

SONS OF TEMPERANCE.

"Love, Purity, and Fidelity."

This Order, which is of American origin, increases with astonishing rapidity. Although not yet three years since the Order was founded, there are at present at least 200 Divisions established throughout the different States, numbering probably, in the aggregate, 15,000 good and true teetotalers. Within the last three weeks two new Divisions have been chartered in the District—POTOMAC Division, of Georgetown, and EQUAL Division, of this city; and from the character of the gentlemen at the head of these Divisions, and the known zeal of the members, no doubt their numbers will rapidly increase. The other Divisions of the District are in a prosperous condition, and are weekly adding members. Harmony Division, of Alexandria, we understand, has doubled the number of its members within the last three months.

The NATIONAL DIVISION will meet in the city of New York next week, when it is expected various improvements will be made for the benefit of the Order.

RUM'S DOINGS.

Drinkers reflect—there is death in the jug.

A gentleman informs us that twenty-five deaths, caused directly by intemperance, have come under his knowledge, within the last year, in this city and neighborhood. Awful indeed!

Two brothers recently entered a tavern in Pittsburg and commenced drinking, until maddened with liquor one of them, who had a considerable amount of money about him, took his brother for a robber, and commenced beating him with a chair, and in all probability would have killed him had not persons interfered.

About the same time two young friends went to a tavern at St. Louis to have a spree, where they became intoxicated; a quarrel ensued; when one of them drew a six-barrelled pistol and discharged the contents of three barrels into the body of his friend, who was supposed to be mortally wounded.

Two brothers, Germans, got drunk in the neighborhood of the railroad between Baltimore and Philadelphia. Night coming on, one laid down on the track of the railroad, and the other close by; the iron horse with the cars came along, and mutilated the body of him who lay on the track in a shocking manner. The other knew nothing of it until morning, when, seeing parts of his brother's clothing scattered about the track of the railroad, on inquiry he learned the fate of his brother, and was shown where his mangled body was taken by the neighbors.

These are a few of the warnings with which our country abounds, to all drinkers of intoxicating liquors.

COMMUNICATIONS.

"Commingle streams from pure tea-total Springs."

For the Washingtonian.

In the number of those Societies which have been organized in this City, for the promotion of the cause of Temperance, is included the "Anacostia Total Abstinence Beneficial Society," which was established July, 1843.

This Society has already been rendered extensively useful. Its object is two-fold, as its name imports. It aims at the suppression of Intemperance, and extends relief to sick and disabled members, by pecuniary aid, and by personal services and attention. By the operations of the Society, a strong bond of union is created, and its members soon learn to feel that they are, in deed and in truth, members of a common brotherhood. In this latter respect, we claim kindred and affinity with thousands of other societies, bearing other and distinct names, but laboring in the same spirit, to promote the virtue and happiness of society.

The Officers of this Society are, JOHN O'NEALE, President; JOSIAH ADAMS, Vice President; JOSEPH WALSH, Secretary; HENRY G. MURRAY, Treasurer—with three Directors and three Stewards. Stated meetings are held monthly, and special meetings as occasion may seem to justify.

May this Society, with all others aiming to promote the same, or similar objects, continue to prosper, until the world is relieved from all the evils of intemperance; and man, redeemed from its thralldom, shall go forth in purity and peace, to the accomplishment of that high destiny to which Reason and Revelation both invite him.

The meetings of the FREEMEN'S VIGILANT T. A. Society, for the last three weeks, have been crowded. The praiseworthy efforts of Judge WILLIAMS, of Iowa, have brought numbers every meeting to the duty which they owed themselves, their families, their country, and their God. About two hundred have signed the pledge since he has been with us.

