopa counties, it is found that a good deal of property heretofore assessed as belonging to Maricopa really should have been assessed to Yavapai. The Courier urges that the Board of Supervisors of Yavapai county make demand for the back taxes paid to Maricopa county. The Courier should also urge the payment by Yavapai county of the back taxes due Mohave county, which were collected under similar circumstances.
 Passenger train No. 3, west bound, was thrown from the rails seven miles west of Flagstaff, near Riordan station, last Saturday evening, by a collision with a steer, which was on the track. The engine and tender and mail, express, baggage and smoking cars were derailed. Fireman Downs received injuries, from which he is rapidly recovering. Luckily no damage was done the passengers further than a lively shaking up. The train was delayed fourteen hours on account of the mishap.
 At the residence of the bride's mother, in this city, on Tuesday evening last, Arthur R. Van Horn and Miss Hannah J. Irvine were united in the holy bonds of wedlock, Rev. N. F. Norton officiating. The wedding was private, being witnessed only by a few of the relatives and invited friends of the contracting parties. The happy couple, with a party of friends, spent Wednesday at the Cave Dwellers'. The Sun acknowledges the receipt of a goodly supply of wedding cake, and wishes Mr. and Mrs. Van Horn a pleasant journey through life.

BOARD OF SUPERVISORS.

At the meeting of the Board of Supervisors on the 11th inst. the usual routine business was transacted.