THE OLD KING EXECUTED.—The jury in the case of the PEOPLE vs. KING ALCOHOL, on last Tuesday evening brought in a verdict of murder in the first degree. Judge SAVAGE immediately passed sentence; which was that the prisoner be burnt. After which the prisoner made a confession, partly acknowledging the justice of the sentence, which was made known to the audience by the Rev. Mr. MATCHETT. The sentence was then carried into execution—the prisoner being represented in a cart of the hard stuff and eighteen bottles of champagne about ten years old. We are promised a copy of the confession for publication next week. This has ended this interesting trial, which has occupied the attention of the community for the last six months. The principal having been disposed of, the court will now go on with the trials of accessories, which, we understand, are numerous.

On this occasion there was one of the largest and most orderly gatherings we have ever had.

GEORGETOWN AROUSED.

On Sabbath evening, 18th May, the United Brothers of Temperance, of this city, by appointment, held a meeting in Parrott's woods, Georgetown. The weather being pleasant, the citizens attended in considerable strength. The meeting was addressed by a volunteer, (Judge WILLIAMS, of Iowa,) who had been attracted to the woods by the procession. Judge W. is a powerful and lively speaker, and done justice to the subject. He portrayed, in vivid colors, the career of the inebriate, and gave ample evidence (by referring to the fate of many prominent men) of the awful consequences which inevitably result from using the liquid draughts of that terrible destroyer of mind and body—Old Alcohol. The Judge's observations on this occasion had a beneficial tendency on his audience, about one hundred of whom signed the pledge.

On the following evening the citizens of Georgetown held a meeting in the Methodist E. Church, for the purpose of reviving their Total Abstinence Society. The house was crowded. This meeting was also addressed by Judge W.; and here also he proved himself a host. He did not spare the brethren of the church, but in a brotherly and christian-like manner admonished professors of the awful consequences which must attach to those who will indulge or traffic in vinous or spirituous liquors.

The society has since reorganized, and is now in successful operation under the following gentlemen as officers:

W. H. EDES, President, WM. LANG, J. LIBBEY, T. BROWN, JENKINS THOMAS, and ALFRED NEWMAN, Vice Presidents; HENRY KING, Recording Secretary; THOMAS A. LAZENBY, Corresponding Secretary; WM. MAGER, Treasurer; ALFRED GRIFFITH, J. T. BANOS, and JAS. A. BURNS, Executive Committee.

The Georgetown teetotalers held a meeting in Parrott's woods on last Sunday, which was well attended. This meeting was addressed by Mr. CAMMACK, who is always ready and willing to take the stand on this interesting subject. Mr. J. E. W. THOMPSON also gave a small part of his experience. 18 signed the pledge. We hope they will hold meetings every Sunday; as audience can always be collected at this delightful place, weather permitting.

WASHINGTON TEMPERANCE BENEFICIAL SOCIETY.

This Society was organized on the 26th of May last, and is composed of a portion of our citizens who may do much good in the cause of Total Abstinence. Most of the members were but recently in the ranks of the old King; and they have banded together with the noble intention of reclaiming their old associates. Their officers are elected quarterly, and their meetings held weekly. The following are the officers for the present quarter:

J. H. MILLA, President; CHARLES C. BEVERIDGE, Vice President; J. D. HENDLEY, Recording Secretary; THOS. C. WILSON, Corresponding Secretary; CHRISTOPHER SPENCE, Treasurer. Success attend their efforts.

PENNSYLVANIA AVENUE.—We perceive that the repairing of Pennsylvania avenue, west of 15th street, is progressing. The paving portion of the street we like very well; but as to the graveling, (if) we are under the impression that a large portion will run off before winter. Whose business is it to superintend the graveling?

SEVENTH STREET.—A bill passed the City Councils recently for paving seventh street west, with round stone, from H street north to Virginia avenue—the expense thereof to be borne by the property holders thereon. The contractors have broke ground on this work.

IMPROVEMENTS.—Our mechanics have promise of plenty of employment during the present season in the number of buildings projected and commenced in the city. We regret to hear, however, of the introduction from a neighboring city, of a system of trade and barter in the necessities of life, by which the working man is compelled in many instances to receive goods in exchange for labor—a system which we cannot but think injurious to all concerned. This, however, is a matter between the employer and the employed; though, in our opinion, equally unprofitable to both.
